☞ Hon. M. Bufford, of this city, very narrowly escaped serious injury on Thursday evening, while returning from Rye Beach.—Just as the open buggy, in which he was riding with a young lady, was descending the small hill in the woods, half a mile before turning into Sagamore Road—the forward axle gave way, at the transom bolt, letting the body down of course, so that the wheels nearly met over it. Mr. Bufford jumped out and took the horse by the bit; but the animal soon became very restive, and sprang about the road, turning completely around, and finally jumped over a stone wall—the Judge all the while clinging to the bridle.

His lady companion, meantime, neither screamed nor fainted, but kept cool, and watching her chance, rolled or jumped out at the back of the carriage, and after gathering up cushion, shawl, whip, remnants of her dress, basket, &c., which were laying around loose—got clear of the wreck; and leaving the team and its former driver, what there was left of them, behind the wall and among the trees—whence the excited beast still made great efforts to jump over the wall again—our heroine volunteered to walk back to the nearest house for assistance.

But Mr. Monroe Holmes coming along, rendered most efficient assistance, and other teams of the picnic party coming up, found the lady referred to with a "short dress," indeed; and all were soon safe at home—horse and riders all considerably bruised and shook up, but happily without serious injury, though for a time in such imminent hazzard.

IN BOARD OF ALDERMEN, on Thursday evening, the Joint Committee on City Lands and Buildings reported a resolution authorizing the purchase of land on Madison street as a site for a school house. It was voted to recommit the report to the committee, to ascertain if a more central location can be procured.

Applications for concrete side walks on Bridge street, from Daer to Hanover street; and of H. F. Wendell and S. G. Hooper for same, were granted, the same not to exceed 70 cents per yard.

☞ The annual Picnic from Richards Avenue to Rye Beach, took place on Thursday. Dinner as usual on the lawn near Philbrick's Hotel—and a "grand good time" of course.

☞ The weather on Friday produced a very heavy sea outside. The steamer Pioneer did not go the whole distance to the Shoals, (although reported as behaving beautifully) as the heavy seas broke some of the cabin windows, and damage was feared from the entrance of water.

POLICE COURT, July 19.—George Edwards, a marine, for being drunk was fined $3 and 3,86 costs.

Dennis Kane, for being drunk, was fined $3 and $3,86 costs. His arctic explorations resulted in no more than a miniature iceburg in a glass of whiskey.

☞ An opportunity to purchase a very desirable dwelling, in a nice neighborhood and in most thorough order, will be offered to-day by Auct. Wendell, who also advertises other sales for this day in the auction column.

☞ A New Orleans dispatch of July 18 says, Officers of the United States steamer Queen and the Heroine, from Tampico, confirm the report of the death of Santa Anna. Gen. Pavon has about 700 men at Tampico, and Gomez and Canales had about 300, and were recruiting.

☞ A dispatch from Leavenworth says a train carrying Bishop Lamey, ten priests and six Sisters of Charity, going to Santa Fe, was captured by the Indians near Fort Learned on Sunday. The men were killed, and the women carried off captives.

☞ It is said that Nicaragua wishes to make a commercial treaty with the U. S., and that the Mexican Liberals with Juarez wish to be annexed to the U. S.

A FUNNY MATRIMONIAL AFFAIR recently occurred near Spirit Lake, Minnesota. A green justice married three couples in one batch, and about weeks afterwards discovered that a license from the clerk of the court was necessary to make the ceremony legal. He lost no time in informing the parties that they were still single, although they had lived together the intervening time. The first couple were willing to risk the consequences; the second consented to be re-married; while the third, having discovered in each other divers and sundry short comings, refused to have the knot re tied—being satisfied with one month of matrimony, and glad to revert to single blessedness.—Ex.

BARRETT'S VEGETABLE HAIR RESTORATIVE.—We speak from experience, having given a practical trial to this renowned Hair Restorative, when we say that anybody in want of a fine head of hair should at once procure a bottle. It will excite the scalp to new and healthy action, cleanse it from scurf and dandruff, prevent the hair from falling off, cure those irksome diseases which often appear on the head, and, in most cases, produce a fine growth of new hair. As a dressing, no better preparation can be obtained for imparting a rich and glossy appearance to the hair. In fact, no other Hair Restorative has ever received or deserved a more universal demand than Barrett's. We cheerfully recommend it to our readers. It is for sale at the stores of all respectable druggists. Try one bottle,—it will demonstrate its merits in a very short time.—Pittsburg Commercial.

Holloway's Pills and Ointment.—Palpitation of the heart is frequently caused by indigestion or relaxed state of the nervous system. A course of a few weeks of these invaluable medicines will diminish the irregular throbbing, and by removing the source, restore its natural pulsation To assist the functions, not to force them, is the true question. Holloway's medicines and treatment are based on the simple laws of nature—by annihilating the cause the effect disappears. Sold by all druggists. jy20daw

THE
UNION PACIFIC RAILROAD CO.
Are now constructing a railroad from
OMAHA, NEBRASKA,
westward towards the Pacific Ocean, making with its connections an unbroken line
ACROSS THE CONTINENT.

The Company now offer a limited amount of their
FIRST MORTGAGE BONDS,
having thirty years to run, and bearing annual interest, payable on the first day of January and July, in the City of New York, at the rate of
SIX PER CENT. IN GOLD,
Ninety Cents on the Dollar.

This road is already completed to Julesburg, 376 miles west of Omaha, Kansas, and is fully equipped, and trains are running regularly over it. The Company has now on hand sufficient iron, ties, etc., to finish the remaining portion to the eastern base of the Rocky Mountains, 141 miles, which is under contract to be done September 1st of this year, and it is expected that the entire road will be in running order from Omaha to its western connection with the Central Pacific, now being rapidly built eastward from Sacramento, Cal., during 1870.

Means of the Company.

Estimating the distance to be built by the Union Pacific to be 1,055 miles, the United States Government issues its Six per cent. Thirty-year bonds to the Company as the road is finished, at the average rate of about $20,236 per mile, amounting to $44,398,000.

The Company is also permitted to issue its own First Mortgage Bonds to an equal amount, and at the same time, which by special Act of Congress are made a First Mortgage on the entire line, the claims of the United States being subordinate to them.

The Government makes a donation of 12,800 acres of land to the mile, amounting to 20,352,000 acres, estimated to be worth $30,000,000, making the total resources, exclusive of the capital, $118,746,000; but the full value of the lands cannot now be realized.

The Authorized Capital Stock of the Company is one hundred million dollars, of which five millions have already been paid in, and of which it is not supposed that more than twenty-five millions at most will be required.

The cost of the road is estimated by competent engineers to be about one hundred million dollars, exclusive of equipments.

Prospects for Business.

The railroad connection between Omaha and the East is now complete, and the earnings of the Union Pacific on the sections already finished for the first two weeks in May were $113,000. The second earnings as the road progresses will much more than pay the interest on the Company's bonds, and the through business over the entire line of railroad between the Atlantic and Pacific must be immense.

Value and Security of the Bonds.

The Company respectfully submit, that the above statement of facts fully demonstrates the security of their Bonds, and as additional proof they would suggest that the Bonds now offered are less than ten million dollars on 517 miles of road, on which over twenty million dollars have already been expended:—on 350 miles of this road the cars are now running, and the remaining 167 miles are nearly completed.

At the present rate of premium on gold, these bonds pay an annual interest on the present cost of Nine Per Cent.

and it is believed that on the completion of the road, like the Government Bonds, they will go above par. The Company intend to sell but a limited amount at the present low rate, and retain the right to advance the price at their option.

Subscriptions will be received in New York by CONTINENTAL NATIONAL BANK, 7 Nassau st., CLARK, DODGE & CO., Bankers, 51 Wall street, JOHN J. NOT NIAGARA.

What is the good of it?
Why is it there?
Like a big pumpkin
All covered with hair;
Where is the grace,
Or the beauty at all,
In the appendage
Mis-named waterfall?

It don't look a bit like Niagara grand,
Or even the Rideau Falls
Of our own land.
What is the use of it?
Why do they call
So ugly a swelling
A waterfall?

It seems like a weight
Placed by folly behind
To balance a head
Filled with—but never mind.
What is inside of it,
Why is it there,
Deforming what Nature
Made matchless and fair?

Where are the braids
And the graceful curls gone,
Which once in their beauty
Round loveliness shone?
Who was the cynic—
The dealer in gall,
Whose malice invented
The first waterfall?

Fashions are oft made
To cover deformities,
And this is but one of
The modish enormities Picked up by those Who need nothing extrinsic
To add to what nature
Made beauty intrinsic.

The long, trailing skirt,
Through mud and dust sweeping,
Invented was first
To keep people from peeping
At ankles and feet
Good enough for volition,
Yet never intended
For much exhibition.

One head's enough
For a husband or lover;
Two heads are much
More expensive to cover.
Nature knew best,
The grand dame of us all,
Her hand never tinkered
A dry waterfall.

I've gazed on it sadly,
Grieved o'er it I sigh,
'Till the cataract gives me
A pain in the eye.
My wits I have puzzled,
But cannot recall
One charm to be found
In the dread waterfall.

As knots on the trunk
Of a beautiful tree
Are proofs of disease,
So this nuisance must be
An evidence strong,
If pathology's true,
That something is wrong
(Its fair wearer) with you.

Could you but see yourself,
And hear half that is said
Of that frightful excrescence
That doubles your head,
You'd never again,
In spring, summer or fall,
Be seen on the street
With a big waterfall.

The "bustle" is now
But a dream of the past;
It fell from its altar,
A victim to taste.
The waterfall, too,
Will soon rank with the dead,
And no more deform
A beautiful head.

Just fancy how Adam
Had opened his eyes,
If Eve, when she gave him
His sudden surprise,
Had made her advance
To the Sire of mankind,
With her hair sticking out
Like a pumpkin behind.

The Chronicle.

QUEEN VICTORIA.—On the death of the Prince Consort, Queen Victoria had Buckingham Palace dismantled, and so it remains, except the private rooms. The Queen will not drive through the royal gateway of the palace, nor has she since her husband died. She will not ride through the royal entrance to the House of Lords, but goes in through the Peers' entrance. She will not wear the royal robes, and when she opens Parliament in person, the robes are thrown over the back of the throne, which is a gilded chair surmounted with a gilt crown, and sits on them. She comes into London when duty calls, seldom passes a night in her capital, and has passed less than a dozen in four years. She remains at Windsor or Osborne. She has no company but what her official position imposes on her. The state apartments at Windsor are all dismantled and unused—the massive plate is not used—a plain silver service is put on the table—a small, quiet pony and a low wheeled carriage the Queen uses for her private rides at Windsor, and she seldom, unless duty calls her to London, goes beyond the private park of the castle. The one hundred fine horses that fill the Windsor mews are seldom used, and the eight creams for state occasions are not driven twice a year.

The room in which the Prince Consort breathed his last is kept with scrupulous care just as the Prince left it. The Ladies say that each night the dressing gown and slippers are in their accustomed place.

Refusing to play the Queen, her majesty has never forgotten to play the woman.—Her visits to Balmoral and Osborne are benedictions to the poor. All through the Highlands she is regarded as an angel of mercy.

Her favorite room at Windsor overlooks the tomb at Frogmore where Prince Albert lies. He was a benefactor to the poor, and the work he began she seems resolved to finish.

The night he died, the Queen called in a young widow, who was in her household, to sit with her; and when all was over, she said: "No one now lives that can call me Victoria."

☞ The Augusta (Ga.) Chronicle says "the rebel party have heretofore carried their point frequently by calling their opponents 'Abolitionists,' and other obnoxious names; but we can inform them that they now have opponents who are not to be frightened in this way. There is a Union Republican Club in this city, and four hundred white and sixteen hundred colored voters of this city are in sympathy with this club—enough to rule the city, and they will do it. They are not to be frightened, and if our rebel friends think they are, they can try."

— A negro soldier, a private of one of West India regiments, which are composed entirely of blacks, officered by whites, has received the "Victoria Cross" for bravery in the field. This is the first instance in which such a distinction has been conferred on a colored soldier in the British service.

— At the recent quarter centennial of Williston Seminary, President Stearns stated that he had examined the famous English schools of Rugby and Eaton quite recently, and was satisfied of their great inferiority to our own preparatory classical schools.

— A few members of the New York Pastors' Conference have resolved that the sermons of Henry Ward Beecher, as published weekly in the organ of the Baptists, are regarded by them as unsound and dangerous, and such publication meets their strongest reprobation.

— A swimming school kept in Philadelphia is described as a large hall and a vast bath tub. One young girl is said to have learned in six lessons enough of the art to be able to swim around the reservoir unaided. There are various simple gymnastic contrivances, which are employed in order to bring about the reaction that is so important after bathing.

— A gipsy woman promised to show two young ladies their husband's face in a pail of water. They looked and exclaimed.—"Why, we only see our own faces." "Well," said the gipsy, "these faces will be your husbands' when you are married."

— The first time Jerrold saw a celebrated song writer, the latter said to him; "Youngster, have you sufficient confidence in me to lend me a guinea?" "Oh, yes," said Jerrold' "I have all the confidence, but haven't the guinea."

— A widower stepped into a store in a Western city where none but mourning goods were sold and inquired for slate colored gloves. The over-nice clerk informed him that only black goods were sold in that room; for slate-colored gloves he must step into the "mitigated affliction department."

— A young couple had laid a plan lately to outwit the vigilance of a cruel parent and elope. The sequel is thus told: The youth stood before the window; the young lady attempted to climb out, when oh! horror, some one detained her from the rear! "Why dost thou not come, gentle Amelia?" She replied in an agitated voice, "I can't, Bill; man's got holt on my tilters!"

SOMETHING NEW!
SELEE'S HAIR LIFE
Has been thoroughly tested by thousands during the past year, and is declared superior to all other preparations for the hair. It has no equal for Restoring Gray Hair to its original color in from TEN TO THIRTY DAYS.
It is a most splendid Hair Dressing, surpassing all others for making dry and brashy hair soft, glossy and beautiful, as in youth.
This Magical Preparation invariably stops the falling of the hair, and always promotes a lively, luxuriant growth.
Its use will at once free the head from Dandruff, Scurf and all Humors, especially Salt Rheum.
It KILLS HAIR EATERS, which are so fatal to the roots of the hair. It contains no nitrate of silver, which is found in most other Hair preparations, and is so injurious.
THE HAIR LIFE IS NOT A DYE, but operates on the roots, restoring them to their natural, healthy state.
It is the nicest, neatest, and most effectual thing in the market.
It never stains, and is perfectly harmless.

MONDAY, JULY 22, 1867.

CONDITION OF THE JAFFA COLONISTS. Mr. Johnson, U. S. Consul at Beirut, Syria, having made an investigation of the affairs of the Jaffa colony, makes a fuller report of its condition than has heretofore been given. Forty-seven families are mentioned, with a statement of the pecuniary and sanitary condition, employment, necessities and disposition toward the colony, of each.—Eighteen are utterly destitute and will require assistance to enable them to return home. Nine others expect to receive enough from Adams, the autocrat of the little band, to pay their fare. Mr. Johnson adjudged him indebted to them, and as he has neglected to disburse, Charles Hale, U. S. Consul General at Alexandria, the same gentleman who secured the arrest of Surratt, has gone to Jaffa to bring him to terms. Eight of the disaffected have already returned. Twenty express their desire to stay, though several of them are sick, and in need of pecuniary assistance. Fourteen in all are suffering from illness. Only a small number find anything to do, and labor is poorly compensated.

MEXICO.—President Juarez arrived at the Capital on the 14th inst. and was cordially received. He declines a re-election to the Presidency, and orders a new election to be held. He will retire to his hacienda in the mountains as soon as his successor is chosen.

It is officially reported that Gen. Vidauri had been shot. Gen. Marquez is believed to be hiding in the City of Mexico. He will be shot as soon as captured.

It was reported in Vera Cruz on the 14th inst. that Santa Anna was still alive, but later dates received in New Orleans from Tampico, state that he has been shot. Everything quiet in Vera Cruz and the city healthy. The Austrian sloop-of-war Elizabeth was receiving refugees on board. She held no communication with Mexican officials, except through the U. S. gunboat Tacony and Consul Soulivier.

The Mexican Government is about to publish an address to the world, to justify themselves for the execution of Maximilian. It will treat of the killing of 6300 Mexicans for defending their native soil, and cites precedents which they think will clearly prove their acts within the bounds of propriety. They will produce documents which will throw new light upon what they have done. Some of the noblest men in the Republic are engaged in the work.

GREAT FIRE IN CONCORD.—On Friday evening a great fire destroyed property belonging to the Northern Railroad to the amount of $250,000. The fire was discovered in a woodshed near the round house, which contained nine or ten engines, only two of which were removed, the flames spreading with such rapidity that it was impossible to move them. The flames communicated to the adjoining machine shop, about two-fifths of which was consumed.—At this point it was checked by a brick and iron wall. On the other side it swept through the long woodsheds and communicated to the new bridge across the railroad track, and to another woodshed filled with wood, all of which were totally consumed.

The insurance on the property was about $125,000, in ten companies. Telegraphic communication to the north was interrupted by the destruction of the wires on four lines.

☞ The President's veto message reads something like the special plea of a shrewd lawyer who has the wrong side of a bad case, and is worthy to be laid up as a curiosity for future times, in company with Judge Taney's famous dicta in the Dred Scott case, which turned out to be neither law nor gospel. The message closes with an appeal worthy of a demagogue.

AN ODD REQUEST.—On Friday night, July 19, in the British House of Lords, a request was made on the part of the Government that the House would refrain, for the present, from any expression of opinion, by resolution or otherwise, in regard to the execution of Maximilian by the Mexicans.

☞ It is reported from the Danish Island of Santo Thomas, that Senator Doolittle has gone to Copenhagen to negotiate with the Danish Government for the purchase of Santo Thomas. It will be remembered that some time ago it was stated that he had been sent, as a special envoy, to Russia, in matters connected with the sale of Russian-America.

☞ A California paper has good authority for saying that General Rosecrans will not, on any consideration, accept the nomination for governor of that State by the democrats, but that if he could be induced to run for office at all, it would be on the Union ticket.

☞ John Clark, of Baltimore, it is said, left an estate of $780,000; and gives "the larger share" [how much is that?] of his estate to St. John's Methodist Church in that city.

NEW HAMPSHIRE ITEMS.

—— The falls at Berlin—not in Prussia, but in our county of Coos—constitute one of the most attractive spectacles in the mountain region.

—— Parker Cushman, of Littleton, aged 95, recently walked from the north part of the town to the village—7 miles—and was not apparently wearied by the effort. In pleasant weather he works upon the farm; rainy and stormy days makes baskets.

—— The Concord Statesman says, that modest corporation, the Boston and Maine R. R., is said to have had the impudence to ask the Concord R. R. to deadhead a couple of hundred lobbyists to that city, to pick out the eyes of the aforesaid Concord Road. And, what is more surprising, the latter complied with the request!

—— The dwelling house, barn and outbuildings of Amos Mann, in Rumney, were burnt Wednesday afternoon. The fire originated in burning brushwood near by; a strong breeze blowing. The flames spread so rapidly that no furniture could be removed, and everything was lost, not a building remaining on the premises. Insurance $700.

—— People of this State who don't take the papers are sadly humbugged by the "Spoon Man." He is traveling about, and for a "consideration" undertakes to replate spoons. His process is to brighten them with a wash or powder, and then to cover them with clay, to set the polish; and requests the happy house-keeper not to remove it until twenty four hours elapse. At the end of that period the clay is removed, but the polish has disappeared, and with the polish the polisher.

THE ROMANCE OF CRIME.—The following particulars regarding the robbery of Navy Paymaster Belknap in the Brooklyn Navy Yard, and of the capture and identity of the persons arrested, are narrated by the Washington correspondent of the New York Tribune:

The robbery occurred four years ago, and amounted to $130,000 of money belonging to the Government. As no explanation could be given by Mr. Belknap, and the circumstantial evidence was against him, his dismissal from the navy was recommended by Marshall Murray, and he was dropped from the rolls. Since his dismissal, with the aid of friends and detectives, he has labored untiringly to erase the odium from his name by the arrest and conviction of the guilty persons. The robbers having evaded pursuit for four years, have at last been secured, and are now in charge of Marshall Murray and Colonel Wood, Chief of the Treasury Detectives, and will soon be taken to New York.

The persons arrested are the most successful and dangerous thieves and burglars living, having all of them been raised and educated to the profession in England.—The following are their names: Phil. Stanley, alias "Four fingered Jack," "Young Jack Adams," "Jack Wright," &c.; William Walton, alias "Brummy," "Bob Smith," "Bill Smith," &c.; Joseph Bufford, alias "Peppermint Joe," &c., and Jack Wright. Stanley, the master spirit of the robbery, was a protege of old Jack Adams, of England, and was sometime since pardoned out of the Penitentiary, to which he had been sentenced 10 1-2 years for opening and robbing fifteen of Herring's safes. He is very wealthy, as indeed are all the persons, and did a prominent brokerage business for some time in Wall Street, under the name of De Witt C. Wright.

The day after the Brooklyn robbery, this man having every appearence of a gentlemen, accosted Marshal Murray on Pine street, and began conversing about the robbery. He stated that Belknap was a gambler, that he knew him well, and that he (Belknap) had lost the money in a Broadway hell. As he was passing along he remarked to the Marshal that he was in a hurry then, but that he would during the day call at his office, and show the Marshal the place in which Belknap had lost his money on the night before. He then passed along the street, and Mr. Murray has not seen him since until the day he arrested him in South Carolina.

Other persons, probably connected with the robbers, reported the same story regarding Belknap's gambling, not only to the detectives but also to the Navy Department here, which was the reason of his dismissal. Stanley is a man of the most faultless appearance, and moved in the best society. He was heavily engaged in cotton speculations in the South, and became very rich. William Walton, is regarded as the most successful screwsman in the world. There are few locks he cannot fit, having been at the business from childhood. Joseph Buford is a very expert thief, and an old offender. Jack Wright, whose aliases your correspondent has been unable to obtain, is the most daring burglar in the country, and in expertness is not surpassed by even Dan Noble.

The detectives have yet some hopes of ascertaining the whereabouts of the stolen money, unless its identity has been lost during the long period since the robbery.

☞ Dennis McCarthy has got into jail at Northampton, Mass., for 15 months, because he forcibly resisted a U. S. Marshal who arrested him for selling liquor without a U. S. license. McC. and his friends, on the 2d of May, resisted with clubs and brickbats, and he got to the woods. On the 3d of June they had another fight, which was closed by Marshal Richardson's knocking the prisoner senseless with his billy, and putting him in irons.

☞ Last Friday, at Richmond, Va., Gen. Schofield issued an order releasing from prison Mrs. Kirby Smith, who killed her husband. She has been released on condition that she appear for trial before the court in October.

CONGRESS did a great amount of important business on Friday, July 19. The Senate passed a joint resolution expressive of sympathy with the suffering people of Crete, and directing the President to communicate a copy of the resolution to the Government of Turkey.

The House amendment to the Senate bill to further secure equal rights in the District of Columbia, was concurred in with an amendment authorizing the Criminal Court to draw grand and petit jurors for the June term of that court.

The President's Veto Message on the Supplementary Reconstruction bill was read, and, without debate, passed over the veto, 30 to 6.

The Reconstruction Appropriation bill, $1,000,000, was then passed over the veto —32 to 4.

The House bill repealing the existing law which prohibits the President or Secretary of the Interior from concluding treaties with Indians, was passed.

Mr. Sumner moved to adjourn from Saturday to the 2d Wednesday in October, which was negatived, and the Senate, 22 to 15, agreed to adjourn to December.—[The House had previously agreed to adjourn to November, but have since concurred with the Senate.]

In the HOUSE a resolution passed, calling on the President to bring out of the White House cellar a monumental stone sent from Italy in memory of President Lincoln, that it may be set up in the Capitol.

The House passed a preamble and resolution to the effect that it is rumored and believed that fraud and peculation are taking place in the Paymaster General's Office, and authorizing the appointment of a select committee to investigate the workings of the office, with power to send for persons and papers.

The President's veto of the Supplementary Reconstruction bill was received, read and passed (by two-thirds and more) after debate on impeachment.

The House concurred in the Senate amendment to the bill for the further security of equal rights in the District of Columbia.

The Senate resolution of sympathy with the people of Crete was agreed to.

Mr. Boutwell, on a suspension of the rules, introduced a joint resolution concerning the government of the army of the United States.

The joint resolution provides that no District or Department Commander shall be relieved by the President from the command heretofore assigned to and now exercised by him, without the advice and consent of the Senate, unless the change of commander be recommended by the general commanding the army.

The joint resolution was read a third time and passed.

The Speaker presented the veto message from the President on the bill making appropriations to carry into effect the Reconstruction acts.

The bill was passed over the President's veto by a vote of 100 yeas to 22 nays.

COMMITTEE ON THE TREATMENT OF UNION PRISONERS.—The circular issued by the Congressional Committee requests all persons having important information to address the Committee, stating:

First. The name, age and post office address of the writer.

Second. If a soldier or seaman, his rank or position, and with what command he served.

Third. A full statement of all facts known to the writer touching his own imprisonment or treatment, and that of others, either soldier or citizen, giving, as far as possible, names, places and dates, with names of confederate officers in charge.

It will be remembered that correspondents from the New England States will address Aaron F. Stevens, M. C., Nashua, N. H.

☞ The Mexican filibusters have met a check in the resolution the House adopted, requesting the President to issue a proclamation prohibiting such unlawful expeditions.

A resolution declaring the sympathy of the people of the United States with the Cretan patriots, and directing the Committee on Foreign Affairs to report what action should be taken, was unanimously passed by the House.

GARIBALDI announces to a great meeting at Pistoria that the time has come for liberating Rome from Papal tyranny and restoring to the city her ancient freedom.

A report reached London Friday night from Florence, that a fight had occurred between a party of Garibaldians and the Italian troops near Vicenza.

RADICALISM becomes a virtue when directed against our own evil habits, so does the radical deterrive qualities of Fyle's O K Soap prove a blessing to those who employ it for the cleansing of the body, clothing and abode. No family should be without it. All first class grocers sell it. 11

☞ SPEER'S Sambuci Wine ranks above all other Wines for medical purposes; it is a diuretic alterative and tonic. For weakly persons and the consumptive it has no equal. Sold by Druggists;

Bread, Biscuit, Cakes and Puddings, going through the process of baking, change all the substances of Herrick Allen's Gold Medal Saleratus into carbonic acid gas, which then passes away, so that there is not a particle of it remaining in the food in which it is used, thereby making it perfectly wholesome and healthy, and peculiarly adapted to weak stomachs and dyspeptic persons. Grocers and Druggists sell it. 38

THE PITTSFIELD EMBEZZLER.—Young Goodrich, who embezzled the funds of the Berkshire County Savings Bank at Pittsfield, was married a year ago last January to Miss Van Valkenburg of Chatham, N. Y., and a few days after his marriage deserted his wife, and has since engaged himself to two other young ladies of good family. His wife is a graduate of the Maplewood Institute at Pittsfield and is a highly accomplished and beautiful woman. Much less sympathy is expressed for the culprit by his acquaintances since the facts have become public. The officers of the bank are still engaged in a careful examination of their books, and find that his peculations commenced nearly a year and a half ago.—Springfield Republican.

— The plaintiff in a case at St. Josebh is a black man, who alleges that his late master died, leaving a will, by which plaintiff was made free, and by which provisions were made for his education, and considerable property bequeathed to him; that defendant kidnapped him and sold him as a slave at the South, where he was doomed to servitude for nearly fourteen years. He alleges that he is damaged in the sum of one hundred thousand dollars, and asks judgment accordingly.

DR. SCHENCK, THE LUNG DOCTOR, ☞ Is the Proprietor of SCHENCK'S PULMONIC SYRUP, the inventor of SCHENK'S RESPIROMETER, the only instrument that can to a certainty detect the slightest murmur of the respiratory organs.

This is of great importance to Dr. SCHENCK, to know the exact condition of the lungs, whether it is Tuberculous, Pulmonary, Bronchial, Pleuritic, or Dyspeptic Consuption, and whether it is both lungs or only one that are diseased.

It requires constant and long practice to become familiar with every sound or rattling of a diseased bronchial tube. Patients come to Dr. SCHENCK to get examined that have been examined by their family physician, who told them that their lungs were almost gone; when by a close examination with the Respirometer he is often found that it is an affection of the bronchial tube; and by getting a healthy action of the liver and tone of the stomach, the sufferer is soon restored to health. Sometimes medicine that will stop a cough is certain death to the patient. It locks up the liver, and the circulation of the blood—hemorrhage follows, and, in fact, stopping the action of the very organs that cause the cough.

Dr. Schenck will be professionally at his rooms every week, 33 Bond street, New York, and 35 Hanover street, Boston (from 9 A. M. until 3 P. M.). He gives advice free, but for a thorough examination with the Respirometer the charge is $5. His medicines are for sale by all druggists and dealers, who keep a good supply at all times at his rooms. Price of the Pulmonic Syrup and Seaweed Tonic, each $1 50 per bottle, or $7.50 the half dozen; Mandrake Pills 25 cents a box.

IMPORTANT FOR INVALIDS.—The weakness of the stomach, and its faintly performing its offices is only occasioned by the debility of the stomach nerves, and their nervous irritation, leaving plastered up with phlegm, gross and acid dregs, indigestible meals, offensive drinks, or other matters which remaining to long assume a corroding quality.

BRANDRETH'S PILLS cleanse the stomach and bowels of all unhealthy accumulations, and purify and invigorate the blood, and should be used by those who, having lost, are in pursuit of health.

The Hon. Demas Barnes says—"I sell more of Brandreth's Pills than of all others put together."

BRANDRETH'S PILLS are Sold by all Druggists, and at the Principal Office, Brandreth House, New York. Observe B. BRANDRETH in white letters on the government stamp on each box. je28dawlmespn

UNDER WHICH KING, OR NAME? A correspondent, several weeks since, in writing of the Isles of Shoals, (absurdly so called, we think,) objects to the name of Smith's Isles, and defends the present title, on the ground that Champlain, if not other early voyagers, may or might and probably did visit these sea girt isles, and therefore Smith's claim to their discovery and christening does not hold.

But as it is history, as well as romance, that Sir John Smith did land there, and did name the singular group after himself —and as this name signifies something, while the other signifies nothing true,—for there are not sunken islands, nor is the water shoal there—and as the opponents of the restoration of the old name have nothing but guess work to base their title on; therefore, in the name of the three Turks who lost their heads, and of the monument recording that event—and on behalf of the truth of history and the remembrance of chivalry, we insist on the name given by their discoverer, of Sir John Smith's Isles. And, as in duty bound, thus shall we ever pray.

GIFTS AND LEGACIES TO HARVARD COLLEGE.—At the close of the Commencement dinner, President Hill made the gratifying announcement that the gifts and legacies bestowed upon Harvard College during the past year for objects connected with that institution, amounted to nearly half a million dollars.

— At Edinburg, Wm. Lloyd Garrison has arrived and has been welcomed with signal honors. The municipality of Edinburgh have received him as a public guest and have presented him with the freedom of the city.

— Rev. Olympia Brown has received the degree of A. M., from Antioch College.—So says a floating item. A. M. in college abbreviations, usually means Artius Magister, i. e., Master of Arts. In this case, however, as the recipient of the degree is a woman, it may be Mistress of Arts: and then, as we believe she is not married, her proper address would be, Rev. Miss Olympia Brown, Mistress of Arts.

— Mr. S. S. Cox has left Washington, not having made much headway with his attempt to get the Democracy to nominate General Grant for the Presidency in advance. He thinks they will take up G. H. Pendleton, but, as he says the Democratic party has been virtually defunct for four years, there is not the remotest chance for them with any one.

— The Boston Advertiser asks, if a Canadian goes barefoot when he has snow shoes? Of course not, because he has an ice pair.

— A Mr. John H. Evans publishes a card in the Atlanta (Georgia) Era, denouncing the emigration movement to Brazil in very decided terms.

— The Young Men's Christian Association of Chicago are to have a fifty or sixty thousand dollar Organ—musical or church organ we mean.

— The latest report concerning Rev. Mr. Merrill is, that he has been insane but is now in his right mind in the care of friends, and that he is "more sinned against than sinning." [Rev. Mr. Merrill—and some of his friends also—seem to be humbugs, or something worse.]

— On the 2d inst. a fire broke out in the woods in Truro, Mass., near the house of Samuel Snow, and burned in a northeasterly direction nearly to the house of Isaiah Atkins, and to the eastward until it reached the beach. It also extended to the Wellfleet woods, near Joseph Swett's. About 2500 acres were burnt over, valued at $20,000.

— The Wheeler & Wilson Sewing Machine Co., have detected an organized system of thieving among their employes, who have made a business of abstracting and selling machines. The company estimate their loss at $75,000 during the last five years.

— A little daughter of Mr. Bennett, Treasurer of the New York and New Haven Railroad, whose family is spending the summer at Bacon Hill, Saratoga county, was killed, and a son badly injured, a day or two since, by a span of runaway horses. The girl was about ten years of age.

Holloway's Pills and Ointment.—Palpitation of the heart is frequently caused by indigestion or relaxed state of the nervous system. A course of a few weeks of these invaluable medicines will diminish the irregular throbbing, and by removing the source, restore its natural pulsation. To assist the functions, not to force them, is the true secret of success. Holloway's medicines and treatment are based on the simple laws of nature—by amalgamating the cause the effect disappears. Sold by all druggists. Jy2daw

UNION PACIFIC RAILROAD CO.
Are now constructing a railroad from
OMAHA, NEBRASKA,
westward towards the Pacific Ocean, making with its connections an unbroken line
ACROSS THE CONTINENT.

The Company now offer a limited amount of their
FIRST MORTGAGE BONDS,
having thirty years to run, and bearing annual interest, payable on the first day of January and July, in the City of New York, at the rate of
SIX PER CENT. IN GOLD,
Ninety Cents on the Dollar.

This road is already completed to Julesburg, 376 miles west of Omaha, Kansas, and is fully equipped, and trains are running regularly over it. The Company has now on hand sufficient iron, ties, etc., to finish the remaining portion to the eastern base of the Rocky Mountains, 141 miles, which is under contract to be done September 1st of this year, and it is expected that the entire road will be in running order from Omaha to the western connection with the Central Pacific, now being rapidly built eastward from Sacramento, Cal., during 1870.

Means of the Company.

Estimating the distance to be built by the Union Pacific at 1565 miles, the Government issues its Six per cent. Thirty-year bonds to the Company as the road is finished, at the average rate of $16,236 per mile, amounting to $25,398,000.

The Company is also permitted to issue its own First Mortgage Bonds to an equal amount, and at the same time, which by special Act of Congress are made a First Mortgage on the entire line, the bonds of the United States being subordinate to them.

The Government makes a donation of 12,800 acres of land to the mile, amounting to 20,032,000 acres, estimated to be worth $30,000,000, making the total resources, exclusive of the capital, $81,8,430,000; but the full value of the lands cannot now be realized.

The Authorized Capital Stock of the Company is one hundred million dollars, of which five millions have been issued to equal bonds, and of which it is not supposed that more than twenty-five millions at most will be required.

The cost of the road is estimated by competent engineers to be about one hundred million dollars, exclusive of equipments.

Prospects for Business.

The railroad connection between Omaha and the East is now complete, and the earnings of the Union Pacific on the sections already finished for the first two weeks in May were $116,000. These sectional earnings as the road progresses will much more than pay the interest on the Company's bonds, and the through business over the only line from the Atlantic to the Pacific must be immense.

Value and Security of the Bonds.

The Company respectfully submit, that the above statement of facts fully demonstrates the security of their Bonds, and the additional proof they would suggest that the Bonds now offered are less than ten million dollars on 517 miles of road, on which over sixty million dollars have already been expended:—on 359 miles of this road the cars are now running, and the remaining 187 miles are nearly completed.

At the present rate of premium on gold, these bonds pay an annual interest on the present cost of the road of
and it is believed that on the completion of the road, like the Government Bonds, they will go above par. The Company reserve to sell but a limited amount at the present low rate, and retain the right to advance the price at their option.

Subscriptions will be received in New York by CONTINENTAL NATIONAL BANK, 7 Nassau st., CLARK, DODGE & CO., Bankers, 51 Wall street, JOHN J. CISCO & SON, Bankers, 33 Wall street, and by BANKS AND BANKERS generally throughout the United States, of whom maps and descriptive pamphlets may be obtained.—They will also be sent by mail from the Company's Office, No. 20 Nassau street, New York, on application. Subscribers will select their own Agents in whom they have confidence, who alone will be responsible to us for the safe delivery of the Bonds.

A Column From the Portsmouth Journal.

A NEW ENTERPRISE.

We learn that two of our most enterprising business men are making preparations to establish an extensive manufactory in this city, for supplying the trade with a fine quality of boots and shoes for men's and boys' wear. The manufactory is to be conducted by an experienced man from Massachusetts, and will be located in the building corner of State and Washington streets, long occupied by Mr. Harrat as a grocery. This is a step in the right direction, and will lead, if followed up, to the highway of prosperity. If our enterprising men would turn their attention to the encouragement of manufactures in Portsmouth, and thus invite the immigration of a very desirable class of people hither, we might look for an early day when the general business of the city would be very brisk, and our commerce what it was in former times. Our citizens should remember that a good word for our city is as easily said as a bad one, and will do much more for our welfare and standing.

NOVEL ROTATION.—We last week announced that Rev. Dr. Burroughs of this city, had been appointed by the Governor and Council a Trustee of the N. H. House of Reformation. There was sufficient ground for the announcement, the Dr. received official information from the Secretary of State, and returned to the Department his acceptance and oath of office. As this office has been held by Hon. Horton D. Walker of this city President of the Board, from the commencement of the institution, his friends were surprised that his place should have been, without any formalities, transferred to another—when it was well known that two years ago Mr. Walker tendered his resignation, which would not be accepted.

In filing the oath of Dr. B. in the State department, it was found that no record was made of his election to that office by the Executive! A little further examination showed that the Dr. had been re-elected a Trustee of the Insane Asylum—an office which he has well filled for many years.

The Secretary corrected the matter by requesting the Dr. to return his commission, and take a new one in exchange,—again taking the oath of office, as well as that of allegiance.

Whether the Dr. is yet to hear that the office is that of Chaplain to the State Prison, remains yet to be seen.

PATRIARCHAL.—Hampton is a healthy as well as a beautiful village. Evidence of the health of its inhabitants is plainly exhibited in one neighborhood, where four brothers and two sisters reside, the youngest of whom was 64 years old last week. Their names and ages are as follows: Jonathan Peckins age is 78, Moses 77, Benjamin 74, Abigail 72, Mary 69, James 64. They all live within a mile, and enjoy good health. Making no use of rum or tobacco, they are likely to keep up the family circle for many years to come.

ROOM PAPERS.—Mr. Tripp advertises a new stock well worthy the attention of purchassers. He can also show you how well he makes it look on the walls.

Mrs. Partington is at present resuscitating at Newington. She makes frequent discursions to Portsmouth, and her health appears to be very inevitable.

EDITORIAL PROFESSION HONORED.—At the recent commencement at Amherst College, the honorary degree of A. M. was conferred upon John Thornton Wood, editor of the Philadelphia North American. Mr. W. is son of Rev. Henry Wood, chaplain in the Navy.

THE MORMONS.—It was sometime ago stated that a large portion of the Mormon settlement in Utah had left. It now appears that the disaffection has become one of serious threat of Brigham Young's principal Elders having in a public sermon, or harangue, been denounced by Young, as traitors in the cause, in the most offensive language. On the other hand, it is said a very large number of Mormon missionaries have been appointed, and are on their way to embark for foreign countries. That Mormonism should get for a while hold on in this enlightened country and age, is no more wonderful than that Miller, or Second Adventists, should continue to make new discoveries in prophecy, as excuses for the steady operation of laws giving us variety of seasons, with seed time and harvest.

We find that the yeas and nays were taken in the N. H. Senate on the question of receding from their amendments to the House resolution in relation to the pay of the members of the Legislature and mileage. The vote was as follows:—

YEAS.—Sanborn, Vaughan, Hayes, Read, Barton, Blair, Smith, 7.

NAYS.—Stevens, Robinson, Parker, Nute, Marshall, 5.

So the Senate receded from their amendments, which if sustained would have made the compensation the same as that of last year.

MEETING OF THE BROWN FAMILY.—About one hundred representatives of the Brown Family met in Boston Hotel on Harrison avenue, on Wednesday, for the purpose of raising money in order to find the rightful heir to an immense property left in England over a century ago. The meeting was presided over by Dr. Ira L. Moore, of Boston, President of the Association; Edmund M. Brown, of Portsmouth, Secretary. It was stated that the property, which when left was some $7,000,000, now amounted, by careful estimate, to $250,000,000,000, and the interest on this at 6 per cent. would amount to $14,700,000 annually. The Association now have an agent in England working for their interest. Efforts in similar directions have utterly failed, but those of the Browns may prove an exception. What a clever thing it would be to have only one year's interest in Portsmouth.

Dr. Fletcher of Concord, acting under the direction of the New Hampshire Fish Commissioners, deposited several thousand shad spawn in Lake Winnipiseogee last week. He also put some in a hatching box, which was placed in the Merrimack river.

Charles C. Harris has been introduced to the President as Minister Plenipotentiary of his Majesty, King of the Hawaiian Islands.

Maximilian, in his will, left to the families of the unfortunate Miramon and Mejia, executed with him, one hundred thousand dollars each.

Miss Hetty H. Robinson, daughter of the late Edward Mott Robinson, and one of the wealthiest heiresses in the country, was married on Thursday at the residence of Hon. Henry Grinnell, New York city, to Mr. Edward H. Green, of the house of Russell & Stagis of New York.

We are under obligations to the Concord Daily Monitor for a copy of that paper during the session with the legislative proceedings. The Monitor is a capital daily, and ought to have a wide circulation.

SPEER'S SAMBUCI WINE.
Prescribed by Physicians for FEMALES, WEAKLY PERSONS AND INVALIDS.

As a Tonic, it has no equal, creating an appetite and building up the system of the most debilitated. As a Blood Purifier, it imparts a healthy action to the Glands, Kidneys and Urinary passages; very beneficial in Dropsy, Gout and Rheumatic Affections. As a Blood Purifier it is superior to any one of the best alteratives known in the medical pharmacopœia.
The qualities of SAMBUCI are "medium in power," being at once a Tonic, Diuretic, Alterative, Diaphoretic and Soporific.
N. B.—Vinum bonum bonum sanguinem facit.
SPEER'S SAMBUCI is a pure juice wine with a fine flavor, rich body and pleasant taste. It is peculiarly adapted for weak and debilitated persons, the aged and infirm, and delicate ladies and children.
Be sure the signature of ALFRED SPEER, Passaic, N. J., is over the cork of the bottle.

SPARE THAT DOG.

A PARODY.

Policeman, spare that dog!
Touch not a single hair;
He worries many a hog
From out his muddy lair.
Oh, when he was a pup,
So frisky and so plump,
He lapped his milk from a cup,
When hungry, at a jump;
And then his funny tricks,
So funny in their place,
So full of canine licks
Upon your hands and face!
You will surely let him live!
Oh, do not kill him dead;
He wags his narrative,
And prays for life—not lead.
Go get the muzzle now,
And put upon his mouth,
And stop that bow-wow-wow
And tendency to drouth.
He is our children's pet,
Companion of their joy;
You will not kill him yet,
And thus their hopes destroy.
No, policeman spare that pup,
Touch not a single hair;
Oh, put your pistol up,
And go away from there.

WHAT IS A STOCK POOL?—Before a pool is formed, and when stocks are low and dull, some firm will often buy 10,000 shares of stock. When it has risen 10 or 15 per cent. they propose to some of their customers to form a pool of 10,000 shares at the market price. The stock previously bought is put into the pool at 65—in other words, the firm who conduct the pool have sold their 10,000 shares of stock to the pool at a profit of 15 per cent., calculating that, in the course of the fluctuations of the market, they can replace it at a lower figure. When, under the manipulations of the operators, the stock has risen to 80, another pool is formed, to which the firm again generously sell the stock which they own. Now the pear is ripe, and it is time to look for a crash. The market breaks, and the credulous find themselves bankrupt. It does not signify that they have been caught in the same trap before. The temptation is too strong to resist, and the hope of success lures them to fresh disasters.

☞ The way in which England punishes treason is illustrated by a thousand events in her history. The axe and the gallows always taken what the sword has spared. The sympathy which she manifested for the South, and the encouragement which she gave the rebellion, was from no love of treason, but in consequence of her desire to see the Great Republic destroyed. How she would have dealt with them, had the rebels been her subjects, there is not room to doubt. Col. J. W. Forney, in one of his published letters from London, says he has not met an Englishman, of whatever politics, who does not frankly say that "if Great Britain had had such a rebellion as ours to suppress, not one of the leaders would have been left alive to tell the story of his treason." Even those who were allowed to live would have been deprived of their rights and property. A colonial governor remarked, a few days since, that the radicals in Congress had done right, and that if the rebels had been permitted to come back to Congress and the electoral college to resume their former policy, we should have been laughed at all over Christendom.

☞ An exchange says that large quantities of poor whiskey are manufactured in Cincinnati and shipped to Robertson county, Tenn., where the best whiskey is made, from whence the bogus and inferior fluid is reshipped to all parts of the country, north and South, as fine, prime old Robertson county whiskey, and is as eagerly sought for as the genuine article, and brings as good a price. Some say the Cincinnati juice is redistilled before it is sent out as Robertson, and the revenue tax thereby avoided.

— "Oh for a little air!" signed a young lady. "Name it after me," said the young man who sat beside her.

— Why was Jonah stronger than the whale? Because when the whale got Jonah down, he couldn't hold him.

— A disturbed preacher remarked, "if that cross eyed lady in the side aisle, with red hair and blue bonnet, don't stop talking, I must point her out to the congregation."

— "You had better ask for manners than for money," said a finely dressed gentleman to a beggar boy who had asked for alms.—"I asked for what I thought you had most of," was the boy's reply.

— Nearly half the shareholders in the metropolitan gas companies in London are women, clergymen or trustees. The total number of the shareholders is shown to be 8075; 2217 are women, 345 are clergymen, and 1409 hold on trust or joint accounts. These persons received last year generally 10 per cent dividends.

SOMETHING NEW!
SELEE'S HAIR LIFE
Has been thoroughly tested by thousands during the past year, and is declared superior to all other preparations for the hair. It has no equal for Restoring Gray Hair to its original color in from TEN TO THIRTY DAYS.
It is a most splendid Hair Dressing, surpassing all others for making dry and brashy hair soft, glossy and beautiful, as in youth.
This Magical Preparation invariably stops the falling of the hair, and always promotes a lively, luxuriant growth.
Its use will at once free the head from Dandruff, Scurf and all Humors, especially Salt Rheum.
It KILLS HAIR EATERS, which are so fatal to the roots of the hair. It contains no nitrate of silver, which is found in most other Hair preparations, and is so injurious.
THE HAIR LIFE IS NOT A DYE, but operates on the roots, restoring them to their natural, healthy state.
It is the nicest, neatest, and most effectual thing in the market.
It never stains, and is perfectly harmless.

EUROPEAN ITEMS.—Late advices from the Island of Candia via Athens report that the Cretans are preparing a squadron of five fire ships with which they intend to attempt the destruction of the Turkish fleet, which is supporting the army of Omar Pasha.

The latest official accounts from Crete give terrible reports of the cruelties of the Turks. Omar Pasha, in retaliation for the severe punishment of one of his spies, crucified a Greek priest. He besieged a cavern in which Greek women and children had taken refuge, and closing it with stones left them to die of starvation. He boasts that he will exterminate the Cretans.—There is, however, no probability of the success of Omar Pasha.

The Austrian Leichrath has adopted resolutions in favor of the political equality of religious faiths, acknowledging the legality of marriage when performed by a civil magistrate.

The glut of money in the London money market was unparalleled and would probably force the Bank of England to reduce the rate of discount to the lowest point ever known.

Prince Arthur had returned to England.

In the Italian Parliament, on the 10th inst., Ratazzi said the present time was inopportune for granting unrestricted liberty to the Church. It would be granted when the Church recognized the full liberty of the State.

WASHINGTON ITEMS. — Congress adjourned on Saturday. Efforts to prolong the session and get out the evidence on impeachment, were without success.

A special telegram has been received from New Orleans, and is being circulated in official circles, that Santa Anna has been tried and shot at Campeachy. The news is not official and is hardly credited.

The President is said to have stated in the most positive terms that an erroneous interpretation was placed by certain Congressmen on that portion of his message wherein it was stated that he had maintained that he would not enforce the supplemental reconstruction act. He declared that if there was one portion of the Constitution more than another which he was bound to obey, it was that part requiring him to execute the laws of Congress, and that he should enforce them to the letter.

☞ The Independent Belge affirms that the King of Prussia and the Emperor of France have written letters of condolence to the Emperor of Austria on account of Maximilian's death. The utmost grief reigns throughout Vienna, and no one ventured to inform the Archduchess Sophia, Maximilian's mother, of the sad news, until Francis Joseph returned from Munich, when he was obliged to be the bearer of the intelligence. The Empress Eugenie, on hearing the news of Maximilian's death, burst into tears, and the Emperor had to beseech her to bear in mind the solemn occasion on which they were about to make their appearance, and not embarrass the ceremonials. They were at the time getting ready for the distribution of prizes at the Exhibiton.

DECISION IN A RAILROAD CASE.—The suit of Hiram Lewis against the New York Central Railroad Company, for extortion in demanding fare at gold rates, has been decided by the General Term of the Supreme Court at Binghampton in favor of the plaintiff. The Court was unanimous in this decision. The railroad company failed in its efforts to obtain permission from the legislature to increase its fares, and then adopted the singular expedient of demanding payment from passengers at specie rates, an ingenious device which was promptly resisted by the plaintiff in his action, and as promptly met by decisive action in the Supreme Court.

☞ The GALAXY, for August, contains the following articles: Steven Lawrence, Yeoman; London Amusements, The Zone of Calms, Why we left the Homestead, Croquet, Burglars, Pestalozzi in America, Under the Daisies, The Leg Business, Waiting for the Verdict, Who Invented Sewing Machines? The Pacific Railroad, Nebulæ. $3.50 a year. Address W. C. & F. P. CHURCH, No. 39 Park Row, New York.

☞ The Atlantic Monthly, for August, comes well filled with summer reading. Besides the continued stories, we have "The Old Story," by Alice Cary, and "The Week's Riding," by a lively anonymous author. Col. Higginson gives some interesting war reminiscences "Up the Edisto." Parton describes Cincinnati in his best style.

☞ In Virginia, Gen. Schofield has called the Justices of the Hastings Court to account for unjust decisions against freedmen.

☞ Two sisters and a brother are now living in Portland whose united ages are two hundred and eighty-five years and a quarter. They are the eldest and only surviving children of Peter Thomas.

☞ A fire broke out Sunday evening in Rollins & Co.'s lozenge manufactory, Concord, but was soon extinguished, and discovered to be incendiary, beyond question. The fact strengthens the suspicion that all the late fires there have been set by design.

Correspondence of the Chronicle.

PORTLAND, Me., July 22, 1867.

Ed. Chronicle: The railroad excursionists "came, saw and were conquered."—Wednesday and Thursday were gala days here. Brevity, besides being the soul of wit, is the wit of writing, therefore be brief, Sancho, and the more acceptable will be your letter. Therefore, instead of going into particulars as to what was done or said, we will merely remark that on Wednesday the party, which consisted of the heavy and solid men of Oswego and Ogdensburg, New York; St. Johnsbury, Montpelier, &c., Vermont; Concord, &c., N. H.; Boston and other places, were met at South Berwick by a Committee of the Board of Trade, headed by Collector Washburne, and were received here in fine style.—Wednesday afternoon was passed in "seeing Portland," and discussing its advantages as a commercial terminus. The wharves, factories, public buildings and famous places in and around the city were visited, and the day closed with a glorious dinner at Cape Cottage.

On Thursday an excursion to the islands took place—which was a "big affair." Some 400 were there, including Railroad Presidents, Directors, Superintendents and others, Ex-Governors, Generals, Colonels, and a host of other dignitaries. Friday morning the party returned to Boston, voting their reception one of the best of their lives. It was well carried out, and will be productive of co-operation between the west and east on the question of "Western and ocean communication."

The Portland Gas Light Company held their annual meeting Wednesday evening, 17th. The company lost heavily by the great fire, in stock and pipe laid, stoppage of consumption, &c. Number of consumers July 1, 1866, was 2040; July 1, 1867, 1910; probably on August 1, 1866, only 1200 or 1300. Gas sold the past year, 28,865,250 feet. Last year, 33,000,000 feet. The old board of Directors chosen. Par value of share, $50; market value, $52 a $53.

The extension of the Portland and Rochester road from Saco river to Alfred will be begun at once and completed before next winter if nothing serious prevents;—distance fourteen miles. The contract has been awarded to Messrs. Geo. F. Hitchings and David Wood, both experienced in the business. Col. T. H. Cushing of Dover, N. H., is to build the bridge across the Saco river. Mr. C. is one of the best bridge builders in the country.

Brown's Hotel, corner of Middle and Union streets begind to assume a mammoth appearance, several of the walls being up to second story, and are awaiting the two street elevations. It is to be plain and substantial, faced with freestone. Another hotel (brick) is going up on the corner of Fore and Cross streets, and will contain about sixty or seventy rooms. It will be four stories high, and is centrally located for transient custom. Brown and others are owners.

The High School closed on the 18th.—The exercises were unusually interesting.—The graduating class this term is larger than ever—40 in number, 15 boys and 31 girls,—rather gentlemen and ladies.

Picnics and excursions are thicker than hops. Several Masonic, Odd Fellow, Temperance and Church societies have already had delightful summer excursions to Saco River, Rolfe's Island, "Down the Harbor" and elsewhere, and this week we notice the following: Free Street Baptist Society to-day to Saco River; Free Street Sunday School excursion to same place, 23d; High Street Parish and Sunday School, Rev. W. F. Fenn, to same place, 24th; Mystic Lodge I. O. of Good Templars to Brunswick, 24th; First Universalist Parish and Sanday School, to Saco River, on the 25th.

It is certain that the buildings here, especially on the business streets, are among the finest in any city of the size of Portland. Blocks of freestone are numerous, neat and tasteful brick ones are plenty, but one of the neatest and most admired is the Casco Bank building on Middle street near Exchange. The design is very beautiful, but the great feature of attraction is the whiteness and elegance of the stone, which is Hallowell granite, hammered. It looks much better than marble. We should like to see a whole city full of just such fronts. To our fancy it beats anything yet seen.

The wonders of advertising are every day being made manifest. Bonner, Ayer, Drake and others know the value of type and ink, and their success is largely owing to this means of letting their light shine before the world. In this city there is a concern which advertises extensively, and is now doing a rushing business in consequence,—Leathe & Gore, Soap Manufacturers. They advertise in nearly every paper in this State, and in many outside.—Their business is growing immensely.—Moral—"Advertising is the secret of success." SANCHO.

☞ Maximilian's dead body is on the way to Vera Cruz, to go on board the Austrian frigate Elizabeth, bound home via New Orleans.

OUTRAGES IN TEXAS.—Headquarters are overwhelmed with reports of outrages in the Red River county. Colored people dare not accept the appointment of Registers for fear of their lives. Judge Latimor, a prominent Texan, has resigned an appointment in the Bureau, being afraid of the chief outlaw named Guest. Colored people flee to the woods on his approach. He was once arrested, but escaped. In Sterling, Robinson county, a colored church was assaulted and two men and one woman killed. Captain Randall, the Bureau agent raised one hundred freedmen and arrested two of the ringleaders.

THE BOSTON YACHT CLUB propose an excursion, in which fifteen yacht owners have signified their intention to participate. They are to rendezvous at Gloucester Saturday evening, August 3, and proceed on the following day to the Isle of Shoals, from which point they will go to Portland, where a grand ball will be given them by the citizens, after which their programme includes Mount Desert and Belfast.

☞ A Fort Wallace special dispatch says Gen. Custar's command reached there on the 12th and 13th of July, and the bodies of Lieut. Kidder and ten men of the troop of the 2d cavalry, who had been sent with dispatches from Sherman to Custar. The Indians overtook them at Beaver Creek. General Custar then left Fort Wallace for Fort Riley with 70 picked men and reached there in 55 hours, losing 3 men killed near Downer. The Indians swarm along the route and are more bold and determined than ever.

☞ A New Orleans dispatch says Gen. Sheridan has issued an order closing registration 31st July, Gen. Bragg, Sup. of the Water Works, charges Gen. Sheridan's appointees in the Street Commission with waste of water in cleaning the streets, and threatens prosecution. The Commissioner replies that no more water is used than is necessary, and retorts that the prosecution may be followed by a substitute of officials for the Water Works Company.

☞ At Minneapolis, there is a great freshet in the Mississippi river and the water is as high as in 1859. The Suspension bridge and St. Anthony bridge are threatened. Casey Island boom broke, and twelve million feet of logs have gone over the falls.

☞ The substrata of much of the made land between Boston and Roxbury consists of old shoes, dead cats, tin ware, ashes and cinders, coils of rusty wire, and the contents of straw beds. A Boston lawyer said, in an argument in the matter of a nuisance in that portion of the city:

This filling had substantial disadvantages as filling. The tin cans collapsed, the old vegetables decayed, the straw beds matted, the cats mouldered to their original dust, and more solid contents of the dust cart, such as ashes and cinders, were trodden into humps on the imperfect path. Above all this rubbish rose the Commonwealth Avenue, the continuation of Beacon Street, and the fashionable South-End squares; and now up into the elegant apartments steals a subtle miasma, which settles in damp upon silken curtains and frescoed ceilings; and, to the despair of domestics, turns utensils of pure silver to brass as fast as they can be cleaned. Up from the Needham sand skip fleas, in such pestilent swarms that the velvet carpets must be shaken as an Italian beggar shakes his cloak. And up from the dried filth of the cess-pools, rats burrow and croton bugs and cockroaches crawl, till the beautiful houses are over-run with them. I heard lately of a bride, living in one of these illfated palaces, whom an acquaintance found perched upon the high, carved sideboard of the dining room, eating her dinner; so dismayed had she been by the number of croton bugs that crawled about her inlaid floor.

— The wheat crop of Mississippi is now being harvested. The yield is large.

— Williams of Norwich, convicted of an attempt to murder his child, and at one time reported insane, has confessed that his insanity was assumed in order that he might have a new trial and a more lenient sentence.

— There are rumors in Washington of the collection of a fund in that city for the defence of Surratt. It is said that some of the contributors were interested in blockade running during the rebellion, and that they have subscribed to avoid the danger of exposure of their transactions should the prisoner be convicted and confess.

IF IT IS THROWN IN YOUR TEETH that you do not keep your dental apparatus in proper trim, it is your own fault, for all the world knows that you might do so by using that matchless vegetable denifrice, SOZODONT. 10

RADICALISM becomes a virtue when directed against our own evil habits, so does the radical detersive qualities of Pyle's O K Soap prove a blessing to those who employ it for the cleansing of the body, clothing and abode. No family should be without it. All first class grocers sell it. 11

☞ SPERR'S Sambucl Wine ranks above all other Wines for medical purposes; it is a diuretic alterative and tonic. For weakly persons and the consumptive it has no equal. Sold by Druggists;

— While congratulating those having the fortune to be born beautiful, we, on the other hand, pity the household who has not had the good fortune to obtain a paper of Herrick Allen's Gold Medal Saleratus. Go immediately to your grocer and get a paper, and, our word for it, you will never use any other. It has been analyzed by one of the most distinguished chemists in the country, and pronounced perfectly harmless, and to produce one-eighth more Bread or Biscuit from the same barrel of flour than can be produced with any other; besides it only takes about one half the quantity. Depot 142 Liberty Street, New York. 34

— In Charleston, S. C., on the Fourth, over five thousand colored people rode in the cars, and not a single act of rudeness or impropriety was committed by them.

— A huge laundry is established in the suburbs of Paris, at which is washed the soiled clothing of the guests of the principal hotels, at the rate of forty thousand pieces a day.

— Bassombierre, French Ambassador of Spain was telling Henri Quatre how he entered Madrid. "I was mounted on the smallest mule in the world." "Ah," said Henri, what an amusing sight—the biggest ass on the smallest mule!" "I was your Majesty's representative," was the reply.

— Col. Walton of Norfolk has completed the survey of the Dismal Swamp Canal, preliminary to its enlargement and improvement. He gives a gloomy account of the condition of the canal. It will cost $600,000 to put it in the condition desired.

— A watch chain company in Rhode Island have invented a chain machine, which is one of the most ingenious and elaborate pieces of work ever devised. This machine takes the bar gold and transforms it, without noise, to the most delicate and substantial fob and vest patterns.

— The Waltham Free Press learns that a large number of hands have been discharged from the Watch Factory the present week, the discharges to take effect the end of this month and that the pay of those remaining has been reduced. The fast accumulating stock on hand, we understand has rendered this action necessary.

DR. SCHENCK, THE LUNG DOCTOR.

☞ The Proprietor of SCHENK'S PULMONIC SYRUP, the inventor of SCHENK'S RESPIROMETER, the only instrument that can tell with certainty detect the slightest murmur of the respiratory organs.

This is of great importance to Dr. SCHENCK, to know the exact condition of the lungs, whether it is Tuberculous, Pulmonary, Bronchial, Pleuritic, or Dyspeptic Consumption, and whether it is both lungs or only one that are diseased.

It requires constant and long practice to become familiar with every sound or rattling of a diseased bronchial tube. Patients come to Dr. SCHENCK to get examined that have been examined by their family physician, who declared that their lungs were almost gone; when by a close examination with the Respirometer, it is often found that it is an affection of the bronchial tube; and by getting a healthy action of the liver and tone of the stomach, the sufferer is soon restored to health. Sometimes medicine will stop a cough is certain death to the patient. It locks up the liver, stops the circulation of the blood—hemorrhage follows, and, in fact, stopping the action of the very organs that cause the cough.

Dr. Schenck will be professionally at his rooms every week, 32 Bond street, New York, and 33 Hanover street, Boston, from 9 A. M. until 3 P. M. He gives advice free, but for a thorough examination with the Respirometer the fee is $5. His medicines are for sale by all druggists and dealers, also a good supply at all times at his rooms. Price of the Pulmonic Syrup or Seaweed Tonic, each $1.50 per bottle, or $7.50 the half dozen; Mandrake Pills 25 cents per box.—GEO. C. GODFREY & CO., 32 Hanover street, Agents for Boston. POLICE COURT, July 22.—Patrick McClustie, a marine, found intoxicated, was sentenced to pay a fine of $3 and $3,86 costs, in default of which he was sent to the House of Correction.

William Newick, a marine, for an assault upon John Arnold, another member U. S. M. C., was sentenced to be imprisoned thirty days in jail and pay costs $7,92.

George Livingston, charged with the commission of fornication with Ellen Jellison, was ordered to recognize in $200 for his appearance at the October term S. J. Court. In default thereof he was commit ted to jail.

William Newick, John Carr, Wm. McClustie, and Joseph Wallace, for an assault upon officer Sides were severally sentenced to pay a fine of $10 and one-third costs, taxed at $1,33. The worthy quartet were troubled with impecuniosity, and so grace the House of Correction.

Frank Walker, for keeping a disorderly house, was ordered to give $400 bonds for his appearance at the October term, S. J. C.

☞ The patent "Nonpareil Fruit Sealer," the recipe for making which, or the mixture itself, or jars fitted with it, are for sale by Messrs. Foster & Burley, High street, is a wax used on the inside of the covers of jars, bottles, cans, or what not, for "putting up" fruit of all sorts—and may be used on old or new covers or vessels made of any sort of material. It claims to be far superior to anything else of the sort, and certainly appears to be a good and very cheap article.

☞ In 1647 a sharp remonstrance was sent to the General Court of New Hampshire against the practices of one John Reynolds, who, contrary to an order of court which saveth, "No woman shall live on the Isle of Shoals," brought his wife there with an intent to live and abide. As the petitioners were evidently moved with sheer envy, it was thot fit by the court that "if no further complaint come against her, she may enjoy the company of her husband."

☞ Among the patents granted during the first half of July, we notice the following:—

B. D. Howe of Hanover, N. H., for improvement in device for preventing horses from biting and cribbing.

Carl Meinerth of Newburyport, Mass., for mode of printing photographs.

☞ The long, cold storm has been rather a "damper" for the beach houses; and for time of continuance, low temperature and great amount of rain that has fallen, is quite unusual at this season of the year.—The churches on Sunday were thinly attended; but that the spirit of evil is not checked by the moving of the elements our police record will show.

Price 25 cents.

"Ten Minute Speeches, or Temperance in Congress," is a pamphlet, beautifully printed on tinted paper, in large, clear letter, and is in every way worthy of the great occasion which called it forth. We would have a copy placed in the hands of every young man in the nation.

— The bankrupt Morris Insurance Company pays twenty per cent. of its indebtedness.

— While standing at his barn door Thursday evening, a man named Clarke, living in Frankfort, Me., was struck by lightning and instantly killed.

— A convict in the Joliet (Ill.) prison hid himself under a sink with the intention of escaping during the night, but died from suffocation, instead.

— Gen. Sheridan is reported to have brought on an "engagement" with a Louisiana lady who owns a fine plantation on Bayou Teche.

— The Swabian Mercury states that the news of the Emperor Maximilian's death, at the Munich Railway station, produced a terrible effect on the Emperor of Austria. His Majesty was seen to weep bitterly.

— Bishop Eastburn has sailed for England, and Bishops Potter, Clarke, Hopkins and Wilmer will soon follow. They go to attend the great council of Bishops to be held in Westminster Abbey, commencing Sept. 24.

— The imperious house of Hapsburg is making fearful atonement for deeds done in the body. Haynau's crimes are not forgotten, nor those of the Archduchess Sophia. It was she who ordered a score of Hungarian noblemen to be put to death, and wore a ring with their names engraved upon it in commemoration of the crime.

— Marques, who is now skulking in Mexico with a price on his head, carries a fortune of more than a million in foreign exchange—the fruit of his robberies—concealed on his person.

— A religious meeting held in a tent in the German section of Detroit was broken open on Sunday by the Germans, who were apprehensive that it was a temperance movement. Considerable of a riot ensued, and the police were called in, who, after a hard fight, arrested fifteen or twenty of the ringleaders.

THE MEANS should be raised for such an object as educating the orphans of our gallant soldiers and sailors within one month. Let all who are able respond, and it might be done in a week. Let all who have no disposition for charity, but simply want pictures and want to purchase where they can be had for the least money, buy of the Washington Library Company of Philadelphia, and more than enough might be realized in a very short time. THE
UNION PACIFIC RAILROAD CO.
Are now constructing a railroad from
OMAHA, NEBRASKA,
westward towards the Pacific Ocean, making with its connections an unbroken line
ACROSS THE CONTINENT.

The Company now offer a limited amount of their

FIRST MORTGAGE BONDS,

having thirty years to run, and bearing annual interest, payable on the first day of January and July, in the City of New York, free of tax at the

SIX PER CENT. IN GOLD,
AT
Ninety Cents on the Dollar.

This road is already completed to Julesburg, 376 miles west of Omaha, Kansas, and is fully equipped, and running regularly daily from Omaha to its western connection with the Central Pacific, now being rapidly built eastward from Sacramento, Cal., during 1867.

The Company is also permitted to issue its own First Mortgage Bonds to an equal amount, and at the same time, which by special Act of Congress are made a First Mortgage on the entire line, the bonds of the United States being subordinate to them.

The Government makes a donation of 12,800 acres of land to the mile, amounting to 20,032,000 acres, estimated to be worth $20,000,000, making the total resources exclusive of the capital, $110,400,000; but the actual cost of the lands cannot now be realized

The Authorized Capital Stock of the Company is one hundred million dollars, of which five millions have already been paid in, and of which it is not supposed that more than twenty-five millions at most will be required.

The cost of the road is estimated by competent engineers to be about one hundred million dollars, exclusive of equipments.

Prospects for Business.

The railroad connection between Omaha and the East is now complete, and the earnings of the Union Pacific on the sections already finished for the first two weeks in May were $15,000. These sectional earnings as the road progresses will much more than pay the interest on the Company's bonds, as it will be through to the Pacific the only line of railroad between the Atlantic and Pacific must be immense.

Value and Security of the Bonds.

The Company respectfully submit, that the above statement of facts fully demonstrates the security of their Bonds, and as additional proof they would suggest that the Bonds now offered are less than ten million dollars on 517 miles of road, on which over twenty million dollars have already been expended;—on 350 miles of this road the grading is completed, and the remaining 167 miles are nearly completed.

At the present rate of premium on gold, these bonds pay an annual interest on the present cost of

and it is believed that on the completion of the road, like the Government Bonds, they will go above par. The Company intend to sell but a limited amount at the present low rate, and retain the right to advance the price at their option.

Subscriptions will be received in New York by CONTINENTAL NATIONAL BANK, 7 Nassau st., CLARK, DODGE & CO., Bankers, 51 Wall street, JOHN J. CISCO & SON, Bankers, 53 Wall street, and by BANKS AND BANKERS generally throughout the United States, of whom maps and descriptive pamphlets may be obtained.—They will also be sent by mail from the Company's Office, No. 20 Nassau street, New York, on application. Subscribers will select their own Agents in whom they have confidence, who alone will be responsible to them for the safe delivery of the Bonds.

THEY SAY.

They say—ah, well! suppose they do!
But can they prove the story true?
Suspicion may arise from naught
But malice, envy, want of thought;
Why count yourself among the "they"
Who whisper what they dare not say?

They say—but why the tale rehearse,
And help to make the matter worse?
No good can possibly accrue
From telling what may be untrue;
And is it not a nobler plan
To speak of all the best you can?

They say—well if it should be so,
Why need you tell the tale of woe?
Will it the bitter wrong redress,
Or make one pang of sorrow less?
Will it the erring one restore,
Henceforth to "go and sin no more?"

They say—oh! pause and look within!
See how thy heart inclines to sin!
Watch, lest in dark temptation's hour
Thou, too, shouldst sink beneath its power.
Pity the frail—weep o'er their fall,
But speak of good, or not at all!

— A Hog in Hoops.—A few days since a lady residing in the eastern part of the State, having just returned from an evening's entertainment, hearing a noise on the back stoop—a long and very narrow one—she stepped out to learn the cause.—At the further end she discovered the intruder in the shape of a good sized hog—She at once assumed a belligerent attitude and commenced screaming "Who! whee!" The hog took the alarm and made for the door, and discovering the largest space to be between the lady's two feet, pitched for that, and she instantly assumed the horizontal position and movement for the door.—But to prevent a premature elopement she caught hold of a post and her hoops caught the hog. His swineship found himself at once incarcerated in hoops. Then came the struggle — a woman's determination against a hog's will—a contest not unequal, but as persistent as it was ludicrous. The noise brought the lady's good mother to the scene, but what could she do? Although the squealing of the pig and the positive assertion of the lady that she "should be killed," was hard for a fond mother to bear without lending assistance,—a compromise was unavoidable, and to effect this the hoops were unfastened, and away went his pigship, arrayed in his new attire, lacking only one thing to make him respectably dressed, viz: a waterfall.—Veryennes Vermonter.

— An old bachelor geologist was boasting that every rock was as familiar to him as the alphabet. A lady who was present declared that she knew of a rock of which he was wholly ignorant. "Name it, madam," cried Cœlebs in a rage. "It is rock the cradle, sir," replied the lady. Cœlebs vanished.

— There is a question of still further embellishing Paris by making a "Jardin de ceinture", or a garden all round the city. To accomplish this the fortifications would be levelled, the ditch filled up and the ground turned into flower beds, for the rearing of exotic plants and the recreation of the people. This garden, if made, will be some thirty miles in circumference.

C. A. RICHARDS & CO.'S
CONCENTRATED
EXTRACT OF RYE.

THE Proprietors of this popular article, finding it necessary to remove a strong impression from the public mind regarding the real merits which they claim for it,

WOULD ONCE AGAIN ANNOUNCE THAT
IT IS NOT
a mere dram-drinking beverage, but a TRUE, GENUINE and SCIENTIFICALLY PREPARED
MEDICINE.

It is not, as many have been led to believe, nothing but good Rye Whiskey; it is a
MEDICINAL REMEDY,
specially designed for certain useful and beneficial purposes; which any intelligent and thinking person can readily see, by reading what we now have
TO SAY ABOUT IT,
without any long, high sounding words, such as some doctors use to mystify and bewilder a patient, until he can't begin to tell what does not ail him. We SIMPLY AND PLAINLY SAY that "EXTRACT OF RYE" is nothing but the
JUICES OF THE GRAIN
combined with a certain oily, fatty and vegetable matter, which, when taken into the system, stimulates it first to
NEW LIFE,
and a restored appetite, and then goes to make BETTER AND STRONGER
FLESH AND BLOOD.

One can instantly see how this preparation must soothe the throat when it is inflamed, and must carry its lubricating and fattening effects to the lungs; consequently
IT IS WHAT YOU WANT
when you have a bad cough, to cure it, when you have
CONSUMPTION OF THE LUNGS,
to heal and build them up again. So much for those ladies.

Now, if you want an article to FEED THE SYSTEM ON, when it has become reduced by sickness or by being OVERSTRAINED IN ANY WAY, this medicine will
DO THE WORK.

We have, among a great many letters we have received about it, a great many positive testimonials that it has been the means of making people
GAIN FLESH AND GROW FAT.

The reason for this is the
GRAND SECRET OF THE WHOLE MATTER.
It acts as a
STIMULATING FOOD
to the body, and helps Nature
THROW OFF DISEASE.

How often, of late years, have people been terribly deceived by resorting to common whiskey for this purpose, when, if they knew it, the only advantage to be gained from the use of whiskey must spring from the little quantity it contains of that of which Extract of Rye is entirely composed. Then, then, is the whole story. EXTRACT OF RYE will cause you to throw off disease by feeding the system with a
STIMULATING FOOD,
and will build up and restore the powers of mind and body, while you become set and happy.

It is put up in convenient style, each bottle being contained in a paper box. It is not sold at a foolish fancy price, but offered at a reasonable cost to rich and poor.

BEAUTIFUL HANDS.

Such beautiful, beautiful hands,
They're neither white nor small,
And you, I know, would scarcely think
That they wer fair at all.
I've looked on hands whose form and hue
A sculptor's dream might be,
Yet are these aged, wrinkled hands
Most beautiful to me.
Such beautiful, beautiful hands.
Though heart were weary and sad,
These patient hands kept toiling on,
That the children might be glad.
I almost weep, as looking back
To childhood's distant day,
I think how these hands rested not,
When mine were at their play.
Such beautiful, beautiful hands.
They're growing feeble now,
For time and pain have left their mark
On hand, and heart, and brow.
Alas! alas! the nearing time,
And the sad, sad day to me,
When 'neath the daisies, out of sight,
These hands will folded be.
But O, beyond this shadow lamp,
Where all is bright and fair,
I know full well these dear old hands
Will palms of victory bear.
Where crystal streams, through endless years,
Flow over golden sands,
And where the old grow young again—
I'll clasp my mother's hands.
Mrs. Ellen H. M. Gates.

☞ Up at Dartmouth College, the other day, Theodore Tilton, in an oration, remarked: "It was said of rare Ben Johnson that he could remember every line he ever wrote; but," added he, parenthetically, "there is another Johnson, not so rare, who points with pride to the fact that he can remember every promise he ever made; in which respect he has very much the advantage of the people, who cannot remember a single promise he ever kept." Having a glass of water he said: "Here's to the health of every good American woman; may the time soon come when every one of them shall have a wedding-ring on her finger and a ballot in her hand." There was doubtless a hearty amen from the galleries to the former, but not quite as enthusiastic an endorsement of the latter part of the proposition.—Commonwealth.

HOW BLIND BEGGARS ARE MADE.—Some extraordinary developments concerning blind beggars have recently been made in New Orleans. A professional who happened to be mixed up in a case says the plan adopted is this: The impostor provides himself with a peculiar quality of blue stone, not for sale by all dealers, and having secured the services of some half-starved, little, motherless and fatherless boy or girl to lead him, he chips off a small piece of blue stone, about the size of a pea, and dissolves it in an ordinary glass of water. This is enough to make fifteen men blind three or four days. He then closes his eyes and bathes the lids with liquid. It acts as a powerful astringent, and even if he wanted to see he couldn't until the effect wears off. The lids are tightly closed, and if they are forced open there is a temporary film over the pupil which would deceive any but the skillful oculist. One of this class of beggars was required to give $1000 for his good behavior, and the amount was promptly paid by beggars on the spot.—One of them had $8000 with him and also a certificate for $12,000 more.

—What tree is of most use to the traveller? Axle tree.

— Said a very good old man: "Some folks always complain about the weather, but I am very thankful when I wake up in the morning to find any weather at all." We may smile at the simplicity of the old man, but still his language indicates a spirit that contributes much to a calm and peaceful life. It is better and wiser to cultivate that spirit than to be continually complaining of things as they are. Be thankful for such mercies as you have, and it God sees it will be for your good and His glory, He will give you many more. At least, do not make yourself and others unhappy by your ingratitude and complaints.

American and Foreign Patents.
R. H. EDDY,
SOLICITOR OF PATENTS,
Late Agent of the U. S. Patent Office, Washington under the Act of 1857.
No. 78 State street. (opposite Kilby street,) Boston.
After an extensive practice of upwards of twenty years, continues to secure Patents in the United States; also in Great Britain, France and other foreign countries. Caveats, Specifications, Assignments, Bonds, and all papers or drawings for Patents, executed on reasonable terms, with dispatch. Researches made into American and Foreign works, to determine the validity and utility of Patents of Inventions, and legal and other advice rendered in all matters touching the same. Copies of the claims of any patent furnished by remitting one dollar. Assignments recorded in Washington.
No Agency in the United States possesses superior facilities for obtaining Patents or ascertaining the patentability of inventions.
During eight months the subscriber, in the course of his large practice, made on twice rejected applications, SIXTEEN APPEALS; every one of which was decided in his favor by the Commissioner of Patents.
"I regard Mr. Eddy as one of the most capable and successful practitioners with whom I have had official intercourse. CHAS. MASON,"
Commissioner of Patents.
"I have no hesitation in assuring inventors that they can not employ a man more competent and trustworthy, and more capable of putting their applications in a form to secure for them an early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office.
EDMUND BURKE,"
Late Commissioner of Patents.
"Mr. R. H. EDDY has made for me THIRTEEN applications, in all but ONE of which patents have been granted, and that one is now pending. Such unmistakable proof of great talent and ability on his part, leads me to recommend all inventors to apply to him to procure their patents, as they may be sure of having the most faithful attention bestowed on their cases, and at very reasonable charges. JOHN TAGGART,"

SOMETHING NEW!
SELEE'S HAIR LIFE
Has been thoroughly tested by thousands during the past year, and is declared superior to all other preparations for the hair. It has no equal for Restoring Gray Hair to its original color in from TEN TO THIRTY DAYS.
It is a most splendid Hair Dressing, surpassing all others for making dry and brashy hair soft, glossy and beautiful, as in youth.
This Magical Preparation invariably stops the falling of the hair, and always promotes a lively, luxuriant growth.
Its use will at once free the head from Dandruff, Scurf and all Humors, especially Salt Rheum.
It KILLS HAIR EATERS, which are so fatal to the roots of the hair. It contains no nitrate of silver, which is found in most other Hair preparations, and is so injurious.
THE HAIR LIFE IS NOT A DYE, but operates on the roots, restoring them to their natural, healthy state.
It is the nicest, neatest, and most effectual thing in the market.
It never stains, and is perfectly harmless.

The Daily Chronicle.

Portsmouth, N. H.

WEDNESDAY, JULY 24, 1867.

☞ We have been reading Gen. Baker's History of U. S. Secret Service—have read it through—and have come to the conclusion that few if any single men did more to quell the Rebellion, than Gen. Lafayette C. Baker. His services compare favorably with those of Grant, Stanton, or the immortal Lincoln himself—one great proof of which is, the well known fact that all rebels and their sympathizers hated him so bitterly, and have denounced him so fiercely as well as falsely,—for "No rogue e'er felt the halter draw,

With good opinion of the law."

We shall attempt no review of this book, which is very interesting, and stamped everywhere with the impress of truth; but recommend that every true American read it. It has given us a feeling of sadness and disgust indeed, at the fearful developments of fraud and corruption in high places; and our wonder is, how the rebellion was ever quelled at all, with so much of knavery at home to aid and assist it; and apparently only Gen. Baker, the President and Secretary Stanton who cared to punish and stop the infernal cheating and stealing.

Gen. Baker writes in a modest but earnest style, and fearlessly lays about him, when in the midst of rogues and villains, whether great or small, with his pen, as he did with his sword,—and spares none, whether of high or low degree. He deserves well of his country, and all loyal men who dispassionately read his book, will regret that they ever gave any credence to the traitorous and copperhead lies which flew so thick about his devoted head during his patriotic exertions for his flag and his country.

In the Surratt Trial on Monday, a Priest testified that he harbored and concealed Surratt in Canada, for a long time. In cross-examination it came out that he was guilty of several gross crimes, and had been officially complained of to the Bishop.

The rebutting evidence in the case commenced, and will be finished by Wednesday. The point of the testimony produced by the prosecution, is that on the 13th of April Surratt left Elmira, New York, southward bound, and that he was seen at Williamsport, seventy-eight miles from the former place. The prosecution expect to prove that, despite the interruption of travel at that time by floods, there were connecting trains by which Surratt could have reached Washington on the morning of April 14.

Suppression of Gambling in N. Y.—The new "Society for the Suppression of Gambling" in the city of New York, held a meeting on Saturday, when the counsel for the society reported that nineteen complaints had been made, chiefly against "policy" offices, and the necessary affidavits had been prepared upon which to have warrants issued, but that the political influence of the gambling fraternity was so powerful, he feared the police justices would not issue the warrants. If the authorities would not do their duty, of course the society would be powerless.

Improvements at Dartmouth College. — Among the transactions of the Trustees at the Commencement meeting was the employment of a landscape gardener to lay out the college ground with reference to ornamentation and various improvements. A member of the Board, Dr. Edward Spalding of Nashua became responsible for the expense. A beginning has been made in the recent gift, by one of the alumni, Hon. Joel Parker, of the Harvard Law School, of two thousand ornamental trees. The trustees are desirous that the improvements which will be continuously made, shall all conform to an established plan. A carriage drive-way through the grounds in the rear of the college buildings is contemplated. It is also worthy of mention that one of the trustees, Hon. George W. Nesmith of Franklin, has given to the Treasurer a sum sufficient to defray the expense of printing a new catalogue of the college library. Several new scholarships of $1000 each have been gifted, among them one from Dr. Ebenezer Woodward of Quincy, Mass., of the class of 1817, and another from Jeremiah Kingman, Esq., of Barrington.

☞ A Washington dispatch of Monday, says, the President still retains the power to relieve District Commanders, and it is said will soon transfer Sheridan to Tennessee, and place Gen. Thomas in command of the Louisiana and Texas district. ["It is said,"—is not very high authority; and these transfers are not very probable.]

Again the N. Y. Herald's special Washington dispatch says efforts are making to induce the President to remove Secretary Stanton, Gen. Grant and the five District Commanders. [If, under the present circumstance, he should be foolish enough to yield to such indnce, Congress would be very likely to remove him before Christmas.]

☞ Robert B. Palfrey, of this city, has recently been appointed an Assistant in the U. S. Coast Survey.

Gold, Tuesday, 139 1-2.

New Hampshire Items.

—— The Amoskeag Manufacturing Co. have declared a dividend of $100 per share, payable Aug. 1.

—— The loss of the Northern N. H. Railroad, at Concord, by the fire, is now said to be only $125,000, and the insurance ample.

—— Valencourt McFeetse, the young man who injured himself some days ago, while at work on the Exeter Episcopal Church, died on Friday morning last. His body was taken to Vermont where his parents reside.

—— A couple of young men, formerly students at "Old Phillips" Exeter Academy, started from Boston in a very small boat one day shortly after the Fourth, and before night they handsomely beached her at Hampton near Boar's Head.

—— The City Government of Concord, has offered a reward of one thousand dollars for the arrest and conviction of any person or persons engaged in any recent incendiary attempt in that city.

—— Mr. Joseph G. Edgerly of Manchester, a member of the graduating class of Dartmouth College, has been elected Superintendent of the Public Schools of Manchester.

—— Mrs. Wyman, a widow lady, formerly of Salisbury, was found dead in her bed at Concord on Monday morning. She had recently been in good health, with the exception of a few hours' illness the afternoon before her death. She was 74 years of age.

—— An Ecclesiastical Council met at South Seabrook, N. H., July 9, and there assisted in the organization of a Congregational church. Rev. Dr. Fiske, Rev. Dr. Spalding and Rev. W. A. McGrinley of Newburyport, Rev. A. Peabody of Seabrook, Rev. G. M. Adams of Portsmouth, and Rev. E. A. Rand of South Boston, participated in the public services. The history of this enterprise has been marvelous as an illustration of Home Evangelization. The seed of the movement was the resolution of a young brother studying for the ministry, Wm. A. Rand, to plant a Sabbath School at South Seabrook. He was aided by the brethren in the Amesbury Church. In connection with the Sabbath School, Brother Rand began a series of meetings whose result was a very powerful work of grace. A young church has sprung into vigorous existence. They have been worshiping in a school house, but it is their intention to appeal to the churches to aid them in the erection of a chapel.—Cong. and Recorder.

Communication.

Veto Johnson.—This seems to be an appropriate name for a character which on the historic record may have a fame equal, if not superior, to that of a Nero or Caligula. For one man to assume to be wiser than the collective wisdom of the most enlighted Congress which ever assembled at the National Capital, containing a large number of the most eminent statesmen in the Union, implies such a degree of arrogant self-confidence and bold assurance as evinces ignorance or an ungovernable temper. Congress has not attempted to deprive him of his Constitutional prerogatives, but only to confer such authority upon military officers as the safety of the Republic required, and thus relieve him from certain arduous duties which he could not or would not discharge.

We think that no party in the Union now has any confidence in him or his numerous veto messages. He is now like the late John Tyler, the accidental President—"a President without a party."

Mr. Johnson claims that it is arbitrary and despotic to disarm him of authority to nullify the reconstruction acts of Congress, which hold the rebel States under military rule until they shall comply with the merciful conditions prescribed, a compliance with which would be for their own benefit.

His last veto, like the preceding, falls harmlessly to the ground. No logical conclusions can be drawn from false premises. The last veto message is predicated upon the false assumption that the insurgent States are reinstated into the Union and entitled to the constitutional rights they held ante bellum. "If it be true that they are restored to their former rights by their own act, independent of the authority of Congress, and are not now held as conquered provinces, then some, perhaps many, of the positions of the President and his Attorney General may be correct. But when they surrendered up their arms they became liable to be governed under military authority, according to the usages and rules of modern warfare; and the treatment they now receive is for their own good, and surely they have no right to complain. The President in his public speeches has declared, and a number of times reiterated, that the rebel States "went out of the Union." Let him show how and when they got back. Until he can do that, it would be a waste of time to refute the extended argument of his last veto message.

☞ It appears from the N. Y. Herald, that under the recent interpretation placed upon the drinking of liquor on Sunday in the city of New York, festive clubs are springing up all over the city in advocacy of the principle of Sunday drinking. The Herald says that last Sunday was made a general inauguration day by these clubs. [What a splendid principle it must be, for a gentleman to get drunk or half drunk on Sunday!—and how hard some people work to make themselves sots and fools.]

☞ The President is preparing a proclamation, warning all persons in the United States from joining in any unlawful expeditions against Mexico.

☞ At Washington, says a correspondent, considerable speculation has been indulged in within a day or two as to the tenor of General Grant's evidence recently given before the Committee. Both the friends and opponents of the Administration alike claim that it is favorable to their respective positions. Col. Hillyer testified that Gen. Grant indorsed the President's policy, but Gen. Grant testified that he approved of the Reconstruction Acts passed by Congress.

☞ Last Sunday a man named Sorrell, who served in the navy during the war, was arrested in Washington on complaint of Mr. Samuel Strong, who alleges that Sorrell expressed the wish that he could place several barrels of gunpowder under the Capitol and blow up all the members of Congress. He was tried before Justice Walter and required to give bail in $300 for his appearance when wanted, and to be of good behavior for six months.

☞ At Richmond, Va., Charles V. Begger, Superintendent of the Almshouse, has been removed by the military authorities, and Mr. Pierce, the former incumbent, reinstated. Some other beggars need reconstructing in the same way.

—[New Orleans is greatly excited over the attempts to depreciate the city currency. As it is a legal issue, based upon the entire real estate of the municipality, it would seem folly to doubt its value as a circulating medium.

— At a reconstruction meeting held near Jacksonville, Miss., July 4, Albert G. Brown, who was Jeff. Davis' colleague in the United States Senate, presided, and said: "He had spent thirty years in the public service. He was what had been called a proscribed rebel. He would hold no office it every man in the State would vote for him. His locks were whitening for the grave. He would advise the holding of a convention and the acceptance of the terms tendered by Congress, without delay or cavil."

— The report of the special agent of the Revenue Bureau, sent to investigate the condition of the collector's office in the Fifth Carolina District, will soon be made public. It is said that Thompson, the former collector, a native of that State, did not make any seizures during eighteen months that he held the office, but that his successor, Mr. John Crane, formerly an officer in the union army, has during the last seven weeks, made eighty-three seizures, including fifty distilleries and two extensive tobacco factories. Collector Crane writes, "If it were not for the presence of the military I could not make any seizures, as the whole country is in sympathy with those who are defrauding the government, excepting a few good Union men and the negroes. In fact the majority of the people here look upon the government as legitimate plunder." So they do everywhere, under this or any other government.

If it is Thrown in Your Teeth that you do not keep your dental apparatus in proper trim, it is your own fault, for all the world knows that you might do so by using that matchless vegetable dentifrice, SOZODONT. 1o

The Sun and Stars. The stars all "go out" by daylight. So must all the common adulterated compounds of saleratus disappear before Fyle's; that defies all competition. Try it. Ask your grocer for Fyle's Saleratus, and see that his name is on the package. 12

☞ Speer's Sambucl Wine ranks above all other Wines for medical purposes; it is a diuretic sitertive and tonic. For weakly persons and the consumptive it has no equal. Sold by Druggists.

— Herrick Allen's Gold Medal Saleratus is far superior to super-carbonate of soda, and may be used in the same manner, with cream tartar, and for all other purposes where soda is used. It is perfectly healthy, and requires less in quantity.—Try one paper, and you will never have any other. Grocers and Druggists sell it. 8o

☞ The young folks must indeed be hard to please, if they are not satisfied with the periodical literature now supplied for their especial gratification.

Oliver Optic's "Boys and Girls," published weekly by Lee & Shepard, Boston, at $2.50 a year.

"Our Young Folks," published monthly by Ticknor & Fields, Boston, at $2 a year. August number received.

"The Riverside Magazine," a monthly publication, furnished at $2.50 a year, by Hurd & Houghton, New York. August number at hand.

The old folks, as well as the young, derive much of pleasure and profit from a careful perusal of these elegantly illustrated juveniles. They are to be obtained at Batchelder's news depot and at the bookstores.

— The Springfield Republican says Miss Houghton of North Adams, who was lately mixed up in the Rev. S. M. Merrill scandal, has written the gentleman since his pretended drowning at Plattsburg, telling him that it is now his duty to leave his family and share his fortunes with her, even if they have ro go to the ends of the earth. [Rather a poor fortune, probably, to share between two such people. But no doubt both will "go to their own place."]

WHAT EVERY ONE WANTS.

A good, reliable medicine that will be on hand when required, and never fails when called on.—That is now to be obtained in Dr. Tobias' Celebrated Venetian Liniment. Many thousands call it the Wonder of the Age, as it does all that is represented and more. It cures Diarrhœa, Dysentery, Colic, Spasms, Vomiting, Croup, and Sea-sickness as surely as it is used, and is perfectly innocent to take internally, even in double the quantity named in the directions; and as an external remedy for Chronic Rheumatism, Cuts, Bruises, Old Sores, Mumps, Toothache, Headache, Sore Throat, Sprains, Insect Stings, Pains in the Back, Chest and Limbs, thousands have testified to, and certificates can be seen at the Doctor's depot, 56 Cortlandt street, New York. Hundreds of physicians use it in their practice. It has been introduced since 1847, and many others who now have it in their houses, say they would not be without it even if it was $10 per bottle.—Every drop is mixed by Dr. Tobias' hands, and can be depended on. DR. SCHENCK, THE LUNG DOCTOR.

☞ The Proprietor of SCHENK'S PULMONIC SYRUP, the inventor of SCHENK'S RESPIROMETER, the only instrument that can to a certainty detect the slightest murmur of the respiratory organs.

This is of great importance to Dr. SCHENCK, to know the exact condition of the lungs, whether it is Tuberculous, Pulmonary, Bronchial, Pleuritic, or Dyspeptic Consumption, and whether it is both lungs or only one that are diseased.

It requires constant and long practice to become familiar with every sound or rattling of a diseased bronchial tube. Patients come to Dr. SCHENCK to get examined that have been examined by their family physician, who told them that their lungs were almost gone; when by a close examination with the Respirometer, it is often found that it is an affection of the bronchial tube; and by getting a healthy action of the liver and tone the stomach, the sufferer is soon restored to health. Sometimes medicine that will stop a cough is certain death to the patient. It locks up the liver, stops the circulation of the blood—hemorrhage follows, and, in fact, stops pin the action of the very organs that cause the cough.

Dr. Schenck will be professionally at his rooms every week, 32 Bond street, New York, and 35 Hanover street, Boston, from 9 A. M. until 3 P. M. He gives advice free, but for a thorough examination with the Respirometer the charge is $5. His medicines are for sale by all druggists and dealers, also a good supply at all times at the rooms. Price of the Pulmonic Syrup and Seaweed Tonic, each $1 50 per bottle, or $7.50 the half dozen. Make a fifth 25 cents per bottle.

IMPORTANT FOR INVALIDS.—The weakness of the stomach, and its faintly performing its offices is only occasioned by the debility of the stomach nerves and their various branches, by being plastered up with phlegm, gross food, acid dregs, indigestible meals, offensive drinks, or other matters which remaining too long assume a corroding quality.

BRANDRETH'S PILLS cleanse the stomach and bowels of all unhealthy accumulations, and purify and invigorate the blood, and should be used by those who, having lost, are in pursuit of health.

The Hon. Demas Barnes says—"I tell more of Brandreth's Pills than of all others put together."

BRANDRETH'S PILLS are Sold by all Druggists, and at the Principal Office, Brandreth House, New York. Observe B. BRANDRETH in white letters on the governmental stamp on each box. je29dawlmesp

Local.

☞ Thursday, the 18th of July, was, in this region, a cloudy day, threatening rain, and warning all who had hay out, to prepare for a storm; and then, from Friday to Monday inclusive, we had four such rainy days as we do not get every year in July. Tuesday morning gave us the first settled sunshine after the storm, which was gladly greeted by all eyes hereabouts, and we suppose elsewhere too,—as the storm seems to have had a wide sweep, as well as a long duration. The abundant rain, though disastrous to some crops, is very favorable to many more.

☞ Leverton's Oriental Hair Cleanser is a new article,—said to be totally unlike anything else in the market, and a good thing—manufactured by Mr. John F. Leverton, barber, of this city, who also makes the famous Hair Dye of his name, in very large quantities, to go all over the country. Mr. Leverton is one of the most industrious and fair dealing men, and has a spacious and well arranged manufactory of his Dye and Cleanser, in connection with his tonsorial establishment on Market street. Success to him.

☞ Nelson & Co., formerly of New York, have taken the brick building on Bow street, opposite the burial ground, and are fitting it up for a distillery, the capacity of whose production we have been unable to learn. We understand that a gentleman of this city has been appointed U. S. Inspector for this establishment.

☞ A. J. Stimpson, Esq., has entered upon his duties as Gatekeeper and Detective at the Navy Yard. We are informed that he made his first arrest on Monday, in the shape of a youth from a schooner lying at the yard, for larceny of oakum or spun yarn from the pier.

FIRE IN MEMPHIS, TENN.—A destructive fire occurred in the Navy Yard Monday which destroyed Cowder & Co.'s tobacco factory and Christian & Co.'s warehouse with 300 bales of cotton and 6000 pounds salt. Total loss $150,000; insured $65,000, principally in Northern offices. The fire was the work of an incendiary.

UTAH.—Very rich gold discoveries have been made by the Mormons on Green river. Brigham Young is fitting out parties for the mines.

A train of seceding Mormons from Utah arrived at Julesburg on the 18th inst.

☞ The official organ of the French Government, as well as the leading journal of England, are both desirous that the United States take possession of Mexico. [Perhaps they would like to convert Imperial scrip and Mexican Republican debts, into greenbacks or U. S. Bonds.]

☞ In France, the bill abolishing imprisonment for debt, which some time ago passed the Corps Legislatif, has finally passed the Senate, and is now a law.

☞ Last Saturday a locomotive on the Illinois Central Railroad exploded at Cairo, instantly killing the engineer, and mortally wounding the fireman.

☞ The Impeachment Committee have adjourned to meet at Washington Nov. 13. Congress is to meet Nov. 30.

☞ Reports to the Treasury show that the first series of seven-thirties are nearly all converted.

— Why is a minister like a locomotive? We have to look out for him while the bell rings.

— There is this season an extraordinary abundance of cereal crops in Egypt. Prices of grain have fallen nearly two-thirds since harvest ended. [We suppose there are no "rings" of speculators in Egypt.]

— On Tuesday, in Troy, a lady stumbled on the walk, and in falling, the point of her parasol penetrated her right eye, causing a wound which destroys the eye for life.

— At a late meeting in Searcy, Arkansas three fourths of those present voted against a Convention, and this is said to be the general sentiment thoughout the State.

— Gen. Curtin reports on the late riot at Franklin, Tenn., that the assault on the colored league was preconcerted, and that the authorities purposely left the mob to do as they pleased.

— The river has washed away the neck of land, which was about three hundred yards wide, above Sidney, or Hamburg, Iowa, leaving that town on the Nebraska side of the river, and adding some thousand acres of land to that State.

— Speaker Colfax said, in his serenading speech on Saturday night, that the votes of the reconstructed States of the South would swell the Republican victory in the Presidential campaign of next year.

— An old lady in Trenton, N. J., read an account of the bursting of a grind-stone used in the saw factory, and became alarmed lest the grind-stone standing in her cellar should burst in a similar manner and blow up the house. She had the dangerous thing removed immediately.

— A robin, while eating cherries on a tree in front of the dwelling of Mr. Addison Gott, Rockport, Mass., was noticed to fall suddenly to the ground. On going out to ascertain the cause, it was found that it had swallowed a cherry stone, which stopped in its throat, causing strangulation.—It would seem he got choked, wouldn't it? Well, a good many folks would like to have more of the robins served the same way.

— David Tenney, a notorious offender, who was concerned with Sanborn in recent robberies in Malden, Mass., has been sentenced on two old indictments for burglary, to four years in the State Prison. The other indictments against him were laid on file.

— It is stated that the President's veto message was approved by all the members of the Cabinet except Mr. Stanton. [We do not believe this statement in full. But whether or true or false, the Cabinet does not possess the veto power,—it is not any part of the lawmaking department,—and, as an organized body, it is unknown to the Constitution, and not named in it.]

— The Knoxville Tenn., Whig publishes a letter from Senator Wilson to Gov. Brownlow, transmitting the statement of a rebel editor in Tennessee, that there were 7000 negroes registered, but that they (the rebels) did not intend to permit them to vote; that they would have 2000 whites at the polls armed, who would take possession of the polls and drive the negroes away, or make a fight if they persisted in attempting to vote.

Holloway's Pills and Ointment.—Palpitation of the heart is frequently caused by indigestion or relaxed state of the nervous system. A course of a few weeks of these invaluable medicines will diminish the irregular throbbing, and by removing the source, restore its natural pulsation. To assist the functions, not to force them, is the true secret of success. Holloway's medicines and treatment are based on the simple laws of nature—by annihilating the cause the effect disappears. Sold by all druggists. jy2daw

UNION PACIFIC RAILROAD CO.
Are now constructing a railroad from
OMAHA, NEBRASKA,
westward towards the Pacific Ocean, making with its connections an unbroken line
ACROSS THE CONTINENT.

The Company now offer a limited amount of their
FIRST MORTGAGE BONDS,
having thirty years to run, and bearing annual interest, payable on the first day of January and July, in the City of New York, at the rate of
SIX PER CENT. IN GOLD,
AT
Ninety Cents on the Dollar.

This road is already completed to Julesburg, 376 miles west of Omaha, Kansas, and is fully equipped, and trains are running regularly over it. The Company has now on hand sufficient iron, ties, etc., to finish the remaining portion to the eastern base of the Rocky Mountains, 141 miles, which is under contract to be done September 1st of this year, and it is expected that the entire road will be in running order from Omaha to its western connection with the Central Pacific, now being rapidly built eastward from Sacramento, Cal., during 1870.

Means of the Company.

Estimating the distance to be built by the Union Pacific at 1000 miles, the Government issues its Six per cent. Thirty-year bonds to the Company as the road is finished, at the rate of about $25,230 per mile, amounting to $44,208,000.

The Company is also permitted to issue its own First Mortgage Bonds to an equal amount, and at the same time, which by special Act of Congress are made a First Mortgage on the entire line, the bonds of the United States being subordinate to them.

The Government makes a donation of 12,800 acres of land to the mile, amounting to 20,032,000 acres, estimated to be worth $30,048,000, making the total resources, exclusive of the capital, $118,456,000; but the full value of the lands cannot now be realized.

The Authorized Capital Stock of the Company is one hundred million dollars, of which five millions have already been paid in, and of which it is not supposed that more than twenty-five millions at most will be required.

The cost of the road is estimated by competent engineers to be about one hundred million dollars, exclusive of equipments.

Prospects for Business.

The railroad connection between Omaha and the East is now complete, and the earnings of the Union Pacific on the sections already finished for the first two weeks in May were $13,000. These sections of earnings as the road progresses will much more than pay the interest on the Company's bonds, and the through business over the only line of railroad between the Atlantic and Pacific must be immense.

Value and Security of the Bonds.

The Company respectfully submit, that the above statement of facts fully demonstrates the security of their Bonds; and as additional proof they would suggest that the Bonds now offered are less than ten million dollars on 517 miles of road, on which over twenty million dollars have already been expended:—on 330 miles of this road the cars are now running, and the remaining 187 miles are nearly completed.

At the present rate of premium on gold, these bonds pay an annual interest on the present cost of road of

and it is believed that on the completion of the road, like the Government Bonds, they will go above par. The Company will sell but a limited amount at the present low rate, and retain the right to advance the price at their option.

Subscriptions will be received in New York by CONTINENTAL NATIONAL BANK, 7 Nassau st., CLARK, DODGE & CO., Bankers, 51 Wall street, JOHN J. CISCO & SON, Bankers, 33 Wall street, and by BANKS AND BANKERS generally throughout the United States, of whom maps and descriptive pamphlets may be obtained.—They will also be sent by mail from the Company's Office, No. 20 Nassau street, New York, on application. Subscribers will select their own Agents in whom they have confidence, who alone will be responsible to them for the safe delivery of the Bonds.

Morning Chronicle.

HARMONY AMONG PROTESTANTS.—The recent remarkable gathering of Catholics at Rome has turned anew the thoughts of many Protestants to the possibility of securing a greater harmony and working efficiency among the various denominations of their faith. This matter is very suggestively touched upon by Rev. Dr. Burt of Cincinnati, who, in a recent sermon upon the benefits of foreign travel to clergymen, is thus reported:

"In conclusion, the preacher remarked that his intercourse with people abroad had impressed him with the undesirableness of so much denominationalism in the Protestant Church. He was led to the firm conviction that greater sympathy and harmony and co-operation should exist among the different denominations. Churches of the same family, especially, should lay aside their petty prejudices, and cease from their rivalries, and work together in hearty co-operation in every good cause. Party differences seemed to diminish as distance from home increased. At home he was not only a Protestant, but a Presbyterian, and, unfortunately, an Old School Presbyterian. But it was enough in Great Britain that he was a Presbyterian; and on the continent it was enough to say that he was a Protestant Christian. In Florence, Italy, the Baptist could not remain at the communion table of the Presbyterian; but at Constantinople they were so far from those of their own special church that they gladly united with others in partaking of the Lord's Supper. When abroad he never spoke of Old School and New School Presbyterianism when he could help it, for the reason that he felt a sort of shame on account of the division. At the distance beaven is from earth, he wondered how the angels felt in regard to this matter.

The Church of Rome was a united, compact organization, and efficient beyond all comparison with divided Protestantism. It became Protestants to consider this matter; and, for the sake of more effectual work, they should, as far as possible, act together in organic unity. The contest was such as would tax their utmost strength."

Fried Eggs.—Every housekeeper knows, or thinks she knows, how to fry eggs. Perhaps some have not tried the following method, which we copy from "Dainty Dishes," and which we think a decided improvement upon any plan with which we are acquainted.

Put into a frying pan some olive oil or butter, (we used sweet lard,) when it boils, raise the handle of the pan that the liquid may run to one side. Break an egg carefully into the pan, and with a ladle, (we used a common spoon,) throw the boiling fat or butter over the egg, which will cause the white to boil up and cover the yolk—As soon as one is cooked, take it out with strainer or spoon, and do another, until you have enough, (we did two at a time.) Take care to keep them hot. They should be a nice light brown, and seasoned with pepper and salt. They make a very handsome dish and are decidedly good.

☞ A Paris letter says that a remarkable story is in circulation to the effect that before shutting himself up in Queretaro Maximilian put in order a large box of papers containing the secret history of the Mexican expedition, the correspondence with the French government, and that these papers were sent to London and are now in possession of the Duc d'Aumale, but are to be placed in the hands of Louis Blanc for editing and publication. If this be true, some terrible secrets will doubtless be revealed which will not be agreeable to the "great ruler of this enlightened nation," whom all impartial, well informed people hold responsible for the acts which led to the terrible catastrophe at Queretaro.

— The original statement about the "Hub"occurs in Holmes's "Autocrat of the Breakfast Table." We quote the sentence: "Boston State House is the hub of the solar system. You couldn't pry that out of a Boston man if you had the tire of all creation straightened out for a crowbar."

WHY FOLKS READ LOCALS.—An old "local," who ought to know all about things pertaining to his department, says the people read items of local interest for reasons as opposite as man and wife. A, reads about a fight because he was there and saw it; B, because he wasn't there, and didn't; C, because he heard about it; D, because he hadn't; while those who had a hand in it, want to know how much of truth concerning them the editor has deemed compatible in its utterance with a continuation of his own earthly career. The consciousness, too, that hundreds of others are simultaneously perusing the same article, and that it is therefore a subject of common thought and conversation, doubtless adds to the zest with which ordinary readers eagerly devour articles that otherwise would have but a dull perusal or no perusal at all.—Ex.

HORACE GREELEY'S HONESTY ENDORSED.—The Boston Journal says:

"We rather regret the failure of Horace Greeley's confirmation to Austria. We have sufficiently manifested our disapproval of Mr. Greeley's course on some matters of late, but he is an honest man, with ten times the capacity of the majority of our diplomatic representatives, and he is no supporter of President Johnson. His failure, however, appears to have been wholly due to the self conceit of a new member, who doubtless thought he was wiser than all the Senators who have grown gray in the public service and in devotion to Republican principles."

[Senator Tipton objected, (as was his privilege) to considering G's nomination, last Saturday. Otherwise he would probably have been confirmed unanimously. Mr. T. said he "could not vote to confirm one of Jeff. Davis's bailmen."]

☞ Maximilian's farewell letter to his wife, was opened by the Mexican authorities; and a translated copy reads as follows:

MY BELOVED CARLOTTA;—If God permit that your health get better and you should read these few lines, you will learn the cruelty with which fate has striken me since your departure for Europe. You took along with you not only my heart but my good fortune. Why did I not give heed to your voice? So many untoward events! Alas! so many sudden blows have shattered all my hopes, so that death is but a happy deliverance—not an agony—to me. I shall die gloriously, like a soldier, like a king vanquished, but not dishonored. If your sufferings are too great, and God should call you soon to join me, I shall bless His Divine hand which has weighed so heavily upon us. Adieu, Adieu! Your poor MAX.

☞ The Commissioners continue to receive evidence of the crimes perpetrated by the Trade Unions at Sheffield, England. A man named Hatterly, a nailmaker, detailed the circumstances connected with the blowing up of his place, for which three men, had, years ago, been convicted upon circumstantial evidence, but who were proved innocent by recent revelations.—Two men, named Butcher and Watson, were afterward examined, who admitted that they were the real culprits, and detailing the circumstances of the outrage, and the amount of pay they received for perpetrating it. They admitted being tried for it, but proved an alibi by 14 or 16 witnesses. Notwithstanding this, they were, with others, convicted, but released afterward in consequence of strong representations as to their innocence.

— Rev. Mr. Mayce, of the Catholic Church in Northampton, denies that he has petitioned the Pope for leave to use the Protestant Bible.

— John Minor Botts recently recovered a horse which was stolen from him during the war; whereupon the New York World remarks: "If Botts was disconsolate without the horse, how happy was the horse to be free from Botts!"

— It is said that the Jesuits are about to announce a new dogma, to the effect that the believers are to be required to avow their faith in the personal infallibility of the Pope, and that it is an infallible rule of faith that the Pope is master of faith and manners.

— A terrible accident has occurred at Lawrenceburg, Dearborn County, Indiana. Three little boys, brothers, were playing on the railroad track, and were lying between the rails, so that the engineer of the Cincinnati train did not see them in time to check the train or to give the alarm. The cars ran over them, and killed all three outright.

— Ex Governor Herschell V. Johnson of Georgia is violently opposed to reconstruction, but seems to be rather hopeless. He says "the President is powerless," the Supreme Court "bows to the black surge of radical fanaticism," and that his only hope, and that not sanguine, is in a possible reaction among the people of the North and Northwest." Truly, he has no reason to be sanguine.

SOMETHING NEW!
SELEE'S HAIR LIFE
Has been thoroughly tested by thousands during the past year, and is declared superior to all other preparations for the hair. It has no equal for Restoring Gray Hair to its original color in from TEN TO THIRTY DAYS.
It is a most splendid Hair Dressing, surpassing all others for making dry and brashy hair soft, glossy and beautiful, as in youth.
This Magical Preparation invariably stops the falling of the hair, and always promotes a lively, luxuriant growth.
Its use will at once free the head from Dandruff, Scurf and all Humors, especially Salt Rheum.
It KILLS HAIR EATERS, which are so fatal to the roots of the hair. It contains no nitrate of silver, which is found in most other Hair preparations, and is so injurious.

Portsmouth, N. H.

THURSDAY, JULY 25, 1867.

CABLE ITEMS, Tuesday. — By an imperial ukase all political and governmental distinctions between Poland and the Empire of Russia are obliterated, and Poland is now absorbed into Russia as one of the Provinces of the Empire. [Each province is to have an Assembly, or Parliament.]

The French Government has prohibited the placing of any portion of the Russian Railroad loan in the Paris market.

The Sultan of Turkey has left England on his return to Constantinople. He will pass through Germany and stop at Vienna for one week, where, as previously announced, he will be the guest of Francis Joseph, Emperor of Austria. Great preparations are being made for the reception.— If all the plans are carried out, the ceremonies and festivities will excel in grandeur and magnificence anything he has met with in either France or England.

FIRST OF AUGUST.—The black republicans of New Bedford and vicinity, as usual, are making suitable arrangements for a grand celebration of the thirty-seventh anniversary of the British West Indian Emancipation. The ceremonies include a procession of colored societies and citizens, escorted by the Second Battalion of Infantry, M. V. M., the Burnside Guard, Capt. Buchanan, of Newport, R. I., and a recently formed military company of Providence, the whole under the command of Major Lewis Gaul of the Second Battalion.—There will be a pic nic in the afternoon, at which addresses may be expected from distinguished gentlemen connected with the anti-slavery cause. The day's celebration will close with a grand ball in the evening.

SUICIDES. — Mrs. Salome Wheeler of Halifax, Vt., drowned herself in a mill pond a few days ago. She was a widow, 66 years old, in independent pecuniary circumstances, and a woman of lovely character.

The Unfortunate Carlotta has made two unsuccessful attempts upon her own life.—She is gradually fading away. [We suppose this Carlotta to be the widow of Max, the sham Emperor of Mexico. Her case is sad indeed; and we remember that 30,000 Mexicans and others are said to have had their lives sacrificed in Max's mad attempt to build an empire upon the ruins of two republics. What shall we say of 20,000 or 30,000 unfortunate Carlottas who were made widows by the process?]

WASHINGTON ITEMS.—The Cabinet held its regular meeting on Tuesday, all the members being present but Sec. Seward. Among the subjects discussed was the question of filling vacancies occasioned by the non-confirmation of executive appointments to certain offices. It was decided that such vacancies could not be filled beyond the appointment of special agents in case of Postmasters, and only by Charge d' Affairs to the unfilled foreign missions.

The rumor of Gen. Sheridan's removal is circulated with confidence in some circles, but is not credited among the friends of the administration.

ADMIRAL FARRAGUT IN FRANCE.—The United States steam frigate Franklin, bearing the broad pendant of Admiral Farragut, arrived at Cherbourg, Tuesday, July 23, and Admiral F. and several officers went to Paris by rail that day and received on all sides the most distinguished attention. The United States Minister, Gen. Dix, gave a fete in honor of the Admiral. A large number of American ladies and gentlemen were present to meet him, and gave him a cordial welcome.

☞ Mr. Gowing, a farmer residing at Ascutneyville, Vt., and his wife were murdered on Monday night by a Frenchman, a former employee of Mr. Gowing, who beat their brains out with an axe. The murder was committed in the hope of finding money, for which the house was thoroughly searched. How much was obtained is not known. It was rumored that the murderer has been arrested.

☞ The Washington National Intelligencer of Tuesday announces, apparently on authority, a confirmation of the recent dispatch that the President will fully carry out the Reconstruction Laws and the late supplemental act. It entirely disclaims for him the construction placed upon a portion of his late message that he did not intend to execute the latter act.

☞ In Portland, efforts have been made to unite the 2d Parish, (Dr. Carruthers',) with the 3d, (where Dr. C. would not let them settle Mr. Walton,)—but without success. It is now proposed for the Central Church (formererly Rev. H. D. Moore's) to unite with the 3d Parish,—and this may be successful.

☞ In the Republican convention of New Jersey, on Tuesday, an address was adopted, taking strong ground in favor of impartial suffrage, and resolutions to the same effect were passed.

NEW HAMPSHIRE ITEMS.

—— The Boston Journal says, the report that Capt. Samuel M. Carr, the New London runaway husband, has turned up in California is incorrect. The last known of him was at the Isthmus of Panama, where he took passage for New Zealand with his three children and paramour.

—— In Concord, Tuesday evening, last, a fire broke out in the L of a dwelling house on Montgomery street, owned and occupied by Mrs. Gibson. The flames were extinguished with small damage. The fire was thought to be the work of an incendiary, and caused excitement throughout the city. The owner was insured.

—— Sixty young men have already passed examination for admission into the next Freshmen class of Dartmouth College, while others are expected to present themselves at the opening of the fall term, August 30. Of the above, fifty-two will go into the Academical Department and eight will take the Scientific course. The Freshmen class for 1857 promises to be the largest for the past ten years.

THE LORD BOND ROBBERY AND RETURN.—It appears that such arrangements had been made by the detective police in this country and in Europe that none of the missing Lord bonds could be put on either the European or American market without leading to the detection of the man who dared the undertaking. * * * It now appears that the party on this side of the Atlantic who had received the bonds was the firm of James G. King & Sons, bankers, of New York, and that the European party was the well known Baring Brothers of London. It appears that the latter firm obtained the bonds from a lawyer in the English capital, who received them from those parties who had come by them in an unlawful manner. He, of course, is now the sole possessor of the secret as to the identity of the guilty parties who held them. The total amount received from this lawyer by Baring Brothers, which was transferred by them to Mr. Lord through James G. King & Sons, was about $1,400,000, $200,000 more than was at first reported.

A RICH CURRENCY COUNTERFEIT UTTERER.—A report of the Treasury Department states that on the 18th inst. one of the detectives in the service, under Col. W. P. Wood, arrested the proprietor of a livery stable at Attowa, Pa., named Wm. Johnson, on a charge of passing counterfeit money. He has been suspected (and watched) for some time past of being in the counterfeit postal currency business. A hearing was had before a United States Commissioner at Pittsburg, resulting in Johnson being held to bail in $10,000. He is said to be a rich man.

HOW THIS WORLD IS GIVEN TO LYING.—It is now stated, on apparently good authority, that Bishop Lamey, and the ten priests, and the Sisters of Charity, were not killed nor carried away captives by the Indians near Fort Larned; but they passed Fort Dodge, 55 miles further west, July 16, with a large train.

☞ John Minor Botts, in a recent letter, says that "there is a purpose now half dormant, in the event of the restoration of the Democratic party to power in the State and Federal Government, not only to test the constitutionality of the acts of Congress conferring suffrage upon the freedmen, but also to reduce the former slave to bondage again, upon the ground that it was improperly and unconstitutionally forced upon the Southern States."

☞ On Tuesday evening, in New York city, at a meeting of the Union Republican General Committee at their rooms, General Grant was nominated as the choice of their party for the next Presidency, subject to the decision of the Republican National Convention.

☞ In Cincinnati, Wednesday, two Italian counterfeiters were arrested in a room on 3d street, while in the act of moulding counterfeit five cent nickles. The had superb dies and machinery, and had several bushels of spurious coin ready to be shoved.

— Horace Greeley says he can't go to Austria, and that he purposes never again to be a candiate for office.

— Theodore, the Abyssinian King, has lately put to death two hundred of his own subjects. That fact does not look very favorable for the Englishmen whom he holds as captives.

— General Grant, before his arrival in New York, telegraphed that he wanted no fuss of any kind made about him. The result is the indefinite postponement of the grand reception that was in store for him at Governor's Island.

— The newest expedient of the illicit whiskey distillers in New York, to cheat the Government, is to construct their "stalls" on board vessels in the harbor. One of these has been seized, and the detectives are on the track of others.

— The Filibustering Mexican appeals made in Richmond are said to have been a complete failure. A call for a meeting on the Capitol square brought out only a few nurses with babies. The Virginia people have had too much of war at home, to be desirous to travel to Mexico in search of it.

THE WASHINGTON MONUMENT. — A Congressional inquiry has elicited the statement that the Washington National Monument Association has $9000 invested in Washington city stock, $2000 in Seventy-thirty bonds and about $1000 more in its treasurer's hands, say $10,000. The receipts collected at boxes placed in the Patent Office and the Smithsonian Institution are about $700 per annum, which is expended in paying a watchman and messenger.

The association talk about resuming work next Spring, but it is to be wished that Congress would revoke their charter and finish the monument, under the original act of 1783. The people of the United States have already donated money enough to have completed the monument, but so much of their contributions has been absorbed by the agents and collectors, that only an ungainly pile of stone is visible. The elegant memorial blocks are in a building and the whole affair is a prey to old-fogyism and cupidity. Those who have subscribed and paid money should unite in petitioning Congress to assume control of the job.

☞ A gentleman named Mitchell, who had been ill at the American House in Portland for several days, on Tuesday evening jumped from the window of his room in the fourth story, while the attendant was receiving instructions from the physician at the door.—Alighting on the sidewalk, his arm and thigh were broken, and he received other injuries, from which he is not expected to recover.

— Whittier first appeared in print in the Newbury (Conn.) Free Press in 1826. —Exchange.

[We "guess not." It was Wm. Lloyd Garrison's paper, the Free Press, of Newburyport, Mass.]

— Chief Justice Chase has decided that the right of the United States to collect internal revenue taxes on lotteries, does not authorize the carrying on of such affairs where the laws of States declare them illegal.

— Straitened circumstances have compelled Stonewall Jackson's widow to sell the general's war horse to a citizen of Macôn, Ga. It was presented to the general by the citizens of Augusta county, Va.

— Chicago is eating frogs voraciously this season, and has already consumed 100,000, with the expectation of tripling the number next year. At the Southern House and leading hotels they are regularly announced on the bill of fare, and readily accepted as a relief from the detestible "blue beef."

— The New Bedford Mercury says that C. C. Bixby, an apothecary of North Bridgewater, has been prosecuted by Deputy Constable Morse, for selling Hostetter's Bitters to some young fellows who got drunk on the 4th inst. The fine is $1000.

— It is only seventy-three years since the first boat started from Cincinnati for a trip up the Ohio. The boat was bullet-proof, was equipped with two cannon and with small arms, and occupied four weeks in making the round trip to Pittsburg.

— It has been ascertained that a Methodist clergyman in Middlefield, Ct., named Cullison, has four wives living and has served in the penitentiary. He has stolen his sermons from those of English divines. His real name is John W. Green, and he was known years ago as A. Green the swindler.

— While ten men watch for chances, one man makes chances, and while ten wait for something to turn up, one turns something up; so, while ten fail, one succeeds and is called a man of luck or favorite of fortune. There is no luck like pluck, and fortune most favors those who are most indifferent to fortune.

— During a recent discussion of the Mexican question in the Corps Legislatif of France, M. Jules Favre stated that the real idea of the expedition was the subversion of the Mexican Republic and the establishment of a throne in Mexico, but this intention had been concealed by the government. The French troops ought to have brought back Maximilian, and thus have saved France from the stain of blood which will rest upon her.

— Saturday morning, as a train was passing near the Marine Hospital at Portland, Me., a heavy piece of timber fell from the train and struck a track repairer, named Patrick Golden, on the back of the head, and so injured him that he died shortly after the accident.

— Registration returns from nearly half of Alabama show great indifference on the part of the whites. Only 14,000 whites have registered to 32,000 blacks. Registration closed in Nashville, Tenn., on Saturday. Six thousand voters have been registered, of whom sixteen hundred are whites.

THE PLAN of the Washington Library Company of Philadelphia is to offer to the public an interest in a charitable institution by offering stock in shares of one dollar, for which a certificate is given with an engraving fully worth the money paid. As a still further inducement to have the shares taken up rapidly, every stockholder is promised a present of some value in addition to his stock and picture. The funds thus secured by the sales of stock are deposited with Messrs. George A. Cooke & Co., Bankers, No 33 South Third Street, Philadelphia, to be by them applied to the object in view. A charitable public institution thus receives the benefit, and not a private individual. Read advertisement.

IF IT IS THROWN IN YOUR TEETH that you do not keep your dental apparatus in proper trim, it is your own fault, for all the world knows that you might do so by using that matchless vegetable dentifrice, SOZODONT. 10

THE SUN AND STARS. The stars all "go out" by daylight. So must all the common adulterated compounds of saleratus disappear before Fyle's; that defies all competition. Try it. Ask your grocer for Fyle's Saleratus, and see that his name is on the package. 13

☞ SPERR'S Sambuci Wine ranks above all other Wines for medical purposes; it is a diuretic nitertive and tonic. For weakly persons and the consumptive it has no equal. Sold by Druggists.

— Call for Herrick Allen's Gold Medal Saleratus. Agitate until you get it. If your grocer has not got it, ask him to go to the wholesale Agent, get a box and try it. It is the best in the world. Do not be put off with any other. Use it instead of soda; it is a great deal better. Try it. Most of the merchants have it. Their depot is 113 Liberty street, New York. 36

WHAT EVERY ONE WANTS.

A good, reliable medicine that will be on hand when required, and never fails when called on.—That is now to be obtained in Dr. Tobias' Celebrated Venetian Liniment. Many thousands call it the Wonder of the Age, as it does all that is represented and more. It cures Diarrhœa, Dysentery, Colic, Spasms, Vomiting, Croup, and Sickness at sea nearly as it is used, and is perfectly innocent to take internally, even in double the quantity named in the directions: and as an external remedy for Chronic Rheumatism, Cuts, Bruises, Old Sores, Mumps, Toothache, Headache, Sore Throat, Sprains, Insect Stings, Pains in the Back, Chest and Limbs, thousands have testified to, and their certificates can be seen at the Doctor's depot, 56 Cortlandt street, New York. Hundreds of physicians use it in their practice, and has been introduced since 1847, and hundreds who now have it in their houses, say they would not be without it even if it was $10 per bottle.—Every drop is mixed by Dr. Tobias himself, and each bottle signed by the proprietor. Only 50cts. and $1 per bottle. Sold by Druggists. Depot 56 Cortlandt street, New York. Jy8dawlm

DR. SCHENCK, THE LUNG DOCTOR.

☞ The Proprietor of SCHENCK'S PULMONIC SYRUP, the inventor of SCHENCK'S PULMONITE, the only instrument that can to a certainty detect the slightest murmur of the respiratory organs.

This is of great importance to Dr. SCHENCK, to know the exact condition of the lungs, whether it is Tuberculous, Pulmonary Bronchial, Pleuritic, or Spinal Consuption, and whether it is both lungs or only one that are diseased.

It requires constant and long practice to become familiar with every sound or rattling of a diseased bronchial tube. Patients come to Dr. SCHENCK to get examined that have been examined by their family physician, who told them that their lungs were almost gone; when by a close examination with the Respirometer, it is often found that it is an affection of the bronchial tube; and by getting a healthy action of the liver and tone of the stomach, the sufferer is soon restored to health. Sometimes medicine that will stop a cough is certain death to the patient. It locks up the liver, stops the circulation of the blood—hemorrhage follows, and, in fact, stops in the action of the very organs that cause the cough.

Dr. Schenck will be professionally at his rooms every week, 38 Bond street, New York, and 25 Hanover street, Boston, from 9 A. M. until 3 P. M. He gives advice free, but for a thorough examination with the Respirometer the charge is $5. His medicines are for sale by all druggists and dealers, also a good supply at all times at his rooms. The price of the Pulmonic Syrup and Seaweed Tonic, each $1.50 per bottle, or $7.50 the half dozen; Mandrake Pills 25 cents per box. GEO. C. GOODWIN & CO., 38 Hanover street, Agents for Boston. For sale by all druggists. w28—dawlw—no4

IMPORTANT FOR INVALIDS.—The weakness of the stomach, and its faintly performing its offices is only occasioned by the debility of the stomach nerves and their various branches, by being plastered up with phlegm, gross and acid dregs, indigestible meals, offensive effluvia, and other matters which remaining too long assume a corroding quality.

BRANDRETH'S PILLS cleanse the stomach and bowels of all unhealthy accumulations, and purify and invigorate the blood, and should be used by those who, having lost, are in pursuit of health.

The Hon. Demas Barnes says—"I sell more of Brandreth's Pills than of all others put together."

BRANDRETH'S PILLS are Sold by all Druggists, and at the Principal Office, Brandreth House, New York. Observe B. BRANDRETH on white letters on the government stamp on each box. je29dawlmspn

Local.

☞ Tuesday afternoon was quite a season for out-door sports. At the Plains, a newly-organized Base Ball Club played their first game. The Club numbers between twenty and thirty members, and is yet without a name. Members of the Granite State and Rockingham clubs also played a game at the Plains; while the Cricket Club still further enlivened the scene by a game of that favorite old English sport. A boat race was to have come off on the river between 6 and 7 o'clock, but we were unable to be present.

☞ Considerable dissatisfaction is expressed by many citizens with the course pursued by most of the city milkmen in furnishing their customers with milk by wine measure instead of beer measure.—Perhaps the dealers are not aware of the fact that a statute of New Hampshire renders them liable to a fine of $20 for each and every offence on which they may be convicted, the fine to go to the informant.

☞ On our outside this morning, both 1st and 4th pages, will be found a couple of columns of readable matter. The little poem, on rain, we think will be decided as flowing easily, like the recent spell of weather; the lovers of "locals," will there find a season for the faith that is in them concerning this matter; and we desire to say, that we do not agree with the item from the Boston Journal, regarding Greeley and Davis. We think it but fair to regard any man who goes bail for another, as generally, in some measure, justifying or defending the accused; and we think that after going so far out of his way to shake the blood-stained hand of Jeff. Davis, Horace Greeley would disgrace the office of hogreeve. We believe in making treason dangerous as well as odious, by wringing the necks of traitors and rebels—not their hands. F.

THE LATE ADMIRAL PEARSON.—The following incident is related of the late Admiral Pearson, as illustrative of his patriotism. In 1837, thirty years ago, the Admiral, then a Lieutenant and in command of the U. S. schooner Shark, touched at Constantinople. At that time the late Commodore David Porter was our Minister resident at the Court of the Sultan, and young Pearson became his guest. The Sultan having great admiration for our Navy, paid Commodore Porter a formal visit to ask his advice as to the proper person of our navy to whom to tender the command of his Navy, with the rank of Admiral, and a salary attached of ten thousand dollars per annum. The Commodore replied promptly that he had the man then under his roof, in his opinion, well fitted for the position. The Sultan was much delighted with the fact and authorized him to tender the position to young Pearson.

Shortly after the wishes of the Sultan were made known to the young Lieutenant, who appeared much flattered, yet promptly declined the honor. A gentleman now living in Charlestown, also a guest of our Minister, and who was present at the interview, tells us that Commodore Porter advised Lieut. Pearson to take time to consider the matter, that he might possibly obtain a furlough and retain his position in our Navy, and at the same time assume the position in the Turkish navy with the title and emolument offered by the Sultan; but he utterly refused to do so, declaring with much emphasis, "I would not desert my country and my flag for the whole Turkish Navy." This speech was the complete key to the character of the man.—Ex.

POLICE COURT, July 24.—Ann Wilson was arraigned for an assault upon Edward Finley and John Stuffle. Case continued to the 27th inst., and Mrs. Wilson ordered to recognize in $100 for her appearance.

John Ramsdell, Edward Finley, John Stuffle, James Brown and John Jones, soldiers, were charged with an aggravated assault on Samuel Wilson. They were severally ordered to recognize in $100 each for their appearance at the October term S. J. Court; and in default thereof were committed.

The same quintet, on a charge of assault upon Ann Wilson, wife of Samuel, were ordered to give bonds in $100 for their appearance at the October term of the S. J. Court, but likewise failed of bail in this instance.

☞ Messrs. Merrill & Fernald announce dissolution of the partnership in the lumber business—which is to be continued by Mr. Fernald.

☞ Steamship Ontario, of the new American line of Liverpool packets, made an experimental trip from Boston on Monday, going outside Cape Cod and returning Tuesday. She works well, and appears to be a fine vessel.

— Apples are a drug in the Norfolk (Va.) market.

— The price of Petroleum oil is said to have gone up one hundred per cent. within the last three weeks.

— The official report of the riot at Franklin, Tenn., bears out the opinion expressed on the receipt of the first news of the occurrence. It was caused by the Democrats alone.

— Accounts from Texas, Mississippi, and some other parts of the South, state that the crops have been greatly damaged by recent heavy rains.

— In the New York Constitutional Convention, Mr. Geo. W. Curtis' amendment to the suffrage report, giving the franchise to women, was defeated by a vote of 20 to 51.

☞ A Washington special of Wednesday says:

The ex rebel Commissioner for the exchange of prisoners publishes a letter in the National Intelligencer to-day, in which he says that in August, 1864, the rebel authorities voluntarily proposed to deliver 15,000 sick and wounded Union soldiers without requiring any equivalent. He offers to prove this by Union officers.

If he can do it by any credible evidence, by all means let him do it; but the statement reads very much like a lie.

☞ Burglars at Lowiston, Me., stole $1000 worth of jewelry and precious stones from a Miss Lockwood, early Wednesday morning.

☞ A fire at Cincinnati Tuesday night, destroyed the coffin warehouse of Crane, Read & Co. Loss $75,000.

GOLD, Wednesday, 139 1 2.

—Montgomery Blair spoke at the Rockbridge Alum Springs, Va., on Saturday.—He severely denounced the Radicals. Of President Johnson he said that he had defeated the Conservative party by retaining his enemies in office. He would advise him to get rid of these spies around him, and make General Grant, who he believed was a just man, temporary Secretary of War. Mr. Blair had only three hundred hearers.

Holloway's Pills and Ointment.—Palpitation of the heart frequently caused by indigestion or relaxed state of the nervous system. A course of a few weeks of these invaluable medicines will disentangle the irregular throbbing, and by removing the source, restore its natural pulsation. To assist the functions, not to force them, is the true secret of success. Holloway's medicines and treatment are based on the simple laws of nature—by annihilating the cause the effect disappears. THE
UNION PACIFIC RAILROAD CO.
Are now constructing a railroad from
OMAHA, NEBRASKA,
westward towards the Pacific Ocean, making with its connections an unbroken line
ACROSS THE CONTINENT.

The Company now offer a limited amount of their
FIRST MORTGAGE BONDS,
having thirty years to run, and bearing annual interest, payable on the first day of January and July, in the City of New York, at the rate of
SIX PER CENT. IN GOLD,
Ninety Cents on the Dollar.

This road is already completed to Julesburg, 376 miles west of Omaha, Kansas, and is fully equipped, and trains are running regularly over it. The Company has now on hand sufficient iron, ties, etc., to finish the remaining portion to the eastern base of the Rocky Mountains, 141 miles, which is under contract to be done September 1st of this year, and it is expected that the entire road will be in running order from Omaha to its western connection with the Central Pacific, now being rapidly built eastward from Sacramento, Cal., during 1870.

Means of the Company.

Estimating the distance to be built by the Union Pacific to be 1565 miles, the United States Government issues its Six per cent. Thirty-year bonds to the Company to the amount of $16,000 per average rate of about $23,255 per mile, amounting to $44,328,000.

The Company is also permitted to issue its own First Mortgage Bonds to an equal amount, and at the same time, which by special Act of Congress are made a First Mortgage on the entire line, the bonds of the United States being subordinate to them.

The Government makes a donation of 12,800 acres of land to the mile, amounting to 12,032,000 acres, estimated to be worth $30,000,000, making the total resources, exclusive of the capital, $118,-410,000; but the full value of the lands cannot now be realized.

The Authorized Capital Stock of the Company is one hundred millions of dollars, of which fifteen have already been paid in, and of which it is not supposed that more than twenty-five millions at most will be required.

The cost of the road is estimated by competent engineers to be about one hundred million dollars, exclusive of equipments.

Prospects for Business.

The railroad connection between Omaha and the East is now complete, and the earnings of the Union Pacific on the sections already finished for the last two weeks of May were $113,000. These sectional earnings as the road progresses will much more than pay the interest on the Company's bonds, and the business over the only line of railroad between the Atlantic and Pacific must be immense.

Value and Security of the Bonds.

The Company respectfully submit, that the above statement of facts fully demonstrates the security of their Bonds, and as additional proof they would suggest that the Bonds now offered are less than ten million dollars on 517 miles of road, on which over twenty million dollars have already been expended;—on 330 miles of this road the cars are now running, and the remaining 187 miles are nearly completed.

At the present rate of premium on gold, these bonds pay an annual interest on the present cost of Nine Per Cent.,
and it is believed that on the completion of the road, like the Government Bonds, they will go above par. The Company intend to sell but a limited amount at the present low rate, and retain the right to advance the price at their option.

Subscriptions will be received in New York by CONTINENTAL NATIONAL BANK, 7 Nassau st., CLARK, DODGE & CO., Bankers, 51 Wall street, JOHN J. Subscribers will select their own Agents in whom they have confidence, who alone will be responsible to them for the safe delivery of the Bonds.

RAIN.

BY "CHARLEY MARINE."
U. S. M. Barracks, Portsmouth, N. H.

Rain, rain, rain,
Bestowest in the Southern April rain;
What a treasure, giving pleasure
To the dry earth without measure.
What a humming, what a drumming,
Makes it with its singing-coming;
What a gentle, soft tattoo
Beats it now for me and you
On the window pane.
What a meddle-faddle-puddle
Makes it in the pool
For the children out of school;
Giving babbles many troubles,
Scaring them about with a panic rout;
Doing as it pleases, funnily it teases
All the little chickens, [quickens,
And the sun it sickens, while its pace it
Merry Southern rain.

Rain, rain, rain:
Western, Summer rain!
With its pleasant, tender sadness,
And its serious, weeping gladness;
How it trickles down the panes
In its many winding lanes. [stop;
Now it gathers in a drop, as if it wished to
But its weight of woe silently says: No!
Then down to earth below
It glides in swelling veins.
Now steadily it pours, hear how it roars;
Let us open all the doors.
See the flowers looking up,
Holding out each tiny cup
For another drink.
Hear its patter rattle-link!
Link! link! link! as it falls upon the zinc
On the roof, and its drop!
Drop, drop, drop, saying very soon I'll stop.
Oh, how I love thee, summer rain,
Though thy sadness gives me pain;
Yet 'tis not unpleasant quite.
Thy midsummer melancholy
Kindly warns me of my folly,
Saying "Pleasure cannot always last,"
And thy presence doth remind me
Pain and sadness yet may find me
Ere the summer days are past.

Rain, rain, rain.
Ah! The everfalling rain!
Awful, Eastern, Autumn rain,
Will it never cease? Will the floods increase,
Till by solitude it make a peace?
Drowning, killing ever, staying kindly never,
Falling till each brooklet is a river,
And the river is an ocean,
Giving earth a fatal portion,
Spreading fearful devastation,
In its deluge of invasion;
Now exiling homes and peoples,
Drowning cellars, roofs and steeples,
Driving off the flocks; stealing all the shocks
Of goodly fields of corn, leaving them forlorn,
Breaking plenty's horn,
At all mercy mocks,
Plowing up the place with cruel, savage hand,
Where its devasting races left in solitude the land.

Rain, rain, rain,
It comes, it comes again.
Ah! it is a storm, in the Northern winter form.
Hear the horrid, growling blast,
As the storm-king rushes past,
Trampling in his rage
Homes and trees and grass,
Piling ruins up in mass,
Sparing neither youth nor age.
Oh, the misery then be just!
Oh, the terrors that thou flingest
(And the hunger, cold and death Which thou bearest on thy breath)
In thy fearful path.
Oh, the terror of the wrath
Of the Northern, Winter rain.

Rain, rain, rain,
Eastern Autumn rain, Western Summer rain,
Southern April rain,
Rain, rain, rain.

THE FIRST MAN.—There must have been some curious specimens of Scottish humor brought out at the examinations or catechizings by ministers of the flock before the administration of the communion. Thus with reference to human nature before the fall, a man was asked:

"What kind of a man was Adam?"

"Oo, just like other folk."

The minister insisted on having a more special description of the first man, and pressed for more explanation.

"Weel," said the catechumen, "he was just like Joe Simpson, the horse couper."

"How so" asked the minister.

"Weel, nebody got onything by him, and many lost."

— Fathers and mothers in America seem to obey their sons and daughters naturally, and as they grow old become the slaves of their grandchildren.—Anthony Trollope.

— The citizens of New Orleans are excited concerning the names of twins born on the railroad cars. They propose calling the boy Os-car and the girl Car-oline.

— A swindler is travelling through Vermont disposing of pound packages of tea, price $1.15. It turns out that the packages weigh 10 1-2 ounces, and contain a mixture of different varieties of very poor tea.

— In a sermon, delivered in the Plymouth church, Brooklyn, last Sunday, on the "Nobility of Labor," Rev. Henry Ward Beecher said that more public men of eminence had started from the business of type-setting than probably from any other occupation.

— Early responsibility is almost equivalent to early sobriety. If a stick of timber standing upright wave, lay a beam on it and put a weight on that and see how still the stick becomes. And if young men waver and vacillate, put responsibility on them and tow it straighens them up. What power it gives them. How quickly it developes and puts forward all that is good in them.

— A wise man bath foibles as well as a fool; but the difference between them is, the foibles of the one are known to himself, and concealed to the world; the foibles of the other are known to the world, but concealed from himself. The wise man sees those frailties in himself which others cannot; but the fool is blind to those blemishes in his character which are conspicuous to everybody else. Whence it appears that self-knowledge is that which makes the main difference between a wise man and a fool, in the moral sense of that word.

C. A. RICHARDS & CO.'S
CONCENTRATED
EXTRACT OF RYE.
THE Proprietors of this popular article, finding it necessary to remove a wrong impression from the public mind regarding the real merits which they claim for it,
WOULD ONCE AGAIN ANNOUNCE
THAT
IT IS NOT a mere dram-drinking beverage, but a PURE, GENUINE and SCIENTIFICALLY PREPARED
MEDICINE.
It is not, as many have been led to believe, nothing but good Rye Whiskey, but a
MEDICINAL REMEDY,
specially designed for certain useful and beneficial purposes; which any intelligent and thinking person can readily see, by reading what we now have
TO SAY ABOUT IT,
without any long, high sounding words, such as some doctors use to mystify and bewilder a patient, until he can't begin to tell what does not ail him. We SIMPLY AND PLAINLY SAY that "EXTRACT OF RYE" is nothing but the
JUICES OF THE GRAIN
combined with a certain oily, fatty and vegetable matter, which, when taken into the system, stimulates it first to
NEW LIFE, and a restored appetite, and then goes to make BETTER and STRONGER CHEMICALLY PREPARED
FLESH AND BLOOD.
One can instantly see how this preparation must soothe the throat when it is inflamed, and must carry its lubricating and fattening effects to the lungs; consequently
IT IS WHAT YOU WANT,
when you have a bad cough, to cure it, when you have
CONSUMPTION OF THE LUNGS,
to heal and build them up again. So much for those troubles.
Now, if you want an article to FEED THE SYSTEM ON, when it has become reduced by sickness or by being OVERTAXED IN ANY WAY, this medicine will
DO THE WORK.
We have, among a great many letters we have received about it, a great many testimonials that it has been the means of making people
GAIN FLESH AND GROW FAT.
The reason for this is the
GRAND SECRET OF THE WHOLE MATTER,
It acts as a
STIMULATING FOOD
to the body, and helps Nature
THROW OFF DISEASE.
How often, of late years, have people been terribly deceived by resorting to common whiskey for this purpose, when, if they knew it, the only advantage to be gained from the use of whiskey must spring from the little quantity it contains of that of which Extract of Rye is in truly composed. Thus, then, is the whole story. EXTRACT OF RYE will cause you to throw off disease by feeding the system with a
STIMULATING FOOD,
and will build up and restore the powers of mind and body, while you become fat and happy.
It is put up in convenient style, each bottle being contained in a paper box. It is not sold at a foolish fancy price, but offered at a reasonable cost to rich and poor.

THE TWO POLICIES.—Speaker Coltax, in his recent serenade speech at Washington, thus felicitously compares the reconstruction policies of the President and of Congress:

"All parties agree that he (President Johnson) spoke correctly when, in his North Carolina proclamation of May, 1865, he declared that all the civil governments of the South had been destroyed by the rebellion. He then, without calling Congress together, went on with the work of reconstruction, in the absence of all law upon the subject. Has Congress made State governments subordinate to the military power? So did the President. Has Congress provided for the calling of State conventions? So did the President. But he ordered conventions by his executive fiat, and recognized their constitutions without their being submitted to the people.

Congress required the people—the registered voters—to call the convention themselves, and then to approve or reject their work by a popular vote. Has Congress required the ratification of a constitutional amendment? So did the President. Has Congress established a test oath? So did the President. Our crime is, I suppose, that we provided that those whom the nation had made free, should have the freeman's ballot for their protection, while the President did not. But the results of his policy strikingly contrast with the results of ours. The nation looked on to see what fruits would result from his action—and what were they? In nearly every State the rebel power resumed its authority, and became dominant in their executive, legislative and judicial departments. The vagrant and labor laws, virtually re-enslaving the emancipated, followed, and murders, outrages, riots and massacres ripened the whole. Loyal men were under the foot, and the revivified spirit of rebellion was triumphant.

With our duty to our country, and on our oaths, we could not affirm and legalize this policy; hence the legislative action we have since taken. Approved in the past, as we have been, I cannot doubt even a more triumphant endorsement hereafter.—The President appeals to the ballot box, and so do we, and by its decision are willing to stand or fall."

SOMETHING NEW!
SELEE'S HAIR LIFE
Has been thoroughly tested by thousands during the past year, and is declared superior to all other preparations for the hair. It has no equal for Restoring Gray Hair to its original color in from TEN TO THIRTY DAYS.
It is a most splendid Hair Dressing, surpassing all others for making dry and brashy hair soft, glossy and beautiful, as in youth.
This Magical Preparation invariably stops the falling of the hair, and always promotes a lively, luxuriant growth.
Its use will at once free the head from Dandruff, Scurf and all Humors, especially Salt Rheum.
It KILLS HAIR EATERS, which are so fatal to the roots of the hair. It contains no nitrate of silver, which is found in most other Hair preparations, and is so injurious.

Portsmouth, N. H.

FRIDAY, JULY 26, 1867.

☞ Whether or no "the world is governed too much," it is pretty clear that it is cheated too much. For instance, it is now said that the dispatch announcing the massacre of Bishop Lamy and ten sisters of charity by the Indians, proves, like three-fourths of the Indian news, to be utterly without foundation. On which the Tribune truly remarks, "In fact, the Indian news, as well as the Indian war, is in the main manufactured by dishonest speculators, who make profit out of the military movements on the Plains. There is nothing they dread more than peace. There is nothing for which they scheme and manœuvre and lie so eagerly as for a good, long, bloody war. The Indian Peace Commissioners, appointed under the recent act of Congress, are about entering upon their duties, and we trust they will devote a good share of attention to the deviltry of the government contractors and other speculative scamps, who have brought upon us most of the present troubles, and are trying to bring more."

No doubt of it, and we never had a doubt either, that if speculators did not actually make the Southern war, they did control and shape it. But for them, the specie basis never would have been left, as it never should have been; and but for them, it would have been restored long ago, as it could and should be to-day. But for the fortunes made out of the inflated and depreciated currency, and the pickings and stealings—Uncle Sam could ere this have paid all his own war debt, and every cent of State and town liabilities incurred for him, as he will do yet, unless the thieves steal his very vitals. For some particulars, read Gen. Baker's Secret Service book.

☞ A religious newspaper remarks, "It is said that the drawing up of the Declaration of Independence would have been committed to Benjamin Franklin, if it had not been feared that 'he would put a joke into it.'—Nothing less than the martyrdom of Abraham Lincoln could have saved his memory in certain quarters from the taint of levity unbecoming his high position."

[What is here termed levity, would be more properly called cheerful good humor, which is becoming in all in all positions.—There is no good reason why a wise man should look like an owl, or why a great man should have a grim aspect, like a wooden block. Benjamin Franklin had enough of true dignity, and so did Abraham Lincoln; they had no need of hypocritical gravity.]

STATEMENT OF THE REV. MR. MERRILL.—The Troy Times publishes a long letter from the Rev. S. M. Merrill, about whom there has been so much scandal of late, explaining his conduct and appealing to his friends and the public for forgiveness. He confesses imprudence and folly, but not absolute crime; and the explanation leaves him in a pitiable condition. He is deeply in debt; has been thoroughly exposed in the papers, and now by his own statement, as a very weak man: and the best thing he could do now, would be to take some humble labor in private life, whereby he would earn his own bread, and possibly get half a loaf for some of his children.

EXCHANGE OF PRISONERS.—The Washington correspondent of the New York Times says:

General Butler occupied the attention of the House for an hour Wednesday morning in a personal explanation replying to an article in a Washington newspaper regarding the exchange of prisoners. He thoroughly refuted the charges made therein, that the rebels offered and he refused to accept the release of 20,000 of our sick and wounded soldiers, in their hands, by producing documentary evidence from the records of the War Department that no such offer was made. Mr. Eldridge, with more enthusiasm than discretion or loyalty, took up the gauntlet in behalf of the rebel commissioner, Judge Ould, and succeeded by handing that officer to the skies as a gentleman of honor and probity, although he admitted his treasonable participation in the rebellion, in getting himself more thoroughly hissed both from the galleries and the floor than any member since the war. The Speaker promptly called the House to order, but the demonstrations continued for several moments after the gavel fell.

☞ The Tribune gives extracts from the great speech of Thiers on the history of the French intervention in Mexico. His proofs of the dishonesty of the French Government in presenting fraudulent claims, and in violating the agreement it had come to with the allies, are overwhelming. Never before had the representatives of the French Government so winced under the attacks of the Opposition. Their defeat could not have been more complete.

☞ A number of documents have been published relative to the capture of Santa Anna on board an American vessel. The most important is the protest by John Deaken, captain of the Virginia, who declares on oath that when Santa Anna was taken by force from his vessel, the Virginia was anchored more than a marine league from the port of Sisal.

NEW HAMPSHIRE ITEMS.

—— A son of Col. John B. Perkins, of Hollis, has received an appointment to a cadetship at West Point, to commence next June.

—— Mr. David Page, of Raymond, was 93 years old July 17. On that day he had a family party at his house. He used a hoe in the field this year, and is frequently at work with the haymakers.

—— Thos. Newell, an Irish switchman at Woodsville, on the the Boston & Montreal R. R., fell between two cars on Wednesday of last week, and was crushed. He died a few hours afterward.

—— John Conant, of East Jaffery, has recently pledged ten thousand dollars towards the one hundred thousand dollar fund which the Rev. Mr. Eaton of Nashua is now raising for the New London Literary and Scientific Institution.

☞ National banks now pay the following taxes: A license tax of $50 upon $50,000 capital, and $2 a thousand upon excess of capital over $50,000; a semi-annual tax of 1-2 of 1 per cent. upon average amount of circulation; a semi-annual tax of 1-4 of 1 per cent. upon the average amount of deposits; a semi-annual tax of 1-4 of 1 per cent. upon the average amount of capital stock, less amount invested in United States bonds. A National bank is also required to pay 5 per cent. upon all dividends and surplus added. In case of neglect to pay dividends a tax of 5 per cent. on profits.

☞ Tuesday morning a passenger train on the Jackson Railroad ran off the bridge near Troy, Miss., caused by parties removing the frogs connecting the rails. The locomotive, tender, mail and baggage cars were thrown from the track, falling thirty feet. The passenger cars remained on the bridge. The fireman was killed and the engineer and brakeman badly injured.—The train was detained several hours. A reward of $1000 in gold is offered for the arrest of the miscreants who removed the frogs.

☞ It is apprehended that the whole work of registration in Virginia will have to be done over again, on account of illegalities thus far practiced. Complaints from loyal men are daily being received at Gen. Schofield's headquarters of illegal registration, a great many ex-rebels asserting that the oath is not constitutional, and consequently is not binding. Frauds of the most gigantic proportions of this kind are reported to have been practiced, while on the other hand numbers, from fear or indifference, have refused to register.

☞ A Buffalo, N. Y. dispatch of Wednesday says, many of the farmers of Niagara County have contracted to deliver the new crops of amber wheat to the Lockport millers, at two dollars per bushel. The weather is fine, but rain is wanted for the growing crops. [So the Buffalonians did not get wet down, as we did.]

☞ Henry Williams, the Canadian Frenchman, who killed Mr. and Mrs. Gowing, at Ascutneyville, Vt., has been arrested and is in Vermont State prison. His guilt is undoubted. He got no money.

☞ Mississippi papers report the prevalence of a disease resembling cholera along the Yazoo River plantations. It is confined to the freedmen, and has proved fatal in many instances.

☞ Hall's Journal of Health for August, contains an essay on "Bible and Business."

— The Lewiston Journal says that the officers in that city report that the sale of liquors is almost entirely stopped. Even the most desperate sellers don't like the looks of jail life.

— Aekiwara, one of the Japanese students at Monson, Miss., committed suicide by hanging on Sunday evening. Mental depression amounting almost to insanity was the cause of the act.

— In a West Troy Court, the other day, an illiterate man satisfactorily proved his account for labor done by showing that he had cut a notch on the top of his boot-leg each day he worked, and as there were twenty-seven notches, he received pay for twenty-seven days.

— Michael Goodwin of Ware signed the temperance pledge on the Fourth of July of last year for one year, and when his time expired he returned to his old practices. On the fifth he fell down stairs and received internal injuries from which he died on the Sunday following.

— Adolphus Wolff has been brought from Richmond to Baltimore, to answer to the charge of obtaining $25,000 worth of goods from Baltimore merchants on false pretences. It is said that he has swindled New York and Philadelphia merchants to the tune of $220,000.

— Governor Pierpont addressed three thousand people at Halifax, Va., on the 22d. He said as to parties now he believed that there is but one great party in this country, which is national in its character, and that is the Republican party. There is a Democratic party at the North, but he did not know of many people in Virginia who had any strong sympathy for it.

WRECKING OPERATIONS.—The Memphis Daily Post, of July 19, gives the following account of the operations of the Government sub-marine wrecker, Gen. J. G. Totten, under command of Capt. C. E. Peirce, U. S. Asst. Engineer, with Mr. George F. Evans as clerk. These gentlemen will be remembered as recently connected with the U. S. Engineers' Department in this city:

Capt. Pierce arrived with his boat last Friday, and after his divers had made a sub-marine reconnoisance and ascertained the position of the wreck of the old wharf-boat St. Louis, opposite the foot of Union street, he ordered six torpedoes, of forty pounds of powder each, to be placed under the wreck, which were exploded by means of an electric battery, on Saturday morning, rending two-thirds of the wreck into a thousand fragments, the terrific shock of which shook the city to its very foundations, and was supposed by many at first to be the shock of an earthquake. The first explosion was very successful and made a complete havoc of the wrock, with the exception of the stem, which was of extraordinary strength, being strongly bolted with a heavy stem of iron, weighing about 1200 pounds.

Before the wreck was disturbed, another wreck was discovered lying on top of it, supposed to be the debris of the steamer Lucella, the diver discovering her boilers and fire fronts, the former of which were rolled off by the first shock into the channel, which is some 60 or 70 feet deep. On Monday two more torpedoes of 40 pounds of powder each, were placed under the keelson, and were exploded with good effect towards clearing away the remaining part of the wreck, which was very difficult to work at, as the decks were burned off, and it was necessary to place torpedoes underneath and on the outside of the hull.—On Tuesday last two additional torpedoes were placed near the stern and did good execution. In the afternoon the divers took out 800 pounds of old iron.

On Wednesday three more torpedoes of the same dimensions as the others were placed under the stern, and blew up the remainder of the wreck, except the keelson, under which Capt. Pierce found it necessary to place one torpedo of a hundred pounds of powder. After this the divers made a thorough examination of the wreck, but could not find anything except fragments of timber and planks laying scattered in every direction, which are no obstruction to steamers.

Capt. Pierce informs us that this is but an experimental trial of blowing up wrecks, and speaks in highly satisfactory terms of its success. He, with the divers, certainly deserve great credit for the thorough and masterly manner in which they have performed their work.

The Totten left Memphis on the evening of the 19th, for Cairo, where Capt. Pierce will clear up the wreck of the flag ship "Black Hawk," sunk in 1865. After going to St. Louis and procuring a supply of torpedoes, he will return to Memphis and destroy several other vessels obstructing the river near that city.

— Gen. Sherman's opinion of Alaska is concise and pronounced: "Give 'em seven millions more to take it back, and be thankful to get off so cheap."

— The crop of huckleberries in New Jersey, it is estimated, will amount, in dollars and cents, to more than the combined crops of strawberries, raspberries and blackberries. Daily huckleberry trains are run over the railroads leading to New York and Philadelphia.

— Joseph Walker was under examination on Thursday of last week, in Cheektowaga, N. Y., on a charge of murdering his wife and making way with her body. Joe was proved to be a pretty hard fellow, and the case looked dubious for him, till the missing wife came into court and testified that she wasn't dead at all.

— The Richmond Whig of Tuesday says: "Let us make up our minds to go back into the Union in the appointed mode, and to adapt ourselves to the circumstances and necessities of our situation, neither waiting for a miracle from heaven, nor for that long expected but never to be realized reaction at the North, which some over sanguine people still talk about."

— When Gen. Grant was in Charleston he was entertained by Gen. Sickles. Next door to the residence of Gen. Sickles resided a secesh family, the children of which, evidently under instruction from their seniors, made mouths at Gen. Grant every time he appeared on the stoop or at the window, and used other insulting gestures against the Commander-in-Chief. They even accompanied it by abusive language. Next day not a stone or splinter of that house would have been visible if Gen. Grant had not personally interfered to prevent the soldiers from pulling it down.

IF IT IS THROWN IN YOUR TEETH that you do not keep your dental apparatus in proper trim, it is your own fault, for all the world knows that you might do so by using that matchless vegetable dentrifice, SOZODONT. 10

THE SUN AND STARS. The stars all "go out" by daylight. So must all the common adulterated compounds of saleratus disappear before Pyle's; that defies all competition. Try it. Ask your grocer for Pyle's Saleratus, and see that his name is on the package. 12

☞ SPERR'S Sambuel Wine ranks above all other Wines for medical purposes; it is a diuretic alterative and tonic. For weakly persons and the consumptive it has no equal. Sold by Druggists.

— We are glad to see a disposition on the part the manufacturers in this country to excel in quality, and of consumers to purchase the best in the market, especially in the articles which enter into the food of man. We are led to the above remarks since having the pleasure of eating some very nice light Biscuit, made from Herrick Allen's Gold Medal Saleratus. Our better half announces it the best she ever saw. Try it. Most all the Grocers and many Druggists sell it. 27

OATHS OF ALLEGIANCE.—The London Times has an article on this subject in which it says: "Experience has probably shown that general oaths of allegiance have proved utterly useless. In peaceful and prosperous times they are not needed; and in times of difficulty and danger they are not observed. Europe, India and America have of late furnished abundant proof that oaths, as a political security, have proved utterly inefficient."

— The city authorities of Nashville have made arrangements for opening schools for colored children, to go into effect next September.

Brooklyn, N. Y., Feb. 11, 1867.

I am delighted with the effects of SWIETENIA as a dentifrice and a wash for the mouth.—Prompted by curiosity, I subjected it to a few tests for acids, and found in it no deleterious ingredient. DR. S. S. FITCH,

Of 714 BROADWAY, NEW YORK, Author of the Six Lectures on the Prevention and Cure of Pulmonary Consumption, Asthma, Catarrh, Dyspepsia, Heart Disease and all Chronic Diseases, will be at the

ROCKINGHAM HOUSE, Portsmouth,

On THURSDAY, Aug. 1st, and on the same day of the week every 4th week afterward.

Dr. Fitch treats all Diseases of the Head, Scalp, Eyes, Nostrils, Face, Throat, Lungs, Stomach, Heart, Liver, Bowels, Kidneys, Bladder, Skin, Joints, Dropsey; also Diseases peculiar to Males and to Females. Lost Complexion perfectly restored. Most powerful Blood Purifier in the world. Have cured more bad fits of sickness. Cure them wholly, and they will live ten to fifty years longer. Dr. Fitch's most prominent specialty is the prolongation of human life.

A respectable physician said to me four weeks ago, "For seventeen years you have kept me well of diseases pronounced utterly incurable by several eminent physicians."

Mrs. Elizabeth Huntington Long writes, (Saratoga Springs, March 3d, 1867,) twenty three years ago she had ulcerated lungs, and true, seated, hereditary consumption, of which her sister died. I cured her perfectly. Fourteen years later she had a bad attack of heart disease, of which her brother died. Of this I cured her perfectly. She says, "I always remember you with gratitude, for, under God, I owe my life to you."

Miss Anna Judkin, at Portsmouth, N. H., June 7, 1867, said, "Twenty-three years ago I was your patient, and very bad with lung disease. My father, four brothers and three sisters, had died with consumption. I was wholly given up. In six months you cured me. I have now enjoyed perfect health twenty-two and a half years; not a single cause of lung diseased in all that time."

D. D. Benjamin of Union, N. J., says, "Over twenty years ago I and my brother were both in consumption. I had bleeding and ulcerated lungs. My brother refused treatment, and died in three months. You cured me, and I have not had any cough or lung trouble in twenty years. I was then forty, and I am now sixty years old."

All consultations are wholly free.

WHAT EVERY ONE WANTS.

A good, reliable medicine that will be on hand when required, and never fails when called on.—That is now to be obtained in Dr. Tobias' Celebrated Venetian Liniment. Many thousands call it the Wonder of the Age, as it does all that is represented and more. It cures Diarrhœa, Dysentery, Colic, Spasms, Vomiting, Croup, and Seasickness as surely as it is used, and is perfectly innocent to take internally, even in double the quantity named in the directions: and as an external remedy for Chronic Rheumatism, Cuts, Bruises, Old Sores, Mumps, Toothache, Headache, Sore Throat, Sprains, Insect Stings, Pains in the Back, Chest and Limbs, thousands have testified to, and their certificates can be seen at Dr. Tobias' Office, No. 56 Cortlandt street, New York. Hundreds of physicians use it in their practice. It has been introduced since 1847, and hundreds who now have it in their houses, say they would not be without it even if it was $10 per bottle.—Every drop is mixed by Dr. Tobias himself, and can be relied on. Only 50cts. and $1 per bottle. Sold by Druggists. Depot 56 Cortlandt street, New York. Jy5dawlm

DR. SCHENCK, THE LUNG DOCTOR.

☞ The Proprietor of SCHENK'S PULMONIC SYRUP, the inventor of SCHENK'S RESPIROMETER, the only instrument that can to a certainty detect the slightest murmur of the respiratory organs.

This is of great importance to Dr. SCHENCK, to know the exact condition of the lungs, whether it is Tuberculous, Pulmonary, Bronchial, Pleuritic, or Dyspeptic Consoption, and whether it is both lungs or only one that are diseased.

It requires constant and long practice to become familiar with every sound or rattling of a diseased bronchial tube. Before using DR. SCHENCK to get examined that have been examined by their family physician, who told them that their lungs were almost gone; after one or two examinations with the Respirometer, it is often found that it is an affection of the bronchial tubes; and by getting a healthy action of the liver, and tone of the stomach, the sufferer is soon restored to health. Sometimes medicine that will stop a cough is certain death to the patient. Coughs are like fever, stop the circulation of the blood—hemorrhage follows, and, in fact, stopping the action of the very organs that cause the cough.

Dr. Schenck will be professionally at his rooms every week, 32 Bond street, New York, and 35 Hanover street, Boston, from 9 A. M. to 3 P. M. He gives advice free, but for a thorough examination with the Respirometer the charge is $5. His medicines are for sale by all druggists and dealers, also a good supply at all times at his rooms. Price of the Pulmonic Syrup and Seaweed Tonic, each $1.50 per bottle, or $15.00 the half dozen. Mandrake Pills 25 cents per box.—GEO. C. GOODWIN & CO., 38 Hanover street, Agents for Boston. IMPORTANT FOR INVALIDS.—The weakness of the stomach, and its faintly performing its offices is only occasioned by the debility of the stomach nerves and their various branches, by being plastered up with pilum, gross and solid drugs, indigestible meals, offensive drinks, or other matters which remaining too long assume a corroding quality.

BRANDRETH'S PILLS cleanse the stomach and bowels of all unhealthy accumulations, and purify and invigorate the blood, and should be used by those who, having lost, are in pursuit of health.

Local.

☞ The sad accident, mentioned elsewhere, resulting in the death of a little boy, should be a warning to boys as to their selection of a play-ground. The vicinity of deep water and strong tides should be avoided by them, as well as the depots and shops where much machinery is employed. Parents cannot always keep their children under their immediate control, and perhaps it is as well for boys to become imbued with a spirit of self-reliance at an early age, yet this faculty may be cultivated without venturing into actual danger.

☞ The employees of Mr. T. S. Nowell, in his shoe manufactory, to the number of eighty, male and female, went on a picnic to Rye Beach and down river, on Thursday. They were a fine looking company of young ladies and gentlemen—not often or easily eclipsed by any equal number taken from any station in life.

DROWNED.—On Wednesday evening a little boy named Joseph John White, aged five years and six months, son of Mr. John White, boiler maker, fell from Pier Wharf and was drowned. His body was recovered. He lost his hat from the wharf, and when last seen, was trying to fish it up; and being missed several hours after, his body was found at the bottom of the dock.

POLICE COURT, July 25.— William Simpson, for being intoxicated, was fined $3 and $3.86 costs.

Edward E. LaRoche, a sailor, and John Shean, a yeoman, were arraigned on a charge of assaulting a sailor named Chas. W. Smith, with intent to rob him. A not. pros. was entered in the case of LaRoche. Shean was found guilty of committing an assault, and was sentenced to pay a fine of $10 and $5.74 costs.

☞ The reports that there is or has been any virulent sickness at any of the watering places in this vicinity, is utterly without foundation in fact.

☞ John E. Rider, Esq., of this city, is agent for the Lake Shore Railroad, and advertises their tickets for sale.

☞ Mr. Pearson, the sole agent in this city and vicinity for the manufacturers, elsewhere advertises the Mason & Hamlin Cabinet Organs, to which the attention of those desiring a nice instrument is directed. The advantages of the patented improvements enumerated are summed up thus:

The Automatic Bellows Swell, greatly the best swell ever devised, is much more effective and easily used than any other, producing a variety and beauty of effect that cannot be appreciated except from actual use. Improved Self-adjusting Valves secure much more perfect action, durability, and freedom from liability to get out of repair. Wood's Octave Coupler nearly doubles the power of the instrument in which it is used. Noiseless Safety Valves prevent the hissing sound often heard. The Improved Combination Register gives great facility in drawing stops.

☞ A match game of base ball is to be played at Newburyport on Thursday, August 1st, by the Brown High School Club of that city, and the Granite States of Portsmouth, the latter being the challenging party.

BOSTON & MAINE RAILROAD.—The Dover Enquirer defends the Boston & Maine R. R. Co. from some newspaper structures, as follows:

"The B. & M. road, we believe, neither obtained or asked for any exclusive legislation. Their only object was to obtain a general law placing all roads on an equal footing, and preventing any one, however powerful, from obtaining the control and using for their own benefit other roads, to the public detriment. Such a law was passed; that any undue means were used to procure it, and any money expended beyond what was necessary for a proper presentation of the facts to the Legislature, that they might act accordingly, is an imputation upon that honorable body as injurious as we believe it to be undeserved."

It is certainly a remarkable fact, (if it be a fact at all,) that the B. & M. Railroad Directors should spend time and the Corporation's money, to secure a public benefit and prevent railroad monopoly, without any private ends whatever; such instances of Corporate Philanthropy and disinterested benevolence deserve general notice and special commendation. If the statement be strictly true and full, then one corporation, at least, must have a larger soul than is generally supposed to reside in such bodies.

— Sand flies, of the variety known as 'green heads,' are troublesome to visitors on the beaches near Boston.

— Horace Greeley is much obliged for the compliment of a nomination for Minister to Austria, but could not be induced to leave the country at present.

— Jeff. Davis nearly fainted the other day on receiving a letter in which was written the single word "Andersonville." So a Canada paper says.

— Michael Farrel, a laborer in the Port Henry (Vt.) furnaces, was killed Saturday morning by the breaking of the rope of the elevator. He had just stepped on the elevator to remove a car of ore which had been hoisted from below, when the rope broke, precipitating him, with the car and platform, a distance of seventy-five feet, and killing him almost instantly.

☞ A boat was capsized Tuesday, off Bar Harbor, Mount Desert, Me., and eight persons drowned, viz.: Rev. R. G. Chase (rector of the Mathias Episcopal church) and wife, Miss Haupt, Miss Hezewell and Josiah Harmon, all of Philadelphia, Francis T. Clarke and wife of Framingham, and Captain C. Robinson of Tremont.

—It is reported that the President's message vetoing the last supplemental reconstruction bill was not presented nor read to Mr. Stanton for his opinion, and consequently he did not approve or disapprove the document prior to its presentation to Congress. All the other members of the Cabinet approve the message.—Ex.

The back, like all other issues of Government money, will be green, with the figures fifteen on each side. The bronze figures which have thus far been placed on the various denominations of the United States carreocy will be omitted on this new issue, and for safety a peculiar kind of paper will be substituted.

Holloway's Pills and Ointment.—Palpitation of the heart is frequently caused by indigestion or relaxed state of the nervous system. A course of a few weeks of these invaluable medicines will diminish the irregular throbbing, and by removing the source, restore its natural pulsation. To assist the functions, not to force them, is the true secret of success. Holloway's medicines and treatment are based on the simple laws of nature—by annihilating the cause the effect disappears. THE UNION PACIFIC RAILROAD CO.

Are now constructing a railroad from

OMAHA, NEBRASKA,

westward towards the Pacific Ocean, making with its connections an unbroken line

ACROSS THE CONTINENT.

The Company now offer a limited amount of their

FIRST MORTGAGE BONDS,

having thirty years to run, and bearing annual interest, payable on the first day of January and July, in the City of New York, at the rate of

SIX PER CENT. IN GOLD,

AT

Ninety Cents on the Dollar.

This road is already completed to Julesburg, 376 miles west of Omaha, Kansas, and is fully equipped, and trains are running regularly over it. The Company has now on hand sufficient iron, ties, etc., to finish the remaining portion to the eastern base of the Rocky Mountains, 141 miles, which is under contract to be done September 1st of this year, and it is expected that the entire road will be in running order from Omaha to its western connection with the Central Pacific in now being rapidly built eastward from Sacramento, Cal., during 1870.

Means of the Company.

Estimating the distance to be built by the Union Pacific to be 1565 miles, the United States Government issues its Six per cent. Thirty-year bonds to the Company as the road is finished, at the average rate of about $28,350 per mile, amounting to $44,369,000.

The Company is also permitted to issue its own First Mortgage Bonds to an equal amount, and at the same time, which by special Act of Congress are made a First Mortgage on the entire line, the bonds of the United States being subordinate to them.

The Government makes a donation of 12,800 acres of land to the mile, amounting to 20,032,000 acres, estimated to be worth $20,000,000, making the total resources, exclusive of the capital, $118,401,000; but the full value of the lands cannot now be realized.

The Authorized Capital Stock of the Company is one hundred million dollars, of which five millions have already been paid in, and of which it is not supposed that more than twenty-five millions at most will be required.

The cost of the road is estimated by competent engineers to be about one hundred million dollars, exclusive of equipments.

Prospects for Business.

The railroad connection between Omaha and the East is now complete, and the earnings of the Union Pacific on the sections already finished for the first two weeks in May were $118,000. These sections of earnings as the road progresses will much more than pay the interest on the Company's bonds, and the through business over the only line of railroad between the Atlantic and Pacific must be immense.

Value and Security of the Bonds.

The Company respectfully submit, that the above statement of facts fully demonstrates the security of the bonds; and additional proof they would suggest that the Bonds now offered are less than ten million dollars on 617 miles of road, on which over twenty millions dollars have already been expended;—on 380 miles of this road the cars are now running, and the remaining 237 miles are nearly completed.

At the present rate of premium on gold, these bonds pay an annual interest on the present cost of road of Nine Per Cent.

And it is believed that on the completion of the road, like the Government Bonds, they will go above par. The Company intend to sell but a limited amount at the present low rate, and retain the right to advance the price at their option.

Subscriptions will be received in New York by CONTINENTAL NATIONAL BANK, 7 Nassau st., CLARK, DODGE & CO., Bankers, 51 Wall street, JOHN J. Subscribers will select their own Agents in whom they have confidence, who alone will be responsible to them for the safe delivery of the Bonds.

DIFFERENCE IN THE SHAPE OF FEET. The Hide and Leather Journal notices a few of the differences in the shape of the pedal extremities of people in various sections of the country:

"Shoes made for one locality are not adapted for all. For instance, a broad shoe, wide in the shank, is the best adapted to the eastern trade, a narrow sole meeting with little favor Rhode Island, though the smallest State in the Union, can boast of having some of the biggest feet that ever trod sole leather. The Middle States require smaller shoes and higher in the instep than the East. The instep grows higher as we progress southward, commencing with Virginia, and the foot shorter and more plump. Rarely at the North does a full grown man wear less than a number six, running up in the scale of sizes to number eleven; but at the South many a full sized man wears fours and fives, and seldom over nines."

CALIFORNIA POLITICS. — A dispatch announces that the old quarrel in the Union party in California, between the "long hairs" and "short hairs" has culminated in putting a second Union ticket in the field by the former. John Bidwell, late member of Congress from that State, is at the head of it. He is the owner of one of the largest farms in the world, and is a sound, practical and honest, though not brilliant man. The other candidates on the State ticket are the same as those on the Gorham ticket, with the exception of Secretary of State, Comptroller and State Printer. If the party is equally divided, as it appears to be, by the two wings, the Copperheads will carry the State. By a change in the Constitution in 1852, the Governor and other State officers hold office four years. Three-fourths, if not more, of the influential Union papers of California are for Bidwell.—The Union vote of California at the Presidential election was not far from 60,000, and the Democrats 40,000. The "long hairs" plead foul play in the former convention as a justification for their action.

FASHION interferes directly with comfort and health. For instance, the prevailing style of Boots, (that is, shoes), with high military heels and (in button or laced boots, which it seems strange to us people will wear at all, when the congress are so much more convenient and beautiful,) close constriction of the ankle, is opposed to every principle of physiology. The general form of the foot-covering worn at the present time, even by persons who are not regarded as followers of fashion, is most injurious.—The natural form of the foot is to have the great toe in a straight line with its inner side. Fashion has dictated that our boots and shoes should be more or less pointed, and the result is that the toes are wedged together, the great toe being thrust outwards the others. By long continued usage of shoes of this shape, the feet become more or less misshapen, and it is impossible to discover one person in a thousand whose feet are not actually deformed!

This evil, great as it is, is vastly increased by the present style of high heel, which causes the weight of the body to be thrown forward on the toes, and wedges them still more tightly into the front of the shoe.—Nature has made the heel broad, so as to afford a firm basis of support; but the present style demands a small heel, which gives but an insecure foundation, and throws a great strain on the ankle-joint when the foot is placed on an irregular surface; while the free play of the joint is prevented by the boot being tightly laced around it. The effect of this constriction in causing the wasting of the muscles of the leg, may be seen in those who long wear tightly laced boots of this character. Let us trace the permanent result of this fashion. It may be seen in corns, bunions, deformed feet, followed by an inability, more or less marked, to take pedestrian exercise. This want of exercise in its turn reacts on the constitution, and permanent ill health is the frequent result.

We all think the Chinese and Japanese foolish to cramp and ruin their feet; but how many American adults' feet can you find in a thousand, not actually twisted out of all shape and deformed?

"DEAD HEADS."—In answer to a lady correspondent who desires to know the meaning of the term "dead heads," an exchange says:

"The free tickets given to the press for the uses named, are always paid for, and very liberally. As a rule, those who issue —not those who receive—those free tickets are the 'dead heads,' usually giving fifty cents for that which a five dollar bill would adequately pay for. So long as the newspaper editor is expected to give liberal notices of entertainments before they occur, and then follow these with a general puff after the show is over, he certainly has no place in the 'dead head' classification. Indeed, in nine cases out of ten, the editors would be glad to receive half pay, for their work and pay two prices for the free ticket. They certainly would make money by the operation.

We may add a few words on the general subject of advertising. The publication of advertisements is as much in the business of a newspaper as the publication of the news, and an editorial notice which is designed to supply the place of, or add value to a regular advertisement, has even less claim to a gratuitous insertion than would such an advertisement. Yet there are those who ask just such gratuitous notices, and this almost as a matter of right.

If these same persons should be asked to make a present of a dozen yards of muslin to each purchaser of a merino dress, or a dollar's worth of sugar to whoever bought three pounds of tea, or half a dozen "free tickets" to whoever engaged twenty seats at a concert, they would resent the demand as an insult. Yet why should not their wages be given away as freely as should and are the products of the editor's and publisher's labor and capital? The merchant makes his profit and living by selling his goods.—The publisher of a newspaper makes his by selling his advertising columns, not by giving them away; and when he does thus give them in aid of a public library or other beneficent object, he deserves thanks as a public benefactor, and not insults as a 'dead head.'"

—"I say my little son, where does the right hand road go?" Dont know, sir; tain't been nowhere since we lived here."

— What's in a name? Six "gentle Annies" were arrested on Monday night for indulging in a free fight. The Anni-muss was so plain that they were committed to the Island for six months by a Police Justice.—N. Y. Atlas.

— "One Woman" grumbles in the Hartford Press because of a trip on a street car being made "disagreeable by the smell of tobacco, smoked by a man on the front platform, the wind wafting it back. If people choose to smoke till their faces look like leather, it is not my affair; but I don't want tobacco puffed in my face, unless at my own request."

Has been thoroughly tested by thousands during the past year, and is declared superior to all other preparations for the hair. It has no equal for Restoring Gray Hair to its original color in from TEN TO THIRTY DAYS.
It is a most splendid Hair Dressing, surpassing all others for making dry and brashy hair soft, glossy and beautiful, as in youth.
This Magical Preparation invariably stops the falling of the hair, and always promotes a lively, luxuriant growth.
Its use will at once free the head from Dandruff, Scurf and all Humors, especially Salt Rheum.
It KILLS HAIR EATERS, which are so fatal to the roots of the hair. It contains no nitrate of silver, which is found in most other Hair preparations, and is so injurious.
THE HAIR LIFE IS NOT A DYE, but operates on the roots, restoring them to their natural, healthy state.
It is the nicest, neatest, and most effectual thing in the market.
It never stains, and is perfectly harmless.

Portsmouth, N. H.

SATURDAY, JULY 27, 1867.

LOUIS NAPOLEON.—It is stated on good authority that the letter of condolence on the death of the Emperor Maximilian, addressed by the Emperor Napoleon to the Emperor of Austria, was to the following effect: 'I send you the expression of my condolence on the dreadful news of the Emperor Maximilian. My grief is the more lively because I feel the responsibility of the painful part I have had in this misfortune. But God, who penetrates our hearts, knows that I never had any other object than to extend to those distant places the influence of our civilization. In doing this I have found no nobler or more worthy intercessor than your Majesty's unfortunate brother.'

[There are no persons more apt to appeal to the Deity in this solemn manner, than the greatest liars and hypocrites. Louis Napoleon is one of the most eminent liars in Europe; and his hypocrisy in professing such pure motives, needs no farther proof than one look back upon his murderous coup d'etat. "Our civilization" means imperial rule—the throne first,—the people last.]

IN THE SURRATT TRIAL, Thursday, the prosecution succeeded in establishing evidence that there was a connection of railroad trains through from Elmira, New York, to Washington, on the day preceding the assassination. The character of a witness named Dr. Bissell, who had sworn to seeing Surratt in Elmira on April 14, was badly damaged; and it was proved that Bissell himself was not in Elmira on that day. At one time it was agreed by counsel on both sides to close the case at once, but it subsequently appearing that the counsel for the defence included in this agreement the exclusion of all argument, so that the jury could retire, the prosecution objected and evidence was again opened. The arguments, it is estimated, will last until Wednesday next.

FROM JAMAICA.—Advices from Jamaica say the yellow fever has disappeared from Kingston, and the weather, though exceedingly warm, is agreeable.

The ship Salamanca, with 392 Coolies out of 404, shipped at Calcutta, arived in one hundred and twenty-one days. Many of the Coolies spoke English.

In St. Thomas it was generally believed that the United States would succeed in negotiating a transfer of the island as a coaling station for their ships.

MORE FLOGGING AT FORT SEDGWICK. Another flogging case case is reported to have occurred at Fort Sedgwick. This time it is a soldier and not a citizen who received the lash, and the author of both the whippings is Lieut. Lantz, who commands Co. F of the Thirtieth Infantry. The victim of his former flogging was mercilessly whipped because he had, under compulsion, sold whiskey to some soldiers; and the soldier who has just been flogged is reported to have been whipped on a trifling charge and without any investigation.—Twenty-five lashes were laid upon his bare back by two soldiers. Lieut. Lantz ought to be checked in the exercise of his flogging propensities, and it will be a disgrace to the United States service if he is much longer allowed to retain his commission. Soldiers are enlisted into the United States service to defend their country, and not to be whipped to death, and this petty officer's superiors ought to inforce that lesson upon him in a way which he will remember.—Flogging has been abolished in both the army and the navy, and there is no necessity for the revival of the brutal custom.—Boston Journal.

☞ In the British House of Commons, on the 10th of July, there was an interesting debate on a bill for the better education of the poor. The bill is only permissive in its character, and authorizes boroughs and districts to form school unions and levy rates for the purpose of maintaining existing schools. The Tories admitted the unsatisfactory state of popular instruction, but objected to the bill, which they thought would deprive the schools of their sectarian character, and prepare the way for the introduction of another American institution.—So they preferred, for the present, to let the poor people grow up in ignorance, and rejected the bill.

☞ At Melrose, Mass., on Wednesday morning, the widow of the late John P. Wait committed suicide by drowning in L pond. She took with her to the pond her daughter, twelve years old, who is of weak intellect, who says her mother took off her shoes and stockings, told her to carry them to a store and leave them, and then deliberately walked into the pond. The woman was about fifty years old, in destitute circumstances, and has been in the habit of using a large quantity of opium.

— At Knoxville, Tenn., Wednesday, a negro shouted for Brownlow at a conservative meeting, when he was shot down.—The prompt action of the police prevented a riot.

— At Chicago, Wednesday night, Wachsers' Brewery in North Franklin street, with three adjoining buildings, were destroyed by fire. Loss $40,000; insured $27,000. Supposed Incendiary.

FASHION VS. HEALTH AND COMFORT. Bonnets.— Passing from the feet to the head, what can be said in favor of the present style of bonnet? If a headdress is required at all, it must be because it answers some useful purpose, and serves to shelter the wearer in some degree against the variations of the weather—because it should shield the eyes from the glare of the sun, the head from the extreme heat or cold, or the undue influence of the wind. It is needless to say that the present bonnet does none of these things, and, except as an expensive and not very graceful ornament, is without any utility whatever. But the evil does not rest here; the undue exposure of the head to the variations of temperature, for which our climate is so remarkable, leads to serious diseases. Inflamation of the eyes, diseases of the ears, colds in the various organs of the head and neck, are all frequently traceable to the prevailing fashion.

This statement may perhaps be doubted by some, who may say "I do not know of any one who has had opthhalmia from wearing a new bonnet," but inquiry at any institution where patients are treated in large numbers will prove that every great change in fashion is attended with an influence on the health; and it was remarked that when the present style of female headdress came into fashion, it was attended with, or rather followed by a notable increase in disorders affecting the visual organs.

The influence of fashion in other articles of attire is still more marked; but enough has been said to direct the attention of our readers to the subject.—The Queen.

Hats.—Is the funnel shaped hat, the hat of Europe, the distinctive mark of the West, which no Asiatic mentions without scorn, and no man who wears it ever dreams of defending by any argument of health, beauty or convenience, about to perish? It looks like it, for the extraordinary superstructure has at last been attacked in the rational way. Artists have denounced the tall hat, doctors have condemned it, wits have satirized it, quiet citizens have allowed that it has every bad quality a head-dress can have, and Western mankind has still pertinacious adhered to a custom it did not approve. The attack was too revolutionary. Some people wanted us all to go barebeaded,—which seemed to men accustomed to go covered, impossible; some to adopt the wide-awake, which was condemned as vulgar; some to fall back on a straw hat, which was inconvenient.

A man with a bare head is half dressed, wide-awakes are worn by grooms, a straw hat breaks when lifted properly in a bow, and altogether every substitute failed. At last some genius hit on a fine idea. Leave the silk hat alone, but lower its crown, and lo! the work was done. Monthly, almost hourly, the height of the funnel has declines, the brims widen, the edges turn up, until, if the reformers have nerve and cash, we shall in twelve months be wearing a reasonable head-dress—a low, stiff sombrero or silk-covered card-board, with soft interior edges, than which no one could wish for a more reasonable or more becoming covering.

It will be light, for there will be little of it; will shade the eyes and neck—far more important—because it has broad brims; can be taken off, because it has the single merit of the old hat—and admits of scientific ventilation. Shorten the silk-covered funnel to three inches at most, widen the brim to at least two and a half, tarning them up a little; make the inside edges soft with an India rubber belt,—the linen or paper substitute is a blunder, and India-rubber only a makeshift till chemistry helps the hatter—and we shall have a head covering acceptable at once to the hygeist, the artist and the philosopher who believes equality incomplete without at least a possible democracy of dress.

There never will be any democracy of the kind—only look at the tailor's fitter in his perfect costume—but that is of minor importance. He will think there is, and as under a household suffrage he is master, that will mollify him, and not hurt anybody. Seriously, no head-dress has ever been invented which will better answer its many purposes—be lighter, cheaper, cooler, or a better protection than the low crowned, broad-brimmed, well-made silk "hat." It is the head-dress of our great-grandfathers—who came out well in portraits—improved and simplified by the utilitarian genius of the year 1867. It is not perfect yet: but it the Prince of Wales can only be kept straight, and does not reduce the height of his hat more than an inch a month, and does not ask Parliament for any money, so as to become unpopular, we shall win the hat game yet.

We don't see what mankind were given hair on their heads for, unless for a covering and protection. Nor do we believe we need any other, any more than other animals do. But the race has always burned the hair off their scalps with hot hats, and shaved it off their faces and sometimes their heads, and we suppose it is useless to expect anything better.

But we never could see (or feel) why the stove-pipe hat is not as healthful, and comfortable too, as any other close head cover of equal weight. Its very stiffness is its best merit, for it stands off from the sides and top of the head, and does not heat and sweat it nearly so much as a soft one. An open work straw hat we must allow is the best of all; but except that, we don't see wherein a soft felt or other hat or cap is better than a stove-pipe,—which to our eye looks well too. A high hat certainly protects the head better than a low one, though in many cases it is less convenient, and the lighter the tile, the better.

As to ladies' head gear, that is a matter not to be roughly handled by the other sex now-a-days; but to our mind, the less the dear creatures wear besides (their own) hair, the better; and while we did not think their change of light and cool straw for all the close cloths, felt, &c., of late years, was salutary, yet we don't see how injury could result from their reducing the size of their hats, if they would only quit loading them down so with beads and the like. The lighter and cooler any headdress the better, whether for male or female; and it was only the sudden change from a large brim to none, which worked evil, as spoken of above.

—— Alfred Vincent of Woodstock, fell into Pemigewasset river July 19, while fishing, and was drowned. His age was 20 years.

—— A rattlesnake was killed in a field at Allenstown, Tuesday, July 23. The serpent was 4 feet 6 inches long, and had 11 rattles.

ROMANCE IN REAL LIFE.—A romantic episode transpired at Haynes' Hotel, night before last. The scene opened about 11 P. M., when a quiet young, well dressed and well behaved couple—strangers in the city —arrived, both in considerable trepidation. The lady, who, to tell the truth, was very pretty, retired to the parlor, and the gentleman, with anxiety depicted on his countenance, inquired where he could find a clergyman or a justice of the peace. The night clerk put him on the track of one or the other, and starting out on the search he encountered the only man he knew in Springfield. To him he unbosomed his plans, and with him returned to Haynes's, where they roused from his virtuous slumbers a justice, who is a good fellow but a confirmed bachelor. The case was speedily presented; the anxious couple must be united at once in the "vows of padlock."

Had the groom a certificate? Yes; but the marriage could proceed only under the solemn promise from the justice never to reveal the fact of the occurrence. To this the justice could not consent, for the law compelled him to make a return to the City Clerk. The groom would be glad to pay the $50 penalty for breaking the law in this case, but the justice wouldn't agree to any such agreement. As the couple were bound to be married privately, or not at all, they sorrowfully departed single as they came.

Names we cannot tell; but we will mention confidentially that the young lady is still at school, and intends to stay there and complete her education after her projected marriage; also that the young couple both belong to wealthy families and move in the "first circles."—Springfield Rep.

☞ "The Collegians" who went to the regatta at Worcester, Mass., July 19, were riotous, and damaged the Bay State House, furniture, crockery, &c., as the proprietors say, $1400. This conduct disgraces the colleges, it is not very honorable to the regatta business, and shows the actors therein to be drunkards or fools.

As Carlotta may not be able, owing to unsoundness of mind, to dispose of the property which has fallen to her by her husband's death, it is said to go to the royal family of Belgium, who already have more than enough.

— A prisoner named Franz Ecker, under sentence of death in the New City (Rockland county, New York,) jail for murder, on Monday last shot the Sheriff, Thomas do Noyelles, who was on his accustomed rounds, and then committed suicide by shooting himself. Mr. de Noyelles is still alive. The wife of the prisoner had visited him on Sunday, and she was arrested on suspicion of having procured the weapon, a revolver, for him.

THE WASHINGTON LIBRARY COMPANY of Philadelphia gains credit and support every day.—The sales of stock surpass all expectation, and the prospect is, that the funds for the noble object will be secured even in advance of the time anticipated. The reason is obvious. The design is worthy, and creditable to the patriotic hearts who are laboring to reward a too much neglected class. The funds go into responsible hands, and the public have no fears that they will be mis-directed. The plan adopted satisfies the scruples of the most conscientious, and has the endorsement of eminent legal authority. It is by its distinctive features entirely removed from the taint of catch-penny schemes which have so often been the means of imposing on the public. It gives to purchasers of its stock a full equivalent for the consideration paid. All its transactions are open and above board. It has no concealment, and the reputation of its managers is such that they cannot afford to be dishonest in this transaction. Read advertisement.

IF IT IS THROWN IN YOUR TEETH that you do not keep your dental apparatus in proper trim, it is your own fault, for all the world knows that you might do so by using that matchless vegetable dentifrice, SOZODONT. 10

THE SUN AND STARS. The stars all "go out" by daylight. So must all the common adulterated compounds of saleratus disappear before Fyle's; that defies all competition. Try it. Ask your grocer for Fyle's Saleratus, and see that his name is on the package. 12

☞ SPEER'S Sambuci Wine ranks above all other Wines for medical purposes; it is a diuretic alterative and tonic. For weakly persons and the consumptive it has no equal. Sold by Druggists.

MYSTERY.—"Mother," said a little four year old, "if a man is a mister, ain't woman a mystery?" The greatest mystery in the world to us is, that any one will buy any other Saleratus but Herrick Allen's Gold Medal. It cures dyspepsia, strengthens weak stomachs, saves your teeth from decaying, saves one-half the quantity of shortening, besides it takes so little of the Saleratus to do its work. Try it. Most merchants sell it. DR. S. S. FITCH,

Of 714 BROADWAY, NEW YORK, Author of the Six Lectures on the Prevention and Cure of Pulmonary Consumption, Asthma, Catarrh, Dyspepsia, Heart Disease and all CHRONIC Diseases, will be at the

ROCKINGHAM HOUSE, Portsmouth,

On THURSDAY, Aug. 1st, and on the same day of the week every 4th week afterward.

Dr. Fitch treats all Diseases of the Head, Scalp, Eyes, Ears, Nose, Throat, Lungs, Stomach, Heart, Liver, Bowels, Piles, Kidneys, Skins, Joints, Dropsy; also Diseases peculiar to Males and to Females. Lost Complexion perfectly restored. Most persons, somewhere from 15 to 90 have one or more bad fits of sickness. Cure them wholly, and they will live ten to fifty years longer. Dr. Fitch's most prominent specialty is the prolongation of human life.

A respectable physician said to me four weeks ago, "For seventeen years you have kept me well of diseases pronounced utterly incurable by several eminent physicians."

Mrs. Elizabeth Huntington Long writes, (Saratoga Springs, March 3d, 1867,) twenty three years ago she had ulcerated lungs, and was seated, hereditary consumption, of which her sister died. I cured her perfectly. Fourteen years later she had a bad attack of heart disease, of which her brother died. Of this I cured her perfectly. She says, "I always remember you with gratitude, for under God, I owe my life to you."

Miss Anna Judkin, at Portsmouth, N. H., June 7, 1867, said, "Twenty-three years ago I was your patient, and very bad with lung disease. My father, four brothers and three sisters, had died with consumption. I was wholly given up. In six months you cured me. I have now enjoyed perfect health twenty two and a half years; not a single show of lung diseases in all that time."

D. D. Benjamin of Union, N. J., says, "Over twenty years ago I and my brother were both in consumption. I had bleedings and ulcerated lungs. My brother refused treatment, and died in three months. You cured me, and I have not had any cough or lung trouble in twenty years. I was then forty, and I am now sixty years old."

All consultations are wholly free.

WHAT EVERY ONE WANTS.

A good, reliable medicine that will be on hand when required, and never fails when called on.—That is now to be obtained in Dr. Tobias' Celebrated Venetian Liniment. Many thousands call it the Wonder of the Age, as if does all that is represented and more. It cures Diarrhœa, Dysentery, Colic, Spasms, Vomiting, Croup, and Seasickness as surely as it is used, and is perfectly innocent to take internally, even in double the quantity named in the directions; and as an external remedy for Chronic Rheumatism, Cuts, Bruises, Old Sores, Mumps, Toothache, Headache, Sore Throat, Sprains, Insect Stings, Pains in the Back, Chest and Limbs, thousands of certificates to, and their certificates can be seen at the Doctor's depot, 56 Cortlandt street, New York. Hundreds of physicians use it in their practice. It has been introduced since 1847, and hundreds who now have it in their houses, say they would not be without it even if it was $10 per bottle.—Every drop is signed by Dr. Tobias himself, and can be depended on. DR. SCHENCK, THE LUNG DOCTOR.

☞ The Proprietor of SCHENK'S PULMONIC SYRUP, the inventor of SCHENK'S SEAWEED TONIC, the only instrument that can tell with certainty detect the slightest murmur of the respiratory organs.

This fact of great importance to Dr. SCHENCK, to know the exact condition of the lungs, whether it is Tuberculous, Pulmonary, Bronchial, Pleuritic, or simply Consumption, and whether it is both lungs or only one that are diseased.

It requires constant and long practice to become familiar with every sound or rattle, wind or diseased bronchial tube. Patients come to Dr. SCHENCK to get examined that have been examined by their family physician, who told them that their lungs were almost gone; when by a close examination with the Respirometer, it is often found that it is no affection of the bronchial tube; and by getting a healthy action of the liver and tone of the stomach, the sufferer is soon restored to health. Sometimes medicine and the stop a cough is certain death to the patient. It locks up the liver, stops the circulation of the blood—hemorrhage follows, and, in fact, destroys the action of the very organs that cause the cough.

Dr. Schenck will be professionally at his rooms every week, 32 Bond street, New York, and 35 Hanover street, Boston, from 9 A. M. until 3 P. M. He gives advice free, but for a thorough examination with the Respirometer the charge is $5. His medicines are for sale by all druggists and dealers, also a good supply of all times at his rooms. Price of the Pulmonic syrup and Seaweed Tonic, each $1 50 per bottle, or $7 50 the half dozen; Mandrake Pills 25 cents per box.—DR. J. H. SCHENCK & CO., 32 Hanover street, Agents for Boston. For sale by all druggists.

IMPORTANT FOR INVALIDS.—The weakness of the stomach, and its faintly performing its offices is only occasioned by the inability of the stomach nerves and their various branches, by being plastered up with phlegm, gross and acid dregs, indigestible meals, offensive drinks, or other matters which remaining too long assume a corroding quality.

BRANDRETH'S PILLS cleanse the stomach and bowels of all unhealthy accumulations, and purify and regenerate the blood, and there is no used by those who, having lost, are in pursuit of health.

Local.

PROVIDENCE.—We have all heard of the shipwrecked sailor who refused to put his trust in Providence, "because he had lost two good suits of clothes there once." Well our "local" has hitherto reposed unbounded confidence in the superiority of Providence clams and oysters, but his faith has been rudely shaken by an incident coming to his knowledge within a day or two.

A gentleman from Little Rhody, whose business has caused him for some months to be a resident of this city, a few days since announced to particular friends that he was expecting the arrival of a lot of the farfamed clams from Providence, and would favor them with a mess, to test the quality A few days since the bivalves arrived, and the promises of the gentleman were duly fulfilled. Alas for the degeneracy of "Clam Shell Corner!" Alas for the prestige of the mollusca of Providence River! The bushel of clams, costing perhaps ten times as much as a bushel of the largest and fatrest of those from our own banks, were decidedly small—so small that a digger of bait in this vicinity would be apt to reject them. The inquiries of the bystanders were: "Are those clams screened?" "Do they sift the mud for their clams in Providence?"

☞ We learn that Admiral Bailey has been detached from duty as Commandant of this Navy Yard, which position he has so acceptably filled for the five years last passed.

☞ Bowker's Flavoring Extracts, Oils, Essences, Perfumeries, &c., which are manufactured in great quantities at No. 7 Oxford street, Boston,—are guaranticd equal if not superior to any and all others. The proprietor asks only a comparison. These goods are for sale by dealers generally in this line here and everywhere. We are indebted to the proprietor for a sample assorted case of Essences for family use, which are very neatly put up, and which we shall put to the test.

"ENCOURAGE YOUR OWN."—We have for several months been using The American Lead Pencils, made by a New York Company of this name; and have found them—the black pencils, excellent. And their octagon pencil is the handsomest we ever saw. This Company have just completed arrangements for the manufacture of colored pencils, and we have samples of their new octagon blue and red lead—large and finely finished, and which will be found, we think, equal to any foreign make, and at less price. The American Pencils may be had at the Book Stores, and ought to have a fair trial at least.

THE

UNION PACIFIC RAILROAD CO.

Are now constructing a railroad from

OMAHA, NEBRASKA,

westward towards the Pacific Ocean, making with its connections an unbroken line

ACROSS THE CONTINENT.

The Company now offer a limited amount of their

FIRST MORTGAGE BONDS,

having thirty years to run, and bearing annual interest, payable on the first day of January and July, in the City of New York, at the rate of

SIX PER CENT. IN GOLD,

AT

Ninety Cents on the Dollar.

This road is already completed to Julesburg, 376 miles west of Omaha, Kansas, and is fully equipped, and trains are running regularly over it. The Company have now in hand sufficient iron, ties, etc., to finish the remaining portion to the eastern base of the Rocky Mountains, 141 miles, which is under contract to be done September 1st of this year, and it is expected that the entire road will be in running order from Omaha to its western connection with the Central Pacific is now being rapidly built eastward from Sacramento, Cal., during 1870.

Means of the Company.

Estimating the distance to be built by the Union Pacific at 1500 miles, the United States Government issues its Six per cent. Thirty-year bonds to the Company as the road is finished, at the average rate of about $28,250 per mile, amounting to $44,200,000.

The Company is also permitted to issue its own First Mortgage Bonds to an equal amount, and at the same time, which by special Act of Congress are made a First Morigage on the entire line, the bonds of the United States being subordinate to them.

The Government makes a donation of 12,800 acres of land to the mile, amounting to 20,032,000 acres, estimated to be worth $40,000,000, making the total resources, exclusive of the capital, $118,416,000; but the full value of the lands cannot now be realized.

The Authorized Capital Stock of the Company is one hundred million dollars, of which five millions have already been paid in, and of which it is not expected that more than twenty-five millions at most will be required.

The cost of the road is estimated by competent engineers, as about one hundred million dollars, exclusive of equipments.

Prospects for Business.

The railroad connection between Omaha and the East is now complete, and the earnings of the Union Pacific on the sections already finished for the first two weeks in May were $113,000. These sectional earnings as the road progresses will much more than pay the interest on the Company's bonds, and the through business over the only line of railroad between the Atlantic and Pacific must be immense.

Value and Security of the Bonds.

The Company respectfully submit, that the above statement of facts fully demonstrates the security of their Bonds, and as additional proof they would suggest that the Bonds now offered are less than ten million dollars on 517 miles of road, on which over twenty million dollars have already been expended:—on 339 miles of this road the cars are now running, and the remaining 187 miles are nearly completed.

At the present rate of premium on gold, these bonds pay an annual interest on the present cost of

and it is believed that on the completion of the road, like the Government Bonds, they will go above par. The Company intend to sell but a limited amount at the present low rate, and retain the right to advance the price at their option.

Subscriptions will be received in New York by CONTINENTAL NATIONAL BANK, 7 Nassau st., CLARK, DODGE & CO., Bankers, 51 Wall street, JOHN J. CISCO & SON, Bankers, 33 Wall street, and by BANKS AND BANKERS generally throughout the United States, of whom maps and descriptive pamphlets may be obtained.—They will also be sent by mail from the Company's Office, No. 20 Nassau street, New York, on application. Subscribers will select their own Agents in whom they have confidence, who alone will be responsible to them for the safe delivery of the Bonds.

Morning Chronicle.

THE GREAT GAMBLING HOUSE AT HOMBOURG.—Mr. Blaine of Maine, now in Europe, in a late letter which is published in the Augusta Journal, speaks of the town of Hombourg, 9 miles from Frankfort on the Rhine, as follows:

It is only twenty minutes ride from Frankfort, and is one of the finest watering places in the world. In July and August there are always from ten to fifteen thousand visitors here. The season is not by any means at its height as yet, but already there are three or four thousand here.

Hombourg is a most beautiful place, with a great number of fine hotels. We are stopping at the "Hotel de Quatre Saisons." The great feature of this place is the immense gambling establishment called the Kursaal. An American lady there says it should be pronounced "Curse all," for it is a curse to all who play there. It is regularly licensed by the government of Hesse-Hombourg, and the Stock Company that own it have a capital of £2,000,000—$10,000,000. Their building is an immense affair, fully 400 feet long by 200 wide, built more elegantly than any palace I have seen; contains the most gorgeous parlors, reading rooms, lunch rooms, concert hall, ball room, and then several very large rooms in which the gambling is done. All the gambling is public, and crowds are looking on while other crowds are playing.—Ladies play and bet every night. Roulette and Rouge-et-noir are the only two games played, and these go on unceasingly, day after day, including Sundays. Vast crowds have been playing there to-day, and I heard an hour ago that one Englishman had to-day lost 50,000 francs. It is the vilest and most wicked place I ever saw. I went last night to look at it, and I saw large crowds playing. There was more gold and silver on each table than you could carry, and ten more like you.

They use nothing but coin, and they bet over a million francs on the several tables. I saw a great many ladies playing, but I don't think we should call any one a lady in our country that would follow so vile a habit. Connected with the Kursaal is a very large park, over 300 acres in extent, elegantly decorated with flower plateaus, with walks, drives, grottos, mounds, fountains and all manner of statuary. In these grounds are included all the famous mineral waters for which invalids resort here.—They all belong to the gambling company, but they allow everybody to use them without charge, and their parks are all open to the public, free. They also keep up at their own expense a magnificent band of music—60 performers—the finest, I think, I ever heard. This band plays on the grounds from 7 to 9 in the morning, when the people are drinking the waters, then they play from 2 to 4 and 7 to 9 P. M., in all six hours per day. The expense of running the Kursaal is $2500 florins per day—$1000 a day in gold. It is the most gorgeous, the most lavish, the most extravagant and the most wicked establishment in the world. It seems like the entering road to perdition—the very gate of hell. The young man who enters to play seems to be hopelessly lost. I had often heard of the place, but I had no conception of its extent, its splendor, or of its terrible wickedness.

There are a great many nice people here who never go near the miserable place except once, to gratify curiosity, just as Mr. Morrill and myself did last night; but still it draws thousands here to their ruin every season.

Hombourg is situated just in the shadow of the Taurus Mountain, on the very high land overlooking Frankfort and the long valley of the Main. It is a place of rare beauty.

RACING INTELLIGENCE.—We shall, in all probability, shortly publish some "stable notes" from Our Roan Correspondent.—Fun.

— The abolition of imprisonment for debt is gradually conquering a place in the legislation of every European country. Even Imperial France, so timid of liberal laws, has now adopted the reform.

— Here is a recipe to get rid of an old acquaintance whose society you do not like. If he is poor, lend him some money; if he is rich, ask him to lend you some. Both means are certain.

— Much attention is being paid in the interior of Louisiana to the propagation of Hungarian grass, which is said to yield two tons of hay to the acre, and claims to equal timothy.

— A poor loafer on hearing that they charged five dollars a day for board in California, said he should go there and live, as he wished to get in some place where he could get his charged to him. He is not particular about the price.

— "And where was the man stabbed?" asked an excited man of a physician. "The man was stabbed about an inch and a half to the left of the medium line, and about an inch above the umbilicus," was the reply. "O, yes, I understand now; but I thought it was near the court house."

— A London medical journal alludes to the fact that 50,000 pounds of cocculus Indicus was imported from India to England last year—a sufficient quantity to drug 120,000 tons of beer. It is believed that this bitter narcotic poison is secretly used simply to adulterate ale and porter.

— A San Francisco paper asserts that the first white explorers of Oregon found a tradition among all the Indians of that region, that a vessel which, from the description, is supposed to have been a Chinese junk, was found embedded in the mud of the Columbia river. Here is a chance for Chinese antiquaries. Let them put in a claim for the earliest discovery of the continent, and fight it out on that line with the Royal Society of Copenhagen.

C. A. RICHARDS & CO.'S
CONCENTRATED
EXTRACT OF RYE.

THE Proprietors of this popular article, finding it necessary to remove wrong impressions from the public mind regarding the real merits which they claim for it,

WOULD ONCE AGAIN ANNOUNCE
IT IS NOT a mere dram-drinking beverage, but a PURE, GENUINE and SCIENTIFICALLY PREPARED
MEDICINE.

It is not, as many have been led to believe, nothing but good Rye Whiskey; it is a
MEDICINAL REMEDY,
specially designed for certain useful and beneficial purposes; which any intelligent and thinking person can readily see, by reading what we now have
TO SAY ABOUT IT,
without any long, high sounding words, such as some doctors use to mystify and bewilder a patient, until he can't begin to tell what does not ail him. We merely and plainly say that "EXTRACT OF RYE" is nothing but the
JUICES OF THE GRAIN
combined with a certain oily, fatty and vegetable matter, which, when taken into the system, stimulates it first to
NEW LIFE,
and a restored appetite, and then goes to make BETTER and STRONGER
FLESH AND BLOOD.
One can instantly see how this preparation must soothe the throat when it is inflamed, and must carry its lubricating and calming effects to the lungs; consequently
IT IS WHAT YOU WANT
when you have a bad cough, to cure it, when you have
CONSUMPTION OF THE LUNGS,
to heal and build them up again. So much for those troubles.

Now if you want an article to FEED THE SYSTEM ON, when it has become reduced by sickness or by being OVERTAXED IN ANY WAY, this medicine will
DO THE WORK.

We have, among a great many letters we have received about it, a great many positive testimonials that it has been the means of making people
GAIN FLESH AND GROW FAT.
The reason for this is the
GRAND SECRET OF THE WHOLE MATTER.
It acts as a
STIMULATING FOOD
to the body, and helps Nature
THROW OFF DISEASE.
How often, of late years, have people been terribly deceived by resorting to common whiskey for this purpose, when, if they knew it, the only advantage to be gained from the use of whiskey must spring from the little quantity it contains of that oily matter, the Extract of Rye is entirely free from. This, then, is the whole story. EXTRACT OF RYE will cause you to throw off disease by feeding the system with a
STIMULATING FOOD,
and will build up and restore the powers of mind and body, while you become fat and happy.

It is put up in convenient style, each bottle being contained in a paper box. It is not sold as a foolish fancy price, but offered at a reasonable cost to rich and poor.

SENTIMENTALITY.

My hours are full—
Full of all those dull cold cares,
That from the heart its freshness wears,
And leaves it cold and dead.
But ah! I love to ramble still,
To watch the sun sink 'neath the hill
On its gold and crimson bed.

My days are full—
Busy o'er my life is wielding
Damocles' fam'd sword unyielding,
Nor leaves me time for dreams;
And yet, when shadows soft and low
Fall fringing o'er the lake's calm brow,
My brain with fancies teems.

My life is full—
Full of affection, full of ties,
That yield no scope for fretful sighs
Over joys that "might have been."
Yet I mourn whene'er the moon's sad light
Comes shimmering on the gloom of night,
For the life I might have seen.

My years are full—
But many more will flowers of spring
Will o'er my path their sweetness fling,
And brighten all the day.
Yet now, in life's dull autumn hours,
I seek repose in nature's bowers,
And dream my cares away.—N. O. Picayune.

A FRENCH DOCTOR'S DIAGNOSIS.—One of the most remarkable diagnosis of Dr. Trousseau was given by a gentleman whose name he did not know. The gentleman was singularly robust, looked the picture of health—and yet: "Doctor, I am not well. It seems to me my strength is failing me.—A strange lassitude takes possession of me. I feel—I scarcely know how I feel." Dr. Trousseau kept his brilliant eyes riveted on the patient while the latter spoke, and when he ended, the doctor said, "You sleep every day immediately after dinner?" "Yes, I do, doctor." "Are unmarried, have no family, are ignorant of domestic life?" "True, doctor." "What you want is—not medicine, but affection; domestic ties; something, somebody to live for—if you do not form these ties, if you do not give aliment to your heart, you will be in your grave before eighteen months." The stranger smiled skeptically: laid 500f. in gold on the doctor's table and retired. Fifteen months afterwards Lord Seymour ('twas he) was buried.

"And what is sorrow? 'Tis a boundless sea.
And what is joy?
A little pearl in that ocean's bed.
I sought it—found it—held it o'er my head,
And, to my soul's anguish,
It fell into the ocean's depths again;
And now I long and look for it in vain."

TWO OF 'EM.—A young fellow whose better half had presented him with a pair of bouncing twins, attended church one Sunday. During the discourse, the clergyman looked right at our innocent friend, and said, in a tone of thrilling eloquence, "Young man, you have an important responsibility thrust upon you." The newly fledged dad, supposing the preacher alluded to his peculiar home event, considerably startled the audience by exclaiming, "Yes, I have two of them."

—"Our congregations are remarkably thin just now," said Mr. Mull to Miss Nip, at the church yesterday. "Ah, yes, people have dreadful poor appetites in summer," responded that wonderful specimen of female wisdom and perceptivity."

—The "stone vessels" sunk in Charleston harbor did no permanent injury. A vessel from England, with railroad iron, entered last Tuesday, drawing 18 1-2 feet, which is eighteen inches more than any vessel previously arrived.

—Edward Everett said to a friend, "If you are willing to be reckoned with those who consider going to church as going to a fashionable exchange, or to a place of entertainment for a weary leisure day, why then it little matters where you go, or where you do not go."

—The Prince of Wales has not increased his popularity of late in England. The Tomahawk publishes a cartoon which represents the Prince as Hamlet, struggling with John Bull, who, as Horatio, tries to hold him back from following the ghost of the rowe George IV., to which the Prince says, "I'll follow thee."

— Bill Ox-eye says there is nothing wonderful in the fact that a sea captain always feels jolly when he makes hi-s-port; nor that landsmen should not admire ocean-swell; but that it is strange that sea bathers continue to stay for months at the watering places when every day they have a surf-bit of it. Bill Ox-eye also wants to know whether Prince Salm Salm is descended from King David?

— A very sharp controversy is going on among temperance men in New York State and others regarding hop-growing. Hops, it is argued, are made into, beer, which is intoxicating; consequently hop growers "are identified with the cause of intemperance, and workers together with Satan in destroying their fellow men." If it is immoral to raise hops, so it is to raise apples, corn, rye, grapes, carrots, beets, potatoes, &c., for of those severally intoxicating liquor can be distilled.—Ex.

SOMETHING NEW!
SELEE'S HAIR LIFE
Has been thoroughly tested by thousands during the past year, and is declared superior to all other preparations for the hair. It has no equal for Restoring Gray Hair to its original color in from TEN TO THIRTY DAYS.
It is a most splendid Hair Dressing, surpassing all others for making dry and brashy hair soft, glossy and beautiful, as in youth.
This Magical Preparation invariably stops the falling of the hair, and always promotes a lively, luxuriant growth.
Its use will at once free the head from Dandruff, Scurf and all Humors, especially Salt Rheum.
It KILLS HAIR EATERS, which are so fatal to the roots of the hair. It contains no nitrate of silver, which is found in most other Hair preparations, and is so injurious.
THE HAIR LIFE IS NOT A DYE, but operates on the roots, restoring them to their natural, healthy state.
It is the nicest, neatest, and most effectual thing in the market.
It never stains, and is perfectly harmless.

Portsmouth, N. H.

MONDAY, JULY 29, 1867.

☞ A new Manufactory of doors, sashes and blinds, has just been established in Great Falls. The machinery is run by steam, and is of the latest patented and most approved kind. The cost of engine, boiler and machinery is about $15,000.—From the well known business talent and enterprise of those in charge of it, the Journal of that town reasonably concludes that this establishment will prove a success, and add largely to the thriving village of Great Falls. There is just one reason why there was not at least one such establishment in Portsmouth long ago, and that is because of a lack of one of the qualifications above alluded to.

CABLE ITEMS.—Baron Ratazzi, Prime Minister of Italy, has made an offer to garrison the city of Rome with national troops to protect it from the party of action under Garibaldi and Mazzini.

The Emperor Napoleon sent a note to King William of Prussia, urging him to surrender the Danish provinces of North Schleswig to Denmark. The Emperor of Austria refuses to interfere in the matter at all.

At Berlin, July 26, a couple of conscripts belonging to the Imperial army attempted to escape. They succeeded in reaching an American vessel at Bremerhaven, which was on the point of setting sail. The Prussian authorities threatened to open their batteries on the ship if the commander refused to give up the conscripts. After a short parley the men were surrendered.

In London there is much caution shown by capitalists and business men, the feeling having become general that war between France and Prussia is imminent. A private dispatch from Berlin makes mention of the general opinion there that war is certain, and adds that Prussia is actively urging forward her preparations for such an event.

A NEW STATUE IN LOWELL.—A brilliant Fourth of July celebration in Lowell, Mass., was made memorable by the dedication, in Monument Square, of an allegorical bronze statue of "Victory," recently presented to the city by its distinguished resident, Dr. J. C. Ayer, the chemist. The figure is that of a draped female, borne on the wings of triumph, holding in her right hand the laurel wreath of victory, and in her left, the harvest sheaf of plenty. It stands upon a granite pedestal, is of colossal size, being seventeen feet high, and is a majestic work of art.

The dedicatory exercises were attended by the city, state, civil and military dignitaries of the immediate region, and also by an immense military column, belonging to the eastern part of Massachusetts, and were conducted by the Mayor of the city, who, as head of the municipality, publicly thanked Dr. Ayer for his munificent gift, taking occasion at the same time to say that his liberality as a citizen was only equalled by the eminence he had attained in restoring health and consequent happiness to millions of the afflicted through the aid of his medicines.

At the conclusion of an oration by Judge Russell of Boston, and other ceremonies, Dr. Ayer responded to enthusiastic calls by a very neat speech.

Lowell is certainly fortunate in this acquisition to her public grounds, and doubly so in the possession of a citizen who has so often before manifested in the same liberal spirit the pride and interest he feels for his native city. We wish all cities had many such.

— Subscriptions, varying in amount from $10 to $100, have been made in New York for Rev. S. M. Merrill, who has gone home to Platteburg. His letter, it is said, has turned the tide of popular feeling completely in his favor.—Exchange.

[We are glad somebody has pitied the poor man's poverty, and thus relieved his family. But the tide that could be turned by such a letter, could not be very strong. His best friends should keep him out of the newspapers.]

— The mortality from exposure is greater among the London police than in the British army. Dyspepsia and sore feet are common complaints.

— Base Ball has been naturalized even in the Sandwich Islands, and a match game is reported, which took place on the Esplanada at Honolulu, last month, in the presence of nearly the whole population of the town.

— During a heavy thunder storm on the 17th, the electric fluid struck the building of the Comercio Bank of Havana, Cuba, and burst through the wall into the room of the Cashier, Mr. J. Guerrero, who was lying on his bed asleep, killing him instantly.

— The importation of coolies, who have completed their time in Cuba, has been carried on extensively for over a year, about 2000 having left for New Orleans within that period. A Mr. Williams has made arrangements for the introduction of 2000 Chinese laborers into Louisiana; several other agencies being overrun with applications.

NEW HAMPSHIRE ITEMS.

—— The Concord Monitor mentions another attempt to burn that city on Wednesday evening. Fire was set in a wood shed.

—— Three or four buildings were struck by lightning in Manchester, during a heavy shower on Thursday.

—— Thomas Broderick, charged with manslaughter at Wilton, has been admitted to bail in $300 by the Supreme Court.

—— Rev. Frank P. Woodbury has resigned his pastorate of the Congregational Church in Meriden, with the view of going West.

—— Lieut. Col. James T. Randlett, of Nashua, formerly of the Third Regiment of N. H. Vols., has been appointed a Captain in the 13th U. S. Infantry.

—— A fire at Sanbonton Bridge, Saturday morning, at 1 o'clock, burned a mill belonging to Morrill, Copp & Earnshaw, and used as a grist mill and woolen manufactory. Loss $15,000 or more; insured $9,500. It was incendiary.

—— The Exeter News Letter says Mr. Joshua Pole, of Hampton Falls, 88 years of age, works daily in the hay-field, and is as good as men who receive $2 a day at the same work. He saw Gen. Washington when he visited Portsmouth and Exeter.

—— A correspondent of the Mirror, at Warren, who has been examining the salmon fry in Baker's river, hatched from spawn deposited there last October, finds them two or three inches long, and apparently in a thriving condition.

—— The Masonic ceremonies on the occasion of the laying of the corner stone of the new M. E. Church at Rochester, will occur on Thursday, Aug. 1, at noon, and will be conducted by the Grand Lodge of this State.

—— Charles Everett, conductor on the Central road, while stowing away a load of hay at Weare on the 21st, had the tine of a pitchfork run an inch or two into his abdomen by the man who was pitching off the load. The wound is not considered dangerous.

—— The Manchester Union tells of a married woman in that city, over 60 years of age, who during the past year, in addition to doing the work for her own family and assisting in the care of an invalid daughter in another tenement under the same roof, earned $400 by taking in washing and ironing and by nursing sick.

—— A good many years ago, during a muster of the "Bloody Eleventh" regiment in a neighboring town, the landlord of the village inn was aroused after midnight, by the report of a gun in one of the upper rooms. Repairing in hot haste to the scene, he entered the room and found a polite officer of the staff reloading his fire arm, and was informed, in answer to breathless inquiries, that the occupant of the room was shooting bed-bugs.—Concord Statesman.

NEW YORK B'HOYS IN THE BRAZILIAN ARMY.—A Para letter describes the adventure of a gang of New York roughs who went to Brazil to obtain the bounty of $500 in gold, offered for volunteers in the war against Paraguay. Their desire was to "bum" the country, as they expressed it.—They were a fearfully hard lot, composed mainly of pickpockets, shoulder-hitters, droppers and "wharf rats" of the slums, who were getting too hard even for the endurance of New York policemen. On the passage they were constantly fighting, and it was only by unremitting vigilance, and placing some of the leaders in irons, that they were kept from rising on the officers and crew of the steamer.

At St. Thomas, where the Brazilian mail steamships stop for twelve hours, they got ashore and went in to "take the town," but came very near getting taken themselves. There are some five hundred coal heavers at that port, the major part of whom are negresses of brawny proportions. They are a good natured race, ignorant, full of song and fun, as peaceable as can be desired, but they did not relish the brutal pranks which Mose thought himself bound to cut up, and were not slow to resent personal indignities by pelting their insulters with lumps of coal, and but for the interference of the police, these b'hoys would have fared hard.

On reaching their destination they at once began their usual recreations of robbing grocers, bakers, liquor dealers and cafes, but were brought up with a round turn by the police, who shot several of them and turned the rest over to the military.—The rogues were old hands at bounty jumping, but Brazilian military surveillance is a little too rigid for that, and they found their only resource was to take their $500 apiece in gold and watch for a chance to desert.

They tormented their commander almost out of life by their disorderly behavior, and as they could not be induced to affiliate with their Brazilian comrades, were formed into a battalion by themselves, and placed in charge of a fort, where it was believed their abnormal viciousness would lead them to hold out to the last in case of an attack. Their subsequent military career was what might have been expected of such rascals—the fort was invested by the Paraguayans, and with the imperial gold still jingling in their pockets, they turned the guns on the Brazilians and went over to the enemy in body, where they were well received.

☞ Certain parties in Canada, who are supposed to be posted, state that the scheme for the abduction of President Lincoln was started in the South as early as 1863, and that Col. Percy Wyndham, who commanded a regiment in and about Washington, had at one time agreed to deliver up the President and his Cabinet at Richmond, and would probably have done so if he had not been suddenly removed.

Correspondence of the Chronicle.

NEW YORK, July 24, 1867.

Editors Chronicle,—Gen. Grant, who is now being "lionized" at Long Branch, seems inclined to play "it out on that line all summer." Wherever the invincible General goes, he is received with the most marked attention and obeisant homage; and the refreshing feature of all this "hero worship" is, that he appears to be unaffected thereby, and never loses his dignified bearing, or swerves an iota from his "policy" of apparent indifference to the adulistic compliments that are heaped upon him.

The ladies all say they like the noble military chieftain, "because he is as good as he is great." A characteristic little anecdote of Gen. Grant, which is not yet in the bills, is well worthy of mention:

One of the fair sojourners at Long Branch, on being introduced to him, gracefully bowed her head and kissed his extended hand; upon which one of the bystanders playfully inquired why he did not reciprocate the obsequious salutation? "Oh," promptly responded the imperturable hero, "I never stoop to conquer!"

The prospects of Gen. Grant as "the coming man" are enhancing on every hand. Last evening the Union Republican Central Committee placed him in nomination as the Presidential candidate of the party; subject, however, to the decision of the Republican National Committee.

Various influential papers, both Republican and Democratic, are hoisting the flag of Grant for President; but as the campaign approaches, and the non-reconstructionists ascertain that their whilom favorite is an uncompromising advocate of the radical policy of "no parleying with traitors," they will back down on the champion of equal rights, and go in for Lee, Pendleton, or some other prominent representative of the opposite faction.

If Grant is nominated for the next presidential term, (and it must be conceded that there is strong probability of this event,) he will be as sure of proving the successful candidate, as that he brought about the capitulation of the rebel forces, and restored our distracted country to a condition of enduring peace.

Dr. Harris, Secretary of the Board of Health Commissioners, reports that the city is unusually healthy this season. The deaths last week were 153 less than the average of corresponding weeks in the last six years. The mortality among children, however, is excessive—259, or 44 1-2 per cent. of the deaths reported last week, being infants under one year of age.

Henry Ward Beecher is about to take his usual eight weeks' vacation; and consequently Plymouth Church has during the last few Sabbaths been crowded to repletion. On Sunday evening last, Mr. Beecher discoursed on the dignity of labor, and demonstrated that the divine fiat that "man in the sweat of his face shall eat his bread," is a blessing, rather than a curse.

Were Mr. E. Merriam now living, he would surely denominate the prevailing weather as a decided "heated term." The thermometer indicates nearly one hundred in the shade, meandering streams of perspiration get the better of starched linen, and the sweet sibilation of soda fountains is far more popular music than the opera, or the orchestra at Niblo's, can furnish.

LEON.

— What sobriety conceals, drunkenness reveals.

— Fourteen tons of hay were recently cut off five acres in Framingham. The hay was weighed. A New York paper says that in some instances three tons to the acre have been cut in that State.

— On Saturday, the 18th, forty-two men, consisting of twelve painters and thirty laborers, were discharged from the Gosport (Va.) navy-yard there being no longer any work to keep them employed.

— The rye and grass crops in Connecticut are said to be large and good beyond all previous precedent. The heads of rye are six and seven inches long; and the reapers say they never thrust their cradles into such rye before.

— George Peabody, while in Massachusetts the year past, received more than six thousand begging letters, on an average of more than twenty a day. These letters were only examined to show that they were mendicant and by thousands were consigned to the flames, many of them even without breaking the seal.

THE ORDER OF THE DAY.—A general order for SOZODONT in the teeth of all opposition it has become the supreme dentifrice of the age.

THE SUN AND STARS. The stars all "go out" by day light. So must all the common adulterated compounds of saleratus disappear before Pyle's; that defies all competition. Try it. Ask your grocer for Pyle's Saleratus, and see that his name is on the package. 12

☞ All Physicians who have used SPERR'S Sambuci Wine recommend it above all other wines for its valuable medicinal properties, especially for females and debilitated persons. Sold by Druggists. 4

— The ladies, individually and collectively, without a single exception, pronounce Herrick Allen's Gold Medal Saleratus to be the best and most wholesome article in the market. They say it makes nicer, whiter and lighter Biscuit and Cake, and requiring less shortening than any other saleratus, and is much better to use with cream tarter than soda. Try it. Most of the Grocers and many of the Druggists sell it, and at wholesale by wholesale grocers. 30

— Aaron Sweat, a free colored man, who was reported to have taken the stump in North Carolina as a candidate for Congress, denies the truth of this statement.

— The Republicans of Ohio have made preparations for an active compaign during the pending election, and Senators Wilson of Massachusetts, and Patterson of New Hampshire, have consented to participate in the canvass. Messrs. Logan and Cullom of Illinois, Paine of Wisconsin, Windom of Minnesota, and Kelly, Scofield and Broomall of Pennsylvania, will also take the stump.

DR. S. S. FITCH,

Of 714 BROADWAY, NEW YORK, Author of the Six Lectures on the Prevention and Cure of Pulmonary Consumption, Asthma, Catarrh, Dyspepsia, Heart Disease and all Chronic Diseases, will be at the
ROCKINGHAM HOUSE, Portsmouth,
On THURSDAY, Aug. 1st, and on the same day of the week every 4th week afterward.

Dr. Fitch treats all Diseases of the Head, Scalp, Eyes, Nostrils, Face, Throat, Lungs, Stomach, Heart, Liver, Bowels, Piles, Kidneys, Skins, Joints, Dropsey; also Diseases peculiar to Males and to Females. Each complexion perfectly restored. Most persons, somewhere from 15 to 80 have one or more bad fits of sickness. Cure them wholly, and they will live as fifty years longer. Dr. Fitch's most prominent specialty is the prolongation of human life.

A respectable physician said to me four weeks ago, "For seventeen years you have kept me well of diseases pronounced utterly incurable by several eminent physicians."

Mrs. Elizabeth Huntington Long writes, (Saratoga Springs, March 3d, 1867,) "Two years ago, she had ulcerated lungs, and true, seated, hereditary consumption, of which her sister died. I cured her perfectly. Fourteen years later she had a bad attack of heart disease, of which her brother died. Of this I cured her perfectly. She says, 'I always remember you with gratitude, for, under God, I owe my life to you.'"

Miss Anna Judkin, at Portsmouth, N. H., June 7, 1867, said, "Twenty-three years ago I was your patient, and very bad with lung disease. My father, four brothers and three sisters, had died with consumption. I was wholly given up. In six months you cured me. I have now enjoyed perfect health twenty-two and a half years; not a single show of lung disease in all that time."

D. D. Benjamin, of Union, N. J., says, "Over two years ago I and my brother were both in consumption. I had bleeding and ulcerated lungs. My brother refused treatment, and died in three months. You cured me, and I have not had any cough or lung trouble in twenty years. I was then forty, and I am now sixty years old."

All consultations are wholly free.

Dr. Fitch's "FAMILY PHYSICIAN," a most excellent book in all families, 76 pages, 25 cents, sent free of postage to any address. Send no money until you get the book and approve of it. Private all letters for books or consultation to 25 Tremont St., Boston, Mass. je29—1y

WHAT EVERY ONE WANTS.

A good, reliable medicine that will be on hand when required, and never fails when called on.—That is now to be obtained in Dr. Tobins' Celebrated Venetian Liniment. Many thousands call it the Wonder of the Age, as it does all that is represented and more. It cures Diarrhœa, Dysentery, Colic, Spasms, Vomiting, Croup, and Sea-sickness as surely as it is used, and is perfectly innocent to take internally, even in double the quantity named in the directions; and as an external remedy for Chronic Rheumatism, Cuts, Bruises, Old Sores, Mumps, Toothache, Headache, Sore Throat, Sprains, Insect Stings, Pains in the Back, Chest and Limbs, thousands have tested the to, and their certificates can be seen at the Doctor's depot, 66 Cortlandt street, New York. Hundreds of physicians use it in their practice. It has been introduced since 1847, and hundreds who now have it in their houses, say they would not be without it even if it was $50 per bottle. Every bottle is signed by Dr. Tobias himself, and can be depended on. Only 50cts. and $1 per bottle. Sold by Druggists. Depot 50 Cortlandt street, New York. Jy8dawlm

DR. SCHENCK ON DYSPEPSIA.—SYMPTOMS, CAUSES AND REMEDY.

Symptoms of Dyspepsia—A sense of fullness, tightness, and weight in the stomach, together with flatulency, acidity, sour, offensive belching of wind, water brash and vomiting, and a great deal of what a person calls an all-gone feeling at the pit of the stomach; frequently there is also palpitation of the heart, which physicians mistake for heart disease, and when the stomach is in this condition it is coated with a thick mucus, a slime. Sometimes portions of the stomach, similar to what we see in tripe, is what throws out the gastric juice, and when these two agents come in contact with food, as it prevents the gastric juice from flowing, and digestion ceases. Schenck's Seaweed Tonic dissolves this mucus or slime, and renders the stomach to its natural condition.

Schenck's Mandrake Pills are also required to carry off the morbid matter. Two-thirds of the cases of Consumption are caused from this diseased state of the stomach; the liver becoming torpid, it ceases to throw out bile, and in short time the whole system is deranged. The mucous membrane of the bronchial tubes sympathizes with the other organs, and before the patient is aware of it, he or she has Bronchial or Pulmonary Consumption.

Schenck's Pulmonic Syrup cannot act freely through the blood when the system is in this locked up condition, without the aid of the Sea Weed Tonic and Mandrake Pills. The liver has to be set to work to secrete blood to strain, and when it gets in a morbid condition, blood and bile run through the system mixed, and the whole body becomes so low, and the blood so thick it can hardly run through the veins. In a majority of cases hemorrhages occur from this thick condition of the blood. The Mandrake Pills act on the Liver similar to calomel, or they do what that does—it unlocks the gall bladders, starts the bile, and the blood begins to circulate naturally through the veins, and the hemorrhages cease. If, when persons are attacked with hemorrhage, they would first take a good purgative, something that would act on the liver, they would soon be relieved from bleeding from the lungs, and it is the only way for an astringents are very tempting, and irritate the bronchial tubes, and lay the groundwork for consumption.

DR. SCHENCK will be professionally at his rooms every week, 32 Bond street, New York, and 35 Hanover street, Boston, from 9 A. M. until 3 P. M. He gives advice free, but for a thorough examination with the Respirometer, the charge is $5.

His medicines are for sale by all druggists and dealers. Also a full supply at all times at his rooms.

Price of the Pulmonic Syrup and Seaweed Tonic each $1.50 per bottle, or $7 50 the half dozen. Mandrake Pills 25 cents per box.

Local.

☞ People who supposed that the close of the war, and the consequent reduction in number of both army and navy employees here, would make houses more plenty and rents lower, have found out their mistake by this time, no doubt. At no time have dwellings for rent ever been in greater demand than now; though perhaps real estate does not sell quite so readily, or command as high prices, as during the war—Notwithstanding the habitual growling of tenants everywhere, rent is one of the cheapest things in Portsmouth and all similar (slow) places—that is, real estate is one of the most unremunerate forms of investment, for direct return. This is the reason why capitalists do not build houses to let—because, very absurdly we think, tenants are not willing to pay as much to hire a house as they must do to own it. When houses cannot be sold or rented at prices to pay for building new ones, we think a screw is loose somewhere; and such a state of things is a misfortune for any community. In this connection we will say that the advertisement House Wanted, is well worthy the attention of any who have a good dwelling to spare.

PORTSMOUTH NAVY YARD.—Though the visitor to this yard misses the great stir and bustle which made themselves so evident to all during the continuance of the rebellion, still there is much to interest and instruct in the daily routine of the thousand or more lives that are here regulated as it by clockwork. Ponderous machinery, moving almost noiselessly, without seeming effort, performs what in "good old days of yore" were impossibilities; iron floats on the water; great vessels lie at the docks; huge masses of solid metal are cut, punched and worked as though so much paper.

Of the dozen or so government vessels to be seen here, but few are in actual use;—the Emerald, a little 4th rate screw steamer, of 50 tons, used as a passage tug and mail boat; the Port Fire, also a 4th rate screw steamer of 103 tons, ostensibly a powder tug, but really more serviceable for general use in time of peace, than for the special use assigned her; and the Vandalia, a 3d rate sloop-of-war of 700 tons, used as receiving and guard ship.

In the ship houses, in process of building, we find: the Alert, a 3d rate screw steamer of 831 tons, to carry ten guns; the Illinois, a screw steamer of the first class and 3177 tons, to carry 23 guns; the Passaconaway, an iron-clad steamer of the 2d rate, 3200 tons, and carrying 4 heavy guns, ready for plating, on which work is suspended.

Lying at the wharves we find: the Minnetonka, a 1st rate screw steamer of 3177 tons, carrying 23 guns, launched the 3d of July: the Contocook, a 2d rate screw steamer of 2348 tons, carrying 13 guns; and the Piscataqua, a 1st rate screw steamer of 3177 tons, carrying 21 guns—both the latter fitting for sea, machinery going in and being tested, and all details being carefully looked after.

In ordinary, sleeping well for a while after their lives' fitful fever, we see: the Galena, made memorable by her contests with rebel batteries on James river, a 3d rate screw steamer of 738 tons, carrying 10 guns; the Maratauza, a 3d rate side-wheel steamer of 786 tons, carrying 10 guns; the Muscoota, a 3d rate side-wheel steamer of 747 tons, last attached to the Gulf Squadron, carrying 10 guns; and the Speedwell, a 4th rate screw steamer of 350 tons, carrying 2 guns.

From this yard since its first establishment, have been launched 2 ships of the line, 2 frigates, 4 sloops of war, 12 steam sloops, 4 steam frigates, 1 iron-clad, and 2 screw steamers of the 4th rate—some of which have redounded as much to the credit of the whole navy, as most of them have to the credit of the yard from which they emanated.

CORRECTIONS.—In our last, it was stated that Rear Admiral T. Bailey had been detached from the command of this Navy Yard, after five years' service as Commandant. Admiral Bailey has received orders to transfer the command to Commodore Joseph Lanman on the 1st of October next. He will then have been in command of this station three years, the usual term of service of Commandants.

In the list of civil officers at the Navy Yard, furnished us for publication last week, the name of William F. Pray, clerk to Assistant Naval Constructor, was accidentally omitted; and a typographical error changed the name of Wm. Harper Yeaton, clerk in the Ordnance Department, to Wm. Harper Graton.

POLICE COURT, July 27.—Before M. Bufford, Associate J.—The case of Ann Wilson, charged with assault on Edward Finley and John Stuffle, came up on continuance, and a nol. pros. was entered.

Ann Wilson, for assault upon Alonzo Jones, a soldier, was fined $5 and $10.02 costs. This Amazon has figured extensively in our Police Court of late. Though hardly a man of war, her taste seems to be to contend with those who are such.

☞ It is very hazardous business to ride on a mowing machine in operation, and a careful man says nobody should ever do it. Mr. H. S. Harisboro, while cutting grass with a pair of horses on the premises of Mr. Bowles at Little harbor last week, had a colt badly cut by a hand scythe, which had been carelessly thrown in the grass after use.

NAVAL.—Commander Jonathan Young, recently in command of the receiving ship Vandalia at this station, has been ordered to command the Mahaska.

Mates E. T. Dexter and N. Taylor have been ordered to duty on board the Vandalia.

☞ The Rockingham Cricket Club of the city played a match game with the Ipswich Club last week, on the grounds of the latter club,—and the Ipswichians won the game by 16 runs. A return game will come off at Portsmouth Plains on the 10th of August.

☞ On Thursday of last week, Capt. Card, of Dover Neck, 92 years of age, rowed down river in his wherry, took on board a barrel of flour at one of our wharves, and rowed home again, alone, as he came.

☞ A gallant widower of Greenland, a veritable Elder of the Methodist persuasion, of the ripe age of 77 years, was married in this city a few days, to a fair daughter of Portsmouth, of the tender age of 45.

☞ Lieut. John R. Myrick, 3d U. S. Artillery, has been ordered to Quartermaster's duty at Fort Constitution, to relieve Lieut. Geo. F. Hunting, who will join his regiment at Hilton Head.

☞ Horace F. Pickering, Esq., has been appointed a Deputy Collector of all unpaid taxes, due in this city up to the current year.

— A correspondent, alluding to the Surratt case, says, "I do not know which is the most sickening in this trial, the development of the low gang of conspirators who murdered the noble Lincoln, or the brazen audacity and malignity of those who, though a little higher in the social scale, seek to cover up the crime and the criminals."

— James A. Pollard, Superintendent of the Vermont State Prison, Windsor, has probably the largest hog in New England. It measures in the girt 6 feet, 4 inches; in height, 3 feet 8 1-2 inches; in length, 10 feet. The "narrative" is 22 inches in length, leaving the body of the hog 8 feet and 2 inches. Age, about 16 months. The estimated weight is 1000 pounds.

— If sheep are kept in the same lot with cows or fat cattle, no dog will disturb them. As soon as the dogs approach the sheep, they run to the cattle, who drive off the dogs. A farmer for thirty years, in Shelby county, by adopting this plan, never lost a sheep by dogs, although in the same night the same dogs killed sheep on the farms north and south of him.

Holloway's Pills. THE
UNION PACIFIC RAILROAD CO.

Are now constructing a railroad from
OMAHA, NEBRASKA,
westward towards the Pacific Ocean, making with its connections an unbroken line
ACROSS THE CONTINENT.

The Company now offer a limited amount of their
FIRST MORTGAGE BONDS,

having thirty years to run, and bearing annual interest, payable on the first day of January and July, in the City of New York, at the rate of
SIX PER CENT. IN GOLD,
AT
Ninety Cents on the Dollar.

This road is already completed to Julesburg, 276 miles west of Omaha, Kansas, and is fully equipped, and trains are running regularly over it. The Company has now on hand sufficient iron, ties, etc., to finish the remaining portion to the western base of the Rocky Mountains, 141 miles, which is under contract to be done September 1st of this year, and it is expected that the entire road will be in running order from Omaha to its western connection with the Central Pacific, now being rapidly built eastward from Sacramento, Cal., during 1868.

Means of the Company.

Estimating the distance to be built by the Union Pacific to be 1565 miles, the United States Government issues is Six per cent. Thirty-year bonds to the company as the road is finished, at the average rate of about $28,250 per mile, amounting to $44,228,000.

The Company is also permitted to issue its own First Mortgage Bonds to an equal amount, and at the same time, which by special Act of Congress are made a First Mortgage on the entire line, the bonds of the United States being subordinate to them.

The Government makes a donation of 12,800 acres of land to the mile, amounting to 20,032,000 acres, estimated to be worth $30,000,000, making the total resources, exclusive of the capital, $105,000,000; and the full value of the lands cannot now be realized.

The Authorized Capital Stock of the Company is one hundred million dollars, of which five millions have already been paid in, and of which it is not supposed that more than twenty-five millions more will be required.

The cost of the road is estimated by competent engineers to be about one hundred million dollars, exclusive of equipments.

Prospects for Business.

The railroad connection between Omaha and the East is now complete, and the earnings of the Union Pacific on the completed portion for the first two weeks in May were $112,000. Those sectional earnings as the road progresses will much more than pay the interest on the Company's bonds, and the through business over the only line of railroad between the Atlantic and Pacific must be immense.

Value and Security of the Bonds.

The Company respectfully submit, that the above statement of facts fully demonstrates the security of their Bonds, and as additional proof they would suggest that the Bonds now offered are less than ten million dollars on 517 miles of road, on which over twenty million dollars have already been expended.—on 300 miles of this road the cars are now running, and the remaining 187 miles are nearly completed.

At the present rate of premium on gold, these bonds pay an annual interest on the present cost of Nine Per Cent.

and it is believed that on the completion of the road, like the Government Bonds, they will go above par. The Company intend to sell but a limited amount at the present low rate, and reserve the right to advance the price at their option.

A POT OF BAKED BEANS.

BY GREENHORN.

How dear to my heart, on a fine Sunday morning,
When leaping refreshed from my trundle bed,
To find a brown platter my table adorning,
My table with breakfast material spread.
A platter containing without stint of measure,
A luxury suited to station and means,
Which I view with emotions of exquisite pleasure,
My darling, my favorite pot of baked beans;
My own darling pot, so invitingly hot,
In thee what a glorious treasure I've got.

How oft do I pause to survey it a minute!
How crisp is the pork, how deliciously brown!
How madly I plunge my pewter spoon in it,
And gracefully swallow the juicy mess down.
Not the costliest dish, or the richest extraction
Of tartle o'erflowing in silver tureens,
Could afford me one-quarter the high satisfaction
As doth my dear, favorite pot of baked beans.
O my beans and pork, I'm hungry as a hawk,
And soon will destroy you with spoon, knife and fork.

How much I respect the good soul that doth bake thee,
When I lie to the baker's my treasure to claim;
With a shout of wild rapture, how gladly I take thee,
And pony up coppers to pay for the same.
I rush to my garret and quickly devour it,
Forgetting the world and its treacherous scener;
I dig them all out and effectually scour it,
I'm so desperately fond of a pot of baked beans!
And when the're all gone I sit down forlorn,
And over that bean pot so empty, I mourn.

— A hymn sung by an old negro woman runs thus:

"I hears a rumblin' in de skies,
Jews, screws de fi dum!
I hears a rumblin' in de skies,
Jews, screws de fi dum!"

An inquiry elicited the fact that the second and fourth lines, which form a sort of chorus, originally read, "Jews crucified him."

— An old toper's conundrum: "If water rots your boots, what effect must it have upon the cost of your stomach?"

— The man that forgets a good deal that has happened, has a better memory than he who remembers a great deal that never happened.

A "TAKE OFF."— "Gris," the "Fat Contributor," says he was asked to write a "take off" on the Black Crook. He replied that he couldn't see anything to take off.—Louisville Journal.

A young lady alighting from a stage-coach, a ribbon fell from her bonnet into the bottom of the carriage. "You have left your bow behind," remarked a lady passenger. "No, I have'nt, he's gone a fishing," innocently exclaimed the damsel.

— Lord Bacon beautifully said, "If a man be gracious unto strangers, it shows he is a citizen of the world, and his heart is no island cut off from other lands, but a continent that joins them."

— A young lady fainted in a New York theatre the other night. She was revived by throwing water in her face, and her first words were, "O! my new bonnet!"

— A tape worm 57 feet long has been taken out of the stomach of a Rochester man. The man is reported in good spirits, and so is the worm.

— It is stated that 2000 Union Leagues have been organized in the eleven Southern States, and are now in full operation, with a membership of 200,000 voters.

— Jerome's medal to "the first gentleman of the class," at Princeton College, was not presented at the late examination, no one wishing to be singled out as the gentleman of his class.

— The Bureau agent for Robertson county, Texas, reports during the last three months that thirty bodies of murdered freedmen have been seen floating down the Brazos river. Within nine consecutive days this month, eight freedmen have been murdered in that one county. There is no redress from the civil authorities.

— A manufactory of Heidsick and Cliquot champagne wine, with the brands and labels of these celebrated manufactures, has been discovered in San Fransisco, and broken up. A man named Finke has been arrested and will be tried for forging the labels.

— The London Lancet raises its voice against the increasing indulgence among the education and gentle of the pernicious habit of tippling, which has become quite general with both sexes. The medical faculty are blamed for so frequently prescribing spiritous liquors.

— The best summer beverage is cold water, ice cold, if you please, but by all means grasp the glass by the hand, take a swallow at a time, remove the glass from the lips for a few seconds, then take another swallow; in this way it will be found that the thirst will be thoroughly satiated before half the water has been taken, whereas if it had been taken continuously, the whole contents would not have satisfied the thirst.

— The "Maximilian Avengers" have given up their purpose of invading, seizing and governing Mexico as a punishment of Liberals who executed the Austrain Prince. Neither the French nor the Austrain Government has come forward with funds for their use—although it was given out that these Powers were ready to furnish them millions as soon as their scheme was under way.

— A few weeks since a party of old gentlemen in Amesbury were discussing the cause of the failure of the apple crop, in view of such a fine bloom. After various reasons had been advanced, one of the number, an opponent of the liquor law, declared that as philosophical reasoning had failed to account for it, it was only to be attributed to the State Constables who had picked off all the apple blossoms, to save all trouble in the execution of that part of the law relating to the sale of cider.

C. A. RICHARDS & CO.'S
CONCENTRATED
EXTRACT OF RYE.

THE Proprietors of this popular article, finding it necessary to remove a wrong impression from the public mind regarding the real merit of which they claim for it,

WOULD ONCE AGAIN ANNOUNCE
THAT
IT IS NOT a mere dram-drinking beverage, but a FREE, GENUINE and SCIENTIFICALLY PREPARED MEDICINE.

It is not, as many have been led to believe, nothing but good Rye Whiskey; it is a
MEDICINAL REMEDY,
specially designed for certain useful and beneficial purposes; which any intelligent and thinking person can readily see, by reading what we now have

TO SAY ABOUT IT,
without any long, high sounding words, such as some doctors use to mystify and bewilder a patient, until he can't begin to tell what does ail him. We SIMPLY AND PLAINLY SAY that "EXTRACT OF RYE" is nothing but the

JUICES OF THE GRAIN
combined with a certain oily, fatty and vegetable matter, which, when taken into the system, stimulates it first to
NEW LIFE,
and a restored appetite, and then goes to make BETTER and STRONGER
FLESH AND BLOOD.

One can instantly see how this preparation must soothe the throat when it is inflamed, and must carry its lubricating and fattening effects to the lungs, thereby
STOPPING COUGHS.
IT IS WHAT YOU WANT
when you have a bad cough, to cure it, when you have
CONSUMPTION OF THE LUNGS,
to heal and build them up again. So much for the cause of disease.

Now, if you want an article to FEED THE SYSTEM on, when it has become reduced by sickness or by being OVERWORKED IN ANY WAY, this medicine will
DO THE WORK.

We have, among a great many letters we have received about it, a great many positive testimonials that it has been the means of making people
GAIN FLESH AND GROW FAT.

The reason for this is the
GRAND SECRET OF THE WHOLE MATTER.
It acts as a
STIMULATING FOOD
to the body, and helps Nature
THROW OFF DISEASE.

How often, of late years, have people been terribly deceived by resorting to common whiskey for this purpose, when, if they knew it, the only advantage to be gained from the use of whiskey must spring from the little quantity of medicine that of which Extract of Rye is entirely compo sed.

This, then, is the whole story. EXTRACT OF RYE will cause you to throw off disease by feeding the system with a
and will build up and restore the powers of mind and body, while you become fat and happy.

It is put up in convenient style, each bottle being contained in paper box. It is not sold at a foolish fancy price, but offered at a reasonable cost to rich and poor.

American and Foreign Patents.
R. H. EDDY,
SOLICITOR OF PATENTS,
Late Agent of the U. S. Patent Office, Washington under the Act of 1837.
No. 78 State street, (opposite Kilby street,) Boston.

After an extensive practice of upwards of twenty years, continues to secure Patents in the United States; also in Great Britain, France and other foreign countries. Caveats, Specifications, Assignments, Bonds, and all papers or drawings for Patents, executed on reasonable terms, with despatch. Researches made into American and Foreign Works, to determine the validity and utility of Patents of Inventions, and legal and other advice rendered in all matters touching the same. Copies of the claims of any patent furnished by remitting one dollar. Assignments recorded in Washington.
No Agency in the United States possesses superior facilities for obtaining Patents, or ascertaining the patentability of inventions.
During eight months the subscriber, in the course of his large practice, made on twice rejected applications, SIXTEEN APPEALS; every one of which was decided in his favor by the Commissioner of Patents.
"I regard Mr. Eddy as one of the most capable and successful practitioners with whom I have had official intercourse. CHAS. MASON,"
Commissioner of Patents.
"I have no hesitation in assuring inventors that they can not employ a man more competent and trustworthy, and more capable of putting their applications in a form to secure for them an early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office.
EDMUND BURKE,"
Late Commissioner of Patents.
"Mr. R. H. EDDY has made for me THIRTEEN applications, in all but ONE of which patents have been granted, and that one is now pending. Such unmistakable proof of great talent and ability on his part, leads me to recommend all inventors to apply to him to procure their patents, as they may be sure of having the most faithful attention bestowed on their cases, and at very reasonable charges. ADULTERATION OF ENGLISH BEER.—The London Lancet publishes an article on the use of cocculus Indicus, a very bitter, acrid narcotic poison, in the manufacture of ale and porter. The quantity of beer consumed in England is enormous, being now about 100,000,000 gallons per year, and it is increasing at the rate of 40 per cent. every ten years. It is known that this substance is used to stupify fishes, so that they are easily caught, and that it acts very injuriously on the health; but there is no direct proof that the brewers used it, only it appeared that last year 50,000 pounds were imported from India, enough to drug 125,000 tons of beer. And if it is not used for this purpose, the question is, what becomes of it, as it is not used at all in medicine, nor in any other branch of art or industry. The conclusion is that the brewers use it secretly; and this would explain the peculiar kind of headches and mental diseases now so prevalent in England among the consumers of certain kinds of beer. The editor of the Lancet thinks the English Government ought to put a heavy import duty on this highly injurious drug, in order to prevent its use.

— One of the ablest writers in Ohio, Mr. E. D. Mansfield states it as his opinion that the absolute money value of the crops this year will five hundred millions of dollars greater than in 1866.

— The Japanese in Paris have taught the cooks at the Grand Hotel how to "bake" ice-creams. Freeze your ice as hard as possible, wrap it quickly in a very thin crust of pastry and put it in the oven.—The pastry will be baked before the ice melts (for the pastry is a good non-conductor of heat); serve hot and you may enjoy the pleasure of eating hot pastry and ice-cream at the same time.

SOMETHING NEW!
SELEE'S HAIR LIFE
Has been thoroughly tested by thousands during the past year, and is declared superior to all other preparations for the hair. It has no equal for Restoring Gray Hair to its original color in from TEN TO THIRTY DAYS.
It is a most splendid Hair Dressing, surpassing all others for making dry and brashy hair soft, glossy and beautiful, as in youth.
This Magical Preparation invariably stops the falling of the hair, and always promotes a lively, luxuriant growth.
Its use will at once free the head from Dandruff, Scurf and all Humors, especially Salt Rheum.
It KILLS HAIR EATERS, which are so fatal to the roots of the hair. It contains no nitrate of silver, which is found in most other Hair preparations, and is so injurious.
THE HAIR LIFE IS NOT A DYE, but operates on the roots, restoring them to their natural, healthy state.
It is the nicest, neatest, and most effectual thing in the market.
It never stains, and is perfectly harmless.

TUESDAY, JULY 30, 1867.

"DOG STAR RAVINGS."—Under this head the Concord Monitor says:

"Dog days seem to have had a bad effect on the 'Stars and Bars' man at Portsmouth. He discourses at length on 'Loyalty,' and from the general character of the article, one would think he had fed on nothing but slopdoddle all his life. Hear his rant," &c.

But we haven't got room in this Chronicle to spare for much of his twaddle—we rarely see his paper, and have better business than to read it if we did, for we found out long ago that it is always one thing with him—abuse of everybody and every thing better than himself—so you see he has plenty to do.

But it is a word in reply to the Monitor, we wish to have. That paper copies the man who would have the sun of progress stand still or go backwards,—and who is so far like the Joshua of old, except that the new one can't get any one to heed or obey him,—as saying, in respect to President Johnson and his vetoes:

"But Mr. Johnson, while talking bravely and well, remains an inactive drone in the White House. He does nothing but talk, talk, talk. He is like a bee, all buzz but no sting. If we had been in his place six months ago, or any time since then, and vested with his Constitutional powers, we would have shipped the Rump Congress to Walrussia or the Fejee Islands, and the people would have sustained the action.—We wouldn't allow any such scoundrels to interfere with our Constitutional prerogatives. We wouldn't sit by, growling, and permit them to trench upon our precincts. If they attempted it, there would certainly be a row, let the consequences be what they might."

Here the Monitor remarks:

"What a blessed thing it is for Congress, that Joshua isn't in the White House.—Only think of his shipping Congress to Mr. Seward's Arcadia up in icebergdom, or sending it to the Fejee Islands to take the place of cooked missionaries! in his majesty's bill of fare. Oh, Joshua I could you be so cruel? Or, after all, do you belong to that proverbial breed of barking dogs that never bite?"

Yes, that's just it—"all buzz, but no sting." Josh Billings well says, as you all know,—that "it is never safe to bet high on the sort of fellers who tell what they would have done had they been there—for he always minds that this kind never get there." But Joshua the Second did get there once, and though we didn't see it, we have always understood his constitutional prerogatives were interfered with, and his precincts decidedly trenched upon—while he did sit by growling, and permit it—and finally gathered himself together and silently stole away—the back way, home. There was considerable of a row, and for immediate consequences, his office got cleaned out,—but we never heard he "stung" anybody.

The Monitor closes thus:

"We beg pardon of our readers for giving them so much of a dose of fanatical ravings from Strawberry Bank. Our only excuse is, that they may pity the sorrows of the good people in that city, who by some 'mysterious providence' are called upon to endure the presence of such an idiot, and to patiently listen to such drivellings in the name of Democracy and a Free Press.—We bespeak for them an interest in the prayers of all Christian men and women, that their day of deliverance from such nonsense may be nigh at hand."

Why, bless your kind heart, Brother Monitor, nobody down this way minds his buzzing—in fact, very few except fellow blissers ever hear or know anything about it—and no paper in the county ever thinks of replying to it.

— Howard Barnum, teller in the Pequonock Bank, Bridgeport, Ct., proves to be a defaulter to the amount of $12,000, and has disappeared. Fast horses and fast women ruined him. He is a nephew of the great showman.

— Tom Clarke, leader of a band of robbers at Sydney, New South Wales, has, within two years, killed eleven persons, robbed the mails nine times, and is known to have committed other robberies. He is sentenced to be hung.

— One Evans, who was persuaded to emigrate from the South to Brazil, has returned to Mobile in a very disgusted frame of mind. In a published communication he informs the people of the South that "the emigration to Brazil is a delusion, gotten up for speculation."

— A Mobile paper relates a conversation between a couple of lively dames on the street cars. The talk was about a fan. "I set a great deal by this; it is an old Confederate fan, the only thing I have left to remember the Confederacy by." "I should think you had something else."—"Yes-es, I lost both my husbands in the war —and my sweetheart. It nearly killed me."

— Rev. S. H. Tyng, Jr., of New York, has been presented before the Standing Committee of the Diocese for having, it is alleged, violated a section of the canons of the church by officiating in a Methodist church at New Brunswick, N. J., without the consent of the minister of that parish, and against his remonstrances. A committee has been appointed to investigate the charges.

Correspondence of the Chronicle.

RYE, July 29.

Messrs. Editors:—"About this time" the newspaper correspondents at fashionable watering-places are expected to "spread" themselves through columns of leaded type, arrayed in all the marvellous beauties of flaming head-lines. The Tribune and Express give ample evidence that theirs at Saratoga, Newport and Long Branch have caught the infection and have got "prolixity of pen" pretty bad. I had hoped and somewhat expected to escape its ravages this year, but the periodical return of the "poor Indian" with piles of painted baskets, the usual influx of strangers, and the numerous little local items "lying around loose" waiting to be "gobbled up" by some enterprising gatherer of news—are all alarming premonitory symptoms, and indicate that I am once more the victim of unfortunate circumstances.

Notwithstanding the great amount of croaking about dull weather, dampness, &c., old Rye still exists, and folds within her embrace nearly the usual amount of company at this season of the year. The private houses are generally well filled—and the hotels are rapidly filling up. Large numbers of visitors came down on Saturday, some to return this morning, but more to remain for the season.

I have no official returns from the Ocean House, but incidentally learn that the guests number considerably rising one hundred. Probably by next Saturday night the house will be about full. The Washington House is full to the overflowing.—The Surf not quite ditto. The Atlantic can accommodate some more, and also the Sagamore. The "Farragut" is well filled—only the attics remaining unoccupied yesterday. The Farragut is the finest hotel in Rye of its size, and its large, cool and airy rooms are in constant demand. There is no change in the proprietors or clerks of the hotels except the Surf and Farragut.—Perkins Pattee runs the former, and "West" Lougee goes from the Atlantic to the Farragut as clerk. The first grand hop of the season came off at the latter house on Saturday evening—preceded by parlor theatricals the evening previous.

The ladies of the Orthodox Society of Rye will hold a Fair at Weld's Hall on Wednesday, August 7th, which should, and doubtless will be, liberally patronized.

The Portsmouth Cornet Band serenaded the visitors at the house of Mr. Lewis L. Perkins, on Friday evening. Their excellent music won praise from everybody. We learn that they were handsomely entertained by the guests of the house.

Lovers of boating will find every facility at Rye Beech for indulging in their favorite pastime. In addition to the "lines" already established, Capt. Henry L. Varrell puts upon the course a new and elegant yacht of 22 tons burthen. Passengers will find everthing desirable for speed, safety and comfort.

Some "tent folks" have arrived. More are coming.

Thus far the arrivals here show an unusual preponderance of the fair sex. Young men scarce and in great demand. Chief burden of the female song,

"Oh, for a Man!" "Oh, for a Man!"

Yours truly, BUGGINS.

[Our gallant correspondent does not give the whole song above, which is "O for a man-shun," &c. And as to that, this owing for a man is like owing for a lodge in some vast wilderness; it is better to pay as you go, for either, if you must have it; though the very girls who oh for a man most, often find him afterwards dear at any price—and some who thought they couldn't do without husbands, discover they can't do anything with them.]

— A newly formed colored regiment, headed by a band of music, paraded through the streets of Baltimore on Thursday. They halted opposite the office of the American, newspaper, and cheered that paper; also Thad. Stevens and Congress.

— John Slidell is at present living near Paris, as well as his son-in-law, Erlanger, the Hebrew banker. It is said that, altho' he is most anxious to pass his last days in America, he has latterly given up all hope of ever again seeing his native land.

— The military authorities at Houston, Texas, lately compelled a steamboat captain to give the same accommodations to a colored registrar that he did to the white members of the board of registration, who were going to Lynchburg on official business.

— The Washington correspondent of the Worcester Spy, in giving an account of an interview between President Johnson and Gen. George H. Thomas, says the former urged the zeal and impulsiveness of Sheridan as a reason for his removal, descanting especially on his misinterpretation of the laws. At last Gen. Thomas told the President it would not mend matters to send him to the Gulf, as he should interpret the law as Sheridan did. Foiled in this, the President began to denounce Gov. Brownlow and his militia, until again Gen. Thomas told him that, in his opinion, the Governor was in the right, and that he (the General) should, at least alone, side with him.

ANOTHER FIRE IN CONCORD.—On Sunday morning, at four o'clock, fire was discovered in the livery stable of Joseph G. Hill, situated between Park and Centre streets, a few rods from the ruins of the American House, which was destroyed on the 13th. The alarm carried anxiety and fear, for it was the seventh instance of alleged incendiarism in Concord within sixteen days. Before the conflagration could be stayed, five stables and two dwelling houses were leveled to the ground, and another smoking tract of ruins added to the already desolated territory of the American House Square. The other stables burned were those of the American House, of the Sherman House, Johnson's private stables, and another of J. G. Hills. Of the houses, one belonged to Mr. Hill, the other to Mr. James Prescott. Loss in all from $10,000 to $15,000.

OUR SHIPS AND SAILORS, IN FRANCE. On Saturday, the Empress Eugenie visited the United States steamer Colorado, and was received with the honors befitting her rank. At her approach salutes were fired and the yards manned. The vessel was gaily decked with colors. The other vessels of the American squadron and all the French men-of-war and shipping in the harbor were also profusely decked with bunting. The Empress was received by the Captain of the Colorado and his officers, and was conducted through various parts of the ship. At the conclusion of the inspection Her Imperial Majesty expressed herself highly pleased with the appearance of the ship and gratified with the warmth of her reception, and departed amid the enthusiastic cheers of the sailors who manned the yards, and with a parting salute from the great guns of the Colorado.

On Saturday evening Admiral Farragut was received at a State dinner by the Emperor Napoleon. The dinner was especially given by the Emperor in honor of the American Admiral. Members of the Imperial Cabinet and the United States Minister, Gen. Dix, were among the invited guests.

A VETERAN.—Ordinance Sergeant Morrison re-enlisted in the U. S. regular army at Newport, R. I., a few days ago, receiving his papers in due form. He has been a soldier sixty-seven years, and for fifty years he has been connected with the American service. Sergeant Morrison is now eighty-two years of age and has charge of Fort Wolcott.

☞ The Republicans of Florida, through their delegates, of whom there were upward of an hundred present, representing thirty counties, met in convention at Tallahasse on the 11th inst. About one-half of the delegates were intelligent colored men. The proceedings were harmonious, and the resolutions thoroughly Republican in tone.

☞ The Charleston News closes an article on the President's last veto message, as follows:

The whole subject of this message is one entirely beyond our province; it concerns the quarrel between Congress and the President. To the people of these ten unreconstructed States their duty should be plain. If we would have peace, order, organization, government, we must adopt the measures prescribed for us by Congress.—Congress alone has the power to enforce its decrees, and that power is even now at our doors, and for this very purpose. Where, then, is the wisdom of opposition, or of a refusal to accept the proffered terms?

— Robert H. Hendershott, the drummer boy of the Rappahannock, who lately created such excitement in Poughkeepsie, now holds a position as conductor on the Union Pacific Railroad, of which Fort Sedgwick is the present terminus. His young wife is in Omaha, and has made quite a sensation in that city.

— The liabilities of the suspended Unadilla National Bank are estimated at $200,000. The President, it is said, owned $100,000 of the capital, and the balance was in the hands of the Cashier and some relatives at Albany. The reported assets of the bank will not go far toward meeting its liabilities.

THE PLAN adopted by the Washington Library Company for the raising of funds for the Riverside Institute—an asylum for the gratuitous education of Soldiers' and Sailors' Orphans—is meeting with great approval. Subscriptions to the stock are coming in rapidly. The handsome steel-plate engravings given to those who purchase stock are acknowledged by competent judges to be first-class productions. Besides receiving a handsome engraving of this character, worth more at retail than the price of the stock, every purchaser will in addition receive a present of some kind. Full and ample is given that every share of stock must be accompanied by a present besides the engraving. See advertisement.

THE ORDER OF THE DAY.—A general order for SOZODONT In the teeth of all opposition it has become the supreme dentifrice of the age.

THE SUN AND STARS. The stars all "go out" by daylight. So must all the common adulterated compounds of Saleratus disappear before Pyle's; that defies all competition. Try it. Ask your grocer for Pyle's Saleratus, and see that his name is on the package. 12

☞ All Physicians who have used SPEER'S Samucol Wine recommend it above all other wines for its valuable medicinal properties, especially for females and debilitated persons. Sold by Druggists. 4

— Gold Medal Saleratus is making a great sensation among consumers, as they find their health depends upon its issue. It will strengthen weak stomachs, cure dyspepsia, save one-half in the quantity of shortening, make one eighth more Bread, Cake or Biscuit from the barrel of flour, and withal is perfectly healthy. Try it. The Grocers and Druggists sell it. Depot 112 Liberty Street, New York.

— In the Michigan Constitutional Convention, a clause extending the right of suffrage to Indians has been adopted. Section one of the article on elections, containing the principles of negro suffrage, passed without a word being said in debate, or a motion made to amend in reference to this subject; but five or six Democrats are in attendance, and they have said nothing.

To all who desire it, he will send a copy of the prescription used (free of charge), with the directions for preparing and using the same, which they will find a sure cure for CONSUMPTION, ASTHMA, BRONCHITIS, COUGHS, COLDS and all Throat and Lung affections. The only object of the advertiser sending the Prescription is to benefit the afflicted, and spread information which he conceives to be invaluable, and he hopes every sufferer will try his remedy, as it will cost them nothing, and may prove a blessing. ADVICE FOR THE PEOPLE.—Forced sweating is bad, often producing serious consequences, while purgation in chills, colds, rheumatism, etc., with BRANDRETH'S PILLS, is always safe, never leaving any ill effects. In all cases their use is wise; but in severe pain from colic, inflammations, or external injuries, it is SAVING. LIFE SAVING.

Remember BRANDRETH'S PILLS are always sure of effect, and always without the least danger, being act on the very part of the system, dislodging and removing all accumulations of impurities, thus cleansing the blood and restoring health.

The Hon Dennas Barnes says—"I sell more of Brandreth's Pills than of all others put together."

DR. S. S. FITCH,

Of 714 BROADWAY, NEW YORK, Author of the Six Lectures on the Prevention and Cure of Pulmonary Consumption, Asthma, Catarrh, Dyspepsia, Heart Disease and all Chronic Diseases, will be at the

ROCKINGHAM HOUSE, Portsmouth,

On THURSDAY, Aug. 1st, and on the same day of the week every fifth week afterward.

Dr. Fitch treats all Diseases of the Head, Scalp, Eyes, Nostrils, Face, Throat, Lungs, Stomach, Heart, Liver, Bowels, Piles, Kidneys, Skins, Joints, Dropsy; also Diseases peculiar to Males and to Females. Lost Complexion perfectly restored. Most persons, somewhere from 15 to 50 have one or more forms of sickness. Cure them wholly, and they will live ten to fifty years longer. Dr. Fitch's most prominent specialty is the prolongation of human life.

A respectable physician said to me four weeks ago, "For seventeen years you have had up wild of diseases pronounced utterly incurable by several eminent physicians."

Mrs. Elizabeth Huntington Long writes, (Saratoga Springs, March 3d, 1867,) twenty three years ago she had ulcerated lungs, and true, seated, hereditary consumption, of which her sister died. I cured her quickly. Fourteen years later she had a bad attack of heart disease, of which her brother died. Of this I cured her perfectly. She says, "I always remember you with gratitude, for under God, I owe my life to you."

Miss Anna Judkin, at Portsmouth, N. H., June 7, 1867, said, "Twenty-three years ago I was your patient, and very bad with lung disease. My father, four brothers and three sisters, had died with consumption. I was wholly given up. In six months you cured me. I have now enjoyed perfect health twenty-two and a half years; not a single sore of lung disease in all that time."

D. D. Benjamin of Union, N. J., says, "Over twenty years ago I and my brother were both in consumption. I had bleeding and ulcerated lungs. My brother refused treatment, and died in three months. You cured me, and I have not had any cough or lung trouble in twenty years. I was then forty, and I am now sixty years old."

All consultations are wholly free.

DR. SCHENCK ON DYSPEPSIA.—SYMPTOMS, CAUSES AND REMEDY.

Symptoms of Dyspepsia—A sense of fullness, tightness, and weight in the stomach, together with flatulency, acidity, sour, offensive belching of wind, water brash and vomiting, and a great deal of whist a person calls an all-gone feeling at the pit of the stomach: frequently there is also a palpitation of the heart, which physicians mistake for heart disease, and when the stomach is in this condition it is coated with a mucus or slime, though Bilious portions of the food, and such, similar to what we see in tripe, is what throws out the gastric juice, and when the stomach gets a thick coat of slime on it, it prevents the gastric juice from flowing, and digestion ceases. Schenck's Seaweed Tonic dissolves this mucus or slime, and restors the stomach to its natural condition.

Schenck's Mandrake Pills are also required to carry off this morbid matter. Two-thirds of the cases of consumption are caused from this diseased state of the stomach; the liver becoming torpid, it ceases to throw out bile, and in a short time the whole system is deranged. The mucous membrane of the bronchial tubes sympathizes with the other organs, and before the patient is aware of it, he or she has Bronchial or Pulmonary Consumption.

Schenck's Pulmonic Syrup cannot act freely through the blood when the system is in this locked up condition, without the aid of the Sea Weed Tonic and Mandrake Pills. The Liver has all the vitiated blood to strain, and before it gets in a morbid condition, blood and bile run through the system mixed, and the whole body becomes sick, and the blood so thick it can hardly run through the veins. In a majority of cases hemorrhages occur from this thick condition of the blood. The Mandrake Pills act on the Liver similar to calomel, or they do the work that does—it unlocks the gall bladders, starts the bile, and the blood begins to circulate naturally through the veins, and the hemorrhages cease. If, when persons are attacked with hemorrhage, they would first take a good purgative, something that would act on the liver, they could soon be relieved from bleeding from the lungs, and it is the only way, for as astringents are only temporary, and obstruct the bronchial tubes, and lay the groundwork for consumption.

DR. SCHENCK will be professionally at his rooms every week, Bond street, New York, and 35 Hanover street, Boston, from 9 A. M. until 3 P. M. He gives advice free, but for a thorough examination with the Kesprometer, the charge is $5.

His medicines are for sale by all druggists and dealers. Also a full supply at all times at his rooms.

Price of the Pulmonic Syrup and Seaweed Tonic each $1.50 per bottle, or $7.50 the half dozen. Mandrake Pills 25 cents per box.

☞ Hen fanciers have ever been much interested in the freaks of their especial objects of care, noting down cases of mammoth eggs and queer chickens; and history vouches for a certain "speckled hen" who was wont "to lay two eggs a day," and who increased that number one-half on Sundays. Mr. J. Howard Dodge of this city recently set a hen on fourteen eggs, and thinks she must be of a prolific breed, as incubation resulted in a brood of fifteen chickens.

THE
UNION PACIFIC RAILROAD CO.

Are now constructing a railroad from

OMAHA, NEBRASKA,

westward towards the Pacific Ocean, making with its connections an unbroken line

ACROSS THE CONTINENT.

The Company now offer a limited amount of their

FIRST MORTGAGE BONDS,

having thirty years to run, and bearing annual interest, payable on the first days of January and July, in the City of New York, at the rate of

SIX PER CENT. IN GOLD,
AT
Ninety Cents on the Dollar.

This road is already completed to Julesburg, 276 miles west of Omaha, and is fully equipped, and trains are running regularly over it. The Company has now on hand sufficient iron, ties, &c., to finish the remaining portion to the eastern base of the Rocky Mountains, 141 miles, which is under contract to be done September last of this year, and the contract for the entire road will be in running order from Omaha to its western connection with the Central Pacific, now being rapidly built eastward from Sacramento, Cal., during 1870.

Means of the Company.

Estimating the distance to be built by the Union Pacific to be 1565 miles, the United States Government issues but Six per cent. thirty-year bonds to the Company as the road is finished, at the average rate of about $23,350 per mile, amounting to $44,230,000.

The Company is also permitted to issue its own First Mortgage Bonds to an equal amount, and all the sections of 40 consecutive miles of Congress are made a First Mortgage on the entire line, the bonds of the United States being subordinate to them.

The Government makes a donation of 12,800 acres of land to the mile, amounting to 20,032,000 acres, estimated to be worth $20,000,000, making the total resources, exclusive of bonds, $64,230,000; $16,000; but the full value of the lands cannot now be realized.

The Authorized Capital Stock of the Company is one hundred million dollars, of which five millions have already been paid in, and of which it is not supposed more than seven or eight millions at most will be required.

The cost of the road is estimated by competent engineers to be about one hundred million dollars, exclusive of equipments.

Prospects for Business.

The railroad connection between Omaha and the East is now complete, and the earnings of the Union Pacific on the sections already finished for the first two weeks in May were $113,000. These sectional earnings are the road progresses will touch more than pay the interest on the Company's bonds, and the through business over the only line of railroad between the Atlantic and Pacific must be immense.

Value and Security of the Bonds.

The Company respectfully submit, that the above statement of facts fully demonstrates the security of their Bonds, and as additional proof they would suggest that the Bonds now offered are less than ten million dollars on 517 miles of road, on which over twenty million dollars have already been expended:—on 330 miles of this road the cars are now running, and the remaining 187 miles are nearly completed.

At the present rate of premium on gold, these bonds pay an annual interest on the present cost of Nine Per Cent.,

and it is believed that on the completion of the road, like the Government Bonds, they will go above par. The Company intend to sell but a limited amount at the present low rate, and retain the right to advance the price at their option.

Subscriptions will be received in New York by CONTINENTAL NATIONAL BANK, 7 Nassau st., CLARK, DODGE & CO., Bankers, 51 Wall street, JOHN J. CISCO & SON, Bankers, 33 Wall street, and by BANKS AND BANKERS generally throughout the United States, of whom maps and descriptive pamphlets may be obtained.—They will also be sent by mail from the Company's Office, No. 20 Nassau street, New York, on application. Subscribers will select their own Agents in whom they have confidence, who alone will be responsible to them for the safe delivery of the Bonds.

Morning Chronicle.

SOUP SOCIETIES AND THE PRESIDENCY.—The Tribune gives its readers the following humorous account of a late nomination and of the men who made it:

The Union Republican General Committee of New York city is composed of a number of gentlemen who left the Republican party because they were not allowed to remain in it. They are the forlorn hope of the Democracy, and fight under false colors. These gentlemen having been beaten at every election, probably would have already disbanded their meagre forces had it not been for Mr. Thurlow Weed, whose extraordinary imagination conceived the highly original plan of nominating General Grant for the Presidency. The Committee jumped at the suggestion; it met, it nominated the General, and its members are now quarreling as to who shall be Secretary of State, and who shall name the New York appointments in 1869.

Mr. Weed has several hundred friends to whom he has half promised the Collectorship, and they are all quarreling. Each of these Collectors in future has promised or sold the Custom House offices to a host of famishing applicants, and they are all quarreling. In fact, by this time everybody connected with the nomination is in a fearful condition of rivalry with everybody else—except Gen. Grant himself, who, unalarmed by this sudden attack upon his reputation, is enjoying the sea breeze at Long Branch.

Of course nobody thinks a nomination by the Union Republican Committee of the least intrinsic importance. This Committee is a Soup Society, differing from others in this respect, that it does not give soup, but asks for it. Every member now presents his ladle to Gen. Grant, and will remain in an attitude of eagerness and hunger which is piteous to behold. Such a nomination has not much national influence. The hack drivers might as well pass resolutions of thanks to George Washington for his services in the Revolution, or a committee representing the pie sellers declare their entire confidence in the correctness of the multiplication table.

People would believe that two and two are four, even if the pie men denied it, and Gen. Grant's popularity is not the least increased by the fact that the Soup Committee believes in it. The nomination, therefore, would not be worth notice were it not for the fact that it was prompted by Thurlow Weed. His approval of Gen. Grant is one of those extraordinary events which ned to be loked into, and that the Committee gave "three enthusiastic cheers for Gen. Grant and Thurlow Weed," should surely cause the hero of Richmond great uneasiness. It is a sinister combination. Shall we next hear of three cheers for Abraham Lincoln and Vallandigham?

A PALPABLE HIT.—It is related that Col. Cake, collector at the port of Philadelphia, the other day received a note from Secretary McCulloch, who stated that he had heard with mingled surprise and indignation that he (the collector) had appointed to subordinate places in the Custom House "men who had abused President Johnson." To this Col. Cake responded that he did not know where to look for any body who had not abused him.

— The Salt Lake Vedette thinks that, through the accession of population of the anti-Mormon character in the mining regions in the close neighborhood of that city, the remaining "relic of barbarism" will die of its own weight.

C. A. RICHARDS & CO.'S
CONCENTRATED
EXTRACT OF RYE.
THE Proprietors of this popular article, finding it necessary to remove a wrong impression from the public mind regarding the real merits which they claim for it,
WOULD ONCE AGAIN ANNOUNCE
THAT
IT IS NOT
a mere dram-drinking beverage, but a TRUE, GENUINE and SCIENTIFICALLY PREPARED
MEDICINE.
It is not, as many have been led to believe, nothing but good old Monkey Rye. It is a
MEDICINAL REMEDY,
specially designed for certain useful and beneficial purposes; which any intelligent and thinking person can readily see, by reading what we now have
TO SAY ABOUT IT,
without any long, high sounding words, such as some doctors use to mystify and bewilder a patient, until he can't begin to tell what does not ail him. We SIMPLY and PLAINLY say that "EXTRACT OF RYE" is nothing but the
JUICES OF THE GRAIN
combined with a certain oily, fatty and vegetable matter, which, when taken into the system, stimulates it first to
NEW LIFE,
and a restored appetite, and then goes to make BETTER AND STRONGER
FLESH AND BLOOD.
One can instantly see how this preparation must soothe the throat when it is irritated, and must carry its lubricating and fattening effects to the lungs; consequently
IT IS WHAT YOU WANT
when you have a bad cough, to cure it, when you have
CONSUMPTION OF THE LUNGS,
to heal and build them up again. So much for those troubles.
Now, if you want an article to FEED THE SYSTEM OR, when it has become reduced by sickness or by being OVERTAXED IN ANY WAY, this medicine will
DO THE WORK.
We have, among a great many letters we have received from it, a great many positive testimonials that it has been the means of making people
GAIN FLESH AND GROW FAT.
The reason for this is the
GRAND SECRET OF THE WHOLE MATTER.
It acts as a
STIMULATING FOOD
to the body, and helps Nature
THROW OFF DISEASE.
How often, of late years, have people been terribly deceived by receiving to common whisky for this purpose, when, if they knew it, the only advantage to be gained from the use of whiskey is containing from the little quantity it contains that of which Extract of Rye is entirely composed. This, then, is the whole story. EXTRACT OF RYE will cause you to throw off disease by feeding the system with a
STIMULATING FOOD,
and will build up and restore the powers of mind and body, while you become fat and happy.
It is put up in convenient style, each bottle being contained in a paper box. It is not sold at a foolish fancy price, but offered at a reasonable cost to rich and poor.

H-E-R-E WE COME.—There was a wedding in a church in a village near Chicago, recently, which was attended by a crowd of people, the bride being a famous belle in the section, and the bridegroom a late army officer. There is a story about him that was revived with effect at the wedding. He was in the western frontier service, and one day (so the story goes) he went out to hunt a bear. He had been away from camp but a few hours, when his voice was heard faintly in the distance, exclaiming—

"H-e-r-e we come!"

In a little time the same cry was heard again, but nearer; then it was repeated at intervals, nearer and louder; then finally the bold captain emerged from a bit of woods near the camp, running at the top of his speed, without his coat, hat or gun. In he came to camp, shouting, "Here we come!"

"Here who comes?" inquired a brother officer.

"Why, me and the game," gasped the officer, pointing to big bear who showed himself at the edge of the woods, took a look at the camp, and then, with a growl at missing his expected meal off the captain, disappeared in the woods again.

"But why didn't you shoot the bear, and then bring him in?" inquired one.

"What's the use shooting your game,' said the captain, testily, "when you can bring it in alive, as I did?"

The story got home before the captain did, and was in everybody's mouth. The other night, as the bold captain led his intended bride into the church, with pride and grace so readily inspired by the occasion, some wicked wag sang out from the gallery—

"H-e-r-e we come!"

Which was followed by such a shout of laughter as the old church never heard before.

— A Quaker gentleman, riding in a carriage with a fashionable lady decked with a profusion of jewelry, heard her complain of the cold. Shivering in her lace bonnet and shawl as light as a cobweb, she exclaimed: "What shall I do to get warm?" "I really don't know," replied the Quaker, solemnly, "unless thee puts on another breast-pin!"

SOMETHING NEW!
SELEE'S HAIR LIFE
Has been thoroughly tested by thousands during the past year, and is declared superior to all other preparations for the hair. It has no equal for Restoring Gray Hair to its original color in from TEN TO THIRTY DAYS.
It is a most splendid Hair Dressing, surpassing all others for making dry and brashy hair soft, glossy and beautiful, as in youth.
This Magical Preparation invariably stops the falling of the hair, and always promotes a lively, luxuriant growth.
Its use will at once free the head from Dandruff, Scurf and all Humors, especially Salt Rheum.
It KILLS HAIR EATERS, which are so fatal to the roots of the hair. It contains no nitrate of silver, which is found in most other Hair preparations, and is so injurious.
THE HAIR LIFE IS NOT A DYE, but operates on the roots, restoring them to their natural, healthy state.
It is the nicest, neatest, and most effectual thing in the market.
It never stains, and is perfectly harmless.

The Daily Chronicle.

Portsmouth, N. H.

WEDNESDAY, JULY 31, 1867.

☞ With this morning's issue of the Chronicle we complete our fifteenth year of publication of the Daily. We have not much to say on the subject, except to again thank all friends and patrons who have so long and so liberally encouraged and sustained the enterprise, or experiment as many regarded it at first, though we never did.

Fifteen years, we find by experience, is quite a long business life—and ours has certainly been an active and busy one, though in the main pleasant and satisfactory,—no doubt because reasonably "successful."—Though many of those who were our patrons at the start, yet continue so; still the percentage of the business men of the place to-day, who were so then, is comparatively but small.

With regard to the Chronicle, though its politics may not always have been kept so "independent" as the publisher and proprietor intended and preferred—yet probably no paper ever stood more entirely and independently on its own business bottom, than this—utterly uncaring and uncared for, by any and all parties, sects, creeds and classes. In this regard, we deem its success as surprising as it is agreeable, in view of the numerous wrecks all about, of papers started and nourished on party pap or personal favoriteism.

For the future, though it is often neither safe nor profitable to heedlessly make vows —we will only say, that while we do not know what we may be led to do for a living, still it is among the things last in our mind, to print any but an independent paper, for we deem none other worth the having.

With this much of review and prospectus, we shall only promise to endeavor to make our little paper still more acceptable to those who already received it so kindly and well, and start on another term, of fifteen years perhaps.

NEW HAMPSHIRE ITEMS.

—— An Irish switchman at Woodsville, named Thomas Newell, was killed by falling between the cars one day last week.

—— Miss Orel Towsley of Walpole, was found dead in her bed the other morning.—She lived alone and had evidently been dead several days.

—— It is said A. L. Harriman of Holderness has corn now eight feet and five inches high, which he planted on the first of last June.

—— Josiah Sawyer, aged 72, has done all the haying on his large farm this year, with no other help but his team, except a few acres mowed by a machine. He loaded, unloaded, and put into a mow, five loads of hay in one day.

—— The Manchester Mirror says Maj. Charles O. Rogers, of the Boston Journal, has bought the "Livermore Farm" at Plymouth, on the east side of the river. It contains some 400 acres of land, 100 of it intervals and the rest upland, tillage and woodland. Good for the Journal.

—— Brooks Locke, son of James Locke, of Epping, met with a terrible death on Saturday, July 20. Young Locke entered Norris' mill to grind an axe; a short time afterward the attention of those in hearing was attracted by the breaking of a window, and rushing to the scene they found that the young man had got entangled in the machinery which had literally torn him limb from limb, leaving nothing but the head perfect.

☞ We don't allow anybody to have a more exalted idea of the printer's art and the editorial profession, than we; for it is an "art"—and the art preservative of all other arts, including that of civilization and christianization; and it is a "profession," and the highest and most noble of all the professions, for it embraces and exceeds them all. But we must allow that the extract from the celebrated writer, which we give on our fourth page this morning, on the Printer, expresses our sentiments far more eloquently than we can ever hope to. And the other item, which by chance has got into the same paper and same column, no doubt also contains much of truth.

☞ When the through freight train from Boston to Portland on the Eastern Railroad arrived at Newburyport on Saturday evening, a brakeman named Merrill was found lying dead on the platform of the last car. It is supposed that he was struck by a drawbridge between Rowley and Newburyport, and instantly killed. He was a resident of Salisbury, and leaves a wife and three children.

— Carlotta received the news of the death of her husband without demonstrating the slightest emotion. This complete indifference argues the fact that her mind is hopelessly diseased.

—New Bedford has done a good thing; she has by means of a number of her philanthropic citizens, established a free reading room for the fishermen and pilots who form an important part of her population.

From the Alta California.

YANKEE LAW AND LAWYERS.

EXETER, N. H., May 15, 1867.

Editors Alta: Reading in the Alta, the only California paper I have seen since my return to the Atlantic Coast, I gather no small share of amusement, as well as information, from examining the proceedings of the San Francisco courts. They make up a rich variety—"mob" cases, "manslaughter" cases, "black mail" cases—to say nothing of the breach of promise, divorce, libel, conspiracy, land title and libel suits, which occupy the attention of the bench, bar and juries of your city.

LAW AND JUSTICE IN THE COLONIES.

Well, this is a cold, drizzly day, and unable to enjoy out door life, I am led to turn from reading a sketch of the pleadings of some of the leading members of the San Francisco bar, to the annals of the New Hampshire bar, which in olden times used to attend the Court terms at Exeter: a constellation of lawyers, among whose recorded names, when they met at the court-room during the winter of 1807, I notice those of Jeremiah Mason, Daniel Webster, William Plummer, Jeremiah Smith, George Sullivan, Arthur Livermore and Samuel Bell—men of vast law learning and unsurpassed ability.

Exeter is an old town, having been settled in 1638—two hundred and twenty-nine years ago, and more than a century before the earliest Mexican or San Francisican priest had found a home in California.—The old Colonial Governors began to hold courts here two centuries ago, and the usage has continued to the present day. The state of the law, and the way in which it was administered in that olden time, as compared with the present management of our courts, is worthy the notice of the readers of the Alta.

Under the Colonial government, Judges were appointed by the Crown more from favoritism than regard to fitness. The bench was frequently filled by those who had little knowledge of, and were not much influenced by the principles of common English law. There was sometimes reason to believe, also, that personal and pecuniary considerations influenced their decisions.—In truth, so much was the result supposed to depend upon the favor or aversion of the Court, that presents from suitors to the Judges were not uncommon, nor perhaps unexpected.

On one occasion the Chief Justice is said to have inquired rather impatiently of his servant, whose cattle those were that had waked him so unseasonably in the morning by their lowing under his window. He was somewhat mollified by the answer that they were a yoke of six-feet cattle, which Col. —— had sent as a present to his Honor.—"Has he?" said the Judge; "I must look into his case—it has been in Court long enough."

THE COURTS AFTER THE REVOLUTION.

The Revolution brought with it new men, and those of more integrity, but with no increased judicial science. From 1776 to 1783, Meshech Weare, who had studied theology, but did not preach, was Chief Justice of New Hampshire. His associates were Matthew Thornton, a physician, and John Wentworth, a farmer, who, we are told, discharged their duties "in a manner satisfactory to the Government and advantageous to the people," though they were neither of them lawyers.

From 1783 to 1790, Samuel Livermore was Chief Justice; but though bred to the law he was not inclined to attach much importance to precedents, or to any merely technical rules of procedure. In a manuscript report which I find recorded, in his charge, he cautions the Jury against "paying too much attention to the nicetics of the law to the prejudice of justice"—a caution of which juries do not ordinarily stand much in need. It was a favorite ruling with him that the English law reports and Colonial precedents, might be cited to enlighten but not to govern the judgment of the Court.

Judge Livermore was succeeded by Josiah Bartlett, a physician. Of him we are told that "when the law was with the plaintiff, and equity seemed to be on the other side, he was sure to pronounce in favor of the latter." The object of the law being in all cases to do justice, "that must be law," he said, "which in any given case conduces to that end." At any rate it was better to be governed by a right principle than by a wrong decision.

The next Chief Justice, from 1790 to 1795, was John Pickering, who was a well-read lawyer. His successors have all been of the same profession, though his immediate successor, Simeon Olcutt, was more distinguished for the uprightness of his intentions than for his knowledge of law. While such were the Chief Justices, it may well be imagined that the associate Judges were not versed in legal lore.

John Dudley, a farmer of Raymond; Woodbury Langdon, a merchant of Portsmouth; and Timothy Farrar, a young man designed for the pulpit, were appointed to the Court of Common Pleas after the Revolution. These Judges were men of strong powers of mind; of large acquaintance with business, and superior in talents and information generally to the second-rate lawyers who, with the salary of five hundred dollars then paid, could alone have been induced to take seats on the bench. "There are now," wrote Gen. Sullivan in 1796, "two lawyers on the bench; but I think they are by no means the two best of the four. Farrar and Dudley greatly overmatch them."

— A Cable dispatch informs us that a trial of the American fifteen-inch Rodman gun has shown that no iron or steel armor yet invented is capable of resisting it.

— The New York Times' Washington correspondence (on the authority, as it says, of Secretary Stanberry) states that President Johnson would execute the laws so as to avoid trouble, as he was in great and constant fear of impeachment, and the more so of late, because he has made up his mind at the expiration of his Presidency to return to Tennessee, for the purpose of presenting himself again as a candidate for the Senate.

AN INCIDENT OF THE MOUNT DESERT CATASTROPHE.—When the unfortunate boat was about leaving on her trip, Mr. and Mrs Clark proposed to take their little girl, about six years old, with them, but the child persistently refused to go, and begged her parents to remain benind. She clung to her mother and begged her with sobs of grief not to go. But they regarded her fears as childish and kindly gave her in charge of friends and started on their excursion.

The little one cried as if her heart would break, and when the steamer left, no one had dared to tell her of the appalling calamity. She wonders why her parents have not returned, and runs to meet every boat that comes to the shore, only to return with deep disappointment, and every passing carriage is eagerly examined to see if it has brought back her dear ones. God help that little one in her terrible affliction.—Portland Star.

☞ A few days ago, while John Wesson was picking berries in the woods at Boston Corners, he saw something hidden under a rock, which looked like a box covered with moss. John examined it closely and found it was a box, and on opening it found $5000 in silver pieces of Spanish coinage.—Among the number were five hundred Spanish dollars done up in a bag, on which was some writing, but so destroyed that it was illegible. None of the pieces bore a date later than 1808. The finder has been living for several years past from hand to mouth, working at odd jobs in the summer, and in leisure time picking berries.

☞ Speaking of education, the Tribune well says, "it is not the duty of a student to think merely of his books; he must train his body as well as his brains, and mental and physical education ought to be simultaneous. For one young man who is made a dunce by boating, we believe there are ten who destroy their health with books."

☞ It is said that bread in New York is seventy-five per cent. higher in price than it is in England. Labor is also considerably higher. The true standard of wages may be—the relation between wages and bread,—how much work will earn a pound of bread.

— The three military members of the Indian Commission have been appointed. They are Gens. Sherman, Harney and Terry—all men of experience on the Plains.

— A little girl, belonging to J. Roach of Albany, was stolen by a band of gipsies, who pitched their tents near that city some two years ago. All attempts to recover her at the time were fruitless. A few days since the same band took up their residence near Trivoli Hollow, where a boy, who knew the lost child, saw and recognized her. He at once gave information, and the child was recovered and restored to its parents.

THE ORDER OF THE DAY.—A general order for SOZODONT In the teeth of all opposition it has become the supreme dentifrice of the age.

WOMAN'S RIGHTS SUSTAINED, not by legal statute, nor at the ballot box; but by the use of Fyle's O. K. Every housekeeper should send to the grocer's for Fyle's "O. K." 13

☞ All Physicians who have used SPEER'S Sambucl Wine recommend it above all other wines for its valuable medicinal properties, especially for females and debilitated persons. Sold by Druggists. 4

FACT.—As a culinary preparation, Herrick Allen's Gold Medal Saleratus is INFALLIBLE. It has greater advantages over yeast fermentation, and will make twenty-five pounds more bread or biscuit from the same barrel of flour, and much better. It retains all the glutinous starch and sugar that is in the flour, and from two and a half pounds of flour will make three and a half pounds of bread or biscuit, while the same quantity by yeast fermentation will make only a trifle over three pounds, and require more than twice the quantity of shortening, besides being much more unhealthy. Try it, and be convinced. 41

— Last Friday evening Wm. W. Davidson, aged about 21 years, after supper went into the yard of the house where he boarded at Quinsigamond, Worcester, and amused himself by swinging from a limb of an appletree. Suddenly he fell to the ground and instantly expired. It is thought he must have ruptured a blood vessel while in the act of swinging.

TO CONSUMPTIVES.—The advertiser, having been restored to health in a few weeks by a very simple remedy, after having suffered for several years with a severe lung affection—is anxious to make known to his fellow-sufferers the means of cure.

To all who desire it, he will send a copy of the prescription used (free of charge), with full directions for preparing and using the same, which they will find a SURE CURE for CONSUMPTION, ASTHMA, BRONCHITIS, COUGHS, COLDS, and all Throat and Lung affections. The only object of the advertiser sending the Prescription is to benefit the afflicted, and spread information which he conceives to be invaluable, and he hopes every sufferer will try his remedy, as it will cost them nothing, and may prove a blessing. Parties wishing the prescription, FREE, by return mail, will please address

ERRORS OF YOUTH.—A Gentleman who suffered for years from Nervous Debility, Premature Decay and all the effects of youthful indiscretion, will, for the sake of suffering humanity, send free to all who need it, the recipe and directions for making the simple remedy by which he was cured. Sufferers wishing to profit by the advertiser's experience, can do so by addressing, in perfect confidence,
JOHN B. OGDEN, 42 Cedar Street, New York.

ADVICE FOR THE PEOPLE.—Forced sweating is bad, often producing serious consequences, while purgation in chills, colds, rheumatism, etc., with BRADRETH'S PILLS, is always safe, never leaving any ill effects. In all cases their use is wise; but in severe pain from colic, inflammations, or external injuries, it is LIFE SAVING.

Remember BRANDRETH'S PILLS are always sure of effect, and always without the least danger, and they act on every part of the system, dislodging and removing all accumulations of impurities, thus cleansing the blood and restoring health.

The Hon. Demas Barnes says—"I sell more of Brandreth's Pills than of all others put together."

BRANDRETH'S PILLS are Sold by all Druggists, and at the Principal Office, Brandreth House, New York. Observe B. BRANDRETH in white letters on the government stamp on each box. jy29dawlmepn

DR. S. S. FITCH,

Of 714 BROADWAY, NEW YORK, Author of the Six Lectures on the Prevention and Cure of Pulmonary Consumption, Asthma, Catarrh, Dyspepsia, Heart Disease and all Chronic Diseases, will be at the

ROCKINGHAM HOUSE, Portsmouth,

On THURSDAY, Aug. 1st, and on the same day of the week every 4th week afterward.

Dr. Fitch treats all Diseases of the Head, Scalp, Eyes, Nostrils, Face, Throat, Lungs, Stomach, Heart, Liver, Bowels, Piles, Kidneys, Skins, Joints, Dropsy; also Diseases peculiar to Males and to Females. Lost Complexion perfectly restored. Most persons, somewhere from 15 to 80 have one or more bad fits of sickness. Cure them wholly, and they will live ten to fifty years longer. Dr. Fitch's most prominent specialty is the prolongation of human life.

A respectable physician said to me four weeks ago, "For seventeen years you have kept me well of diseases pronounced utterly incurable by several eminent physicians."

Mrs. Elizabeth Huntington Long writes, (Saratoga Springs, March 3d, 1867,) twenty years ago she had ulcerated lungs, and true, seated, hereditary consumption, of which her sister died. I cured her perfectly. Fourteen years later I had a bad attack of heart disease, of which her brother died. Of this I cured her perfectly. She says, "I always remember you with gratitude, for, under God, I owe my life to you."

Miss Anna Judkin, at Portsmouth, N. H., June 7, 1867, said, "Twenty-three years ago I was your patient, and very bad with lung disease. My father, four brothers and three sisters, had died with consumption. I was wholly given up. In six months you cured me. I have now enjoyed perfect health twenty-two and a half years; not a single show of lung diseases in all that time."

D. D. Benjamin of Union, N. J., says, "Over twenty years ago I and my brother were both in consumption. I had bleedings and ulcerated lungs. My brother refused treatment, and died in three months. You cured me, and I have not had any cough or lung trouble in twenty years. I was then forty, and I am now sixty years old."

All consultations are wholly free.

Dr. Fitch's "FAMILY PHYSICIAN," a most excellent book in all families, 76 pages, 25 cents, sent free of postage to any address. Send no money until you get the book and approve it. Direct all letters for books or consultation to 25 TREMONT ST., BOSTON, MASS. je29—1y

WHAT EVERY ONE WANTS.

A good, reliable medicine that will be on hand when required, and never fails when called on.—That is now to be obtained in Dr. Tobias' Celebrated Venetian Liniment. Many thousands call it the Wonder of the Age, as it does all that is represented and more. It cures Diarrhœa, Dysentery, Colic, Spasms, Vomiting, Croup, and Sea-sickness as surely as it is used, and is perfectly innocent if taken internally, even in double the quantity named in the directions: and as an external remedy for Chronic Rheumatism, Cuts, Bruises, Old Sores, Mumps, Toothache, Headache, Sore Throat, Sprains, Insect Stings, Pains in the Back, Chest and Limbs, thousands have testified to, and their certificates can be seen at the Doctor's depot, 56 Cortlandt street, New York. Hundreds of physicians use it in their practice. It has been introduced since 1847, and hundreds who now have it in their houses, say they would not be without it even if it was $10 per bottle.—Every drop is mixed by Dr. Tobias himself, and can be depended on. Only 50cts. and $1 per bottle, sold by Druggists. Depot 56 Cortlandt street, New York. Jy8dawlm

DR. SCHENCK ON DYSPEPSIA.—SYMPTOMS, CAUSES AND REMEDY.

Symptoms of Dyspepsia—A sense of fullness, tightness, and weight in the stomach, together with flatulency, acidity, sour, offensive belching of wind, water-brash and vomiting, and a great deal of what a person calls an sickness or faintness at the pit of the stomach; frequently there is also a palpitation of the heart, which physicians mistake for heart disease, and when the stomach is in this condition it is coated with a mucus or slime. The rough fibrous portions of the stomach, similar to what we see in rough paper, throws out the gastric juice, and when the stomach gets a thick coat of slime on it it prevents the gastric juice from flowing, and digestion ceases. Schenck's Seaweed Tonic dissolves this mucus or slime, and restores the stomach to its natural condition.

Schenck's Mandrake Pills are also required to carry off this morbid matter. Two-thirds of the cases of Consumption are caused from this diseased state of the stomach; the liver becoming torpid, it ceases to throw out bile, and in a short time the whole system is deranged. The delicate membrane of the bronchial tubes sympathizes with the other organs, and before the patient is aware of it, he or she has Bronchial or Pulmonary Consumption.

Schenck's Pulmonic Syrup cannot act freely through the blood when the system is in this locked up condition, without the aid of the Seaweed Tonic and Mandrake Pills. The Liver has all the venous blood to strain, and when it gets in a morbid condition, blood and bile flow through the system mixed, and the whole body becomes so low, and the blood so thick it can hardly run through the veins. In a majority of cases hemorrhages occur from this thick condition of the blood. The Mandrake Pills act on the Liver similar to calomel, or they do more that does—it unlocks the gall bladders, starts the bile, and the blood begins to circulate naturally through the veins, and the lungs commence healing. I when persons are attacked with hemorrhage, they would first take a good purgative, something that would act on the liver, they would soon be relieved from bleeding from the lungs, and it is the only way, for as astringents are only temporary, and irritate the bronchial tubes, and lay the ground work for consumption.

DR. SCHENCK will be professionally at his rooms every week, 32 Bond street, New York, and 25 Hanover street, Boston, from 9 A. M. until 3 P. M. He gives advice free, but for a thorough examination with the Respirometer, the charge is $5.

His medicines are for sale by all druggists and dealers. Also a full supply at all times at his rooms.

Price of the Pulmonic Syrup and Seaweed Tonic each $1.50 per bottle, or $7.50 the half dozen. Mandrake Pills 25 cents per box.

☞ The Family of the late Mr. CHARLES D. FERRY of this city, desire us to publicly acknowledge the deep gratitude they feel to all those friends, both far and near, who have aided them so liberally, and many of whom they know not how to reach with thanks in any other way. Especially to Dr. Wm. R. Preston, through whose instrumentality, and the liberality of the members of the religious society with which Mr. Perry was so pleasantly connected, are they indebted in large degree for the present happy possession of a free homestead—and to Mr. Samuel A. DOG DAYS are very disagreeable. The most that can be said in their favor is that they possess the merit of punctuality.—They are never behindhand in coming.—The Boston Daily Advertiser says the reason they are called "dog days" is probably because there is so much growling about the weather. But we don't feel so sure that one kind of weather gets growled at more than another, or that low taxes are more satisfactory or willingly paid than high.—But then, though you can't make any women nor all men believe it—all criticism is not complaint, by a long chalk.

☞ To-day closes July, and it is the last chance to save 6 per cent. discount from City Taxes. All who don't pay within 90 days from issue of the tax bills, ought to be charged interest therefrom; and the property of those who don't pay at all should be advertised and really sold at public auction, instead of by mere form as now.

POLICE COURT, July 30.—Nelson Price, found drunk on Congress street, was fined $3 and $3.86 costs.

John L. Canney, found drunk on Hanover street, was fined $3 and $3.96 costs.

POSTPONEMENT.—By request and agreeably to a vote of a County Convention held at Concord, the County Convention appointed to be holden at Exeter, Tuesday, July 30th, is postponed to Tuesday, Sept. 17th, 1867, at 10 o'clock, A. M., at the Court House at Exeter.

☞ A fire broke out on Monday night in the house of Eben Dale, in Gloucester, Mass. It was apparently extinguished, but a second alarm called the fire department to the spot. While engaged in extinguishing the fire, a number of firemen entered the house, and an explosion of private gas works in the cellar burned and otherwise injured fourteen of them. It is hoped that all of the injured will recover, except Moses Russ, who is considered as fatally injured.

— Some excitement was created at Ellenburg, N. During service at the latter place, she fainted away, when the imposition was discovered.

PITTSBURGH, September 4, 1866.
Messrs. Hostetter & Smith, Pittsburgh, Pa.

GENTLEMEN: I am only doing the part of a good citizen when I testify to the great benefits received by me from the use of your Stomach Bitters during the last five years. Sojourning for a time in the oil regions 1864, I had a severe bilious attack, which, in connection with dyspepsia, left me in a very weak condition. I was advised to try your Bitters, and procured a bottle, which found that they worked like a charm upon me, eight pounds having been added to my weight in the space of one week, and now life seemed to have been infused into my system, so much so, that I have been induced to use them every summer since that time. As a tonic, I think they are invaluable.

This summer, having had a similar attack, (and as before, much reduced,) although under the treatment of an A. No. 1 physician, I was again obliged to have recourse to the old Bitters, and with the same good result, having gained six pounds within a few days. I purchased a half dozen bottles a few weeks since, and purpose to use them regularly as a tonic.

Wishing you every success, I remain Yours gratefully, aut—1mg WILLIAM MILLER.

THE
UNION PACIFIC RAILROAD CO.

Are now constructing a railroad from

OMAHA, NEBRASKA,

westward towards the Pacific Ocean, making with its connections an unbroken line

ACROSS THE CONTINENT.

The Company now offer a limited amount of their

FIRST MORTGAGE BONDS,

having thirty years to run, and bearing annual interest, payable on the first day of January and July, in the City of New York, at the rate of

SIX PER CENT. IN GOLD,
AT
Ninety Cents on the Dollar.

This road is already completed to Julesburg, 376 miles west of Omaha, Kansas, and is fully equipped, and trains are running regularly over it. The Company has now on hand sufficient iron, ties, etc., to finish the remaining portion of the eastern end, a small amount of grading, 141 miles, which is under contract to be done September 1st of this year, and it is expected that the whole line will be in running order from Omaha to its western connection with the Central Pacific, now being rapidly built eastward from Sacramento, Cal., during 1870.

Means of the Company.

Estimating the distance to be built by the Union Pacific to be 1665 miles, the United States Government issues its Six per cent. Thirty-year bonds to the Company for the road when finished, at the average rate of about $28,256 per mile, amounting to $44,208,000.

The Company is also permitted to issue its own First Mortgage Bonds to an equal amount, and at the same time, which by special Act of Congress are made a First Mortgage on the entire line, the bonds of the United States being subordinate to them.

The Government makes a donation of 12,800 acres of land to the mile, amounting to 20,022,000 acres, estimated to be worth $30,000,000, making the total resources, exclusive of the capital, $118,400,000, but the full value of the lands cannot now be realized.

The Authorized Capital Stock of the Company is one hundred millions, of which five millions have already been paid in, and of which it is not supposed that more than twenty-five millions at most will be required.

The cost of the road is estimated by competent engineers to be about one hundred million dollars, exclusive of equipments.

Prospects for Business.

The railroad connection between Omaha and the East is now complete, and the earnings of the Union Pacific on the sections already finished for the last two weeks in May were $113,000. These sectional earnings as the road progresses will much more than pay the interest on the Company's bonds, and the through business over the only line of railroad between the Atlantic and Pacific must be immense.

Value and Security of the Bonds.

The Company respectfully submit, that the above statement of facts fully demonstrates the security of their Bonds, and as additional proof they would suggest that the Bonds now offered are less than six million dollars on 517 miles of road, on which over twenty million dollars have already been expended;—on 250 miles of this road the cars are now running, and the remaining 187 miles are nearly completed.

At the present rate of premium on gold, these bonds pay an annual interest on the present cost of Nine Per Cent.,

and it is believed that on the completion of the road, like the Government Bonds, they will go above par. The Company intend to sell but a limited amount at the present low rate, and retain the right to advance the price at their option.

Subscriptions will be received in New York by CONTINENTAL NATIONAL BANK, 7 Nassau st., CLARK, DODGE & CO., Bankers, 51 Wall street, JOHN J. CISCO & SON, Bankers, 33 Wall street, and by BANKS AND BANKERS generally throughout the United States, of whom maps and descriptive pamphlets may be obtained.—They will also be sent by mail from the Company's Office, No. 20 Nassau street, New York, on application. Subscribers will select their own Agents in whom they have confidence, who alone will be responsible to them for the safe delivery of the Bonds.

THE PRINTER.—The following beautiful tribute to the followers of the "stick and rule" is from the pen of B. F. Taylor, of the Chicago Evening Journal:

The printer is the adjutant of thought, and this explains the mystery of the wonderful word that can kindle a hope as no song can; that can warm a heart as no hope can; that word "we" with hand-in-hand warmth in it—for the author and the printers are engineers together. Engineers, indeed! When the little Corsican bombarded Cadiz, at the distance of five miles, it was deemed the very triumph of engineering. But what is that range to this, whereby they bombard the ages yet to be?

There at the "case" he stands and marshals into line the forces armed for truth, clothed in immortality and English. And what can be nobler than that equipment of a thought in sterling Saxon—Saxon with a spear or shield therein, and that commissioning it when we are dead, to move grandly on to "the latest syllable of recorded time." This is to win a victory from death, for this has no dying it.

The printer is called a laborer, and the office he performs is toil. Oh, it is not work but a sublime life he is performing, when he thus sights the engine that is to fling words and truth in grander and more missile o'er before described; fling it into the bosom of an age unborn. He throws off his coat, indeed; we wonder the rather that he does not put his shoes from off his feet, for the place where he stands is holy ground.

A little song was uttered long ago; it wandered through the twilight feebler than a star; it died upon the ear. But the printer takes it up where it was lying there in the silence like a wounded bird, and he sends it forth from the ark that had preserved it, and it flies on into the future with the olive-branch of peace, and around the world with melody like the dawning of a spring morning.

SUCCESSFUL EDITORS.—A good editor of competent newspaper conductor, is like a general or a poet, born, not made. Exercise and experience give facility, but the qualification is innate, or it is never manifested. As the London daily papers all the great historians, novelists, poets, essayists, and writers of travels, have been tried and nearly every one have failed. "I can," said the late editor of the London Times, "find any number of men of genius to write for me, but very seldom one man of common sense." Nearly all successful editors are of this description. A good editor seldom writes much for his paper; he reads, judges, selects, dictates, alters and combines, and to do all this well he has but little time for composition. To write for a paper is one thing, to edit a paper is an other.—Germantown Telegraph.

LIBERTY TO BE A DRUNKARD.—The young "blood" exclaims, while speaking of the attempts now making to suppress the sale of alcoholic stimulus: "Am I to be deprived of my liberty to imbibe what I choose to imbibe? Whose business is it? Liberty of action is guaranteed to me." Liberty! Liberty for what? to be hung up, like a dripping dishcloth? or to be stood up like a battered, rusty stove pipe? to be kicked about like a shocking bad hat in the gutter? Is this the liberty you desire?—E. H. Chapin.

GALLANTRY OF PRESIDENT JACKSON. During a visit of the hero of the battle of New Orleans to Philadelphia, while he was President, a bale, buxom young widow greeted him with both hands, at the same instant exclaiming—

"My dear General, I am delighted to see you—I have walked six miles this morning to enjoy this rare felicity."

To this the President replied, with an air of dignified gallantry—

"Madam, I regret that I had not known your wishes earlier; I certainly would have walked half way to meet you."

☞ The Cincinnati Gazette says the following occurs in the testimony of a former aid to President Johnson, taken by the Judiciary Committee:

"I did call on him (Johnson) at Mr. Hooper's house, I think, on the night of the 6th of May, 1865—Sabbath evening. In the course of the conversation I remarked: 'Governor, you look tired. Being President is hard work and small thanks, isn't it?' Reply: 'Yes, particularly when a man is lifted into it by another man's coat tail.' He stopped a moment, as if in thought, and continued: 'The man who gets the McClellan vote, with the anti-negro-suffrage vote of the Republican party, will get the Southern vote, and that will elect the next President.'"

SOMETHING NEW!
SELEE'S HAIR LIFE
Has been thoroughly tested by thousands during the past year, and is declared superior to all other preparations for the hair. It has no equal for Restoring Gray Hair to its original color in from TEN TO THIRTY DAYS.
It is a most splendid Hair Dressing, surpassing all others for making dry and brashy hair soft, glossy and beautiful, as in youth.
This Magical Preparation invariably stops the falling of the hair, and always promotes a lively, luxuriant growth.
Its use will at once free the head from Dandruff, Scurf and all Humors, especially Salt Rheum.
It KILLS HAIR EATERS, which are so fatal to the roots of the hair. It contains no nitrate of silver, which is found in most other Hair preparations, and is so injurious.
THE HAIR LIFE IS NOT A DYE, but operates on the roots, restoring them to their natural, healthy state.
It is the most neatest, and most effectual thing in the market.
It never stains, and is perfectly harmless.

THURSDAY, AUGUST 1, 1867.

WASHINGTON MATTERS.—The Boston Advertiser's special of July 30, says:

The statement in Presidential circles to-night regarding General Sheridan is that while Mr. Johnson has fully made up his mind to displace him, he will delay it until he can have an interview with the officer who is to take General Sheridan's place. There is a strong movement still in progress among the President's friends to induce him, as a matter of policy, to keep his hands off Sheridan.

[He had better keep hands off:—but his policy, all along, has been most unfortunate, for himself, as well as perplexing to the country. But so far, his blunders have been overruled for good.]

Information received in official quarters furnishes ground for serious apprehension of wide-spread trouble in Tennessee at the next election, though the military authorities here and in General Thomas' department are using all the precautionary means at their disposal. There is good reason to believe that some of the leading Johnson men are active in a plan to stir up the negroes to acts of violence. The effect of a general difficulty with the negroes at the first State election, in producing a reaction at the North against them, and indirectly against the republican party, has been quietly and fully discussed in conservative circles here, and to such an extent and in such a significant manner as to lead careful men to attach considerable importance to the matter.

The five disbursing officers employed in Freedmen's Bureau, and lately mustered out by direction of the President, have been re-employed. An order is expected from Mr. Johnson mustering out of service all volunteer officers on duty in the South. This, it is found, will displace about two hundred officers engaged in the registry of voters, and the design is said to be to interfere directly with registration. The district commanders are however fully aware of the character of the expected order, and it has already been determined to re-employ all whose services are needed in the registration, under the authority conferred by the late military bill and the Freedmen's Bureau act.

CABLE ITEMS.—On the 30th July in the British House of Lords, the Reform Bill, was amended by adding £5 to the annual amount of rental upon which copyhold and lodger franchise are respectively based.—By these amendments the base of copyhold franchise is increased from £5 to £10 per annum, and that of lodger franchise from £10 to £15.

In the House of Commons, Lord Stanley, Secretary of Foreign Affairs, in answer to a question, stated that the Emperor Napoleon had sent a note to the King of Prussia, but that it would be improper to disclose its contents at present.

The United States practice squadron, consisting of the frigate Macedonian, sloop-of-war Dale and other vessels, have arrived off Cowes.

In France, on Tuesday, a trial of the reaping and mowing machines of the world took place on the Emperor's farm at Vincennes. Over a dozen machines from France, Spain, England and the United States entered into competition for the international prizes. McCormick's reaper performed its allotted task in twenty-four minutes, and Wood's reaper in twenty-six. The American machines worked better and faster than any of the others on the ground.

The dry weather which has prevailed for over a week past proves unfavorable to the crops, and reports from some of the agricultural districts of France say that much damage has been caused by drouth.

REPORTS FROM TENNESSEE, via the N. Y. Herald, represent the State as very restless over the coming election. Riots and disturbances of all kinds are seriously apprehended on the day of election, although the United efforts of Federal and State officers, military and civil, are being used to prevent them.

Etheridge and Williams, the Gubernatorial and Congressional candidates of the Conservatives, were driven out of Jackson, East Tennessee, by the citizens, who would not permit them to speak.

A guerilla party charged into Purdy, McNara county, on Friday night, but were driven out, after a slight skirmish, by a company of State militia.

Disturbances are reported all over the State. The plan of the Conservatives, it is said, is to split up the Radicals as much as possible and obtain a Legislature of their own, when they will send Andrew Johnson to the United States Senate.

☞ There were fully three hundred men engaged in the work of digging for the foundation of a new Catholic house of worship in Fair Haven, Ct., last Friday afternoon. The enthusiasm was perfectly boundless. Carts were filled in fifteen seconds by the watch, and six men only at a cart. All the adjoining ground was black with people looking on or eagerly waiting to take a turn in handling the shovels.

— Three men were drowned at Philadelphia Tuesday afternoon, by the fall of a wharf which was covered with 120 hogsheads of molasses and sugar.

YANKEE LAW AND LAWYERS.

COMMON SENSE VERSUS LEARNING.

The half learning of an ill-read lawyer of ordinary capacity was, in truth, no match for the keen sagacity, long experience, and strong common sense of such a Judge as John Dudley. This extraordinary man, who for twelve years was Judge of the Superior Court of New Hampshire, had not only no legal education, but little learning of any kind. But he had a keen perception, a retentive memory, a patience which no labor could tire, an integrity proof alike against threats and flattery, and a free elocution, rude indeed, and often uncouth, but bold, clear and expressive, with a warmth of honest feeling which it was not easy to resist. His ideas of law may be inferred from the conclusion of one of his charges to the jury, as related by Gov. Plumer:

"You have heard, gentlemen of the Jury, what has been said in this case by the lawyers, the rascals! but no, I will not abuse them. It is their business to make a good case for their clients; they are paid for it, and they have done in this case well enough. But you and I, gentlemen, have something else to consider. They talk of law. Why, gentlemen, it is not law that we want, but justice. They would govern us by the common law of England. Trust me, gentlemen, common sense is a much safer guide for us—the common sense of Exeter, Epping, Raymond and other towns which have sent us here to try this case between two of our neighbors. A clear head and an honest heart are worth more than all the law of all the lawyers.

"There was one good thing said at the bar. It was from one Shakspeare, an English player, I believe. No matter. It is good enough almost to be in the Bible. It is this: 'Be just and fear not.' That, gentlemen, is the law in this case, and in any case. 'Be just and fear not.' It is our business to do justice between the parties, not by any quirks of the law out of Coke and Blackstone—books that I have never read—but by common sense and common honesty, as between man and man. That is our business, and the curse of God is upon us if we neglect, or evade, or turn aside from it. And now, Mr. Sheriff, take out the jury; and you, Mr. Foreman, do not keep us waiting with idle talk, of which there has been too much already, about matters that have nothing to do with the merits of the case. Give us an honest verdict, of which, as plain, common-sense men, you need not be ashamed."

I have no doubt Gov. Plumer in his report made the Judge speak better English than he really used. "Them lawyers," and "these 'ere witnesses," with similar expressions, often fell from his lips. Yet it is related that, warmed by his subject, his language, always forcible, became suddenly accurate, and even elegant,—so naturally is correctness as well as eloquence the result of clear thought and earnest feeling. It was not surprising that such a Judge carried the Jury with him.

"You may laugh," said Theophilus Parsons, as critical and learned a lawyer as Massachusetts ever produced, and who usually attended the Courts at Exeter, "You may laugh at his law, and ridicule his language, but Dudley is, after all, the best Judge I ever knew in New Hampshire."—"Justice," said Arthur Livermore, speaking of Dudley, before whom he had long practiced, "was never better administered than when the judges knew very little of what we lawyers call law."

A STEP IN ADVANCE.

A new era, however, was dawning in the history of the Judiciary in New Hampshire. The State had largely increased in substantial wealth, had a population of 180,000, and profitable commercial, fishing and lumbering interests centered at Portsmouth.—Public schools were being established in every town, and a spirit of intelligent inquiry was becoming prevalent. Rockingham county took the lead in wealth, intelligence and enterprise. Nearly one half of the litigation of the State belonged to that county, and especially the part involving the greatest interest and commanding the best fees.

It naturally attracted the best legal talent of the State. The science of jurisprudence began to be studied, and its rules to have weight. Not that the old legal rubbish of Roman and English authorities was allowed to usurp the plain dictates of justice and reason, but the general principles of law were incorporated into tangible forms and the Courts recognized established authorities. A class of young men, also, had already entered the legal profession, who, to great natural powers, added an untiring application to study, and a perseverance overcoming every opposing obstacle.

GEN. SULLIVAN AND GOV. PLUMER.

Among the older of these lawyers was Gen. John Sullivan, who had already won distinction as a brave and energetic soldier in the Revolution. Of Scotch descent, tall and well proportioned; his fine personal appearance, graceful yet dignified bearing, and winning countenance, gave him a great advantage as a public speaker. He was by nature eloquent, and if sometimes verbose and more imaginative than profound, these defects were hardly noticed in the graceful flow of words, and his well-sounded periods. He had a ready tact in taking advantage of the incidents of the occasion, and could be complaisant or stern, courteous or repellant, eulogistic or denunciatory, as circumstances required. "To a more versatile orator," said Mr. Webster, in after years, "I have never listened."

William Plumer was another able man among the earlier members of the Rockingham County bar. Entering into practice when thirty years of age, he brought to the profession a mind of great force and resources, an excellent memory and intense application. In most respects he was the antipodes of Sullivan, awkward in action, grave in deportment, concise in language, brief in address to Court or Jury; and stating the main facts with a clearness and force which the most dull could but comprehend, he exhibited an earnestness and sincerity which carried with him the confidence and sympathy of the jury. Some years later he entered the United States Senate, was Governor of the State, and at an early age retired from public life.

JUDGE SMITH AND YOUNGER SULLIVAN.

Another eminent member of this bar was Jeremiah Smith, afterwards for many years Chief Justice of the State. Regular in his habits, indefatigable in business, fond of books and devoted to letters, at a time when such devotion was uncommon, he at an early age acquired a high reputation for learning and eminent legal attainments. As a speaker, he was quaint, full of humor, and addicted to irony. In debate, from his accumulated learning, he often heaped up facts and law, arguments and illustrations, till the listener was sometimes lost in the copious oratory of the speaker. It is said that he was stronger with his law for the court than with his facts for the jury.

Of the younger members of the Rockingham bar at this time, was George Sullivan, of whose father we have already made mention. He was a classical scholar, and well read according to the standard of law learning two-thirds of a century ago. In this respect Mr. Dwinelle and Mr. Barstow of the San Francisco bar resemble him. But Sullivan's great strength was in addressing a jury. He was master of an easy and harmonious elocution, of a ready and felicitous use of words, so that he was the delight of jurors, and the admiration of crowds of listeners, who were never tired of praising his handsome person and his fine attitudes, and who hung with rapture on the sounds of his silver voice.

[Concluded to-morrow.]

SUNDAY LIQUOR DIVERSION ON THE HUDSON.—Sunday afternoon the Thubba McCarthy Association, composed of roughs from the fourth ward, New York City, left on the barges Rhinebeck and Durant, bound up the North River. The barges were lashed to the steamboat William Tittamer. It appears that on the previous evening Farrell & Cumisky, liquor dealers, who had hired the bars on both barges, had taken on board 20 kegs of lager beer and a quantity of ale and liquor, and as soon as the boats were on their way up the river, these were freely sold. Disputes soon commenced, and in a short time there was a general fight. When within four miles of Yonkers, a heavy rain storm struck them, and the captain of the Tittamer decided to return in spite of the expostulations of the roughs. On the way down the fighting was resumed with soda-water bottles and knives. In the melee some were stabbed, others severely wounded. Finally Patrick Barry, one of the combatants who was much intoxicated, attempting to escape, climbed over the railing and fell into the water.—The boat was stopped as soon as possible, but before he could be reached he was seen to throw up his hands and sink. This closed the fighting.

☞ John McClaigin, a teamster employed at Sleight's steam laundry in Belleville, N. J., was sent to New York a few days ago, to take some $2000 worth of stock from a shirt manufactory, and not returning a Newark detective was sent to investigate the matter. After a long search, the detective found him at a New York station, where he was held for drunkenness. The goods had been taken care of, and were subsequently taken, together with the teamster, to Newark.

SCHOOL STREET CHURCH, BOSTON.—A full meeting of the Proprietors of School Street (Universalist) Church in Boston, took place on Wednesday evening, July 30, when Rev. Rowland Connor sent in a letter of resignation, its acceptance to take effect Jan. 1, 1868. This was dated July 16, but had been withheld by the advice of friends.

Motion was made to accept this resignation, but it was laid on the table, 54 to 28.

Motion was then made that "The Rev. Rowland Connor be and hereby is dismissed as junior pastor of this society." And after a long debate it was adopted, 58 to 23.

A resolution of censure on Mr. C. for want of frankness, concealment of opinions, &c., was passed, 41 to 20; and a vote authorizing the Standing Committee to make liberal financial settlement with Mr. C., was passed unanimously.

ROCKINGHAM HOUSE, Portsmouth,

On THURSDAY, Aug. 18th, and on the same day of each week every 4th week afterward.

Dr. Fitch treats all Diseases of the Head, Scalp, Eyes, Nostrils, Face, Throat, Lungs, Stomach, Heart, Liver, Bowels, Piles, Kidneys, Shins, Joints, Dropsy, also Diseases peculiar to Males and to Females. Lost Complexion perfectly restored. Most persons, somewhere from 15 to 30 have one or more bad fits of sickness. Cure them wholly, and they will live ten to fifty years longer. Dr. Fitch's most prominent specialty is the prolongation of human life.

A respectable physician said to me four weeks ago, "For seventeen years you have kept me well of diseases pronounced utterly incurable by several eminent physicians."

Mrs. Elizabeth Huntington Long writes, (Saratoga Springs, March 2d, 1867,) twenty three years ago she had ulcerated lungs, and true, sealed, hereditary consumption, of which her sister died. I cured her perfectly. Fourteen years later she had a bad attack of heart disease, of which her brother died. Of this I cured her perfectly. She says, "I always remember you with gratitude, for, under God, I owe my life to you."

Miss Ann Judkin, at Perth, N. H., June 7, 1867, said, "Twenty-three years ago I was your patient, and very bad with lung disease. My father, four brothers and three sisters, had died with consumption. I was wholly given up. In six months you cured me. I have now enjoyed perfect health twenty-two and a half years; not a single show of lung diseases in all that time."

D. D. Benjamin of Union, N. J., says, "Over twenty years ago I paid my mother were dying consumption. I had bleeding and ulcerated lungs. My brother refused treatment, and died in three months. You cured me, and I have not had any cough or lung trouble in twenty years. I was then forty, and I am now sixty years old."

All consultations are wholly free.

WHAT EVERY ONE WANTS.

A good, reliable medicine that will be on hand when required, and never fails when called on.—That is now to be obtained in Dr. Tobias' Celebrated Venetian Liniment. Many thousands call it the Wonder of the Age, as it does all it is represented to more. It cures Diarrhœa, Dysentery, Colic, Spasms, Vomiting, Croup, and Sea-sickness as surely as it is used, and is perfectly innocent if taken internally, even in double the quantity named in the directions: and as an external remedy for Chronic Rheumatism, Cuts, Bruises, Old Sores, Mumps, Toothache, Earache, Sore Throat, Sprains, Insect Stings, Pains in the Back, Chest and Limbs, thousands have testified to, and their certificates can be seen at Dr. Tobias's depot, 56 Cortlandt street, New York. Hundreds of physicians use it in their practice. It has been introduced since 1847, and hundreds who now have it in their houses, say they would not be without it even if it was $10 per bottle. Every one is mixed by Dr. Tobias himself, and can be depended on. Only 50cts. and $1 per bottle. Sold by Druggists. Depot 56 Cortlandt street, New York. Jy8dawlm

DR. SCHENCK ON DYSPEPSIA.—SYMPTOMS, CAUSES AND REMEDY.

Symptoms of Dyspepsia—A sense of fullness, tightness, and weight in the stomach, together with flatulency, acidity, sour, offensive eructations of wind, water-brash, and vomiting, and a great deal of what a person calls an all-gone feeling at the pit of the stomach; frequently there is also a palpitation of the heart, which physicians mistake for heart disease, and when the stomach is in this condition it is coated with a mucus or slime. The rough fibrous portions of the stomach, similar to what we see in tripe, is what throws out the gastric juice, and when the stomach gets loaded down with slime on it, it prevents the gastric juice from flowing, and digestion ceases. Schenck's Seaweed Tonic dissolves this mucus or slime, and restores the stomach to its natural condition.

Schenck's Mandrake Pills are also required to carry off this morbid matter. Two-thirds of the cases of Consumption are caused from this diseased state of the stomach; the liver becoming torpid, it ceases to throw out bile, and at the same time the whole system is deranged. The mucous membrane of the bronchial tubes sympathizes with the other organs, and before the sufferer is aware of it, he or she has Bronchial or Pulmonary Consumption.

Schenck's Pulmonic Syrup cannot act freely through the blood when the system is in this locked up condition, without the aid of the Sea Weed Tonic and Mandrake Pills. If the liver has all the venous blood to strain, and when it gets in a morbid condition, blood and bile run through the system mixed, and the whole body becomes so low, and the blood so thick it can hardly run through the veins. In a majority of cases hemorrhages occur from this morbid condition of the blood. The Mandrake Pills act on the Liver similar to calomel, or they do what that does—they unload the gall bladders, start the bile, and the blood begins to circulate naturally through the veins, and the hemorrhages cease. If, when persons are attacked with bleeding at the lungs, they would take a good purgative, something that would act on the liver, they would soon be relieved from bleeding from the lungs, and in the early way, for astringents are only temporary, and irritate the bronchial tubes, and lay the groundwork for consumption.

DR. SCHENCK will be professionally at his rooms every week, 32 Bond street, New York, and 38 Hanover street, Boston, from 9 A. M. to 3 P. M. He gives advice free, but for a thorough examination with the Respirometer, the charge is $5.

His medicines are for sale by all druggists and dealers. Also a full supply at all times at his rooms.

Price of the Pulmonic Syrup and Seaweed Tonic each $1.50 per bottle, or $7.50 the half dozen. Mandrake Pills 25 cents per box.

SMITH'S ISLES.—Our correspondent who insists on retaining the "Shoals" name, says we have a great desire to change names, which is just what we don't wish in this case at any rate, but would like to retain the original and only proper title. He wants to know where we get our authority for Sir John Smith, and his right to name the said Islands.

Well, not to hunt up old authors, the American Cyclopedia, (good authority, we presume) says that for his prowess in battle on sea and land, being severely wounded, and having a horse killed under him, killing in single combat three Turkish champions, and other brave exploits, "he was made Major of his regiment, and received from the Prince of Transylvania a patent of nobility." That makes him Sir, don't it?—Further, that "for his services in discovery on the coast of New England, 1614 and after, the English Plymouth Company created him Admiral of New England."

The Cyclopedia adds, "To no one more than Capt. Smith is the settlement of the North American coast justly due. He was the first to recommend the settlement of New England. One of his published works was the history of Virginia, New England and the SUMMER ISLES. His faults were those of an enthusiastic temperament and uncompromising spirit, and by these he made enemies who were often enabled to prevent his receiving his just reward"—as in the naming of these very Isles, for instance.

And as far as naming the Shoals something better, Coolidge's History of New England, among all other histories, has it that "they were discovered by the celebrated John Smith in 1614, and by him named Smith's Isles." Also, that Wm. Pepperell, an ancestor of Sir William, was one of the first settlers there. Romance, chivalry and history combine to give the proper and significant name of Smith's Isles, and nothing but stupid usage says nay.

CITY MALL.—The attention of our citizens has several times been called to the subject of the expedience of a City Mall on the southerly side of the South Mill Pond. It is understood that Mr. Elwyn has given land from the pond to the South Road.—The cost of erecting fences and setting out ornamental trees on the Mall would be readily met by private subscription. There would be no more healthy and pleasant location within the city. It would be useful for several purposes, besides a pleasant walk and healthy recreations. All the expenses for putting it in good order would be a trifle from each citizen.

Of course there should be a narrow bridge, sufficient for people to pass, across the pond. This could be built at a small expense. Carriages could pass Auburn street to South Road, and thence their passengers to the Mall or Park. Most cities have Parks. One has recently been completed in the central part of New York city, which cost five millions. At first it was intended to have a remuneration tax or fee for entrance, but it is now free for all for a walk or drive. Each side of the proposed mall would afford eligible sites for dwelling houses, now much wanted in the city, and thus advance the value of the land.

Somewhat in connection with this subject, we inquire why the delay in constructing a bridge across the North Mill Pond, according to a vote of the City Government, passed last year, for the public accommodation? The water is so shoal where the bridge is to be erected, that a causeway can be made from each side of the pond, so that the bridge itself need not be longer than a hundred feet. A bridge here would save a vast amount of travel annually. As the land is very fertile on the north side of the pond, and affords the most pleasant situations for dwelling houses, and more boarding houses are wanted for the factory operatives, the completion of the bridge would be the commencement of erecting new buildings, and the north side of the pond, in respect to dwelling houses, would soon become a compact part of the city.

We have long had old croakers and such like to oppose all kinds of improvement, through fear of having their taxes increased. But such opposition has tended to increase their taxes, by preventing the increase of population, and thereby the influx of wealth. What is still worse, to drive thousands of our most enterprising young men, and some more advanced, to other parts of the Union, where there was progress.

It is very clear that our population cannot increase much more without a large increase of dwelling houses, now much wanted. Our skilful mechanics, as well as others, have now a fair opportunity to receive handsome profits by erecting buildings to let or for sale. Rents have been doubled within a few years, by the house owners, on account of the high taxes; but they relieve themselves of the increase by imposing it upon their tenants. It is so in some other cities, but the question is, Is it morally right for the wealthy class to take such advantage of their tenants? TENANT.

Messrs. Editors:—Let me speak through your columns, of Appledore—that gem of the sea—one of the Isles of Shoals; and of the Appledore House to which all lovers of the romantic and the beautiful, should now resort for pleasure and health. No other place so charming, none so promotive of vigor and comfort, can be found.

The extensive hotel; the polite landlords, Cedric and Oscar, veritable sea kings, and their attendants; the numerous means of enjoyment—sailing, fishing, bowling and what not; the sea, oh, the health-giving breezes of the sea; and last, not least, the delightful trip in the fine, staunch steamer Pioneer, the charming scenery on the river, the salt out of the harbor of the beautiful city of Portsmouth; the views of the Naval Station, the Forts, Lighthouses, etc., is well worth the cost of the trip.

Go, then, dear reader, from the heat and dust of the city, and the often close air even of the country, and take in a store of food for the lungs that will last you through the year—ye who languish and pine for breath at home, and spend more for medicine and the doctor than it would cost for such a trip weekly to the islands. Go for a change, and renewed health and much pleasure will be yours. These famous islands are situated ten miles off the coast, and are therefore blessed with an even temperature, and a total freedom from dust; and a residence here of a few days or weeks confers all the benefits of a sea voyage, with incomparably greater comfort.

NOR ANY OTHER MAN.—For some days a report prevailed that Charles Colburn, who escaped from jail, has been peregrinating in and about Newport in the garb of a female. Tuesday afternoon the report assumed a more tangible shape.—Colburn had been seen in his usual or rather unusual woman's dress, picking raspberries near the village, by numbers of persons. The alarm was given, and pursuit organized. Every body was on the qui vive, and the capture of Colburn was to be now a "dead, sure thing." The three men who started the hunt tracked their game westward, and after a night's sharp pursuit, "ran down their victim," just as it was entering the baker's shop in Claremont for a morning repast. As the coveted prize was about to be seized, it turned out not to be Colburn at all, "nor any other man," but a veritable woman, as she had a right to be. So Colburn was not caught, but an unpleasant sensation rumor was hunted down and exposed.—Claremont Eagle.

We must not omit to explain that this occurred at Newport, New Hampshire, and not at the fashionable watering place of that name—for at this last it is said the men don't have to run so hard nor so long after the women.

☞ Col. Hiram Rollins, of the 24 N. H. Regiment, we learn has been breveted Brigadier General for gallant and meritrious conduct during the war.

☞ Gen. Thomas telegraphs to Washington that the reports of trouble in Tennessee are exaggerated.

THE
UNION PACIFIC RAILROAD CO.
Are now constructing a railroad from
OMAHA, NEBRASKA,
westward towards the Pacific Ocean, making with its connections an unbroken line
ACROSS THE CONTINENT.

The Company now offer a limited amount of their
FIRST MORTGAGE BONDS,
having thirty years to run, and bearing annual interest, payable on the first days of January and July, in the City of New York, at the rate of
SIX PER CENT. IN GOLD,
AT
Ninety Cents on the Dollar.

This road is already completed to Julesburg, 276 miles west of Omaha, and the same is fully equipped, and trains are running regularly over it. The Company has now on hand sufficient iron, ties, etc., to finish the remaining portion to the eastern base of the Rocky Mountains, 141 miles, which is under contract to be done September last of this year, and it is expected that the entire road will be in running order from Omaha to its western connection with the Central Pacific, now being rapidly built eastward from Sacramento, City, during 1870.

Means of the Company.

Estimating the distance to be built by the Union Pacific to be 1565 miles, the United States Government issues to the Company thirty-year bonds to the Company as the road is finished, at the average rate of about $28,250 per mile, amounting to $44,208,000.

The Company is also permitted to issue its own First Mortgage Bonds to an equal amount, and at the same time, which by special Act of Congress are made a First Mortgage on the entire line, the bonds of the United States being subordinate to them.

The Government makes a donation of 12,860 acres of land to the mile, amounting to 20,032,000 acres, estimated to be worth $30,000,000, making the total value of property, exclusive of capital, $75,000,000; but the full value of the lands cannot now be realized.

The Authorized Capital Stock of the Company is one hundred million dollars, of which five millions have already been paid in, and of which it is not supposed that more than twenty-five millions at most will be required.

The cost of the road is estimated by competent engineers to be about one hundred million dollars, exclusive of equipments.

Prospects for Business.

The railroad connection between Omaha and the East is now complete, and the earnings of the Union Pacific on the section of twenty miles for the first two weeks in May were $113,000. These sectional earnings as the road progresses will be more than pay the interest on the Company's bonds, and the through business over the only line of railroad between the Atlantic and Pacific will be immense.

Value and Security of the Bonds.

The Company respectfully submit, that the above statement of facts fully demonstrates the security of their bonds, and as additional proof they would suggest that the Bonds now offered are less than ten million dollars on 617 miles of road, on which over twenty million dollars have already been expended;—on 330 miles of this road the cars are now running, and the remaining 287 miles are nearly completed.

At the present rate of premium on gold, these bonds pay an annual interest on the present cost of Nine Per Cent.,

and it is believed that on the completion of the road, like the Government Bonds, they will go above par. The Company intend to sell but a limited amount at the present low rate, and retain the right to advance the price at their option.

Subscriptions will be received in New York by CONTINENTAL NATIONAL BANK, 7 Nassau st., CLARK, DODGE & CO., Bankers, 51 Wall street, JOHN J. CISCO & SON, Bankers, 33 Wall street, and by BANKS AND BANKERS generally throughout the United States, of whom maps and descriptive pamphlets may be obtained.—They will also be sent by mail from the Company's Office, No. 20 Nassau street, New York, on application. Subscribers will select their own Agents in whom they have confidence, who alone will be responsible to them for the safe delivery of the Bonds.

SUMMER IDYL.

Meadow flowers, fair and sweet,
Can you feel the summer?
Can you hear her dainty feet,
Coming softly, light and fleet?
Will ye not outrun her?

Spring up, white anemone,
Graceful as court lady;
Ring, ye bare-bells, merrily,
Hyacinths, stand cheerily,
She will greet you, maybe.

Blushing red, rose-campion fair,
Like a rustic beauty,
Hides behind the maiden-hair.
White veronica, the rare,
Open blue eyes from duty.

She is coming, is our queen,
Softest breeze shall waft her;
Palmy boughs of freshest green
Wave where'er her robe is seen,
Little brooks bring laughter.

Every joyous scent and sound
Rises swift to greet her;
E'en the dull, insensate ground,
Shares the fragrance all around.
Let us go and meet her.

☞ Disorder still reigns in middle Texas, and murders and robberies are of daily occurrence, the perpetrators being unreconstructed rebels. A single illustration will suffice: A man by the name of Hass had some freedmen in his employ. A bell was lost from one of his oxen. He charged the negroes with stealing it. They denied taking it. He made them pay for it; but not satisfied with this, he took with him his brother, rode to the negro quarter, where they found two negro men and two women sitting together, drew their revolvers, fired upon and killed one of the men and one of the women, and shot the other woman through the breast, injuring her severely.—The fourth party escaped death by flight. The Hasses rode home, and a few days after this exploit they went over to a neighboring Justice of the Peace and demanded an investigation, which resulted in their discharge.

— An Adventist named Clinton Terry, residing at Windsor Locks, Conn., has neither plowed or sowed his land this season, because of the expected coming of the millennium.

— A distinguished French author, and a member of the Senate, has just taken a bold stand and set a brilliant example, by refusing to accept a challenge to fight a duel. It required some nerve to do this in France, where dueling is still in vogue, and a man of less eminence and ability than M. Sainte Beuve, would simply have made himself the laughing stock of the community.

— On Friday afternoon, during a thunder shower, lightning struck upon the farm of Patrick Burns, East Haven, Conn., upon a bay cart partially laden with hay, upon which were an Irish laborer and two sons of Mr. Burns, and killed the laborer outright and prostrated the two lads, and also Mr. Burns who was standing near the cart, pitching hay upon it. There were four oxen to the cart, and two of these were struck dead and the other two so badly injured that they are worthless.

C. A. RICHARDS & CO.'S
CONCENTRATED
EXTRACT OF RYE.
THE Proprietors of this popular article, finding it necessary to remove a wrong impression from the public mind regarding the real merits which they claim for it,
WOULD ONCE AGAIN ANNOUNCE
THAT
IT IS NOT
a mere dram-drinking beverage, but a TRUE, GENUINE and SCIENTIFICALLY PREPARED
MEDICINE.
It is not, as many have been led to believe, nothing but good Rye Whiskey; it is a MEDICINAL COMPOUND, specially designed for certain useful and beneficial purposes; which any intelligent and thinking person can readily see, by reading what we now have
TO SAY ABOUT IT,
without any long, high sounding words, such as some doctors use to mystify and bewilder a patient, until he can't begin to tell what does not ail him. We simply and plainly say that "EXTRACT OF RYE" is nothing but the
JUICES OF THE GRAIN
combined with a certain oily, fatty and vegetable matter, which, when taken into the system, stimulates it first to
NEW LIFE,
and a restored appetite, and then goes to make BETTER BLOOD.
FLESH AND BLOOD.
One can instantly see how this preparation must soothe the throat when it is inflamed, and must carry its lubricating and fattening effects to the lungs; consequently
IT IS WHAT YOU WANT,
when you have a bad cough, to cure it, when you have
CONSUMPTION OF THE LUNGS,
to heal and build them up again. So much for those troubles.
Now, if you want an article to FEED THE SYSTEM ON, when it has become reduced by sickness or by being OVERTAXED IN ANY WAY, this medicine will
DO THE WORK.
We have, among a great many letters we have received about it, a great many positive testimonials that it has been a means of making people
GAIN FLESH AND GROW FAT.
The reason for this is the
GRAND SECRET OF THE WHOLE MATTER.
It acts as a
STIMULATING FOOD
to the body, and helps Nature
THROW OFF DISEASE.
How often, of late years, have people been terribly deceived by resorting to common whiskey for this purpose, when, if they knew it, the only advantage to be gained from the use of whiskey must apply to its fattening effects in the shape of that of which Extract of Rye is entirely composed. This, then, is the whole story. EXTRACT OF RYE will cause you to throw off disease by feeding the system with its
STIMULATING FOOD,
and will build up and restore the powers of mind and body, while you become fat and happy.
It is put up in convenient sized, each bottle being contained in a paper box. It is not sold at a foolish fancy price, but offered at a reasonable cost to rich and poor.

COTTAGE LIFE AT NEWPORT.—A Newport correspondent of the New York Gazette thus describes "Cottage Life" at that fashionable resort:

"The cottage life at Newport, to which I have referred in a former letter as the most quietly and sumptuously refined in the world, is rather French than American in its key. The servants are men, mainly English and French, imported; the coachman is a negro generally, the footmen Irish. Breakfast takes place at eleven o'clock, preceded at nine by a tiny cup of coffee; invitations are written and opened before breakfast. At breakfast a light wine is served; then the ladies go shopping in their coupes and the gentlemen sail two hours. There is little bathing, except by the hotel people, who constitute a very different set. At four o'clock or five dinner is served, and at five or half-past the landeau is ordered. Then until seven calling and dining are in order, and the avenue fills with almost regal teams. There is a company at one o'clock almost every night, and this is marked by one or two quadrilles and a bot supper, the most elaborate entertainment of the day."

— The prospects for the Southern fall trade are very good. In many sections that have not for several years raised enough breadstuffs for their support, the crops this season will supply more than they need.—The Charleston Mercury says there will be more money in the country this fall than there was last fall, and it will be more freely used in other ways than in plantation expenses. Then, by the operation of the free labor system, money will be distributed in small quantities over the whole of the interior. The negro, who now receives so large a proportion of the net produce of the soil, cannot travel far to spend his money. He will spend nearly all that he makes, and will spend it in the neighborhood in which he makes it. This will go to build up small stores throughout the country.

SOMETHING NEW!
SELEE'S HAIR LIFE
Has been thoroughly tested by thousands during the past year, and is declared superior to all other preparations for the hair. It has no equal for Restoring Gray Hair to its original color in from TEN TO THIRTY DAYS.
It is a most splendid Hair Dressing, surpassing all others for making dry and brashy hair soft, glossy and beautiful, as in youth.
This Magical Preparation invariably stops the falling of the hair, and always promotes a lively, luxuriant growth.
Its use will at once free the head from Dandruff, Scurf and all Humors, especially Salt Rheum.
It KILLS HAIR EATERS, which are so fatal to the roots of the hair. It contains no nitrate of silver, which is found in most other hair preparations, and is so injurious.
THE HAIR LIFE IS NOT A DYE, but operates on the roots, restoring them to their natural, healthy state.
It is the nicest, neatest, and most effectual thing in the market.
It never stains, and is perfectly harmless.

Portsmouth, N. H.

FRIDAY, AUGUST 2, 1867.

☞ A floating item in the papers states that,

"A clergyman in Middlesex county says: 'It is doubtful whether, with our modern tendency, God can send upon society a greater combination of curses than a truly eloquent preacher, a ten thousand dollar organ and a superb opera choir.'"

Now we don't believe there is a clergyman in Middlesex county who is foolish and blasphemous enough to make any such statement. Why, call all these refinements—all these blessings—as useless, as pernicious as you please—according to the ideas of the oldest fogey you can find—and then what would this "combination of curses" be, compared to that of war, pestilence and famine?

THE AUBURN, ME., MURDER CASE has come up in a new phase. It will be remembered that Harris, a negro, was convicted, on his own confession and by circumstances, of the murder of two women at Auburn,—and that Verrill was also convicted of the same crime, solely on the testimony of Harris,—the judge in the case saying that the other circumstances would not warrant his detention.

Now, in the jail at Lewiston, Harris has made a counter confession or statement in the presence of the Jailor, of Verrill, Att'y General Frye and Mr. Record, Verrill's counsel.

Harris began his statement by saying that he desired Verrill's release. He wanted to change the story he had told; because Verrill was not there at the time of the murder.

Q. Then you mean to say you committed the murder alone? A. I do. I did it with a chair and a knife. I had no hatchet.—There was none there.

Q. Then you did not meet Verrill that night? A. I did not.

Harris then proceeded to tell his whole story at length, showing himself to have been the only criminal in the case. The Portland Star says:

A long conversation followed this confession with Harris in his cell, and when the two condemned men were confronted in Verrill's cell. In general terms it may be said that Harris now in one breath denied that Verrill had anything to do with the crime, and in the next solemnly reiterates his testimony in Court that Verrill was his accomplice—changing from one story to the other with the utmost recklessness. In response to inquiries as to what makes him change his stories, he says, among other things, that Verrill and a prisoner in the jail have had a conversation with him, and have urged him to exculpate Verrill, telling him that nothing but his own evidence now holds Verrill, and that he (Harris) can be no worse off in any event. Harris also says that many people have told him that he lied on the stand, and, as he expresses it, he wants to satisfy public opinion.

[Whatever the absolute truth may be in the case,—there can remain no doubt now that Harris is so unscrupulous a liar, or so insane, that his testimony is worthless—and therefore we expect to see it stated in a day or two that the Court or the Governor of Maine has ordered Verrill to be discharged.]

☞ American Mowers got Medals in France in the competitive trial of mowing and reaping machines, which took place on the Imperial farm at Vincennes; the distribution of prizes made by the jury shows that the American Inventions excelled all others. C. H. McCormick receives the highest prize for his resper and mower, and gold medals are awarded to Messrs. Wood and Parry.

— A San Francisco paper announces the importation of the banana plant from Central America, with a view to its cultivation in California. The climate of the California valley lands is well adapted to banana, and its production as a staple would confer an immense benefit on the country. It is said by the best authorities that the banana will furnish more food to the acre than any other crop capable of growth in a tropical climate. It is a very wholesome and nutritious food, too, when in good condition.

☞ By a Vienna item of July 31, it appears that a terrible explosion has occurred in one of the large mines owned by the Rothschilds in Moravia. The mine was full of workmen at the time of the disaster, and more than one hundred miners are reported killed or injured.

☞ The Tribune says there is a rumor that Mr. Seward is trying to secure a grant of certain British American lands adjacent to Walmsia, in settlement of the Alabama claims. The maps are being studied at Auburn.

☞ Thirty four graduates of Williams College, whose deaths were recorded for the year past, averaged 53 years of age at their decease. This does not look as if study was unfavorable to long life. The oldest was 86; the youngest 25.

YANKEE LAW AND LAWYERS.

[Concluded from yesterday.]

JEREMIAH MASON AS A LAWYER.

In 1797, Mr. Mason came to the Rockingham bar from the western part of the State. He was six feet and two inches in his stockings, with massive head and vigorous frame. It was soon felt that his Titanic bulk and elephantine movement were but the due accompaniment of a mind equally gigantic. Cool, wary, devoted to his client, and prompt to seize every advantage, whether of form or substance, which could aid his cause; in knowledge of the law, in ability to brings its remotest analogies and most subtle distinctions to bear strongly on the question before the Court; in legal acumen and cumulative power of close reasoning, he had no equal at the bar or on the bench.

In the examination of witnesses, he was not less distinguished. Woe to the dishonest witness who fell under the grasp of his unsparing hand. No engine of torture ever made joints snap, and nerves and sinews strain and crack with more merciless severity, than did the questions, with which he plied the reluctant or perjured witness, wrench from him the facts which he sought in vain to withhold, or disjoint the specious falsehoods put forward under the guise of truth. No accumulation of cunning was too deep for him to pierce it. He bored the strata in every direction, and to all imaginable depths, till, if there was a vein of falsehood in the mass, his rod reached it, and it spouted up at once in sight of all beholders.

He made no pretence to eloquence or ornament of speech, and he sneered at all appearance of feeling or emotion, as affected or out of place in an advocate at the bar. But he seized with a giant's grasp on the attention of both Court and Jury, and bore them forward with resistless force to the conclusion of his argument. The hearer was not so much persuaded as compelled to go along with him. The argument was one connected chain of clear statement and strong reasoning—a chain in which there was no weak link, and which bound the premises however remote or apparently disconnected, to the desired conclusion—one which the hearer felt long before it was reached, that he could by no possibility avoid, or stop short of, or turn aside from.

In all this there was no declamation and no appeal to the passions. With these characteristics, Mr. Mason took his position as the first lawyer in the State— a position which he continued to hold after his removal into Massachusetts.

A greater man than even Mason, though not a greater lawyer, showed himself when Daniel Webster came to Portsmouth in 1807, to take his share in these hardy contests.

FIRST APPEARANCE OF MR. WEBSTER.

The early history of Mr. Webster is too well known to need repetition, but it will not be amiss to give the first impression which he made upon Mr. Mason, as related by Mason himself:

"He broke upon me like a thunder shower in July, sudden, portentous, sweeping all before it. I had heard of him, but this was the first case in which he had appeared at our bar. A criminal prosecution, in which I had arranged a very pretty defence as against the Attorney General, Atkinson, who was able enough in his way, but whom I knew very well how to take. Atkinson being absent, Webster conducted the case for him, and turned in the most masterly manner the line of my defence, carrying with him all but one of the jurors, so that I barely saved my client at the last moment by my best exertions. I was never more surprised than by this remarkable exhibition of unexpected power. It surpassed in some respects anything I have ever since seen, even in him."

It was at this period of its greatest strength that the Rockingham bar was well denominated "the arena of giants." It in truth often witnessed the strife of the Titans; weak men did not mingle in it; strong men felt the need of all their strength.—Using the comparison of Judge Story, who used to preside at Portsmouth in the United States Circuit Court: "General Sullivan was the Ulysses of this assembly; Plumer, the Nestor; Smith, the Menelaus, with a touch of the Thersites humor; and Mason, the Ajax, towering head and shoulders above the rest; while the youthful vigor of Webster, in the early exhibition of its unrivalled power, stamped itself boldly on all beholders as the Achilles, impiger, iracundus, inexorabilis, of the scene."

A few years after both Mason and Webster removed to Massachusetts, to assume, with the easy confidence of assured success, the same marked superiority in the metropolis of New England which they had held in this original seat of their power. Neither Mason nor Webster ever forgot their early associates; and the latter, after practicing in the first courts of the Union, told Choate that "he never met anywhere else abler men than some of those who initiated him in the rugged discipline of the New Hampshire Courts.

THE NEW HAMPSHIRE BAR, PAST AND PRESENT.

Probably the bar of no State in the Union shows so marked a deterioration as that of New Hampshire. It may be said that it is unreasonable to expect that the standard of the Rockingham County bar of sixty years ago could be maintained. Grant it. But let us take a generation later—as an illustration, the bar of 1830. At that time all of the distinguished men to whom I have referred had either retired from practice or left the State.

But although the New Hampshire bar had lost its brightest ornaments, it was not without its strong men. Levi Woodbury, Ichabod Bartlett, Joel Parker, Joseph Bell, Mark Farley, Henry Hubbard and James Wilson were accomplished lawyers, men of vigorous powers, of conscious strength, of capacity for toil, and of ardent devotion to their profession. Can their equals be mentioned among the present legal practitioners in this State? We unhesitatingly say, No.

With the exception of the present Chief Justice, Ira Perley, and the venerable Daniel M. Christie, of Dover, we know of no lawyers among the present bar who can be reckoned in ability as the peers of those of 1830. Nor is this declension confined to the bar. At no time since the adoption of the Constitution has the New Hampshire delegation in Congress possessed so little ability as at this time. In this respect the State compares unfavorably with the rest of New England.

It is said that every crisis in human history produces its hero who is adequate to the occasion. Perhaps in the framing of her Constitution, and the carrying it into successful operation, New Hampshire had need of men of distinguished capacity.—Certainly she had such. Without attempting to account for the subsequent deterioration, it is proper to say that for the past thirty years a large percentage of the young men of the State have removed to other sections of the Union; and this emigration has included what would otherwise be a large share of the ability, enterprise and industry of the State.

COTTON AND GRAIN.—The season is so far advanced that the crops of the Southern States can be ascertained. Corn, wheat, oats, the roots, and like productions will be abundant. Owing to a cold, backward spring, perhaps one-fourth of the cotton had to be replanted. Constant labor has been required to keep it clean, and in some places insects have done great damage.—Estimates are always hazardous, and generally, those who know most will guess least. It is doubtful whether there will be more than half of such a cotton crop as was usual before the war. At this result the best Southern minds do not know whether to be sorry or glad. While cotton never cost them so much, grain never cost them so little. They have received new light on farming.

In some respects (remarks the Tribune) the cultivation of cotton will decline; at least it will be carried out by other hands. None will be so fit for the change as they who know all the details. A whole year is required to plant, work, pick, gin, and market cotton. It is not possible to raise it at old prices, and it is likely that the planters will be glad to be relieved from the cares, vexations and new duties attending its culture. Their success this year in raising grain will give their thoughts a new direction. Perhaps within ten years they who grow cotton will do so on their own land; they will not grow full crops on other people's. The old planter will be content to be a general farmer, and he will be happier and wiser.

☞ The Rockingham Register says: "We saw a new threshing machine driven through our street the other evening, closely followed by a steam engine on wheels. Four horses pulled with ease both the threshing machine and its motive power, the steem engine. We should judge there must be a great saving in the employment of steam in threshing. When we saw the elegantly made and highly improved thresher with its adjunct, the steam engine of the present day, we could scarcely help contrasting them with the old flail and horse-tramping of former days."

A POSTMASTER REINSTATED.—John W. Bartlett, Esq., of North Weymouth, has been appointed Postmaster of that place, vice Henry Newton. Mr. Bartlett was first appointed in April, 1861, and continued to hold the office until November, 1866, when Mr. Newton, a supporter of Johnson's policy, was appointed, who held the office eight months.

—— The Manchester Mirror reports that in that neighborhood, upland hay has been generally cut and cured, and the result is entirely satisfactory to reasonable farmers. The two weeks of good weather previous to the inauguration of dog days enable haymakers to secure their crop in excellent condition.

DROWNED.—Eight persons were drowned, by the capsizing of a sail boat in a squall, in Frenchman's Bay, Me., on the 24th ult.—The boat contained Rev. Mr. Chase and wife, of Philadelphia; Mr. and Mrs. F. T. Clark, Mr. Harmar and Miss Julia Blake, of Framingham, Mass.; and two young ladies from Philadelphia. All were drowned but Miss Blake. She was rescued while clinging to a boat oar, wholly unconscious. They were on a pleasure excursion.

DR. S. S. FITCH,
Of 714 BROADWAY, NEW YORK, Author of the Six Lectures on the Prevention and Cure of Pulmonary Consumption, Asthma, Chronic Bronchitis, Heart Disease and all Chronic Diseases, will be at the

ROCKINGHAM HOUSE, Portsmouth,
On THURSDAY, Aug. 1st, and on the same day of the week every 4th week afterwards.

Dr. Fitch treats all Diseases of the Head, Scalp, Eyes, Nostrils, Face, Throat, Lungs, Stomach, Heart, Liver, Bowels, Piles, Kidneys, Skins, Joints, Dropsy; also Diseases peculiar to Males and to Females. Lost Complexion perfectly restored. Most persons, somewhere from 15 to 80 have one or more bad fits of sickness. Cure them wholly, and they will live ten to fifty years longer. Dr. Fitch's most prominent specialty is the prolongation of human life.

A respectable physician said to me four weeks ago, "Fifteen years you have kept me well read of diseases pronounced utterly incurable by several eminent physicians."

Mrs. Elizabeth Huntington Long writes, (Saratoga Springs, March 3d, 1857,) twenty three years ago she had ulcerated lungs, and true, seated, hereditary consumption, of which her sister died. I cured her perfectly. Fourteen years later she had a bad attack of heart disease, of which her brother died. Of this I cured her perfectly. She says, "I always remember you with gratitude, for under God, I owe my life to you."

Miss Anna Judkin, of Portsmouth, N. H., June 7, 1857, said, "twenty-three years ago I was your patient, and very bad with lung disease. My father, four brothers and three sisters, had died with consumption. I was wholly given up. In six months you cured me. I have now enjoyed perfect health twenty-two and a half years; not a single cold or lung disease in all that time."

D. D. Benjamin of Union, N. J., says, "Over twenty years ago I and my brother were both in consumption. I had bleeding and ulcerated lungs. My brother refused treatment, and died in three months. You cured me, and I have not had any cough or lung trouble in twenty years. I was then forty, and I am now sixty years old."

All consultations are wholly free.

Dr. Fitch's "FAMILY PHYSICIAN," a most excellent book in all families, 76 pages, 25 cents, sent free of postage to any address. Send no money until you get the book and approve it. Direct all letters for books or consultation to 25 TREMONT ST., BOSTON, MASS. je29—ly

DR. SCHENCK ON DYSPEPSIA.—SYMPTOMS, CAUSES AND REMEDY.

Symptoms of Dyspepsia—A sense of fullness, tightness, and weight in the stomach, together with flatulency, acidity, sour, offensive belching of wind, water-brash and vomiting, and a great deal of what a person calls an ill-great feeling at the pit of the stomach; frequently there is also a palpitation of the heart, which physicians mistake for heart disease, and when the stomach is in this condition it is coated with a mucus or slime. The rough fibrous portions of the stomach, similar to what we see in tripe, is what throws out the gastric juice, and when the stomach gets a thick coat of slime on it, it prevents the gastric juice from performing its digestive cause. Schenck's Seaweed Tonic dissolves this mucus or slime, and restores the stomach to its natural condition.

Schenck's Mandrake Pills are also required to carry off this morbid matter. Two-thirds of the cases of consumption are caused from this diseased state of the stomach; the liver becomes torpid, it ceases to throw out bile, and in a short time the whole system is deranged. The mucous membrane of the bronchial tubes sympathizes with the other organs, and before the patient is aware of it, he or she has Bronchial or Pulmonary Consumption.

Schenck's Pulmonic Syrup cannot act freely through the blood when the system is in this locked up condition, without the aid of its Seaweed Tonic and Mandrake Pills. The Liver has all the venous blood to strain, and when it gets in a torpid condition, blood and bile run through the system mixed, and the whole body becomes so low, and the blood so thick it can hardly run through the veins. In a majority of cases hemorrhages occur from this thick condition of the blood. The Mandrake Pills act on the Liver similar to calomel, or they do what that does—it unlocks the gall bladders, starts the bile, and the blood begins to circulate naturally through the veins, and the hemorrhage ceases. If, when persons are attacked with hemorrhage, they would first take a good purgative, something that would act on the Liver, they would soon be relieved from bleeding from the lungs, and it is the only way, for as astringents are only temporary, and irritate the bronchial tubes, and lay the groundwork for consumption.

DR. SCHENCK will be professionally at his rooms every week, 32 Bond street, New York, and 35 Hanover street, Boston, from 9 A. M. until 3 P. M. He gives advice free, but for a thorough examination with the Respirometer, the charge is $5.

His medicines are for sale by all druggists and dealers. Also a full supply at all times at his rooms.

Price of the Pulmonic Syrup and Seaweed Tonic each $1.50 per bottle, or $7.50 the half dozen. Mandrake Pills 25 cents per box.

☞ Accounts of injuries received while playing base ball come to us frequently in our exchanges, but the players in this city hitherto been very fortunate in that respect. At the Plains, on Wednesday afternoon, a game was being played by members of the Rockingham and Piscataqua Clubs, and Mr. Freeman F. Sanborn occupied the third base. Jumping to catch a passing ball, it proved to be so high in air that he could only reach it with his fingers. Picking up the ball and carrying it to the home base, he requested some one might take his place, when it was found that the little finger of his left hand had suffered a compound dislocation, the bone protruding through the flesh at the joint.

We have heard of several minor mishaps—one young man having the same finger driven out of joint twice, and another getting his glasses smashed on his nose; another's shin bruised, &c.

☞ We learn that Mr. J. H. Ferguson of this city has recently sold his well known bay trotting mare Kate, for a round sum (reported about $2000) to go to New York.

Among the good horse stock in this city is Mr. Locke's fine grey trotting mare Nellie—and if she isn't the best in the State, somebody can doubtless have a chance to prove it next fall, when the Rockingham Trotting Park shall be completed. Nellie has been often invited to show her speed heretofore this summer, but her owner's business would not allow of his leaving the city. She is in prime condition, and we doubt not will help make some sport for us by and by.

It is understood that Messrs. Merrill & Fernald, lumber dealers of this city, have the contract for furnishing the lumber for said Trotting Park—their bid being the lowest. One bid at Newmarket we hear was only $3 higher, while the difference between the highest and lowest is said to have been $900.

☞ The U. S. Steamer Acushnet, with the Assistant Secretary of the Navy, the families of the President, Sec. of the Navy, and others on board, arrived in this port on Thursday, off the Navy Yard, where ample preparations were made for their reception;—but they did not choose to land just then.—The usual salutes were fired.

POLICE COURT, Aug. 1.—Before Justice Odell. Samuel Wilson was accused of keeping a common, ill-governed and disorderly house,—to which he plead not guilty; but the testimony of a cloud of witnesses satisfied the Court to the contrary,—and he was held to bail in $300 for his appearance at the S. J. Court in October, and for good behavior in the mean time—for want of which, mittimus was issued.

☞ We are indebted to Mr. Hamil Kenney for a stalk of the handsomest white Hollyhock we ever saw. For a length of 18 inches, it is so completely surrounded with "double" roselike flowers, (all but the fragrance,) as to resemble a pyramid of white roses, or a pile of snowballs the boys make in winter.

☞ An opportunity to secure a nice little homestead at your own price is afforded at the sale of Mr. Moulton's house and garden on Cabot street, to-morrow. Every man ought to own one house, and it were better for the community if none owned more.

☞ On Tuesday a raid was made on a gang of counterfeiters in Coos county, N. H., and Oxford county, Me., by U. S. Detective Kent, of this city, assisted by U. S. Marshal Clark. Three men were carried to Portland on Wednesday, and a number of others are implicated. A considerable quantity of new fifty cent spurious currency was captured.

☞ The Masons of this city were well represented at the laying of the corner stone of the new M. E. Church, Rochester, Thursday, by St. John's and St. Andrew's Lodges and DeWitt Clinton Commandery of Knights Templar. They were accompanied by the Portsmouth Cornet Band.

☞ Kingston was made quite lively on Wednesday last by the display attendant on the institution of Gideon Lodge, F. A. M., in that place. The services were conducted in a beautiful grove, and at their conclusion a bountiful collation was spread. D. G. M. Alexander M. Winn acted as Grand Master, and John R. Holbrook of this city as Deputy G. M. The oration was delivered by Rev. Mr. Sargent.

The participants in the ceremonies included a commandery of Knights Templar from Haverhill, Mass., with the Haverhill Band; the Star in the East Lodge from Exeter, with the Exeter Band; the Gideon Lodge of Kingston, with the Danvers Band, and small delegations from this city and elsewhere.

A little incident, not unworthy of mention, occurred on the route. Passing the former residence of a deceased member of their commandery, the Haverhill Knights halted, faced about, and remained in respectful attitude while the band played a dirge.

☞ We conclude to-day the very readable gossiping article on law and lawyers, from a California paper. It winds up by accounting for a supposed decrease of talent at the Rockingham "bar," by the fact that so many of our young men now go abroad to live. Now we regret as much as anybody can, that the men do go; but we think that about the poorest use that youth of talent can be put to, is to make lawyers of them—who, the "greater" they are, the more harm they do; whose sole aim and end in life is, if they would win name and fame, "to make the worse appear the better reason"—so defeat justice with what they call "bars," and keep the halter from the neck of villains. We have all due respect for sound law and its administrators; but the most supreme contempt for pettifoggers, weather celebrated or otherwise.

THE NEW YORK LAW.—There is about as much grumbling in New York against the license law, which shuts up the drinking places on Sunday, as there is or was in Boston against the law which aims to prohibit the sale of intoxicating liquors, except for medicinal or mechanical purposes.—Some papers there call for a repeal of the law,—because of the drunken fight on board a rum barge last Sunday, when one drunkard fell overboard and was drowned. The World says:

"The fanatics cannot decently pretend to mistake the chief significance of the affray which occurred last Sabbath on board the excursion steamer William Peterman, in the North River. The Sunday liquor law, which was organized, as the law makers claim, especially to prevent people who loved liquor too well from becoming intoxicated and disorderly on Sunday, is the impelling cause of more drunkenness and consequent disorderly conduct than could possibly have happened if it had never been enacted."

The truth of the matter is, that such miserable creatures as the passengers on board the rum-barge, oppose all laws which try to restrain any vice—and the country would not have been much injured if they had ALL gone to the bottom instead of only one.—They would have got as drunk on the land, if there were no law, as they did on the water in spite of the law. The Tribune says:

Harlotry, gambling, and all manner of popular vices, are confronted by laws which are very imperfectly obeyed. Bad men may possibly defy those laws for the sake of defying them, as well as for the sake of gratifying their passions. Shall all such laws be, therefore, abolished?

Be it ever understood that we are here trying out the experiment of regulating the Liquor Traffic, in which we have little faith. Let us try it fairly and fully, however, and we are satisfied of its success or failure. After that, we may decide to try something else.

☞ Mr. Calvin Smith, a well known citizen of Brighton, Mass., died quite suddenly on the 24th. Noticing some boys among his fruit trees, he gave chase to them but did not catch them. He then returned to his house in a great state of excitement, and lying on the bed, died almost instantly. Heart disease is said to have been the cause.

☞ Miss Catharine Sedgwick, the Novelist, died on Wednesday morning, aged 78 years, and is to be buried at Stockbridge, Mass., to-day.

GOLD, Thursday, 140.

— The Connecticut House of Representatives has rejected a bill to oblige "drummers" from dry goods and other stores in Boston and New York to take out a license from the Secretary of State before they can sell goods by sample.

THE
UNION PACIFIC RAILROAD CO.
Are now constructing a railroad from
OMAHA, NEBRASKA,
westward towards the Pacific Ocean, making with its connections a line
ACROSS THE CONTINENT.

The Company now offer a limited amount of their
FIRST MORTGAGE BONDS,
having thirty years to run, and bearing annual interest, payable on the first day of January and July, in the City of New York, at the rate of
SIX PER CENT. IN GOLD,
AT
Ninety Cents on the Dollar.

This road is already completed to Julesburg, 376 miles west of Omaha, Kansas, and is fully equipped, and trains are running regularly over it. The Company has now on hand sufficient iron, ties, etc., to finish the remaining portion to the eastern base of the Rocky Mountains, 141 miles, which is under contract to be done September 1st of this year, and it is expected that the cars will run from the Atlantic to the Pacific Ocean to its western connection with the Central Pacific, now being rapidly built eastward from Sacramento, Cal., during 1858.

Means of the Company.

Estimating the distance to be built by the Union Pacific to be 1565 miles, the United States Government issues its Six per cent. Thirty-year bonds at the rate of $16,000 per mile, amounting to $25,040,000 which, at the average rate of about $23,250 per mile, amounting to $14,208,000.

The Company is also permitted to issue its own First Mortgage Bonds to an equal amount, and at the same time, which by special Act of Congress are made a first Mortgage on the entire line, the bonds of the United States being subordinate to them.

The Government makes a donation of 12,800 acres of land to the mile, amounting to 20,032,000 acres, estimated to be worth $30,000,000, making the total resources, exclusive of the capital, $118,208,000; but the full value of the lands cannot now be realized.

The Authorized Capital Stock of the Company is one hundred million dollars, of which five millions have already been paid in, and of which it is not supposed that more than twenty-five millions at most will be required.

The cost of the road is estimated by competent engineers to be about one hundred million dollars, exclusive of equipments.

Prospects for Business.

The railroad connection between Omaha and the East is now complete, and the earnings of the Union Pacific on the sections already finished for the first two weeks in May were $13,000. These sectional earnings as the road progresses will much more than pay the interest on the Company's bonds, and the through business over the only line of railroad between the Atlantic and Pacific must be immense.

Value and Security of the Bonds.

The Company respectfully submit, that the above statement of facts fully demonstrates the security of their Bonds, and as additional proof they would suggest that the Bonds now offered are less than six million dollars on 617 miles of road, on which over twenty million dollars have already been expended;—on 339 miles of this road the cars are now running, and the remaining 187 miles are nearly completed.

At the present rate of premium on gold, these bonds pay an annual interest on the present cost of Nine Per Cent.,
and it is believed that on the completion of the road, like the Government Bonds, they will go above par. The Company intend to sell but a limited amount at the present low rate, and retain the right to advance the price at their option.

GOUVERNEUR MORRIS.—Years ago toasts were given after dinner and during the dessert. At the table of the elder President Adams, Gouverneur Morris, then a senator in Congress from the State of New York, was one of the invited. It was at the time of the feud existing between the President and General Hamilton, arising from the animadversions of the latter upon the sudden compromise of our differences with the French republic. Mr. Morris was called on by Mrs. Adams for a toast.

"Madam," said he, "I will give the health of my friend Hamilton."

The lady indignantly replied: "Sir, that is a toast never drank at this table."

"Suppose, then, madame," was the cool rejoinder, "we drink it now for the first time?"

"Morris," exclaimed the excited hostess, "if you persist, I shall invite the ladies to withdraw!"

"Perhaps," retorted the imperturable senator, "it is time for them to retire."

The signal was given, and as the ladies rose in obedience to it, the Senator sprang from his seat and stumped on his wooden leg to the door, threw it wide open, and, with his constitutional boldness, fairly bowed Mrs. Adams and her lady guests out of the room.

IS DRUNKENNESS AN EXCUSE FOR CRIME?—for murder or for violence of any sort? Lord Brougham held that it was an aggravation of the criminality. He said;

"One sees with astonishement and indignation, in cases before magistrates in the country, intoxication urged in extenuation of offences, whereas it is a gross aggravation. No magistrate is entitled to suffer one such word to be uttered before him on the part of the accused. Any magistrate is bound to stop the party or his advocate the instant he begins at this, and to tell him that if intoxicated, he must suffer a punishment more severe; and the magistrate is further bound to take it into his consideration when the prosecutor has stated it in explaining the circumstances of the case.—It is undeniable that a most wholesome effect would be produced by the general impression being made that drunkenness, tho' by law it may not be liable to punishment except by small pecuniary penalty, yet makes offences, to which it has given rise, more severely punishable."

All right, so far as it goes—only we want the more fashionable, more common and more effectual plea of "insanity" as an excuse or palliation for crime, ruled forever out of the courts. No doubt all crime is a form of moral insanity; but the most severe and certain punishment alone will check it. And we don't believe it is any more agreeable for a man to have his throat cut by an "insane" man, or any less grevious to his family, or less disastrous to society. No, out upon the lawyers' nonsense of "insanity."

ONE OF THOSE TOUCHING INCIDENTS which refuted Mr. Hawthorn's excuse for seeking the subject of his last novel in Italy—that there were no gloomy wrongs at home (slavery was not then abolished), in short, no stuff for fiction—is the recent reunion of Frederick Douglass with his brother Perry, who had been forty years separated from him by the common lot of Southern bondage. We are inclined to think that the romance of American slavery has not been exhausted by Hildreth and Mrs. Stowe, but that it will support a host of novelists for many years to come. The very facts of slavery—the truth which is stranger than fiction—may yet form the staple of volumes; and fifty years hence the diaries and account-books of planters, some of which fell by abandonment into Union hands, will be ripe for publication in aid of history.—The Nation.

C. A. RICHARDS & CO.'S

CONCENTRATED

EXTRACT OF RYE.

THE Proprietors of this popular article, finding it necessary to remove a wrong impression from the public mind regarding the real merits which they claim for it,

WOULD ONCE AGAIN ANNOUNCE

THAT

IT IS NOT

a mere dram-drinking beverage, but a TRUE, GENUINE and SCIENTIFICALLY PREPARED

MEDICINE.

It is not, as many have been led to believe, nothing but good Rye Whiskey; it is a

MEDICINAL REMEDY,

specially designed for certain useful and beneficial purposes; which any intelligent and thinking person can readily see, by reading what we now have

TO SAY ABOUT IT,

without any long, high sounding words, such as some doctors use to mystify and bewilder a patient, until he can't begin to tell what does not ail him. We simply and plainly say that "EXTRACT OF RYE" is nothing but the

JUICES OF THE GRAIN

combined with a certain oily, fatty and vegetable matter, which, when taken into the system, stimulates it first to

NEW LIFE,

and a restored appetite, and then goes to make BETTER AND STRONGER

FLESH AND BLOOD.

One can instantly see how this preparation must soothe the throat when it is inflamed, and must carry its lubricating and fattening effects to the lungs; consequently

IT IS WHAT YOU WANT,

when you have a bad cough, to cure it, when you have

CONSUMPTION OF THE LUNGS,

to heal and build them up again. So much for those troubles.

Now, if you want an article to FEED THE SYSTEM OR, when it has become reduced by sickness or by being OVERTAXED IN ANY WAY, this medicine will

DO THE WORK.

We have, among a great many letters we have received about it, a great many positive testimonials that it has been the means of making people

GAIN FLESH AND GROW FAT.

The reason for this is the

GRAND SECRET OF THE WHOLE MATTER.

It acts as a

STIMULATING FOOD

to the body, and helps Nature

THROW OFF DISEASE.

How often, of late years, have people been terribly deceived by resorting to common whiskey for their purposes, and, if they knew it, the only advantage to be gained from the use of whiskey must spring from the little quantity it contains of that of which Extract of Rye is entirely composed.

This, then, is the whole story. EXTRACT OF RYE will cause you to throw off disease by feeding the system with a

and will build up and restore the powers of mind and body, while you become filled and happy.

It is put up in convenient style, each Bottle being contained in a paper box. It is not sold at a high price, but offered at a reasonable cost to rich and poor.

THE LORILLARD ACHIEVEMENT.—The novel idea first conceived by Messrs. P. & G. Lorillard, of putting greenbacks into their papers of Century tobacco at the rate of $100 a day, has created quite an excitement, both in New York and elsewhere. A score of imitators have rushed into the field, and now all sorts of things are being rolled up in greenbacks. The Century, besides being the best tobacco for chewing purposes, brings surprise and gladness into many a house when a $100, $50, or $10 bill is found in the package. Probably no other establishment in New York is able to actually give away six hundred dollars a week, a thing which is constantly being done by this house. The result is, they control the trade in this city.—N. Y. Evening Gaz.

DR. HOLMES, in "The Guardian Angel," gives us a specimen of the "Bard of Oxbow Village," thus:

ANOTHER'S!
Another's! O the pang, the smart!
Fate owes to Love a deathless grudge—
The barbed fang has rent a heart
Which—which—
Judge—judge—no, not judge. Budge, drudge, fudge—What a disgusting language English is! Nothing fit to couple with such a word as grudge! And the gush of an impassioned moment arrested in full flow, stopped short, corked up, for want of a paltry rhyme! Judge—budge—drudge—nudge—O!—smudge—misery!—fudge.

— Senor Romero the Mexican Minister at Washington, is about to return home on leave of absence. He has represented his Government here during a very trying and troubled period of eight years, obtaining no recognition from his brethern of the diplomatic corps, but performing the delicate and difficult functions of his office with unceasing zeal and industry. Whether he will receive a reward for his services in the shape of promotion to some higher place under the Mexican Republic we have no means of knowing; but it is rumored that he may be appointed a member of the Mexican Administration. We wish him good speed, and if he come back to us we shall welcome his return.—Tribune.

ALLIGATORS OBSTRUCTING A RAILROAD.—The Planters' (La.) Banner asserts that "on the Opelousas Railroad, since the overflow, the engineer on the train has frequently to blow the whistle to clear the track of alligators, as the track is the only thing above water for them to rest on for many miles beyond Tigerville. The train has run over several alligators since the water went down."

☞ Mr. Pearson, the sole agent in this city and vicinity for the manufacturers, elsewhere advertises the Mason & Hamlin Cabinet Organs, to which the attention of those desiring a nice instrument is directed. The advantages of the patented improvements enumerated are summed up thus:

The Automatic Bellows Swell, greatly the best swell ever devised, is much more effective and easily used than any other, producing a variety and beauty of effect that cannot be appreciated except from actual use. Improved Self-adjusting Valves secure much more perfect action, durability, and freedom from liability to get out of repair. Wood's Octave Coupler nearly doubles the power of the instrument in which it is used. Noiseless Safety Valves prevent the hissing sound often heard. The Improved Combination Register gives great facility in drawing stops.

THE DUDLEY ESTATE.—Dean Dudley writes to the Boston Transcript, that he has spent a year in England, looking after the great Dudley estate, and can not discover that such a property ever existed.—Well, he got a year's pleasant residence abroad out of the story!

— The Jesuits, who came to Canada soon after the Pilgrims landed at Plymouth brought with them the educational zeal which gave them a controling power in Europe. They founded at Quebec, in the year 1637, a year before the birth of Harvard, a seminary for the Huron Indians, and a college for French boys.

SOMETHING NEW!
SELEE'S HAIR LIFE
Has been thoroughly tested by thousands during the past year, and is declared superior to all other preparations for the hair. It has no equal for Restoring Gray Hair to its original color in from TEN TO THIRTY DAYS.
It is a most splendid Hair Dressing, surpassing all others for making dry and brashy hair soft, glossy and beautiful, as in youth.
This Magical Preparation invariably stops the falling of the hair, and always promotes a lively, luxuriant growth.
Its use will at once free the head from Dandruff, Scurf and all Humors, especially Salt Rheum.
It KILLS HAIR EATERS, which are so fatal to the roots of the hair. It contains no nitrate of silver, which is found in most other Hair preparations, and is so injurious.
THE HAIR LIFE IS NOT A DYE, but operates on the roots, restoring them to their natural, healthy state.
It is the nicest, neatest, and most effectual thing in the market.
It never stains, and is perfectly harmless.

Morning Chronicle.

GOUVERNEUR MORRIS.—Years ago toasts were given after dinner and during the dessert. At the table of the elder President Adams, Gouverneur Morris, then a senator in Congress from the State of New York, was one of the invited. It was at the time of the feud existing between the President and General Hamilton, arising from the animadversions of the latter upon the sudden compromise of our differences with the French republic. Mr. Morris was called on by Mrs. Adams for a toast.

"Madam," said he, "I will give the health of my friend Hamilton."

The lady indignantly replied: "Sir, that is a toast never drunk at this table."

"Suppose, then, madame," was the cool rejoinder, "we drink it now for the first time?"

"Morris," exclaimed the excited hostess, "if you persist, I shall invite the ladies to withdraw!"

"Perhaps," retorted the imperturbable senator, "it is time for them to retire."

The signal was given, and as the ladies rose in obedience to it, the Senator sprang from his seat and stumped on his wooden leg to the door, threw it wide open, and, with his constitutional boldness, fairly bowed Mrs. Adams and her lady guests out of the room.

IS DRUNKENNESS AN EXCUSE FOR CRIME?—for murder or for violence of any sort? Lord Brougham held that it was an aggravation of the criminality. He said;

"One sees with astonishment and indignation, in cases before magistrates in the country, intoxication urged in extenuation of offences, whereas it is a gross aggravation. The magistrate is entitled to suffer one such word to be uttered in his court on the part of the accused. Any magistrate is bound to stop the party or his advocate the instant he begins on this, and to tell him that if intoxicated, he must suffer a punishment more severe; and the magistrate is further bound to take it into his consideration when the prosecutor has stated it in explaining the circumstances of the case.—It is undeniable that a most wholesome effect would be produced by the general impression being made that drunkenness, tho' by law it may not be liable to punishment except by small pecuniary penalty, yet makes offences, to which it has given rise, more severely punishable."

All right, so far as it goes—only we want the more fashionable, more common and more effectual plea of "insanity" as an excuse or palliation for crime, ruled forever out of the courts. No doubt all crime is a form of moral insanity; but the most severe and certain punishment alone will check it. And we don't believe it is any more agreeable for a man to have his throat cut by an "insane" man, or any less grevious to his family, or less disastrous to society. No, out upon the lawyers' nonsense of "insanity."

ONE OF THOSE TOUCHING INCIDENTS which refuted Mr. Hawthorn's excuse for seeking the subject of his last novel in Italy —that there were no gloomy wrongs at home (slavery was not then abolished), in short, no stuff for fiction—is the recent reunion of Frederick Douglass with his brother Perry, who had been forty years separated from him by the common lot of Southern bondage. We are inclined to think that the romance of American slavery has not been exhausted by Hildreth and Mrs. Stowe, but that it will support a host of novelists for many years to come. The very facts of slavery—the truth which is stranger than fiction—may yet form the staple of volumes; and fifty years hence the diaries and account-books of planters, some of which fell by abandonment into Union hands, will be ripe for publication in aid of history.—The Nation.

C. A. RICHARDS & CO.'S

CONCENTRATED

EXTRACT OF RYE.

THE Proprietors of this popular article, finding it necessary to remove a wrong impression from the public mind regarding the real merits which they claim for it,

WOULD ONCE AGAIN ANNOUNCE THAT IT IS NOT

a mere dram-drinking beverage, but a TRUE, GENUINE AND SCIENTIFICALLY PREPARED

MEDICINE.

It is not, as many have been led to believe, nothing but good Rye Whiskey; it is a

MEDICINAL REMEDY,

specially designed for certain useful and beneficial purposes; which any intelligent and thinking person can readily see, by reading what we now have

TO SAY ABOUT IT,

without any long, high sounding words, such as some doctors use to mystify and bewilder a patient, until he can't begin to tell what does ail him. We find and plainly say that "EXTRACT OF RYE" is nothing but the

JUICES OF THE GRAIN

combined with a certain oily, fatty and vegetable matter, which, when taken into the system, stimulates it first to

NEW LIFE,

and a restored appetite, and then goes to make BETTER AND STRONGER

FLESH AND BLOOD.

One can instantly see how this preparation must soothe the throat when it is inflamed, and must carry its lubricating and fattening effects to the lungs; consequently

IT IS WHAT YOU WANT

when you have a bad cough, to cure it, when you have

CONSUMPTION OF THE LUNGS,

to heal and build them up again. So much for those troubles.

NOW, if you want an article to FEED THE SYSTEM ON, when it has become reduced by sickness or by being OVERTAXED IN ANY WAY, this medicine will

DO THE WORK.

We have, among a great many letters we have received about it, a great many positive testimonials from the best class of people, stating people

GAIN FLESH AND GROW FAT.

The reason for this is the

GRAND SECRET OF THE WHOLE MATTER.

It acts as a

STIMULATING FOOD

to the body, and helps Nature

THROW OFF DISEASE.

How often, of late years, have people been terribly deceived by buying for common whiskey for this purpose, when, if they knew it, the only advantage to be gained from the use of whiskey is saving from twenty to thirty per quantity it contains of that of which Extract of Rye is entirely composed.

This, then, is the whole story. EXTRACT OF RYE will cause you to throw off disease by feeding the system with a

and will build up and restore the powers of mind and body, while you become fat and happy.

It is put up in convenient style, each bottle being contained in a paper box. It is not sold as a foolish fancy price, but offered at a reasonable cost to rich and poor.

THE LORILLARD ACHIEVEMENT.—The novel idea first conceived by Messrs. P. & G. Lorillard, of putting greenbacks into their papers of Century tobacco at the rate of $100 a day, has created quite an excitement, both in New York and elsewhere. A score of imitators have rushed into the field, and now all sorts of things are being rolled up in greenbacks. The Century, besides being the best tobacco for chewing purposes, brings surprise and gladness into many a house when a $100, $50, or $10 bill is found in the package. Probably no other establishment in New York is able to actually give away six hundred dollars a week, a thing which is constantly being done by this house. The result is, they control the trade in this city.—N. Y. Evening Gaz.

DR. HOLMES, in "The Guardian Angel," gives us a specimen of the "Bard of Oxbow Village," thus:

ANOTHER'S!
Another's! O the pang, the smart!
Fate owes to Love a deathless grudge—
The barbed fang has rent a heart
Which—which—
Judge—judge—no, not judge. Budge, drudge, fudge—What a disgusting language English is! Nothing fit to couple with such a word as grudge! And the gush of an impassioned moment arrested in full flow, stopped short, corked up, for want of a paltry rhyme! Judge—budge—drudge—nudge—O!—smudge—misery!—fudge.

— Senor Romero the Mexican Minister at Washington, is about to return home on leave of absence. He has represented his Government here during a very trying and troubled period of eight years, obtaining no recognition from his brethern of the diplomatic corps, but performing the delicate and difficult functions of his office with noticeable zeal and industry. Whether he will receive a reward for his services in the shape of promotion to some higher place under the Mexican Republic we have no means of knowing; but it is rumored that he may be appointed a member of the Mexican Administration. We wish him good speed, and if he come back to us we shall welcome his return.—Tribune.

ALLIGATORS OBSTRUCTING A RAILROAD.—The Planters' (La.) Banner asserts that "on the Opelousas Railroad, since the overflow, the engineer on the train has frequently to blow the whistle to clear the track of alligators, as the track is the only thing above water for them to rest on for many miles beyond Tigerville. The train has run over several alligators since the water went down."

☞ Mr. Pearson, the sole agent in this city and vicinity for the manufacturers, elsewhere advertises the Mason & Hamlin Cabinet Organs, to which the attention of those desiring a nice instrument is directed. The advantages of the patented improvements enumerated are summed up thus:

The Automatic Bellows Swell, greatly the best swell ever devised, is much more effective and easily used than any other, producing a variety and beauty of effect that cannot be appreciated except from actual use. Improved Self-adjusting Valves secure much more perfect action, durability, and freedom from liability to get out of repair. Wood's Octave Coupler nearly doubles the power of the instrument in which it is used. Noiseless Safety Valves prevent the hissing sound often heard. The Improved Combination Register gives great facility in drawing stops.

THE DUDLEY ESTATE.—Dean Dudley writes to the Boston Transcript, that he has spent a year in England, looking after the great Dudley estate, and can not discover that such a property ever existed.—Well, he got a year's pleasant residence abroad out of the story!

— The Jesuits, who came to Canada soon after the Pilgrims landed at Plymouth brought with them the educational zeal which gave them a controling power in Europe. They founded at Quebec, in the year 1637, a year before the birth of Harvard, a seminary for the Huron Indians, and a college for French boys.

SATURDAY, AUGUST 3, 1867.

DISABLED SOLDIERS AND SAILORS.—Ex-Gov. Smyth has been in Ohio, as one of the Committee to locate the Soldiers' Asylum in that State. The Dayton Journal with entire truth calls him "one of the ablest and best men in New England."

The Asylum, temporarily located near Columbus, was visited by Gov. Smyth in company with Gov. Cox. Most agreeable exercises were had, speeches made by these gentlemen and others, interspersed with excellent music from the new band organized in the institution. Gov. Smyth, in behalf of the Board, made a thorough inspection of the Institution, and was highly pleased with the general internal management and happy, contented condition of the inmates.

The Manchester Union learns from Ex-Gov. Smyth since his return, that the Board purchased 500 acres of land at Dayton, Ohio, for which they paid $53,000, to be used for a new U. S. central soldiers' hospital. The citizens of Dayton donated $20,000 towards the payment of this land. The U. S. hospital now at Columbus is to be removed to Dayton, when the proposed new buildings are completed, on account of the unhealthy location of the former city. There are now about 300 inmates at Columbus, and 275 in each of the U. S. hospitals at Milwaukie, Wis., and Augusta, Me. There are about ten applications per day at Columbus and about five at Milwaukie and Augusta.

NEW HAMPSHIRE ITEMS.

—— A Court House is to be built at Colebrook, 60 feet by 40.

—— In Amherst Mr. J. A. Stevens cut last winter a pine, the two butt logs of which were cut sixteen feet long, each. They measured when sawed into boards, the first 1031 feet, the second 880 feet! both 1911 feet.

—— A hurricane visited Lancaster on on Wednesday of last week. Two men took refuge in a shed, which was blown down. They then went into a barn, and a pine tree was blown on to that. One gentleman, who seized a post for safety, was blown out as straight as the star spangled banner—it is said. A stage was blown from the road, but without much injury.

—— The Directors of the Manchester & Lawrence Railroad, (according to the new law) have met and chosen Superintendent, conductors, &c., electing the same men who held the offices before. Thus the change is nominal,—only exact accounts will now be kept of each road separately. Mr. James R. Kendrick is the Superintendent, as he is also of the Concord Road.

—— Blueberries are plentiful and good this year: they have been 30 cents a quart, and downwards to 10 cents. They used, not very many years ago, to vary from 6 1-2 to 3 cents. The Manchester Mirror, speaking of that region, says: "Men have rented large pastures of the owners, employed hundreds of women and children to pick for them, and by such means controlled the market." That is to say, they have caused the purchasers to pay at least twice as much as they would otherwise have paid for their berries.

—— The Wolfeboro' News informs us that at Alton, two young people, Mr. Hurd and a Miss Hanscomb, were intimate acquaintances, highly respectable. In December last the lady received an anonymous letter, denouncing Hurd with warnings and threatenings. Since that time letters have been received by both parties—some of them threatening assassination. They were regarded as a scare; but on the 9th of May in the evening, two large stones were thrown at Miss H., one of which hit her and knocked her senseless, with a serious wound on her head. On the 12th May a letter of apology was received, and on the 16th a stone was thrown at the lady thro' a window. July 9th, as Miss H. was walking in the orchard near her father's house, some one came behind her and struck her two heavy blows, which stunned and nearly killed her. She was found on the ground by her mother. The "stone-throwing devil" has not yet been discovered.

☞ There have recently been recorded at least a dozen instances, in New England, where men were killed or dangerously hurt by the falling of platforms used in painting, repairing or building houses. Surely there must be unusual heedlessness in constructing or suspending them. Two men were badly hurt by the falling of a platform at Portland on Wednesday.

☞ The two Republican Conventions met at Richmond Thursday, the radical being much more numerous than the other, and passing very strong resolutions. They had not united at the close of that day.—The attendance was very large, numbered by thousands.

— The negroes in New Orleans on Tuesday commemorated the anniversary of the riots of last July by celebrating high mass in the Mechanics' Institute for the repose of the souls of the victims.

AT NEW ORLEANS, August 1, Gen. Sheridan issued a special order removing certain members of the Board of Aldermen and Assistant Aldermen of this city, and appointing others in their stead.

The reasons for removing these persons are to be found in the disordered condition to which they have reduced the city credit, and the efforts which they have made and are making to impede the lawful execution of the laws of Congress, dated March 20th, and the acts supplementary.

The General's order leaves one member in each Board of the original councils.—One member in the upper and four in the lower Board were elected on the Republican ticket.

Of the new appointments two in the Upper, and three in the Lower Board are of mixed blood; and one in the Lower Board is pure negro and he is doubtful. None of the Colored appointees belong to the newly enfranchised citizens, but are free citizens of the State of Louisiana.

Upon the recommendation of Gov. Flanders, Gen. Sheridan has appointed a Mayor and Aldermen for the town of Lake Charles in the Calcasieu parish.

A SUGGESTION.—Before making up their list of books for the Fall Schools, teachers are advised to examine Quackenbos's new Arithmetics, which seem to possess features of decided and superior merit. They are being extensively introduced, and are commended in the strongest terms by some of the best teachers who have used them. The Publishers, D. Appleton & Co., of New York, want a local agent in every county to work for these Arithmetics, and offer liberal terms. See advertisement on 4th page.

☞ One evening last week, the performers and spectators in a circus tent, were driven out by a great shower of rain, which flooded the low ground where the tent stood, to the depth of two feet, and drenched the canvas through and through. Fine and fancy dresses and beautiful faces were daubed with black mud, and bathed in dirty water; and falls and tumbles of all kinds were accompanied with roars of laughter.

IT IS SAID that the shares of the Washington Library Company of Philadelphia are being disposed of with unexampled rapidity. The absence of all concealment, the honesty of purpose manifested by those who first inaugurated the enterprise, the fairness with which the proposed final distribution is to be conducted, and the patriotic purpose to which the entire surplus is to be applied, have taken firm hold upon the public confidence. So large have the sales been thus far that the trustees hope to anticipate the time originally fixed for the dispensation of the gifts, amounting to $300,000, thus placing the funds collected much sooner than they expected in a channel to carry out the noble act of benevolence which was the object of their enterprise. All those, therefore, who desire to participate with them in the pleasure of doing a good action should subscribe without delay. They will receive at once a fine engraving, worth at retail more than the money invested, besides a gift of such value as their share may be entitled to in the final distribution. Read the advertisement.

THE ORDER OF THE DAY.—A general order for SOZODONT In the teeth of all opposition it has become the supreme dentifrice of the age.

WOMAN'S RIGHTS SUSTAINED, not by legal status, nor at the ballot box; but by the use of Pyle's O K Soap, which mitigates their labor, saves expense, and renders admirable that part of the wardrobe by which the neat and tasty are best known. Every housekeeper should send to the grocer's for Pyle's "O K." 13

☞ All Physicians who have used SPERR'S Samuel Wine recommend it above all other wines for its valuable medicinal properties, especially females and debilitated persons. Sold by Druggists. 4

— If you are so far behind the times as not to have used Herrick Allen's Gold Medal Saleratus, put it off no longer, but go immediately and purchase a paper. Everybody who has ever used it, proclaim its good qualities. It takes less in quantity, is a saving in flour and shortening, and will make weak stomachs strong. Do not fail to try it. Most of the Grocers and many of the Druggists sell it. Depot 112 Liberty street, New York.

WHAT EVERY ONE WANTS.

A good, reliable medicine that will be on hand when required, and never fails when called on.—That is now to be obtained in Dr. Tobias' Celebrated Venetian Liniment. Many thousands call it the Wonder of the Age, as it does all that is represented and more. It cures Diarrhœa, Dysentery, Colic, Spasms, Vomiting, Croup, and Seasickness as surely as it is used, and is perfectly innocent to take internally, even in double the quantity named in the directions; and for external remedy for Chronic Rheumatism, Cuts, Bruises, Old Sores, Mumps, Toothache, Headache, Sore Throat, Sprains, Insect Stings, Pains in the Back, Chest and Limbs, thousands have testified to, and their certificates can be seen at the Doctor's depot, 56 Cortlandt street, New York. Hundreds of physicians use it in their practice. It has been introduced since 1847, and hundreds who now have it in their house, say they would not be without it even if it was $10 per bottle.—Every drop is mixed by Dr Tobias himself, and can be depended on. DR. SCHENCK ON DYSPEPSIA.—SYMPTOMS, CAUSES AND CURE.

Symptoms of Dyspepsia—A sense of fullness, tightness, and weight in the stomach, together with flatulency, acidity, sour, offensive belching of wind, water-brash and vomiting, and a great deal of uneasiness, spasms and distress, rolling at the pit of the stomach; frequently there is also a palpitation of the heart, which physicians mistake for heart disease, and when the stomach is in this condition it is coated with a mucus or slime. The rough fibrous portions of the stomach, similar to that we see in the throat, throws out the gastric juice, and when the stomach gets a thick coat of slime on it, it prevents the gastric juice from flowing, and digestion ceases. Schenck's Seaweed Tonic dissolves this mucus or slime, and restores the stomach to its natural condition.

Schenck's Mandrake Pills are also required to carry off this morbid matter. Two-thirds of the cases of Consumption are caused from this diseased state of the stomach; the liver becoming torpid, it ceases to throw out bile, and in a short time the whole system is deranged. The mucous membrane of the bronchial tubes sympathizes with the other organs, and before the patient is aware of it, he or she has Bronchial or Pulmonary Consumption.

Schenck's Pulmonic Syrup cannot act freely through the blood when the system is in this locked up condition. Without the aid of the Sea Weed Tonic and Mandrake Pills. The Liver has all the venous blood to strain, and when it gets in a morbid condition, blood and bile run through the system mixed, and the whole body becomes so low, and the blood so thick it can hardly run through the veins. In a majority of cases hemorrhages occur from this thick condition of the blood. The Mandrake Pills act on the Liver very similar to calomel, or they do what that does—it unlocks the gall bladders, starts the bile, and the blood begins to circulate naturally through the veins, and the hemorrhage ceases. If, when persons are attacked with hemorrhage, they would first take a good purgative, something that would act on the liver, they would seldom be relieved from bleeding from the lungs, and it is the only way, for as astringents are only temporary, and stop the bleeding by arterial tubes, and lay the groundwork for consumption.

DR. SCHENCK will be professionally at his rooms every week, 32 Hood street, New York, auh 35 Hanover street, Boston, from 9 A. M. until 3 P. M. He gives advice free, but for a thorough examination with the Respirometer, the charge is $5.

His medicines are for sale by all druggists and dealers. Also a full supply at all times at his rooms.

Price of the Pulmonic Syrup and Seaweed Tonic each $1.50 per bottle, or $7.50 the half dozen. Mandrake Pills 25 cents per box.

Local.

☞ The advertisement of the Portsmouth Boot and Shoe Company has already announced who the members of the new firm are to be. Their names are a sufficient guarantee of the responsibility and success of the new enterprise,—in which every well wisher of the city will rejoice. It is to the development of just such manufacturing branches as this, that our prosperity must look for any increase—and it is pretty evident that a part at least of the projectors of this scheme, must have been led to engage in it as much from public spirit as from hope of private benefit.

The new company is entirely separate and distinct from any other concern. The regular boot and shoe establishment of J. C. Carr & Co., on Market street, and the extensive shoe manufactory of Mr. Nowell, corner of State and Pleasant streets, will remain precisely as heretofore.

☞ The trio of young ladies from this city who have spent the last two winters at the South, teaching contrabands, have recently returned home from Elizabeth City, in good health, and well satisfied with their experience and its evident results. They are highly respectable and accomplished women, like most of those who have gone on similar missions of patriotism and mercy, hardly second in importance to the march of the gallant boys in blue themselves.—All honor to the brave army of female teachers at the South. Where there is education, there must always be liberty.

☞ In our item respecting lawyers and justice yesterday, it must have been evident enough to anybody, that for "bars," as printed, you should read, "to defeat the ends of justice by what they call law,"—not bars.

COUNTERFEITERS.—Charles L. Jewell of Gorham, N. H., was brought before U. S. Commissioner Hackett on Wednesday, charged with passing counterfeit money.—He waived examination and gave bail in the sum of $1000 for his appearance at the U. S. Court in October.

Ezra Stevens and M. W. Corliss of Woodstock, Me., were examined before Commissioner Clifford at Portland, Me., on Thursday, for having in their possession and passing counterfeit fractional currency, and both held to answer in the sum of $1000 bail to the U. S. Court in Maine on the 23d of September next. These parties were detected by an officer of the Secret Service Division of the Treasury Department.

☞ The match game of Base Ball between the Granite States of this city and Clicmians of Newburyport, played in the latter city on Thursday, resulted in the defeat of the Granites by the following score: Clicmian, 36; Granite State, 21.

The Portsmouth Club played well with one or two exceptions. A return match will probably come off in this city in a short time, when the Granite States by strengthening their nine, hope to return the compliment to their Newburyport friends.

POLICE COURT, Aug. 2.—John White, one of those afflicted with "redness of eyes," opthalmia induced by too frequent libitions of corn-juice, was find $3 and $3.86 for being drunk on Market square. White lost a watch and $30 in money. Marshal Johnson recovered the watch at a little groggery on Langdon street, kept by Jane Nixon.

Mary Rogers was fined $3 and $3.86 costs, for being drunk, and while in that condition entering an oyster saloon on Congress street and creating a disturbance.

Nellie Kennerson was charged with stealing a $10 U. S. Treasury note from Tyson G. Briggs, a marine. The plaintiff stated that the note was pinned up in his shirt, and that the prisoner removed it from thence while he was in a disreputable house on Water street, kept by one Gray. Nellie was sentenced to 90 days in the common jail, to pay $3.86 costs, and to pay Briggs $30 (treble the value of property stolen.)

"OUR VIRGINIA FRIENDS."—The Manchester Union of Thursday had this item:

The Virginia negroes and mean white men will hold a convention in Richmond to-day for some purpose. A Radical correspondent says there is a schism between the Botts and Hunnicut wings—the knaves and the fools—which it is necessary to heal, in order to insure success. We tell our Virginia friends again, that they must win, no matter what it costs—they must win this fight. Their defeat in the field was bad enough, but this will be infinitely worse."

If we understand this item right, the Union's "Virginia friends" are the rebels who were defeated in the field—and the distinguished Democrats who support and edit the "Union Democrat" consider it a bad thing that Lee surrendered to Grant! Bad enough, is it, that the Confederate Rebels were so badly defeated in the field, that they failed to take Washington, conquer Pennsylvania, and finally establish a great empire, whose corner stone was to be chattel slavery. This was bad enough, was it? And then it is worse, is it, for negroes and mean whites to hold conventions and vote at elections! Indeed! Don't all manner of mean whites vote (early and often) in certain wards of New York city, and perhaps in Manchester and other cities? But then, we are told "our Virginia friends," the old oligarchs who rebelled, "must win this fight—no matter what it costs,"—and perhaps they will—but it somewhat doubtful.

TENNESSEE.—The election returns received, favor Gov. Brownlow's re-election, but are too few to be decisive. A Nashville dispatch of August 1, says, The election today was the quietest ever known here.—Whites and blacks voted without interruption, and not a hurrah for either party was given. At the polls a few parties were arrested for attempting to vote twice, and others for carrying concealed weapons.—Returns from all the wards but one give Browlow 3173, and Etheridge 704. Four districts in the county give Brownlow 457, and Etheridge 159.

The Republican ticket is all elected.—Mason (independent) got but few votes.

☞ Further returns from Tennessee indicate a large majority for Gov. Brownlow, and a Republican legislature.

THE

UNION PACIFIC RAILROAD CO.

Are now constructing a railroad from

OMAHA, NEBRASKA,

westward towards the Pacific Ocean, making with its connections an unbroken line

ACROSS THE CONTINENT.

The Company now offer a limited amount of their

FIRST MORTGAGE BONDS,

having thirty years to run, and bearing annual interest, payable on the first day of January and July, in the City of New York, at the rate of

SIX PER CENT. IN GOLD,

AND

Ninety Cents on the Dollar.

This road is already completed to Julesburg, 376 miles west of Omaha, Kansas, and is fully equipped, and trains are running regularly over it. The remaining portion is under sufficient iron, ties, etc., to finish the remaining portion to the eastern base of the Rocky Mountains, 141 miles, which is under contract to be done September 1st of this year, and it is expected that the entire road will be in running order from Omaha to the western connection with the Central Pacific, now being rapidly built eastward from Sacramento, Cal., during 1870.

Means of the Company.

Estimating the distance to be built by the Union Pacific to be 1665 miles, the United States Government issues its Six per cent. Thirty-year bonds to the Company as the road is finished, at the average rate of about $25,600 per mile, amounting to $44,308,000.

The Company is also permitted to issue its own First Mortgage Bonds to an equal amount, and at the same time, which by special Act of Congress are made a First Mortgage on the entire line, the bonds of the United States being subordinate to them.

The Government makes a donation of 12,800 acres of land to the mile, amounting to 20,032,000 acres, estimated to be worth $30,000,000, making the total resources, exclusive of the capital, $118,340,000; but the full value of the lands cannot now be realized.

The Authorized Capital Stock of the Company is one hundred million dollars, of which five millions have already been paid in, and of which it is not supposed that more than twenty-five millions at most will be required.

The cost of the road is estimated by competent engineers to be about one hundred million dollars, exclusive of equipments.

Prospects for Business.

The railroad connection between Omaha and the East is now complete, and the earnings of the Union Pacific on the sections already finished for the last two weeks in May were $40,000. These rational earnings as the road progresses will much more than pay the interest on the Company's bonds, and the through business over the only line of railroad between the Atlantic and Pacific must be immense.

Value and Security of the Bonds.

The Company respectfully submit, that the above statement of facts must guarantee the safety of their Bonds, and as additional proof they would suggest that the Bonds now offered are less than ten million dollars on 517 miles of road, on which over twenty million dollars have already been expended;—on 339 miles of this road the cars are now running, and the remaining 187 miles are nearly completed.

At the present rate of premium on gold, these bonds pay an annual interest on the present cost of

Nine Per Cent.,

and it is believed that on the completion of the road, like the Government Bonds, they will go above par. The Company intend to sell but a limited amount at the present low rate, and retain the right to advance the price at their option.

NOT MUCH DANGER.—After noticing the nomination of Gen. Grant for President, by Thurlow Weed & Co., of New York, the Tribune goes on in this strain:

Dreadful would be the fate of the General Commanding the armies of the United States should he fall into the hands of Mr. Weed, as Oliver Twist into the clutches of Fagin, the Jew. We all know what Mr. Weed will do with the General if he catches him. Just as Fagin tried to make Oliver a thief, Mr. Weed will seek to turn Grant into one of those nondescript party leaders who are half Democratic, half Republican, and wholly detestable. He will turn the General's uniform inside out; he will array him in blue and gray; he will make him anew after his own image, so that we shall have a victorious soldier objecting to the conduct of the war, a patriot whose highest ambition is office, and a statesman whose noblest policy is to make the people forget that principle is greater than expediency. Gen. Grant, bound in chains by the conqueror, will be led through the land as one of the trophies of the Forlorn Hope. Mr. Weed will turn triumphantly to the Democrats, and say, "Have we done you no service, then? Can you abuse us any longer as renegades without influence, and deserters who can't fight? See what we have brought you!" The chained lion will be patted on the head by Vallandigham, and embraced by Doolittle. Woodward of Pennsylvania will pare the lion's claws. Jesse Bright will pull his teeth, and Horatio Seymour clap on the muzzle. Having thus secured themselves from any sudden remorse or insubordination of the lion, Mr. Weed will mount upon his back; Vallandigham, Tilden, Thomas B. Seymour, Samuel Cox, Samuel Randall, William B. Reed, James Brooks, will get ub behind, and with James W. Wall of New Jersey, hanging to the tail, the whole party will set off on a trot to Washington. We don't think they would ever reach it; the load would be too heavy.

We need not say that this nomination is in the interest of the Democracy, but if it were not, we should advise all trading politicians to let Gen. Grant and all our other great Generals alone. The people don't want to be engineered by fifth-rate local clubs; want no Grant or Sheridan or Sherman parties at this day. In their good time they will settle the Presidential question, and in the meanwhile are only amused by the intense admiration of Mr. Weed and his friends for the virtue of popularity, and their insatiable appetite for soup. Since Lee resigned at Appomattox Court-House, we have known no such attack on Gen. Grant as this. The Forlorn Hope could offer him no greater impertinence than to nominate him, for if he has Presidential aspirations there is nothing that could do more to lessen his chances than the support of renegade Republicans and tools of Democratic wire-pullers.

PRICE OF A DINNER AT FAYAL.—A correspondent of the Tribune thus amusingly describes the settlement of a little dinner bill at Fayal, where the Mediterranean excursionists stopped on their voyage eastward. The Bluchers referred to is an Illinoisian:

"Speaking of those prodigious Portuguese pennies reminds me that it takes 1000 reis (pronounced rays) to make a dollar, and that all financial estimates are made out in reis. We did not know this until after we had found it out. Blucher said he was so happy and so grateful to be on solid land once more, that he wanted to give a feast—said he had heard it was a cheap land, and he was bound to have a grand banquet. He invited nine of us, and we ate an excellent dinner at the principal hotel. In the midst of the jolity produced by good cigars, good wine, and passable anecdotes, the landlord presented his bill. Blucher glanced at it and his countenance fell. He took another look to assure himself that his senses had not deceived him, and then read the items aloud, in a faltering voice, while the roses in his cheek burned to ashes:

"Ten dinners, at 600 reis: 6000 reis! Ruin and desolation!

Twenty five cigars at 100 reis, 2500 reis.—Oh, my sainted mother!

Eleven bottles of wine at 1200 reis, 13,200 reis. Be with us all! Total, 21,700 reis.—Great Cæsar's ghost, there ain't money enough in the ship to pay that bill. Go—leave me to my misery, boys, I'm a ruined community.'

I think it was the blankest looking party I ever saw. Nobody could say a word. It was as if every soul had suddenly been stricken dumb. Wine glasses descended slowly to the table, their contents untasted. Cigars dropped unnoted from nerveless fingers. Each man sought his neighbor's eye, but found in it no ray of hope, no encouragement. At last the fearful silence was broken. The shadow of a desperate resolve settled down upon Blucher's countenance like a cloud, and he rose up and said:

'Landlord, this is a wretched, mean swindle, and I'll never, never stand it. Here's $150, sir, and it's all you'll get—I'll swim in blood, sir, before I'll pay one cent more.'

Our spirits rose and the landlord's fell—at least we thought so; he was confused at any rate, notwithstanding he had not understood a word that had been said. He glanced from the little pile of gold pieces to Blucher several times and then went out. He must have visited an American, for when he returned, he brought back his bill translated into a language that christians could understand—thus:

10 dinners, 6000 reis, or	-	$6 00
25 cigars, 2500 reis, or	-	2 50
11 bottles wine, 13,200 reis, or	-	13 20
Total, 21,700 reis, or	-	$21 70

Happiness once more reigned in Blucher's dinner party. More refreshments were ordered.

— The Health Officer and Mayor of Galveston notify the owners of soda founts in that city that all pipes of founts must be made of zinc or block tin, as other materials, such as lead, copper, etc., are considered poisonous.

— Good timothy and other grasses are being mowed about Corinth, Miss., springing from the seed of forage scattered during the war. Timothy has been found in the swamps five feet three inches high, with heads eight inches long, and herds grass four feet three inches high.

C. A. RICHARDS & CO.'S
CONCENTRATED
EXTRACT OF RYE.
THE Proprietors of this popular article, finding it necessary to remove a wrong impression from the public mind regarding the real merits which they claim for it,
WOULD ONCE AGAIN ANNOUNCE THAT IT IS NOT a mere dram-drinking beverage, but a PURE, GENUINE and SCIENTIFICALLY PREPARED
MEDICINE.
It is not, as many have been led to believe, nothing but good Rye Whiskey; it is a
MEDICINAL REMEDY,
specially designed for certain useful and beneficial purposes; which any intelligent and thinking person can readily see, by reading what we now have
TO SAY ABOUT IT,
without any long, high sounding words, such as some doctors use to mystify and bewilder a patient, until he can't begin to tell what does not all him. We simply say, that we claim that "EXTRACT OF RYE" is nothing but the
JUICES OF THE GRAIN
combined with a certain oily, fatty and vegetable matter, which, when taken into the system, stimulates it first to
NEW LIFE,
and a restored appetite, and then goes to make BETTER and STRONGER
FLESH AND BLOOD.
One can instantly see how this preparation must soothe the throat when it is inflamed, and how it carry its lubricating and fattening effects to the lungs; consequently
IT IS WHAT YOU WANT
when you have a bad cough, to cure it, when you have
CONSUMPTION OF THE LUNGS,
to heal and build them up again. So much for those troubles.
Now, if YOU want an article to FEED THE SYSTEM on, when it has become reduced by sickness or by being OVERTAXED IN ANY WAY, this medicine will
DO THE WORK.
We have, among a great many letters we have received about it, a great many positive testimonials that it has been the means of making people
GAIN FLESH AND GROW FAT.
The reason for this is the
GRAND SECRET OF THE WHOLE MATTER.
It acts as a
STIMULATING FOOD
to the body, and helps Nature
THROW OFF DISEASE.
How often, of late years, have people been terribly deceived by resorting to common whiskey for this purpose, when, if they knew it, the only advantage to be gained from the use of whiskey must spring from the little quantity it contains of that of which Extract of Rye is nearly composed.
This, then, is the whole story. EXTRACT OF RYE will cause you to throw off disease by feeding the system with a
and will build up and restore the powers of mind and body, while you become fat and happy.
It is put up in convenient style, each bottle being contained in a paper box. It is not sold at a high fancy price, but offered at a reasonable cost to rich and poor.

☞ A writer in the Canada Farmer insists that eggs should be sold by the pound as well as meat and butter, and gives the difference in the average weight of a dozen of eggs from different breeds of fowls, as follows:

Common fowls,	1 lb. 6 oz.
Spanish,	1 lb. 9 1-2 oz.
Gray Dorking,	1 lb. 10 oz.
Gray Dorking & Brahma,	1 lb. 14 oz.
Gray Dorking & Cochin,	1 lb. 12 1-2 oz.

These are the differences in the average weight from different breeds. Should we compare the poorest specimens of the poorest breeds with the best specimens of the best, we would find a difference of fully one-half, and yet all are sold at the same price. We buy and sell nothing at so loose an adjustment of quantity to price as eggs, except when we buy wood by the load. Even apples and peaches, when sold by number, have the price adjusted to the size. But big or little, an egg is an egg.

SEC'Y MCCULLOCH AND ATTORNEY GEN. STANBERY.—The following is from the Washington correspondence of The Philadelphia Press:

A few days subsequent to the adjournment of Congress, one of the strongest Republican members of the House, who is also one of the leading opponents of the impeachment movement, took occasion to visit Attorney Gen. Stanbery and Secretary McCulloch, and during the conversation which ensued, expressed the opinion of his associates regarding impeachment. He charged Mr. Stanbery with having done everything in his power to place obstacles in the way of the enforcement of the laws of Congress, and particularly to break down the Reconstruction acts.

"Now, sir," he continued, "you must fully and clearly understand that if the President does not faithfully execute the law we have just passed, the first thing Congress will do on re-assembling, will be to impeach him, and I for one will expect myself to secure that end." He further expressed the opinion that impeachment would be easily accomplished under such circumstances.

Mr. Stanbery replied that he felt sure that the President would execute the laws so as to avoid trouble, as he was in great and constant fear of impeachment, and the more so of late, because he has made up his mind at the expiration of his Presidential term to return to Tennessee for the purpose of presenting himself again as a candidate for the Senate. He concluded the conversation on his part by a promise to use his influence to secure the enforcement of the laws to the letter of their intent.

Secretary McCulloch, in reply to the charge of removing honest officers in his department for the purpose of giving places to political favorites, some of whom, in the language of the members referred to, were "swindlers and robbers," replied that his recommendations in the matter of appointments had been frequently ignored. He virtually made the same promise regarding the enforcement of the Reconstruction acts as that made by Mr. Stanbery, when the interview terminated.

— Messrs. Carter and Galt, the distinguished Canadian politicians, have refused the honors of knighthood conferred on them by the Queen of England. Questions of pride have caused the declination.

— A fractional note of the denomination of fifteen cents, is to be issued. The note will have an engraved likeness of General Grant on the right hand, and opposite, on the left of the note a likeness of Lieutenant General Sherman.

— An Irish girl who plumed herself upon being employed in a "genteel family," was asked a definition of the term. "Where they have two or three kinds of wine, and the gentlemen swear," was the highly satisfactory reply.

— Miss Dix, the Florence Nightingale of our asylums and hospitals, has just shipped to Fortress Monroe the last load of granite for the Soldiers' Monument, which is being erected there. The monument is of beautiful design, and will be completed early in the Fall.

— The barn of Thomas Eldridge at Monument, Sandwich, was destroyed by fire Friday night, 26th ult., with all Mr. Eldridge's crop of hay, a quantity of rye and corn, about six cords of wood, a set of carpenter's tools and farming tools. His cattle were rescued, but though the fire was discovered before it had made much headway, his horse appeared to be dead when the barn was opened. The fire was doubtless incendiary, and the loss nearly total.

— A correspondent of the Cincinnati Commercial says that the 54th and 55th Massachusetts regiments recruited about 800 colored men in Ohio; that the 54th did a good deal of hard fighting, and had their ranks three times recruited; that of the 1100 men of this regiment who assisted at the storming of Fort Wagner, 400 only remained; to every one of whom the widow of their late Colonel Shaw sent a neatly bound New Testament, with her name and the soldier's name written in it with her own hand.

SOMETHING NEW!
SELEE'S HAIR LIFE
Has been thoroughly tested by thousands during the past year, and is declared superior to all other preparations for the hair. It has no equal for Restoring Gray Hair to its original color in from TEN TO THIRTY DAYS.
It is a most splendid Hair Dressing, surpassing all others for making dry and brashy hair soft, glossy and beautiful, and in youth.
This Magical Preparation invariably stops the falling of the hair, and always promotes a lively, luxuriant growth.
Its use will at once free the head from Dandruff, Scurf and all Humors, especially Salt Rheum.
It KILLS HAIR EATERS, which are so fatal to the roots of the hair. It contains no nitrate of silver, which is found in most other Hair preparations, and is so injurious.
THE HAIR LIFE IS NOT A DYE, but operates on the roots, restoring them to their natural, healthy state.
It is the nicest, neatest, and most effectual thing in the market.
It never stains, and is perfectly harmless.

DUPEE, BECK & SAYLES,
STOCK BROKERS,
Especially No. 22 State Street, Boston.
JAMES A. DUPEE, JAMES BECK, HENRY SAYLES,

The Daily Chronicle.

Portsmouth, N. H.

MONDAY, AUGUST 5, 1867.

— A Boston broker who had been charged with extortion in the settlement of disputed customs cases between the Government and a prominent firm of wine importers, has published a long reply to the accusations. His letter consists mainly of recriminations, but it is important as an exposure of the way in which the Treasury is cheated.—Tribune.

The great wine importers and too many of the brokers, don't seem to do much else except cheat the Treasury. Well, what else could you expect from men who grow rich by "cornering" (that is robbing) their best friends; or by selling what they know is copperas and logwood, for the pure juice of the grape?

IN THE SURRATT TRIAL—Friday, the prisoner's counsel occupied the time and closed the defence. The correspondent of the Boston Advertiser remarked on that day:—

The Supreme Court room, since the defence in the Surratt case began has been little more than a place where the hate and venom of the Washington secessionists have had full vent. Mr. Bradley to-day said, in effect, that the prosecution government officials, meaning Messrs. Holt and Stanton and Congress, had disgraced themselves by the method of carrying on the case. Facts concerning Merrick, which show that he should be a defendant in the case and account for the animus of his course, came to light to-day. A friend of his arrived here, to whom Merrick stated during the war, that all the people of the North and West were ready to follow him to Washington to "help hang that despot Lincoln."

IN MEXICO, the multitude of family circles who mourn friends, murdered by order of Maximilian and his officers, will rest satisfied that the government can punish even high offenders, and will appreciate the progress that has been made since the days when the great criminals were let loose to prey again upon the people.

The partisans of Maximilian talked of his being a descendant of Carlos V., and that Providence had restored the rule to its ancient and rightful line. This impressed the Mexicans, but in a contrary way. They had a sufficiently clear record of their sufferings under that monarch.

The manhood of Benito Juarez has conquered the divine rights of Ferdinand Maximilian. 1521—1867: three hundred and fifty-six years of waiting, but at last the circle is closed. The descendants of the people to whom Carlos V. sent his cruel soldiers, and more cruel priests, have poured forth the blood of their first oppressor. Montezuma is avenged. Poetical justice is satisfied. Europe will now cease to impose its political and religious despotism on Americans.—Boston Transcript.

☞ At Charleston, S. C., Gen. Sickles has removed the police of the town of Sumter for alleged maltreatment of blacks and inefficiency. He has appointed two colored and one white policeman to succeed the late incumbents.

Several freedmen who emigrated hence to Liberia last year have just returned, bringing very discouraging accounts. Letters from those who remained in Liberia are to the same purport, and they advise Southern freedmen against emigration.

☞ At Memphis, Tenn., many negroes have been discharged in consequence of their voting at the election. They are said to threaten retaliation. Thus far all is quiet.

Gen. Thomas and staff left for Louisville the morning after election. Having kept order in Tennesee, perhaps they aim to do likewise in Kentucky.

☞ A new national religious paper to be called "The Advance" will be published weekly, the first of September, in Chicago. It will represent Congregational principles and polity, but will be conducted in a spirit of courtesy and fraternity towards all Christians. The editor-in-chief will be Rev. Wm. W. Patton, D. D., who resigns the pastorate of the leading church of the denomination at the West for this purpose, and who has had many years experience in editorial labor. Subscription $2.50 in advance. Address "The Advance Company," P. O. Drawer 6374, Chicago, Ill.

☞ Two young fools in Kentucky wanted to court the same girl; and because she accepted one of them, the other challenged him—and in the duel he was fool enough to fight, both got killed, as we hope all who fight will be. What an idea of "love" a chap must have, who would wish to have a girl, or for her to have him, if she preferred somebody else.

☞ The two Republican Conventions in Richmond, Va., did not write; but after the radical Convention adjourned, a Mass Meeting was held, at which Mr. Botts made an address. Resolutions were passed, endorsing Gen. Sheridan, and putting him in among the candidates for a nomination to the Presidency.

☞ Albert Bryant, a noted rascal, has got into jail at Worcester, Mass., for girdling fruit trees in a garden. He has served in the state prison for burning a barn in revenge. A prison seems to be his place.

☞ The Circus, from which the people were driven out by the rain and flood last week, was at Dubuque, Iowa,—not in these parts, as might be supposed from an item that had no place assigned.

— The French prize for virtue has been taken by a ballet girl, at Nanterre, this year.

THE B. & M. vs. C. M. & L. R. R.—The Dover Enquirer replies to our article,

"That no one, so far as we know, has said or pretended—certainly the Enquirer has not—that the B. & M. road had no 'private ends' in view in securing the passage of the anti-monopoly railroad law. Editors of newspapers are the only persons we ever heard of, who are suspected of laboring from such disinterested motives! No railroad in New Hampshire, or elsewhere, we are sure, ever came under any such suspicion. The managers of the B. & M. road, like all other roads, have an eye to their own interests; they don't run care for 'Philanthropy,' 'Benevolence,' or any such passengers, unless they buy tickets. Nor do they 'spend time and the corporation's money to secure a public benefit' without being pretty sure they are to share in it.—They saw, we suppose, a rival corporation wielding a power which they believed to be illegal, and which was injuring them as well as discommoding the public. So at least they said in substance, in their memorial to the Legislature, and while they asked no legislation exclusively for their own benefit, they did ask that the public might be protected against the wrongs complained of—from which protection, of course, they expected and meant to be understood that they (the B. & M. road) or their stockholders, as a portion of the public, would receive their share of whatever benefit might be derived from the legislation asked for."

Now while we shan't blame the Enquirer for "speaking well of the bridge which carries them over," yet as the idea seems to somehow have got abroad, that one of the corporations referred to is the most selfish, unaccommodating and overbearing to be found in this region, we will just commend the following extract from the Manchester Union to the attention of all interested—while we cry, down with monopoly, no matter by whom attempted:

A Good Cow.—We understand that some of our lawyers about town, as well as one in Franklin and another in Dover, are very flush with greenbacks about these days—The Boston & Maine Railroad is a good client, and when an important job is to be done they don't mind coming down with the spondulics. Of course, they don't think they make a very bad investment when they pay one gentleman of the green bag in Dover $1000, one in Franklin $500, one firm here $600, another disciple of Blackstone of this city $400, another $300, and still another $250, for a few days' work in helping them to break the contract between the Concord and Lawrence railroads.

This is certainly more profitable than drawing trustee writs for boarding house keepers or writing dunning letters to people of short memories who neglect to pay their grocers' and tailors' bills. Besides, those disinterested gentlemen have the proud consciousness of laboring in a noble cause.—The people in whose behalf they have expended their energies, will, through their instrumentality, expect to ride to Boston for one dollar at the farthest, and have the price of freight reduced accordingly. The Boston & Maine is a good cow to milk now, but she may go farrow next year. There is no knowing. The U. S. Assessors must look sharply after these lucky fellows, and see to it that they make a full return of their incomes. They must swear them hard if they don't own right up to the mark.

While on this subject, we will add the following extracts, cut from a fair and able article on "Railroad Legislation" in the Lebanon Free Press,—the editor of which was a member of the House this year:

We never knew a piece of legislation which seemed to us more utterly uncalled for, and about which so general a misapprehension has seemed to prevail, as the railroad monopoly bill. It was concocted in the interest of a single corporation, the largest in the State, and carried through upon a popular prejudice, to work upon which that corporation spent its money most lavishly. We are clear in our conviction that if carried out it must operate to the disadvantage of the people of the State.

That there were formerly gross abuses in the management of the Concord railroad, nobody attemps to deny, and the present high rates are the inevitable results of those abuses. But the management has passed into new hands, and into the hands of men who have given the best guarantee possible that they intend to run the road in the interest of the public, and reduce the fares and freights just as rapidly as the condition of the road will allow. One reduction has already been made, and another would have been made ere this had it not been for the threatened and finally consummated legislation.

We suppose the effect of this legislation upon the Concord Road is in doubt. It is alleged that the contract under which it is now working was made in violation of the law. Be that as it may, the courts will decide it. It was certainly competent for the road to enter into a contract for five years if it could not for fifty, but this law allows of no contract at all, in which we think it unjust and detrimental to the people of this State. * * * * * *

Supposing this contract to be annulled; in all probability it would be followed by one between the Boston & Maine and Lowell, to increase the freights, as the former proposed to do before this contract was made. We should then be at the mercy of those roads, with no remedy at hand. The Lowell road lies wholly out of the State, and the Boston & Maine has once defied the power of our Legislature, and would do so again if its interests should tend that way.

The people of New Hampshire, then, must pay the increased cost of running the Concord road, and the increased rates charged by the lower roads, if this contract is annulled. And who would reap the benefits? The Boston & Maine railroad alone, with its coffers already so full as to defy almost any power with which it can be brought in contact. The people of northern New Hampshire will learn by and by, even if it be at considerable cost, that in this matter the Concord Railroad has been fighting their battle, as well as, and even more literally, than its own. * * * * Whence came it, then, that there was such a clamor for this bill in the House, and that it was apparently echoed among the people? In our opinion there is just one answer to it. A general prejudice against railroads exists among the people—a prejudice scarcely less suicidal than that which for many years kept railroads almost entirely out of the State. The Boston & Maine railroad was shrewd enough to turn this prejudice to its own account, by retaining leading lawyers and politicians in every corner of the State to raise the cry of "Monopoly! Monopoly!!" We trust it will find, ere long, that "curses, like chickens, come home to roost."

☞ The U. S. Agricultural Department reports there has never before been so favorable a prospect for uniformly good crops since the establishment of the Statistical Bureau. The average production of wheat is five bushels, for each individual in the country, while the promise for the present year is about six bushels.

The average corn crop is unusually large. Other grains show an improvement over last year, though not so great as in wheat.

The reports show the prospect of a largely increased yield in other productions. In fact, the reports received from all sections, except in certain limited localities, are most encouraging and indicate highly remunerative results for agricultural labor.

ESCOBEDO'S GOSPEL OF VENGEANCE has been published in full, and is even more horrible than was at first represented. He is in favor of making clean work of the detested "Gringos," seizing all the property of foreigners, shooting and hanging traitors and other obnoxious people, ad libitum, and making the country generally so insufferable that nobody but a Mexican will live in it. What a proper candidate he would be for the Chicago Tribune and the rest of the blood party in this country! If he would only come to the United States he would find friends and admirers among the rabid politicians who wanted to hang our own traitors, confiscate all the plantations, and perpetuate the horrors of war long after victory had brought us the blessings of peace.—Tribune.

Well, we don't see why rebels and traitors should not "feel the horrors of war long after victory has brought us the blessings of peace." But we have not ceased to feel the terrible effects of their war yet, though, by a great sight; and we wish they had to pay every cent of the national debt, at any rate.

IN TENNESSEE the election returns so far foot up 17,000 for Brownlow. But few counties are completed. The majority for Brownlow in Nashville and Davidson foot up 3510 votes, with a few precincts to hear from. Trimbell, Stokes, Arnell, Maynard, Hawkins, Mullins, Munn and Butler (Republicans), are elected to Congress.

At Nashville, several freedmen having been discharged by their employers for voting the radical ticket, and others threatened, Gen. Carlin has ordered Groesbeck to make every effort to find employment for them, and compel an immediate settlement with their former employers.

STRUCK BY LIGHTNING.—The residence of Mr. D. L. Dearborn, at Amesbury Ferry, was struck by lightning on Thursday last, and damaged to the extent of about four hundred dollars. The electricity went through the roof of the house making quite a hole, played round in the upper story, breaking out every square of glass, then entered the second story, passing out through a window after smashing out all the glass. Both rooms were lighted up as with flames of fire, and the wonder is that the house was not more seriously damaged. Mr. Dearborn and his daughter were in the house at the time, the former in the second story, but fortunately were uninjured.—Villager.

— The New York and New Haven Railroad Company intend to provide at each drawbridge on their road a device by which it will be impossible to open the draw, without at the same time inevitably giving warning to trains approaching from either direction, at a distance of two thousand feet from the bridge.

— Chief Justice Chase paid a visit to Frederick, Maryland, a few days since, and while there expressed "the belief that Congress will be prompt in affording relief to the loyal men of Maryland, by passing the Universal Suffrage Bill, when it convenes in November."

KIND WORDS.—Kind words! how cheap, indeed, and yet how very dear. Kind words are Heaven's sweet angel messenger. So is Herrick Allen's Gold Medal Saleratus earth's sweet messenger to all who love a good, nice, light White Biscuit. You had better throw your flour away and go hungry, rather than use any other. Call for Herrick Allen's, and have no other; it is harmless as flour. Try it. Most everybody sells it. Depot 122 Libery street, N. Y. 45

WHAT EVERY ONE WANTS.

A good, reliable medicine that will be on hand when wanted, and never fails when called on.—That is now to be obtained in Dr. Tobias' Celebrated Venetian Liniment. Many thousands call it the Wonder of the Age, as it does all that is represented and more. It cures Diarrhœa, Dysentery, Colic, Spasms, Vomiting, Croup, and Seasickness as surely as it is used, and is perfectly innocent to take internally, even in double the quantity named in the directions: and as an external remedy for Chronic Rheumatism, Cuts, Bruises, Old Sores, Mumps, Toothache, Headache, Sore Throat, Sprains, Insect Stings, Pains in the Back, Chest and Limbs, thousands have testified to, and their certificates can be seen at the Office, No. 56 Cortlandt street, New York. Hundreds of physicians use it in their practice. It has been introduced since 1847, and hundreds who now have it in their houses, say they would not be without it even if it was $10 per bottle.—Every drop is mixed by Dr. Tobias himself, and can be depended on. Only 50cts. and $1 per bottle. Sold by Druggists. Depot 56 Cortlandt street, New York. jy8dawlm

DR. SCHENCK'S NEW OFFICE.

☞ DR. J. H. SCHENCK, of Philadelphia, has opened an office on second floor of No. 32 HANOVER STREET, Boston, where he will be professionally every WEDNESDAY, from 9 to 3. Every person complaining with Consumption or any disease leading to it, is invited to call on him. He gives advice free, but for a thorough examination with his Respirometer the charge is five dollars.

Dr. Schenck can explain to patients very correctly the stage of their disease, and how to use his medicines, namely, his Pulmonic Syrup, Seaweed Tonic, and Mandrake Pills, without the use of the Respirometer; but by it he can tell exactly how far the lungs are gone, and what part; also whether it is Tuberculous, Pulmonary, Bronchial or Dyspeptic Consumption, or whether it is merely an ulcerated throat and catarrh, or from Liver Complaint.

His medicines have full directions, so any one can take them without seeing him, but if they live near by and are well enough, it is best to see him. All three of the medicines are required in nearly every case of lung disease, for it is impossible to cure Consumption unless the stomach and liver is kept in perfect order. To cure the lungs a healthy condition the stomach must be cleansed, and an appetite for good rich food created, so as to make good blood, before the cough will begin to heal; then the chills and night sweats will stop, and the expectoration become free and easy.

He keeps a full supply of medicines at his rooms, which can be had at all times.

Price of the Pulmonic Syrup and Seaweed Tonic, each $1.50 per bottle, or $7.50 the half dozen. Mandrake Pills 25 cents.

Local.

☞ Of three boys in a Newburyport school who were not tardy last term, one lived a mile and one three miles off. And the Herald truly says, "It is at school as at church, the most distant are first on the spot; and those having most to overcome, find it easiest to do it. It is so all through life—where there is most care, most labor, most responsibility, there is the most manhood and the greatest success."

We have often thought of this, when we have noticed what men and women are selected to do any charitable or public service. Is it the idle or unemployed? Never, but almost always those who are already the most busy. Of the large amount of sewing done in this city, for instance, for our own soldiers and the Cretans—ask the committee of management whether most was taken out by the girls who have to play croquet to keep from stagnating, or who are so idle they consider this "such a dull place," or by those who were already overburdened with other cares. And at a recent discussion of the small attendance on funerals in the Mechanic Association, it appeared that the present President (one of the busiest men of all) had not been absent from more than one or two such occasions for thirty years or so. Ah, indeed true is it, where there's a will, there's a way. Can't usually means won't.

PERSONAL.—Gen. R. N. Batchelder of New Hampshire, formerly Chief Quartermaster of the Army of the Potomac, now of the regular army and stationed at Louisville, Ky; and Col. Ludington, of Pittsburg, Pa., Assistant Inspector General U. S. A.; accompanied by Col. A. H. Young of Dover, passed through this city on Saturday noon, en route for Boar's Head, to enjoy a short visit at Dumas' Hotel.

☞ Mr. Nathaniel T. Moulton, an old and well known former resident of Portsmouth, was in town Saturday from Biddeford, where he is spending the summer.—He completed his 80th year yesterday, but looked and walked younger than the average of men of a score less years—though he has worked hard all his days, and brought up a large family. Mr. M. and Mr. Eben. Lord of this city, who we believe is but a year younger, were in our office within a few minutes of each other; and we could but notice with pleasure how hale and hearty both appeared.

Anna Shaw, arraigned on a charge of creating a disturbance in a saloon on Brewster street while in a state of intoxication, was considered not guilty and was discharged.

☞ The Hartford Courant states that the Hartford Life and Accident Company can add an interesting chapter to the history of Rev. S. M. Merrill, who had his life insured for $5000 in that Company, relating to an evident attempt at an "accidental" departure by him from a steamer in Lake Champlain, in the early part of June, when he left his baggage in his stateroom to travel alone for several trips; but coming to light in a state of metamorphosis a few days later, his family did not get the amount.

☞ Some smart river thieves in New Orleans a few days since rowed a skiff under the steamship landing, where goods were being discharged, sawed a hole up through the planking under a large dry goods box, and then sawing out the bottom of the box, took $700 worth of fine goods into their skiff and made good their escape without detection.

☞ At Boston last Wednesday, Mr. Samuel Bradlee celebrated the 50th anniversary of his second marriage; and on Thursday he died of congestion of the lungs, aged 89.

THE
UNION PACIFIC RAILROAD CO.
Are now constructing a railroad from
OMAHA, NEBRASKA,
westward towards the Pacific Ocean, making with its connections an unbroken line
ACROSS THE CONTINENT.
The Company now offer a limited amount of their
FIRST MORTGAGE BONDS,
having thirty years to run, and bearing annual interest, payable on the first day of January and July, in the City of New York, at the rate of
SIX PER CENT. IN GOLD,
AT
Ninety Cents on the Dollar.
This road is already completed to Julesburg, 276 miles west of Omaha, and is in full operation, and trains are running regularly over it. The Company has now on hand sufficient iron, ties, etc., to finish the remaining portion to the eastern base of the Rocky Mountains, 141 miles, which is under contract to be done September 1st of this year, and is expected that the entire road will be in running order from Omaha to its western connection with the Central Pacific, now being rapidly built eastward from Sacramento, Cal., during 1870.
Means of the Company.
Estimating the distance to be built by the Union Pacific to be 1565 miles, the United States Government issues its Six per cent. Thirty-year bonds to the Company as the road is finished, at the average rate of about $28,250 per mile, amounting to $44,236,000.
The Company is also permitted to issue its own First Mortgage Bonds to an equal amount, and at the same time, which by special Act of Congress are made a First Mortgage on the entire line, the bonds of the United States being subordinate to them.
The Government makes a donation of 12,800 acres of land to the mile, amounting to 20,032,000 acres, estimated to be worth $20,000,000, making the total resources, exclusive of the capital, $108,236,000; but the full value of the lands cannot now be realized.
The Authorized Capital Stock of the Company is one hundred million dollars, of which five millions have already been paid in, and of which it is not supposed that more than twenty-five millions will be required.
The cost of the road is estimated by competent engineers to be about one hundred million dollars, exclusive of equipments.
Prospects for Business.
The railroad connection between Omaha and the East is now complete, and the earnings of the Union Pacific on the sections of the road finished for the first two weeks in May were $113,000. These sectional earnings as the road progresses will much more than pay the interest on the Company's bonds, and the through business over the only line of railroad between the Atlantic and Pacific must be immense.
Value and Security of the Bonds.
The Company respectfully submit, that the above statement of facts fully demonstrates the security of their Bonds, and an additional proof they would suggest that the Bonds now offered are less than ten million dollars on 517 miles of road, on which over twenty million dollars have already been expended;—on 330 miles of this road the cars are now running, and the remaining 187 miles are nearly completed.
At the present rate of premium on gold, these bonds pay an annual interest on the present cost of Nine Per Cent.
and it is believed that on the completion of the road, like the Government Bonds, they will go above par. The Company intend to sell but a limited amount at the present low rate, and retain the right to advance the price at their option.
Subscriptions will be received in New York by CONTINENTAL NATIONAL BANK, 7 Nassau st., CLARK, DODGE & CO., Bankers, 51 Wall street, JOHN J. CISCO & SON, Bankers, 33 Wall street, and by BANKS AND BANKERS generally throughout the United States, of whom maps and descriptive pamphlets may be obtained.—They will also be sent by mail from the Company's Office, No. 20 Nassau street, New York, on application. Subscribers will select their own Agents in whom they have confidence, who alone will be responsible to them for the safe delivery of the Bonds.

BIGAMY.—A case of bigamy has just come to light at Washington. Commander N. S. Morgan of the Navy, was the husband of one good wife, and the father of two children, residing at Hartford, Ct. Nevertheless, he married a highly respectable lady of Washington, name Wroo, over a year ago. Soon after, his first wife heard of his second marriage, but did not credit it, and it was only when his second wife heard of his first, as she was about to be confined, that an investigation took place. When the fact could no longer be concealed, Morgan returned to his first wife and promised to live with her, but soon left her and concealed himself in an obscure clerkship at Georgetown, where the detectives found and arrested him. He was bound in the sum of $1500. So says an exchange, and we add, if so, the bail is altogether too low, and he will forfeit and never come to trial. It should have been fixed so high that he could not get it,—and then a divorce case with a call for alimony should have stripped him of every shilling.

By the way, this N. S. Morgan appears in the Navy Register for 1866 as an Acting Lieutenant in the volunteer navy, in command of steamer Acutney. His name does not appear in the latest Navy Register at all, that we can find, and we are informed that he was some time since discharged from the service, in no very creditable manner.

☞ A day or two ago, an accident happened to Mr. F. W. Seward, Assist. Sec. of State, at Cayuga, N. Y. He was about starting for a ride with Col. Morgan and others. He was standing on the driver's seat, and Col. Morgan was standing on the ground holding the lines. The horses became restive and unmanageable, and broke loose, running about twenty rods, tipping over in the ditch and completely demolishing the carriage, Mr. Seward was cut in the forhead, with gashes about his head and face. He was unable to return in a carriage, but was borne on a stretcher,—and is doing well. No man should ever be in a carriage at all, without the reins being there too.

MONEY ORDERS.—About four hundred new money order post offices will shortly go into operation, principally in the Southern, Western and Pacific States. The money order system is rapidly extending, and promises to become at no distant period the favorite method of transmitting small sums, especially between distant points. As long ago as when Amos Kendall was Postmaster General, we recommended, in a newspaper article, the English money order system, as it was described in the London papers.—Mr. Kendall recommended it in his Report to Congress,—but he was not popular, and Congress did not do it. After waiting about 30 years, the Post Office Money Order system was adopted, very convenient and safe for the people and profitable to the Department. There is no danger that it will ever be abolished—though it may be superseded by something better. U. T.

— The mission of Admiral Tegethoff to Mexico is one which will command the sympathy of all civilized nations. We hope they wont give up the invading Bourbon's body. Let it be burned or sunk to the bottom of the Gulf. We don't believe in furnishing material for such dead hero worship as Max. would cause in Austria, or as Jeff. Davis, alive, may yet cause here.

MR. ROBERT OULD has written another letter reaffirming his former charges that a great part of the sufferings among Union prisoners at Andersonville would have been prevented, but for the delay in responding to his proposition to deliver prisoners to the number of 15,000 whenever transportation should be furnished them.—Tribune.

This Ould is an old perjurer, traitor, and so of course liar; and we wouldn't believe him or any of his rebel tribe on oath.

— The farmers of Otsego county, New York, who have been so violently enraged at the failure of the Unadilla Bank, have, it is said, been in the habit of lending their money to it, and taking the personal notes of the officers, that they might thereby avoid taxation on the amount deposited.

— In order to protect the merchants of Leavenworth from competition with agents from Eastern houses, a license costing fifty dollars was imposed upon every agent outside the State to qualify him to sell goods by sample. The rule was found not to work well for the interests of the citizens, and has been repealed.

— The Selma (Ala.) Times learns from a gentleman who has recently traveled over the greater part of Middle Alabama, that the corn crop is magnificent. The entire country looks like a land of promise. There is no doubt that the corn crop this year will be one of the finest ever raised in Alabama.

$100 A DAY.

We have adopted the plan of putting money in CENTURY TOBACCO to induce consumers to use it, knowing that it is only necessary for them to give it a fair trial to become fully satisfied of its merits, and to pronounce it the BEST FINE CUT MADE. We will continue to offer these inducements until the fact is fully recognized.
We are making the CENTURY from selections of the very choicest old leaf, and have devoted every care to its manufacture. It is free from drugs, and in every respect A PURE ARTICLE OF CHEWING TOBACCO.
On Monday we will place in one paper a $100 U. S. Note. On Tuesdays, in two papers, $50 each. On Wednesdays, in five papers, $20 in each. On Thursdays, in ten papers, $10 each. On Fridays, in twenty papers, $5 in each, and on Saturdays, in fifty papers, $2 in each, in all cases issuing GENUINE U. S. GREENBACKS to the amount of $100 a day.
The finders of these Greenbacks—by sending us their names, address and numbers of the bills—will be presented with packages of our Tobacco in proportion to the amount of money found.
This House has been established for over a hundred years, and has always sustained a character for honesty and fair dealing, which puts to flight all doubts, if any should exist, as to the genuineness of this enterprise.
THE CENTURY TOBACCO can be had in large quantities at Manufacturers' prices, of A. R. Mitchell, 29 Central street, Boston; Jas. H. Schaick, 16 S. Front street, Philadelphia; Foy & Earle; 35 S. Water street, Chicago; Schultz & Hagley, 54 West second street, Cincinnati.

C. A. RICHARDS & CO.'S
CONCENTRATED
EXTRACT OF RYE.
THE Proprietors of this popular article, finding it necessary to remove a wrong impression from the public mind, regarding the real merits which they claim for it,
WOULD ONCE AGAIN ANNOUNCE
THAT
IT IS NOT
a mere dram-drinking beverage, but a TRUE, GENUINE and SCIENTIFICALLY PREPARED
MEDICINE.
It is not, as many have been led to believe, nothing but good Rye Whiskey; it is a
MEDICINAL REMEDY,
specially designed for certain useful and beneficial purposes; which any intelligent and thinking person can readily see, by reading what we now have
TO SAY ABOUT IT,
without any long, high sounding words, such as some doctors use to mystify and bewilder a patient, until he can't begin to tell what does not ail him. WE SIMPLY AND PLAINLY SAY that "EXTRACT OF RYE" is nothing but the
JUICES OF THE GRAIN
combined with a certain oily, fatty and vegetable matter, which, when taken into the system, stimulates it first to
NEW LIFE,
and a restored appetite, and then goes to make BETTER AND STRONGER
FLESH AND BLOOD.
One can instantly see how this preparation must soothe the throat when it is inflamed, and must carry its lubricating and fattening effects to the lungs; consequently
IT IS WHAT YOU WANT
when you have a bad cough, to cure it, when you have
CONSUMPTION OF THE LUNGS,
to heal and build them up again. So much for those troubles.
Now, if you want an article to FEED THE SYSTEM ON, when it has become reduced by sickness or by being overtaxed in any way, this medicine will
DO THE WORK.
We have, among a great many letters we have received about it, a great many positive testimonials that it has been the means of making people
GAIN FLESH AND GROW FAT.
The reason for this is the
GRAND SECRET OF THE WHOLE MATTER.
It acts as a
STIMULATING FOOD
to the body, and helps Nature
THROW OFF DISEASE.
How often, of late years, have people been terribly deceived by resorting to common whiskey for this purpose, when, if they knew it, the only advantage to be gained from the use of whiskey must spring from the little quantity it contains of that of which Extract of Rye is entirely composed.
This, then, is the whole story. EXTRACT OF RYE will cause you to throw off disease by feeding the system with a
and will build up and restore the powers of mind and body, while you become fat and happy.
Five pints in a handsome style, each bottle being contained in a paper box. It is not sold at a foolish fancy price, but offered at a reasonable cost to rich and poor.

JEFF. DAVIS AND THE VERMONT PEOPLE.—Jeff. Davis visited Stanstead last week, and was the guest of Hon. T. Lee Terrill. Fred. Terrill, Esq., brought him from Sherbrooke there, in a very quiet manner on Wednesday last, professedly to see the country and to consult in regard to an investment in the gold mines of Hatley. On Thursday, as we learn from the Newport (Vt.) Express, Mr. Terrill, in his best turnout, took Jeff. about the village to ride, when several incidents transpired not altogether pleasing, we should imagine, to either the host or his guest. Not only boys but men hooted at him in the street, and greeted him with those familiar words, "We'll hang Jeff. Davis to a sour apple tree." He was frequently asked where he had left his "petticoats," and various like remarks, more suggestive than pleasing, everywhere fell upon his ear. One lady, stung by the recollection of the suffering and death of a near relative at Andersonville, gave utterance to her feelings by hurling a stone at him.

Permission was asked that Jeff. might ride about the grounds of Carlos Pierce, Esq., and take a look at his noted herds, but the request was emphatically denied by Mr. Henry Pierce, in charge of the premises, who declared in unmistakable language, "that in no event could Jeff. Davis be admitted to those grounds." That is right—traitors should be hooted wherever they go.

— The village of Chatelard, Savoy, consisting of about 100 houses, has just been destroyed by fire. The buildings all being roofed with thatch, the flames spread with remarkable rapidity. More than 800 persons are rendered homeless.

— An eccentric and intemperate man, who finally got into the Poor House at New Haven, where there were several members of families once rich in that city, being asked if he did not want society, said: "Not at all; I have the best society New Haven affords."

— Mrs. Fitzgibbins, an old lady of 66 years, was frightened to death in Milwaukee a few days ago, during a fire, by an excited person rushing into the house and saying that all the houses near by were in flames, and they would all be burned alive. The old lady swooned and never recovered.

— It is stated that two hundred years ago a Scotch emigrant carried to Canada a thistle. Intentionally or otherwise he planted it in his garden, its seeds took root in his neighbor's soil, and to-day it is the pest of the Provinces, depreciating the value of real estate.

— The Superintendent of a Sunday School in Brooklyn, N. Y., recently requested the school to unite in singing—

"There is a happy land," &c., when a little fellow, who had been spending some time with his grand-parents in a Belknap County town, said to his classmates, "I know where the happy land is; it's Gilmanton, N. H."

— The English Trades Unions appear to be the most unmitigated despotisms in the world. Even since the Broadhead exposures, a unionist of Sheffield has been arrested for threatening to blow up a fellow-workman who refused to pay to the trade, and in another place four bricklayers were brought before a magistrate recently for attempting to throw one of their comrades off a scaffold and severely assaulting him, because he had violated a rule of the Union by shaving off his mustache. That free men can voluntarily enter associations which claim such a perposterous authority over the actions of individuals, is to Americans almost incredible. There is something evil in the condition of the English workmen, which we can hardly appreciate.

SOMETHING NEW!
SELEE'S HAIR LIFE
Has been thoroughly tested by thousands during the past year, and is declared superior to all other preparations for the hair. It has no equal for Restoring Gray Hair to its original color in from TEN TO THIRTY DAYS.
It is a most splendid Hair Dressing, surpassing all others for making dry and brashy hair soft, glossy and beautiful, as in youth.
The Magical Preparation invariably stops the falling of the hair, and always promotes a lively, luxuriant growth.
Its use will at once free the head from Dandruff, Scurf and all Humors, especially Salt Rheum.
It KILLS HAIR EATERS, which are so fatal to the roots of the hair. It contains no nitrate of silver, which is found in most other Hair preparations, and is so injurious.
THE HAIR LIFE IS NOT A DYE, but operates on the roots, restoring them to their natural, healthy state.
It is the nicest, neatest, and most effectual thing in the market.
It never stains, and is perfectly harmless.

Portsmouth, N. H.

TUESDAY, AUGUST 6, 1867.

☞ Mr. Jennings, of the London Times, after giving an account of the operations of the liquor law in Boston, says, "The working classes must feel the burden of the new enactments more than club folks, and if they were Englishmen they would probably get up great processions, and cry out against oppression. Being Americans, accustomed to restrictions and small social tyrannies which the most despotic government in Europe would not dare to put in force, they quietly acquiesce in regulations which they know to be useless, unnecessary and absurd."

Pooh, Pooh! (says Uncle Toby,) the working classes of our own people are not the great drinkers,—the knavish, lazy, swindling classes are those who would suffer most by the stoppage of their drinks,—and are also those who would get up processions and cries against the law. Our workingmen know better.

IN THE SURRATT TRIAL, Saturday, Ex-Judge Pierrepont, in his argument to the jury, made an important statement, which he verified by producing the original record relative to the execution of Mrs. Surratt. The Military Commission had been denounced and belied by John Surratt's counsel; but Mr. Pierrepont said and proved that President Johnson ordered with his own hand that Commission, signed the warrant that directed the execution; that President Johnson, when that record was brought before him, laid it before his Cabinet, and that every single member voted upon it, and that they voted to confirm the sentence, and that the President, with his own hand, wrote his confirmation of it and with his own hand signed the warrant. I hold in my own hand the original record, and no other man, it appears from that paper, ordered it; no other one touched this paper; and when it was suggested by some of the members of the Commission that in consequence of the age and sex of Mrs. Surratt it might possibly be right to change her sentence to imprisonment for life, he signed the warrant for her death with the paper right before his eyes; and there it is (handing the paper to Mr. Merrick). My friend can read it for himself.

PITTSBURG, Pa., has been suffering by a strike; but it is over, and the men are at work. Last winter the iron-workers demanded a continuation of the then existing rates of wages for puddling iron, with which the proprietors could not, as they said, afford to comply,—and so a lock-out took place on the 12th January, and nearly all the rolling mills were closed. Labor at most of them has been wholly or partially at a stand still until last week, when an arrangement was made between the proprietors and the strikers. It is called a compromise, but it simply means that the old rates of pay should be given the strikers for three weeks, after which they agree to submit to the proposition as to remuneration made to them seven months ago. In a few days the mills will probably be all set agoing. 5000 men have been comparatively idle and comparatively poor all these months.

☞ The Claremont Eagle pitches into the newspapers for advertising Lotteries, Gift Schemes, &c., (which that paper refuses to do at any price,) and says "these scheming humbuggers couldn't scrape such amounts from the pockets of simpletons and fools, without the aid of the press." No doubt of it,—but if an editor musn't advertise anything but what he approves, some of them would have scant advertising columns, we fear. For our part, though we never commend editorially, a scheme about which we know nothing,—we don't see the great differing between what is called "gambling" and most of what is called "trade" or "business." "Speculation" is of course precisely identical with gambling, and is the most risky of all its forms. But we hold that an editor's private and public columns are entirely distinct; and while it is his duty to enlighten his readers on all subjects possible—they must use their own judgment in selecting investments, and should never invest other folk's money, at any rate.

KENTUCKY ELECTION on Monday, had three tickets, Rebel Democrats, Union Democrats, and Republicans, the latter being few. Mr. Holm, the regular Democatic nominee, has probably 20,000 majority.

— Corn has fallen in Texas from two dollars to seventy-five cents a bushel. One paper even reports that new corn can be engaged at twenty-five cents a bushel.

— The Cretans have unexpectedly found an ally in Prussia. Bismarck's official organ pleads for the interference of the great powers of Europe in behalf of the struggling patriots.

— A trip in Massachusetts and New Hampshire over half-a-dozen different railroads served to show us by contrast the luxurious elegance of the passenger cars on the Eastern Railroad, six of which now running are indeed rolling palaces. A gentleman from Baltimore whom we recently met, and whose extensive acquaintance entitles his opinion to value, remarks that he had found on no road in the United States such attractive cars as those run by the Eastern.—Biddeford Union.

DETERIORATION.—Having read a series of recollections of ancient Judges and Lawyers in New Hampshire, (copied into the Chronicle from a California paper,) Uncle Toby remarked that he was reminded of something which was written by one Solomon, who lived a long time before New Hampshire was settled by anybody except bears and possibly some kind of savages:

This Solomon's advice was, "Say not then, What is the cause that the former days were better than these? for thou dost not inquire wisely concerning this."

The sketches of the former Judges and Lawyers of the Granite State are interesting, and notwithstanding some errors, in the main are founded in fact; but some of the men of former days, who are considered great by the lively writer in the California paper, would not be so regarded if they lived now and here. And as to the really great men among them, their cotemporary companions saw weak and small points about them, which it would be idle now to expose, by those who best knew their history.

But it may be well to say in general terms, that the professional men, on the bench, at the bar and in the pulpit, of this part of New Hampshire, and we think of the whole State, if judged by any fair standard, need not fear comparison with their predecessors of the former periods in our brief history.

If, however, we pick out all the eminent men who practiced at the bar for eighty years past, and compare them with those who happen to compose the same bar at the present time, we may deceive ourselves or our readers with the idea that there is a dreadful falling off.

We do not believe there is any criminal, at this day, in New Hampshire, who (if he has money) cannot get as able and unscrupulous a lawyer to help him cheat justice of her due, as ever before. And on the other hand, we know there are as many worthy and prosperous men at the bar now as there were forty years ago. There may not be many Websters nor Choates among them, but they get verdicts, take care of their clients' interests, and if they collect money pay it over as well as their predecessors ever did. They pay their own bills as promptly; and they are as good husbands, as sober men, as good citizens and christians as their predecessors ever were. If there be some mean ones at the bar now,—so there were always—no more now than ever.

Why the writer should have gone out of his way to belie our present delegation in Congress, we cannot conceive. But he certainly does this when he says,—

"At no time since the adoption of the Constitution has the New Hampshire delegation in Congress possessed so little ability as at this time."

How he can possibly know that the NEW members will not prove to be able, we cannot say,—but the impudence and self-conceit of the anonymous writer are most apparent in his closing paragraphs, where the "emigrations [of such as he] has included what would otherwise be a large share of the ability, enterprise and industry of the State."

We think, says Uncle Toby, that it is possible to give all due credit to the ancients without disparaging or belying the moderns. Some of our present delegation being NEW in their Congressional membership, have yet to prove their ability; but their fidelity is undoubted, and in the late extra session, they were at their posts. One of them, Prof. Patterson, is known as a ripe scholar and eloquent orator; and others, as debating and working members, need not fear invidious comparisons.

TENNESSEE.—A Tennessee dispatch says that all the radical candidates for the Legislature in East Tennessee are elected, giving a gain of seven from that section.—At this rate the Legislature will be nearly unanimous, and the majority for Brownlow in the State will reach nearly 50,000. The eight Representatives to Congress, all Republican, have majorities varying from 1000 to 7000 each.

☞ HORACE GREELEY, as will be seen by an advertisement in another column, is writing his Autobiography for the New York Ledger. With Mr. Beecher's story, the articles by the College Presidents, and Mr. Greeley's Autobiography, to say nothing of all the other popular features of the Ledger, the readers of that paper ought to be able to get their money's worth out of it.

☞ It has been reported that President Johnson had consented to remove Kellogg, Collector at New Orleans, on the complaint of some "prominent" secesh; but the report is contradicted "by authority."

— Leonard W. Jerome's gold medal to the first gentleman of the senior class of Princeton (N. J.) College will not be awarded, but such other disposition of the money made as the President of the College may direct. The students sensibly decline to accept any such prize, affirming that they are all gentlemen, and that none of them wish to be advertised, like a "good boy," with a medal about his neck.

THE GLOUCESTER FIRE.—We learn upon investigation of the matter connected with the fire at Mr. Dale's, at Gloucester, on Monday of last week, that the first two explosions were the result of carelessness in drawing off the gasoline from the machine into open vessels, with a lighted lantern on the floor near the machine; and that the third explosion—so disastrous in its consequences—was caused by the persistent determination on the part of one or more of the officers in command of the fire department, to carry a lighted lantern again into the cellar, in spite of all that Mr. Dale could say or do to the contrary. The machine was in no wise at fault.

WEATHER IN JULY.—According to a record kept in Newark, N. J., the month of July was neither so wet nor so cold as generally supposed. The average rain fall in July for the twenty-four years previous was three inches and a half. This year it was three inches and three-quarters. It rained on seventeen days. The minimum temperature of the month was higher than that of twenty of the twenty-four preceding Julys, so that the mean temperature was only between two and three degrees below the average. The first week was the warmest of the month, and with the exception of 1854, the 4th of July was the hottest for many years.

THE DESERET NEWS.—This is the title of one of our exchange papers, the organ of the Mormons in Utah, published in the interest of Brigham Young and his associates, and edited with ability. The News of the 17th July contains a reprint of Rev. Dr. Todd's late tract, called "Serpents in the Dove's Nest—or Fashionable Murder." It is accompanied by a column of preface, in which the Mormon system of polygamy is recommended as the remedy for the evils deplored by Dr. Todd, and for the "moral degradation of Christendom" generally.

The same paper contains an official notice that the Theatre in Salt Lake City is now expressly prepared and decorated for large social parties, and that the Pioneer party would meet on a certain day; tickets $5 per couple, and $1 for each additional lady. The Bishops are requested to send in the names of those who would attend; and the notice is signed, Brigham Young, Heber C. Kimball, Daniel H. Wells.

☞ The Greek Government has announced its determination of declaring war on the Sublime Porte on the 1st of September, should hostilities against the Christians of Crete not be ended by that time.

Great military preparations are being made for such a contingency, and orders have been issued calling out the entire reserves of the kingdom.

☞ Documents have been received which show authoritively that Maximilian made a formal proposition to Secretary Seward early in January, for transmission through the United States Government to Juarez, in which he offered to retire until the permanency of the Empire could be decided by the Mexican people in their own way. Secretary Seward, however, declined to entertain the proposition, as he did not recognize the right of Maximilian's agent to represent any portion of the Mexican people.

☞ Great excitement has been produced in Chili and Peru by the report that the Spanish squadron has again sailed for the South American waters, and that a renewal of hostilities may be expected. Peru is preparing for a vigorous resistance, and desires to act on the aggressive, but the Chilian Government has officially declared that it means to carry on a defensive war only.

☞ The American iron-clad ram Dunderberg, which was purchased by the French Government, after a remarkably quick and successful trip across the Atlantic, has reached her destination in safety.—She went from New York to Cherbourg in 14 days and 17 hours, through heavy weather and high seas.

BREAD

MIXING and KNEADING MACHINES.

One of the Most DESIRABLE and VALUABLE Inventions of the Age.

For sale by

E. A. STEVENS,

46 Market Street, Portsmouth, N. H.

The attention of Housekeepers, Proprietors of Hotels and Restaurants, and Bakers of Bread and Pastry is invited to the following statement of the advantages of the Bread Mixers and Kneaders.

FIRST.—The Machine is simple in construction, will not get out of order, and is thoroughly adapted to the purposes for which it was intended, the kneading and mixing of bread. It is the only machine ever invented for these purposes, and has given entire satisfaction wherever used. It is also compact and ornamental and will last for years.

SECOND.—It both mixes and kneads the bread by the same action. The flour, water and other ingredients necessary for bread, are put into the pan (which is a part of the machine) at once, and there, by the simple action of turning a crank for a few moments, becomes thoroughly kneaded dough.

THIRD.—It mixes the flour and other ingredients, stirring them together and removing all the lumps, more effectually and quickly than can be done by hand.

FOURTH.—It kneads the dough evenly and uniformly. The lightness of bread depends upon its being thoroughly kneaded and mixed with air or "aerated." In this machine every particle of dough is caught up and brought under the direct action of the "rollers," thus becoming as perfectly kneaded as can be done by the most skilful of experienced professional bakers. It will make therefore the lightest kind of dough suitable for French rolls or any other kind of bread. See certificates.

FIFTH.—It saves a great amount of labor. Every lady knows that it requires at least half an hour to knead dough by hand so that it shall make good light bread. By simply turning the crank (which a child can turn) the dough in this machine is mixed and kneaded in less than ten minutes

SIXTH.—It has the advantage of perfect cleanliness. From first to last the hands do not touch the flour or other ingredients. The perspiration and other impurities of the hands and arms need no longer constitute an ingredient of the bread. Ladies will understand this when they remember that kneeding the dough makes the hands white and clean.

SEVENTH.—The machine cleans itself, scraping off from itself the particles of dough.

EIGHTH.—The machines are of different sizes, from one suitable for a small family to the large machine to be run by steam or horse power, which will mix and knead from one to three barrels of flour at once.

NINTH—Any one knowing the right proportions of the different ingredients, can with these machines make the lightest and best of bread, since the dough requires no manipulation.

TENTH—It can be used for mixing cake and pastry and in fact for all other purposes, domestic or otherwise, where mixing is required.

The principal advantages, however, are:

The Great Saving of Labor.

Cleanliness.

Certainty of always having Good Bread, which even the most skilful often fail in making.

The merits and cheapness of the machine are enough to recommend it to general use and cause its introduction in every family.

It meets a want that has long been felt, and lightens a part of household labor that has always been most severe. While thousands of other labor-saving improvements are in use, bread is kneaded in the old laborious way in which it has been done for a thousand years, with great loss of time, strength and economy; for millions of dollars are annually lost by making bad and worthless bread. The machine will pay for itself in a short time by the saving of flour.

The Ladies are respectfully invited to call and see the machine at the store of the subscriber, 46 Market street, where we shall be glad to show them to any one, whether they propose to purchase or not. au6 E. A. STEVENS.

WHAT EVERY ONE WANTS.
A good, reliable medicine that will be on hand when required, and never fails when called on.—That is now to be obtained in Dr. Tobias' Celebrated Venetian Liniment. Many thousands call it the Wonder of the Age, as it does all that is represented and more. It cures Diarrhœa, Dysentery, Colic, Spasms, Vomiting, Croup, and Sickness as surely as it is used, and is perfectly innocent to take internally, even in double the quantity named in the directions: and as an external remedy for Chronic Rheumatism, Cuts, Bruises, Old Sores, Mumps, Toothache, Headache, Sore Throat, Sprains, Insect Stings, Pains in the Back, Chest and Limbs, thousands have testified to, and their certificates can be seen at the Doctor's depot, 56 Cortlandt street, New York. Hundreds of physicians use it in their practice. It has been introduced since 1847, and hundreds who now have it in their houses, do not think it worth while to procure it even for $10 per bottle.—Every drop is mixed by Dr. Tobias himself, and can be depended on. Only 50cts. and $1 per bottle. Sold by Druggists. Depot 56 Cortlandt street, New York. Jy8dawlm

DR. SCHENCK'S NEW OFFICE.
☞ DR. J. H. SCHENCK, of Philadelphia, has opened an office on second floor of No. 35 HANOVER STREET, Boston, where for the present he will professionally every WEDNESDAY, from 9 to 3. Every person complaining with Consumption or any disease leading to it, is invited to call on him. He gives advice free, but for a thorough examination with his Respirometer the charge is five dollars.
Dr. Schenck can explain to patients very correctly the stage of their disease, and how to use his medicines, viz: his Pulmonic Syrup, Seaweed Tonic, and Mandrake Pills, without the use of the Respirometer; but by it he can tell exactly how far the lungs are gone, and what to use. Also whether it is Tuberculous, Pulmonary, Bronchial or Dyspeptic Consumption, or whether it is merely an ulcerated throat and catarrh, or from Liver Complaint.
His medicines have full directions, so any one can take them without seeing him, but I prefer to see my patients. Consumption unless the stomach and liver is kept in perfect order. To get lungs in a healing condition the stomach must be cleansed, and the appetite for good rich food created, so as to make good blood, before the lungs will begin to heal; then the chills and night sweats will stop, and the expectoration become free and easy.
He keeps a full supply of medicines at his rooms, which can be had at all times.
Price of the Pulmonic Syrup and Seaweed Tonic, each $1.50 per bottle, or $7.50 the half dozen. Mandrake Pills 25 cents.

POLICE COURT, Aug. 5.—If all flesh be grass, then Judge Odell made hay while the sun shone this morning, for he had quite a stack of cases cut and dried ere he was called from labor to refreshment.
Sarah Jameson, a common drunkard, was sentenced to hard labor in the House of Correction for one month, and to pay $5.74 costs.
A complaint against John McDonald, for keeping his saloon open on the Sabbath, was dismissed.
Anna Ross, for an assault on Sarah C. Jameson, was fined $1 and $5.40 costs.
Michael Conners, drunk, fined $3 and $4.63 costs.
George Hanscom, a sailor, for being drunk, was fined $3 and $3.86 costs, which being promptly paid, he put to sea immediately.
Thomas Turner, another victim of the flowing bowl, was assessed the usual "$6.86."
Henry B. Shays, whose carriage was impaired by too frequent lubrications with ardent liquor, paid fine and costs to the amount of $6.86.
There was another case of drunkenness, for which $6.86 was exacted. We comply with the request to suppress the name, but charge nothing for the information that the best way to keep your name from the Police Record is to keep yourself from the Police Court.

Communication.
TOO MUCH OF A GOOD THING.—Mr. Editor,—I may perhaps be deemed a decided old fogey in venturing the suggestion that in my belief the Base Ball disease is having a bad effect upon some of our young men. One of our city clerks is an enthusiast in the pastime, and as he came to the store the other morning, with an eye draped in mourning, caused by catching the ball on his peeper, instead of in his hand, I undertook to discuss the sport with him, as did a merchant before me in a distant city.
"What is the trouble with your finger?" I inquired.
"Struck with a ball and drove up; but it is a noble game," was his reply.
"Precisely,—and your thumb is useless, is it not?"
"Yes, struck with a ball and broken."
"That finger joint?"
"A ball struck it; no better game to improve a man's physical condition; strengthens one's sinews."
"You walk lame; that foot isn't"—
"No,—its the—the—the—well, a bat flew out of a player's hand, and bit my knee-pan. He had the innings."
"One of your front teeth is gone?"
"Knocked out by a ball—an accident."
"Your right hand and your nose have been peeled; how's that?"
"Slipped down on a second base,—only a mere scratch."
"And you enjoy this fun?"
"Glory in it, sir! It's the healthiest game in the world, sir!"
Now what can be done to fix the attention of such a young man upon business, even in the hours of business? My clerks are constantly interrupted by calls from some of the "club," while busy with customers; and nearly every day some match game is to be played, which requires their attendance, and of course an absence from the store; while after a game, the exhausted state of the young men prevents their doing me justice in their situations.
A few business men of my acquaintance have stipulated, after the manner of merchants in other cities, that after the 10th instant we will neither retain in our employ, or hire, clerks who shall join a Base Ball Club. Our business is dull enough to require the attention of our clerks; and if it is more important for the young men to practice at the "noble game" than to acquire a business education that shall serve them in after life, they must seek employment elsewhere. TRADER.

FOR THE
NEW YORK LEDGER.
Something for Fathers to Buy for their Sons to Read.
In this week's LEDGER we begin the publication of the Autobiography of the HON. HORACE GREELEY, which Mr. Greeley is now writing expressly for the NEW YORK LEDGER. The title of it is Recollections of a Busy Life,
BY HORACE GREELEY.
It will appear in successive issues of the LEDGER. Probably no work more instructive to the young, in the formation of character, has ever been published; at the same time it will possess all the interest of a novel. The poor boy, rising, by his own exertions, to be the distinguished man, is a theme which cannot fail both to entertain and instruct, especially when the whole story is told with the fascinating charm of simple truth.

MR. BEECHER'S GREAT WORK, is now being published in the

NEW YORK LEDGER.
The Presidents of the principal Colleges, the greatest Wits, Scholars, and Statesmen, write for the NEW YORK LEDGER.

CHARMING STORIES.—The short stories in the LEDGER, begun and finished in the same number, are the most delightful stories contained in any publication in the world.

THE
UNION PACIFIC RAILROAD CO.
Are now constructing a railroad from
OMAHA, NEBRASKA,
westward towards the Pacific Ocean, making with its connections an unbroken line
ACROSS THE CONTINENT.
The Company now offer a limited amount of their
FIRST MORTGAGE BONDS,
having thirty years to run, and bearing annual interest, payable on the first day of January and July, in the City of New York, at the rate of
SIX PER CENT. IN GOLD,
at
Ninety Cents on the Dollar.
This road is already completed to Julesburg, 376 miles west of Omaha, Kansas, and is fully equipped for all through and local business. The Company has now on hand sufficient iron, ties, etc., to finish the remaining portion to the eastern base of the Rocky Mountains, 161 miles, which is under contract to be done September 1st of this year, and it is expected that the road will be in running order from Omaha to its western connection with the Central Pacific, now being rapidly built eastward from Sacramento, Cal., during 1868.
Means of the Company.
Estimating the distance to be built by the Union Pacific to be 1565 miles, the United States Government issues its Six per cent. Thirty-year bonds to the Company as the road is finished, at the average rate of about $28,250 per mile, amounting to $44,208,000.
The Company is also permitted to issue its own First Mortgage Bonds to an equal amount, and at the same time, which by special Act of Congress are made a first Mortgage on the entire line, the bonds of the United States being subordinate to them.
The Government makes a donation of 12,800 acres of land to the mile, amounting to 20,032,000 acres, estimated to be worth $30,000,000, making the total resources, exclusive of the capital, $118,-240,000; but the full value of the lands cannot now be realized.
The Authorized Capital Stock of the Company is one hundred million dollars, of which five millions have already been paid in, and of which it is not supposed that more than twenty-five millions at most will be required.
The cost of the road is estimated by competent engineers to be about one hundred million dollars, exclusive of equipments.
Prospects for Business.
The railroad connection between Omaha and the East is now complete, and the earnings of the Union Pacific since the Omaha Bridge was finished for the first two weeks in May were $118,000. These sectional earnings as the road progresses will much more than pay the interest on the Company's bonds, and the through business over the only line of railroad between the Atlantic and Pacific must be immense.
Value and Security of the Bonds.
The Company respectfully submit, that the above statement of facts fully demonstrates the security of their Bonds, and an additional proof they would suggest is that the bonds now offered are less than ten million dollars on 517 miles of road, on which over twenty million dollars have already been expended—on 330 miles of this road the cars are now running, and the remaining 187 miles are nearly completed.
At the present rate of premium on gold, these bonds pay an annual interest on the present cost of Nine Per Cent.,
and it is believed that on the completion of the road, like the Government Bonds, they will go above par. The Company intend to sell but a limited amount at the present low rate, and retain the right to advance the price at their option.

PORTSMOUTH, GREAT-FALLS & CONWAY RAILROAD.

A PLEASANT EXCURSION. — But few seem to be aware of all the facilities for travel open to us. One of the most pleasant routes through handsome villages, manufacturing towns, verdant fields and water scenery, is the Portsmouth, G. F. and Conway Railroad, which now goes direct from Portsmouth to Union Village in Wakefield, a distance of about 36 miles. Here the road for the present terminates, but will eventually be extended to Conway, and connecting with one to the Notch, will enable the traveller to breakfast in Portsmouth, and dine at the foot of Mount Washington.

This Road has not made much stir for notoriety, but has been doing a good business, giving no little aid to the business of Portsmouth and the towns on the route. To say nothing of Berwick, Salmon Falls, Great Falls, Rochester,—one man in Union Village has received in the last year no less than 25,000 bushels of corn from Portsmouth, which by the water power in that place has been ground and sold in that region—notwithstanding that is a region where much corn is raised. Our old townsman, Mr. Joseph P. Gilman, is extensively engaged in the corn and flour business there, as well as performing the duties of a village grocer. Here we find on his productive premises, flower-beds from the Portsmouth stock, and the boquet he gave us shows that they lose none of their beauty by transplanting.

In Union Village, in one of Mr. Cate's mills, is machinery for making strippings from poplar wood for the manufacture of mattrasses, &c. many tons of which are forwarded to this city. There are two qualities made, the coarse and the fine—the latter fine enough, when properly colored, to make handsome waterfalls for the ladies—as it is very light and one as large as a common pumpkin can be easily balanced on the head.

In the room over the stripping factory we found two Scotch families engaged in printing and finishing table and piano covers. The flannel is made in Littleton, of wool from the sheep of Bethlehem, so the whole is strictly a New Hampshire production.

This is no corporate monopoly, nor is there any disposition to strike for eight hours a day. These two Scotchmen with their children come into the factory on Monday morning from their home four miles off, and work and board and sleep there until Saturday night—working from four in the morning until the evening shades, making sometimes 16 hours to the day. They complete about 240 covers per day, of as handsome finish as any in our market.

It was a treat to see again the stage packing at the end of the route, which is not to be seen near us in the present day. Three stages and a mountain wagon were in readiness in Union Village to take the Conway passengers. We took most particular attention of the last, which was apparently filled with nine passengers. But more wished to go, so by a little crowding here, and a contraction there, we eventually saw it pass away with twenty-one passengers, and enough trunks to hide the rear of the vehicle! Hope when they completed their forty miles route, that each one was be able to identify his own particular limbs!

Our company were unanimous in the opinion that a more pleasant route, and greater variety of scenery, cannot be met with in a two hours' ride from Portsmouth; and the case of travel should be a inducement for frequent pleasure excursions in that direction.

We learn that our friend G. H. Jenness is doing a thriving business at Rye Beach. His Saloon is well patronized by the numerous visitors to the seashore—and also by the transient parties that happen in that way. Visitors will always receive the most courteous treatment, and find a quiet resort entirely free from the objectionable features that are sometimes attendant upon such places. No liquor is sold, and we can recommend it as being a first-class place in every respect. Mr. Jenness has in connection with his saloon a bowling alley—said to be the finest public alley to be found in this section.

WHO IS RESPONSIBLE.—The N. H. Patriot censures Gov. Harriman for not vetoing the resolution giving increased pay to the Legislature, &c. The Governor might have vetoed the matter and spent some thousands of dollars in prolonging the session, and yet not have succeeded in quashing the measure.

The Patriot will find some individuals of its own party who really need a lashing for not doing the right thing on this occasion. In the Senate were but four Republicans who favored the resolution. It was in the power of the three Democratic members to have voted nay on the question, and by adding their vote to the five Republicans who were opposed to an increase of pay would have prevented the matter coming before the Governor for his approval.

It was thus a Democratic measure. When the year and nays in the House are made known, it will doubtless give the stamp more definite.

The New York Baptist Pastors' Conference have Resolved, that "the teachings of Henry Ward Beecher, as published in the Examiner and Chronicle, are to be regarded as unsound and dangerous," and deserving "our strongest disapprobation." The Rev. Mr. Beecher in such teachings are exhibited in a sermon of his in Saturday before last's Boston Traveller, on the "Atonement," as more generally taught, and what is called "getting Religion."—Rev. Dr. Bellows of New York is writing interesting letters from Paris. He had passed into Holland from thence.—We notice a sermon, published in the Christian Register, by Rev. Mr. Lowering of Concord, subsequent to the Charlestown Conference. "The head of every man is Christ, and the head of Christ is God."—"The truth as it is in Jesus, says Mr. L. is not a fossil, dug up from the mine of History, of no more meaning to us than a trilobite."—"Unitarianism without Jesus, the Christ, may be a good system of philosophy, or contain a valuable code of morals, but it is no religion."

LATHE DAVIS report the seizure of three or four of Maximilian's Generals, found secreted in the house of the English Embassy. They were at once shot, Marquez and Ottarran are still at large. Canales had proclaimed himself Governor of Tamaulipas, and levied contributions, but a force was marching against him.—It is now said Juarez will be a candidate for re-election.

The late Empress, Carlotta, (grand-daughter of Louis Phillip, whose daughter married the King of Belgium—his first wife being Charlotte, daughter of George IV heir of the English throne) was by the last accounts entirely prostrated, nearly void of consciousness even receiving the news of her husband's death with entire indifference.

C. A. RICHARDS & CO.'S
CONCENTRATED
EXTRACT OF RYE.

THE Proprietors of this popular article, finding it necessary to remove a wrong impression from the public mind regarding the real merits which they claim for it,

WOULD ONCE AGAIN ANNOUNCE
THAT
IT IS NOT
a mere dram-drinking beverage, but a TRUE, GENUINE and SCIENTIFICALLY PREPARED
MEDICINE.

It is not, as many have been led to believe, nothing but good Rye Whiskey; it is a
MEDICINAL REMEDY,
specially designed for certain useful and beneficial purposes; which any intelligent and thinking person can readily see, by reading what we now have
TO SAY ABOUT IT,
without any long, high sounding words, such as some doctors use to mystify and bewilder a patient, until he can't be well himself, much less tell him. We SIMPLY AND PLAINLY SAY that "EXTRACT OF RYE" is nothing but the
JUICES OF THE GRAIN
combined with a certain oily, fatty and vegetable matter, which, when taken into the system, stimulates it first to
NEW LIFE,
and a restored appetite, and then goes to make BETTER AND STRONGER
FLESH AND BLOOD.

One can instantly see how this preparation must soothe the throat when it is inflamed, and must carry its lubricating and fattening effects to the lungs; consequently
IT IS WHAT YOU WANT,
when you have a bad cough, to cure it, when you have
CONSUMPTION OF THE LUNGS,
to heal and build them up again. So much for those troubles.

Now, if you want an article to FEED THE SYSTEM ON, when it has become reduced by sickness or by being OVERTAXED IN ANY WAY, this medicine will
DO THE WORK.

We have, among a great many letters we have received about it, a great many positive testimonials that it has been the means of making people
GAIN FLESH AND GROW FAT.

The reason for this is the
GRAND SECRET OF THE WHOLE MATTER.
It acts as a
STIMULATING FOOD
to the body, and helps Nature
THROW OFF DISEASE.

How often, of late years, have people been terribly deceived by resorting to common whiskey for this purpose, when, if they knew it, the only advantage to be gained from the use of such poison must spring from the little quantity it contains of that of which Extract of Rye is merely composed.

This, then, is the whole story. EXTRACT OF RYE will cause you to throw off disease by feeding the system with a
and will build up and restore the powers of mind and body, while you become fat and happy.

It is put up in square bottles, each bottle being contained in a paper box. It is not sold at a foolish fancy price, but offered at a reasonable cost to rich and poor.

R. H. EDDY,
SOLICITOR OF PATENTS,
Late Agent of the U. S. Patent Office, Washington under the Act of 1837.
No. 78 State street, (opposite Kilby street,) BOSTON.

After an extensive practice of upwards of twenty years, continues to secure Patents in the United States; also in Great Britain, France and other Foreign Countries. Drawings, Specifications, Assignments, Bonds, and all papers or drawings for Patents, executed on reasonable terms, with dispatch. Researches made into American and Foreign works, to determine the validity and utility of Patents of Inventions, and legal and other advice rendered in all matters touching the same. Copies of the claims of any patent furnished by remitting one dollar. Assignments recorded in Washington.

No Agency in the United States possesses superior facilities for obtaining Patents or ascertaining the patentability of inventions.

During eight months the subscriber, in the course of his large practice, made on twice rejected applications, SIXTEEN APPEALS; every one of which was decided in his favor by the Commissioner of Patents.

"I regard Mr. Eddy as one of the most capable and successful practitioners with whom I have had official intercourse, CHAS. MASON,
Commissioner of Patents.

"I have no hesitation in assuring inventors that they can not employ a man more competent and trustworthy, and more capable of putting their applications in a form to secure for them an early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office.
EDMUND BURKE,
Late Commissioner of Patents.

"Mr. R. H. EDDY has made for me THIRTEEN applications, in all but ONE of which patents have been granted, and that one is now pending. Such unmistakable proof of great talent and ability on his part, leads me to recommend all inventors to apply to him to procure their patents, as they may be sure of having the most faithful attention bestowed on their cases, and at very reasonable charges. EDUCATION IN WASHINGTON.—An able Washington letter writer gives a brief account of the efforts to educate the working people and their children, in that city, during the last three or four years. He then says:

"The educational operations thus far mentioned were instituted by the Baptists, Quakers and Unitarians, but last year the Congregationalists established a school and college, which was named after Major General Howard, the esteemed head of the Freedmen's Bureau. Through his exertions, the Howard University has received from government what is known as the "irregular fund," embracing the back pay, bounty, &c., of deceased colored soldiers, and its trustees have also made some lucrative land operations, purchasing estates and selling them in building lots, after reserving what they needed. The Howard University is thus already well endowed, and it has a normal and a theological school in operation.

[The Howard university will be useful, and it is rightly named for a noble man:—but it is not easy to see why the Congregational Theological school should have all the "irregular fund," and the Baptist and other such schools have none of it.]

Nearly all the teachers of colored children have been supported during the school year just closed by the contributions of religious societies and freedmen's associations. Only about half a dozen teachers have been paid from the school fund, under the act of 1862, the three politicians appointed as trustees under it having been remiss in demanding from the city government means for the payment of teachers and for the erection of the proper school-houses. Every Senator and Representative should be requested by his constituents to give this matter his personal attention at the next session, and those Representatives who will be candidates for re-election in 1868 will be obliged, next winter, to regard the wishes of those whose votes they will desire.

Meanwhile it should be understood that but little is given from the treasury of this city for the support of colored schools, and that but little aid is received by them from the Freedmen's Bureau. It is for the Christian people of the North, more especially those of New England, to say whether the great work of educating the colored citizens of this District—the wards of the nation—shall be carried on.—Of course, those who have put their hand to the plow will not now look back.

☞ The Tribune says, "Next to the church and the editorial profession, the bar is the least remunerative business, upon the average, into which a young man can enter. Very few of its members make more than a bare living. The three most successful lawyers in New York City have invested more brains, labor, and money in their business than the most successful merchants. Yet no one of these lawyers has ever made $100,000 in a single year out of his practice, nor averaged $50,000 a year for any number of years together; while there are several merchants whose incomes have largely exceeded a million dollars annually."

JAMES T. BRADY.—On one occasion, James T. Brady had a case so very lame that he gave his client to understand that it could not be gained. The client insisted on trying it, and Mr. Brady devoted his best talent to making the best show he could.—The case was ably put on the other side, and was so plain that the judge, who had made up his mind, rather indicated it by several rulings entirely favorable to the opposite side. Mr. Brady was seeking for an opportunity for covering his retreat from such an untenable position, and, on some ruling of the judge, highly favorable to his opponent, he blandly inquired: "May it please your honor, who's engaged on the opposite side of this case besides the judge?"

— A panther measuring 9 feet 3 inches from tip to tip was recently killed near Corvallis, Cal.

— A country lady was very much shocked when told that President Johnson was taken into Boston by the Nock.

— A caricature recently seen at Matamoras represented Uncle Sam lying flat on his back with Canada underneath him, and while his head was in the Russian purchase, taking an iced drink, his legs were cramped up by a ricketty fence named Mexico. Uncle Sam meditatingly says, he will have to stretch out his legs directly. The picture tickles the Mexicans amazingly.

— The Lancaster (Ohio) Eagle describes the natural bridge twelve miles south of that place, showing it to be nearly as great a curiosity as the world-famed natural bridge of Virginia. The bridge is of solid sandstone, 150 feet in length and from eight to twenty wide, spanning a ravine at an elevation of forty-five feet from the bottom.

READ'S store, which is for sale at the manufacturer's price, and which our friends and the public are invited to call and examine. T. F. MOSES.

SOMETHING NEW!
SELEE'S HAIR LIFE
Has been thoroughly tested by thousands during the past year, and is declared superior to all other preparations for the hair. It has no equal for Restoring Gray Hair to its original color in from TEN TO THIRTY DAYS.
It is a most splendid Hair Dressing, surpassing all others for making dry and brashy hair soft, glossy and beautiful, as in youth.
This Magical Preparation invariably stops the falling of the hair, and always promotes a lively, luxuriant growth.
Its use will at once free the head from Dandruff, Scurf and all Humors, especially Salt Rheum.
It KILLS HAIR EATERS, which are so fatal to the roots of the hair. It contains no nitrate of silver, which is found in most other hair preparations, and is so injurious.
THE HAIR LIFE IS NOT A DYE, but operates on the roots, restoring them to their natural, healthy state.
It is the nicest, neatest, and most effectual thing in the market.
It never stains, and is perfectly harmless.

WEDNESDAY, AUGUST 7, 1867.

ELECTIONS.—The next State election will be Vermont, Sept. 3; and the day after, California will follow. On the 9th of September, Maine will be heard from; Pennsylvania, Indiana and Ohio the 8th of October. On the first Tuesday of November—the 5th—New York, New Jersey, Delaware, Maryland, Massachusetts, Michigan, Wisconsin, Minnesota, Illinois, Kansas, Missouri and Nevada. Colorado will vote Nov. 12, which will close the list of Fall elections.

MEXICO.—The New Orleans Picayune says, "A letter from Vera Cruz, dated July 24, has been received via Pensacola, from the captain of the Austrian steamer Elizabeth, which states that up to that time the Mexicans had refused to deliver up the corpse of Maximilian. No cause was assigned for the refusal. The Elizabeth would leave for New Orleans to-day (5th). The captain had no hope of bringing away the body.

PACIFIC RAILROAD.—A San Francisco item of Monday says, the great tunnel of the Central Pacific Railroad at the summit of the Sierra Nevada mountains is nearly completed, only 64 ft. remaining uncut on Saturday. The rails are being laid on the easterly slope, where twenty miles of the track are graded. It is expected that the locomotive will run through the tunnel by the 15th of August, and that the line will be completed to the Nevada line in September next.

☞ It is said Pres. Johnson sent a note to Sec. Stanton, Tuesday, requesting him to resign, because he don't support "my policy." Sec. S. did not attend the Cabinet meeting on Tuesday. It is said Gen. Grant will be Secretary ad interim.

☞ On Monday, it appears Gen. Sheridan issued an order removing Joseph Hernandez, Treasurer of New Orleans, for reasons similar to those mentioned in the order removing the Board of Aldermen, etc., and appointing Stoddart Howell in his stead.

WEST TROY PRESENTATION CONCERTS. The first of the series of concerts in connection with Mr. Casey's large prize presentation, took place at Gleason Hall, West Troy, July 25th, precisely as announced. The Troy Daily Times says the concert gave great satisfaction and was a complete success. The second concert in the course (four in all) will take place on Thursday, Aug. 8. The Times says, We have the reputation of the trustees—two of the most respectable citizens of West Troy—pledged to the enforcement of fairness and just dealing in this enterprise, and that the valuable property enumerated will be distributed in strict fidelity, and in accordance with the terms set forth.

Tickets are for sale by Batchelder & Co. in Portsmouth; and the arrangements as advertised give every safeguard to purchasers. We will add that in our business dealings with the managers, we have found them fair and square.

— Gilman Willard of Cape Elizabeth, Me., committed suicide Saturday night by tying himself to the anchor of his yacht, and going to the bottom with it, drowning at once. He was a single man, aged 22 years, had some property, and the cause of his destroying his life is a mystery. On board his boat was found his wallet and a short note which read as follows:

"Dear mother—I do not blame you for this. Take good care of George. Farewell. Your affectionate son, GILMAN WILLARD.

GOLD, Tuesday, 140.

— A suit has been brought against John Morissey by a returned California for the recovery of thirty-four thousand dollars, lost July 5th at a gambling house.

— On Sunday two lads in New Haven aged about 15 years, named Thomas Sullivan and Matthew Cahill, while returning from Sunday school, got into an altercation, and Sullivan stabbed Cahill with a penknife, inflicting a wound which proved fatal in a few hours. Sullivan has been arrested.—Both boys were of Irish parentage, and both attended St. John's (Catholic) Church and school, where Cahill was a teacher.—Sullivan was provoked at something C. had said, and offered to fight him. C. asked him if he meant what he said, and the answer was, yes. C. raised his hand to strike, and S. struck with an open penknife, —probably with no intent to kill, but the wound was fatal. It is a clear case of manslaughter.

☞ We give to-day a list of those who pay our City expenses, &c., to the amount of $50. Some estimate ought to be deduced, of a man's property, from his government and city tax; but unfortunately for the "poor but honest," these things are seldom gauged just right in this world.

POLICE COURT, Aug. 6.—Arthur Brown and Nellie Avery were brought up on a charge of fornication, and in default of $100 sureties each for their appearance at the October term, S. J. C., were committed.

Communication.

Dear Chronicle,—In your issue of Tuesday I noticed an article condemning Base Ball.—The writer is entirely correct in calling himself "old fogey," and we cannot but pity a man whose ideas are fifty years behind the times,—and fossilized at that. It is a spirit like this which throws cold water on every innovation, notes every man who has on a new style of hat as a sharper, drives away young men, and makes Portsmouth corroborate the statement of the Prophet, that "there is nothing new under the sun."

The conversation, which I read some time since in another paper, is a decent satire on Base Ball, but of course much exaggerated; and I doubt much if all the accidents enumerated have happened to the hundreds who have played ball for two years during so many pleasant afternoons.

If Portsmouth is able to form a new institution, by all means let her do it; and let us not despair, that the Club last year numbered seventy paying members, and this year only fourteen.

If the writer will inform me where "the match games that come off nearly every afternoon," are played, he will oblige

NEW HAMPSHIRE ITEMS.

—— Rev. T. H. Miller is to preach at Atkinson next Sabbath.

—— The following are among the patents bearing date July 20:

Leonard Shelters of Manchester, assignor to self and John Pattee of same place, for improvement in calipers and dividers.

Herman V. Davis of Amherst, and Geo. E. Smith of Blakesville, assignors to Geo. E. Smith, for improvement in seeding machines.

P. W. Webster and Wm. H. Prescott of Concord, for improved bed bottom.

Edward Jewett of Rindge, for improvement in mode of manufacturing veneers.

—— It is rumored now that there is a defection in the Cabinet, and that another member besides Stanton has kicked against the anti-Sheridan policy.

— It is estimated that in Georgia there will be 30,000 whites and 50,000 blacks for a reconstruction convention, and 45,000 whites and 5000 blacks against it—or 30,000 majority for the convention.

— A letter from Alabama states that there are at least 20,000 white voters now enrolled in the Union League Councils in that State, and the State is said to be sure for the radicals by a majority of 15,000.

— Mr. Aaron D. French, of Avon, Mass., while driving a spirited horse on Friday, lost control of the animal. The horse ran about a mile with Mr. French, who was finally thrown from the wagon with such force as to kill him almost instantly.

— The Philadelphia papers state that a majority of the miners have ordered a suspension of work in their colleries, in order to enchance the price of coal at the shipping ports, and that the woolen manufacturers are up to the same dodge, to keep up the prices of woolens, the large mills at Cohoes, N. Y., initiating the movement.

☞ Washington advices of Monday say there is no doubt of the fact that the President to-day formally requested Mr. Stanton to resign his position as Secretary of War. The friends of the President assert that he has taken this course in order to secure unity of political views in his Cabinet. Rebels, trailors and copperheads have been howling and hissing at Mr. Stanton for years. Their displeasure, and President Johnson's hatred, are highly honorable to the Secretary, who has occupied a difficult post, and prevented much evil.

☞ The Baltimore American of Monday morning publishes an account of the disgraceful riot at Centreville, Maryland, on the occasion of a Republican meeting on Thursday last, when, as it is alleged, a United States officer, (Gen. Gregory of the Freedman's Bureau,) and his associates were assaulted and a portion of their audience, mostly colored men, mercilessly beaten.

☞ On Monday afternoon, near Springfield, Mass., a passenger train on the Connecticut River Railroad ran into a carriage in which were Mrs. Alexander Chapin and Mrs. Nahum Dunbar. The former will probably die from the effects of her injuries, but the other lady, though carried by the locomotive some distance, was not seriously hurt.

☞ At Memphis, Tenn, the discharging of negroes still continues. The conservative press urges their employers to use this method for teaching them who are their friends. [This is conservatism, is it? Like most such movements, it will probably wake up the wrong passenger.]

☞ The majority in Kentucky for the Democratic party is about as large as the Republican majority in Tennessee,—say 50,000.

—Ex-Gov. Bidwell of California has declined the Independent Union nomination for Governor, and other dispatches indicate a fusion of the Republican wings on the regular ticket, headed by Gorham. In any event, Gorham's election seems a foregone conclusion, and it is hardly a possibility of the election of a Democratic Congressman, if the rival Republican candidates are only wise and unselfish, and arrange all differences among themselves, without carrying them into the canvass.—Tribune.

— Miss Azoa Phelps, a young lady of 18, daughter of Mr. Edwin Phelps, of Hudson, Mich., on her way lately to the district school of which she was a teacher, in company with a neighbor's daughter, took a seat on a reaper which was in opperation in a field adjoining the road, to ride once or twice for amusement. The horses became frightened and ran away with the reaper, throwing Miss Phelps on the knives, cutting her hand completely off and terribly mangling her body. Her injuries are fatal. The other girl was not seriously injured.

IMPORTANT.—The fact cannot be too often stated, or too strongly urged upon the public, that the majority of the Saleratus in the market is not only VERY INFERIOR, but actually a slow poison, causing teeth to decay, and bringing on disease generally. Thanks to science, skill, perseverance and energy, that the man still lives who invented Herrick Allen's Gold Medal Saleratus, which has and is still doing such great wonders in the culinary department. BREAD
MIXING and KNEADING MACHINES.

One of the Most DESIRABLE and VALUABLE Inventions of the Age.

For sale by

E. A. STEVENS,

46 Market Street, Portsmouth, N. H.

The attention of Housekeepers, Proprietors of Hotels and Restaurants, and Bakers of Bread and Pastry is invited to the following statement of the advantages of the Bread Mixers and Kneaders

FIRST.—The Machine is simple in construction, will not get out of order, and is thoroughly adapted to the purpose for which it was intended, the kneading and mixing of bread. It is the only machine ever invented for these purposes, and has given entire satisfaction wherever used. It is also compact and ornamental and will last for years.

SECOND.—It both mixes and kneads the bread by the same action. The flour, water and other ingredients necessary for bread, are put into the pan (which is a part of the machine) at once, and there, by the simple action of turning a crank for a few moments, becomes thoroughly kneaded dough.

THIRD.—It mixes the flour and other ingredients, stirring them together and removing all the lumps, more effectually and quickly than can be done by hand.

FOURTH.—It kneads the dough evenly and uniformly. The lightness of bread depends upon its being thoroughly worked and well mixed, or "aerated." In this machine every particle of dough is caught up and brought under the direct action of the "rollers," thus becoming as perfectly kneaded as can be done by the most skilful of experienced professional bakers. It will make therefore the lightest and finest dough suitable for French rolls or any other kind of bread. See certificates.

FIFTH.—It saves a great amount of labor. Every housewife knows that it requires at least an hour to knead dough by hand so that it shall make good light bread. By simply turning the crank (which a child can do) the dough in this machine is mixed and kneaded in less than ten minutes

SIXTH.—It has the advantage of perfect cleanliness. It is first to last the hands do not touch the flour or other ingredients. The perspiration and other impurities of the hands and arms need no longer contaminate any ingredient of the bread. Ladies will understand this when they remember that kneading the dough makes the hands white and clean.

SEVENTH.—The machine cleans itself, scraping off from itself the particles of dough.

EIGHTH.—The machines are of different sizes, from one suitable for a small family to the large machine to be run by steam or horse power, which will mix and knead from one to three barrels of flour at once.

NINTH.—Any one knowing the right proportions of the different ingredients, can with these machines make the lightest and best of bread, since the dough requires no manipulation.

TENTH.—It can be used for mixing cake and pastry, and in fact for all other purposes, domestic or otherwise, where mixing is required.

The principal advantages, however, are:
The Great Saving of Labor.
Cleanliness.
Certainty of always having Good Bread, which even the most skilful often fail in making.

The merits and cheapness of the machine are enough to recommend it to general use and cause its introduction into every family.

It meets a want that has long been felt, and lightens a part of household labor that has always been most severe. While thousands of other labor-saving improvements are in use, bread is kneaded in the old laborious way in which it has been done for a thousand years, with great loss of time, strength and economy; for millions of dollars are annually lost by making bad and worthless bread. The machine will pay for itself in a short time by the saving of flour.

The Ladies are respectfully invited to call and see the machine at the store of the subscriber, 46 Market street, where we shall be glad to show them to any one, whether they propose to purchase or not. au6 E. A. STEVENS.

DR. SCHENCK'S NEW OFFICE.

☞ DR. J. H. SCHENCK, of Philadelphia, has opened an office at second floor, No. 32 HANOVER STREET, Boston, where he will be professionally every WEDNESDAY, from 9 to 3. Every person complaining with Consumption or any disease leading to it, is invited to call on him. He gives advice free, but for a thorough examination with his Respirometer the charge is five dollars.

Dr. Schenck can explain to patients very correctly the stage of their disease, and how to use his medicines, namely, his Pulmonic Syrup, Seaweed Tonic, and Mandrake Pills, without the use of the Respirometer. But in order to correctly know far the lungs are gone, and what part; also whether it is Tuberculous, Pulmonary, Bronchial or Dyspeptic Consumption, or whether the stomach and liver is kept in perfect order. To get lungs in a healing condition the stomach must be cleansed, and an appetite for good rich food created, so as to make good blood, before the lungs will begin to heal; then the chills cease, the sweats will stop, and the expectoration become free and easy.

He keeps a full supply of medicines at his rooms, which can be had at all times.

Price of the Pulmonic Syrup and Seaweed Tonic, each $1.50 per bottle, or $7.50 the half dozen. Mandrake Pills 25 cents.

THE COUNTRY WEDDING.

BY "CHARLIE MARINE."

Most beautiful was that mild eve
When Grace—"Our Gracie" placed her hand
In his she loved; and then when asked
If she would be a loving wife
To him who then held her right hand,
Replied—as you shall shortly hear.

The neighbors and the friends were there,
All pleased that Gracie seemed so pleased—
Remarking, too, how well she looked;
And now the nuptial rites begin.

The minister first "clears his throat,"
Thus telling all, "keep silence now;"
And then with ministerial tone,
Declares that we are now met here
To solemnize the holy rite
Of matrimony;

Then invokes
The blessing of the Father God,
Who placed His creatures in the world
Not solely for His glory, but
For their own happiness and good.

He also prays that we may have
The loving care and favor of
The Savior Christ, who dignified
The marriage-rite in Cana, once,
With His own presence, great, divine;

And that the Holy Spirit, too,
Would sanctify all hearts and make
This union firm forevermore,
Cemented by the holy ties
Of purest, holiest, lasting love.

Thus having prayed, he speaks, and says:
"If there is any one now here
Who knows a reason—any cause—
Why John and Grace may not be joined
In wedlock's bonds, now let him speak,
Or ever after hold his peace."
A pause—and silence is reply.

Then, turning to the bridegroom, says,
"Do you, in presence of your God,
And all these present witnesses,
Take her whose hand you hold, to be Your lawful, married wife?" And do
You promise you'll support,
Protect, love, cherish and defend
Her while you live?"

"I do," said John,
In hearty, manly voice.

"Do you,
(Now turning to the bride, he said)
Take him whose hand you hold, to be
You lawful husband? And do you
In presence of a Holy God
And all these living witnesses,
Now promise that you'll be to him
A loving, true, obedient wife?"
"I do," was her low, sweet reply.

This done, the minister then said,
"According to God's ordinance,
I do pronounce you husband—wife;
Whom, therefore, God hath joined in one,
Let not man put asunder."

Then
The benediction was pronounced,
And Gracie was "our Grace" no more.

U. S. M. Barracks, Portsmouth,
July 30, 1867.

LAW OR NO LAW.—A soldier of the 10th Georgia regiment was court-martialed for what he called "playing quarterminster"—that is, for taking things without paying for them. His punishment, among other things, consisted in marching time for an hour each day on the head of a barrel.—While he was thus engaged one day, a comrade passed by and accosted him with "Joe, what are you marking time there for?" Joe answered, as well as the difficulty of keeping his balance would allow, "Don't know, 'zackly, believe it's some foolishness 'boat some chickens."

Comrade—"Well, they have no right to make you do that kind of a thing. There's no law for it."

Joe—"Don't care whether there's any law for it or not, I'se a doin' it."

THE SIGNS OF THE TIMES.—A loyal paper says,—"the freedmen of Tennessee knew that the Republican party was the only party they dared trust, and cast their votes solidly for the Republican candidates. This unanimity is prophetic. If the blacks are Radical in Tennessee, there can be no fear that they will be Conservative in Louisiana or South Carolina.

Tennessee, Andrew Johnson's own State, has utterly repudiated his policy, and declared that not upon his plan is reconciliation possible. The new Legislature will choose the successor of Senator Patterson, and every one of the eight Congressmen chosen is a Radical. This victory is one for Amnesty, for that must be the certain result of the unity of the Republican party, North and South—the acceptance by the Rebel States of the natural results of the war.

The Republican success in Tennessee is the first great step to the restoration of civil government; it solves the problem of reconstruction. The great experiment of impartial suffrage, of equal rights, has been tried, and has succeeded; nothing remains but to work out with patience, and moderation, justice and good will, the same grand result from Virginia to Texas."

"Pray, madam, why do you name your old hen Macduff?" "Because, sir, I want her to lay on!"

"A-mews-ing.—What adventure made Dick Whittington's fortune? A purr-adventure."

— Our latest advices from Europe bring bad news of the crops. The harvest in France threatens to be much below the average, and in Portugal the vineyards, which furnish the principal support of extensive districts, are seriously affected by disease. In nearly all parts of our own country, however, the agricultural prospects, notwithstanding the wet Summer, are extremely cheering, and without a perceptible drain upon our own store we can make up the deficiencies of Europe. We have taught the Old World countries the arts of war and peace, and set them many a good lesson in politics. Now—and not for the first time either—we are going to feed them. —Tribune.

C. A. RICHARDS & CO.'S
CONCENTRATED
EXTRACT OF RYE.
THE Proprietors of this popular article, finding it necessary to remove a wrong impression from the public mind regarding the real merits which they claim for it,

WOULD ONCE AGAIN ANNOUNCE
THAT
IT IS NOT
a mere dram-drinking beverage, but a TRUE, GENUINE and SCIENTIFICALLY PREPARED
MEDICINE.
It is not, as many have been led to believe, nothing but good Rye Whiskey; it is a
MEDICINAL REMEDY,
specially designed for certain useful and beneficial purposes; which any intelligent and thinking person can readily see, by reading what we now have

TO SAY ABOUT IT,
without any long, high sounding words, such as some doctors use to mystify and bewilder a patient, until he can't begin to tell what does not all him. We say, and we CHALLENGE that "EXTRACT OF RYE" is nothing but the

JUICES OF THE GRAIN
combined with a certain oily, fatty and vegetable matter, which, when taken into the system, stimulates it first to

NEW LIFE,
and a restored appetite, and then goes to make BETTER AND STRONGER.

FLESH AND BLOOD.
One can instantly see how this preparation must soothe the throat when it is inflamed, and must carry its lubricating and fattening effects to the lungs; consequently

IF IS WHAT YOU WANT,
when you have a bad cough, to cure it, when you have

CONSUMPTION OF THE LUNGS,
to heal and build them up again. So much for those troubles.
If you want an article to FEED THE SYSTEM ON, when it has become reduced by sickness or by being OVERTAXED IN ANY WAY, this medicine will

DO THE WORK.
We have, among a great many letters we have received about it, a great many positive testimonials that it has been the means of making people

GAIN FLESH AND GROW FAT.
The reason for this is the
GRAND SECRET OF THE WHOLE MATTER.
It acts as a
STIMULATING FOOD
to the body, and helps Nature
THROW OFF DISEASE.
How often, of late years, have people been terribly deceived by resorting to common whiskey for this purpose, when, if they knew it, the only advantage to be gained from the use of whiskey must originate from the little quantity of drugs of that of which Extract of Rye is entirely composed.
This, then, is the whole story. EXTRACT OF RYE will cause you to throw off disease by feeding the system with a
and will build up and restore the powers of mind and body, while you become fat and happy.
It is put up in convenient style, each bottle being contained in a paper box. It is not sold at a foolish fancy price, but offered at a reasonable cost to rich and poor.

FRANKLIN'S CREED.—Not long ago, in the house of a friend, we took a life of Franklin, different from any one we had seen before. The author, evidently a religious man, was an admirer of Franklin, and at the close of his book did ample justice to many of Franklin's valuable qualities, but seemed sad to think that he could not make him out quite a christian: yet he said, it is certain "that Franklin believed in a future state of rewards and punishments!"

This was news to us,—for in his writings we had never seen it. The author of the Life, however, referred back to Franklin's writings, in the first part of the same volume, and of course we looked back to see the philosopher's own words. Here they are:

"I never doubted the existence of a Deity; that he made the world and governed it by his providence; that the most acceptable service of God was the doing good to man; that he ought to be worshipped by prayer, adoration and thanksgiving; that our souls are immortal; and that all crimes will be punished, and virtue rewarded, either here or hereafter."

Nothing could be plainer than this brief statement, and we had often seen it,—but it surely does NOT convey the idea commonly attached to the term used by the author. It amounts to this, God is just, and his rewards and punishments are sure as his government is without limit as to time or place; but it does not postpone all judgment to the future life.

ECONOMY.—The Republican will raise no issue with the Democratic party in respect to the imperious necessity of a strict and rigid economy in regard to all public expenses and appropriations. We have a heavy debt, State and National, which must gradually be liquidated, and therefore all public expenses should be retrenched so far as practicable consistently with good faith towards the public creditors.

The total expenditures of this State for war purposes, amounted to over six millions eight hundred thousand dollars, of which over two millions were paid for bounties; and for the reimbursement to towns for aid furnished families of soldiers, over one million eight hundred and thirty-five thousand dollars. Even this large amount is small in comparison to what most the other States have paid. It speaks well for the character of the people of all the loyal States, that they have willingly submitted to such onerous taxation. But full well they knew that it was necessary to preserve our national existence.

Our national resources are inexhaustible; and were it necessary or expedient, the whole national debt might be paid off within a short period. We freely confess that we think that Congress has been too lavish in granting appropriations, in some instances at the recommendations of the heads of the Departments: Until the public debt shall be largely reduced, a rigid economy and careful scrutiny into what appropriations are required for the public good, should be the rule.

In respect to the appropriations for the current expenses of our small State, whatever is wrong we feel sure the Republicans as a party will condemn, where fairly pointed out.—Plundering the State Treasury of $20,000 for extra pay by our legislators, is a wrong, which no upright citizen not a member of the Legislature justifies. It would not be surprising that a Legislature composed of 340 members, should make other mistakes or improper appropriations, (we have little confidence in a regiment of legislators), but as the minority generally voted with the majority, or at least made no strenuous opposition, we do not see how the Democratic party can make political capital by accusing their opponents of extravagance. It appears that the appropriations this year for the current or usual State expenses, are but little in excess of what they were when the Democrats held the reins of government.

There may be errors of omission as well as commission. It appears by the report of the Bank Commissioners that eleven millions of dollars are deposited in the several Savings Banks in this State; of course, as the Governor stated, largely more than enough to pay off our whole State debt. Money in these banks is taxed three-fourths of one per cent., while the average taxation of property thro'out the State is over two per cent. Now it appears that virtually over seven millions of dollars, deposited in these banks, is exempted from a just taxation. It is said that capitalists and certain wealthy corporations deposited over two millions last year to escape a fair taxation. Why did our wise Legislature omit to discharge its duty by not imposing an equal tax upon the bank deposits? It was informed of the facts, and knew that this large exemption increased the taxes on all other taxable property.

When the Savings Banks were first established, they were intended to aid the industrious poor. Now, it seems, they are chiefly for the benefit of capitalists, in order to exempt their money from a just taxation.

The Daily Chronicle.

Portsmouth, N. H.

THURSDAY, AUGUST 8, 1867.

WASHINGTON ADVICES continue to be somewhat interesting. Never was a public officer tangled up in a worse snarl than our poor President has drawn about himself.—The Washington Democratic papers of Tuesday evening oppose Sheridan's removal; Secretary Stanton, though desired by the President to resign, says he will not do so till Congress assembles and; a question of veracity is now pending between President Johnson and Judge Holt.

☞ The registration in Louisiana figures up 113,396 votes, the blacks having a majority of 37,064 over the whites. The N. O. Crescent says that there are only six parishes in that State where there are more white voters registered than blacks. The white majority in those parishes is but 1876, while in one single parish there is an equal preponderance of black voters.

The registration in Alabama up to the first of August showed 61,765 black voters, and 41,809 whites. The total registration will probably reach about 130,000.

☞ The Middleboro' Gazette says that lodges of the "People's Liberty League," a secret organization favoring a license law, have been instituted in that town and North Bridgewater. [Their favor for the license law amounts only to this,—that they don't like the restraints of the present law; and if a license law really operated as a restraint, the same people would fight against that. For example, look at the same class of Liberty People in New York.]

SHORT AND SPICY.—President Johnson wrote as follows to Secretary Stanton, dating Aug. 5:

"Considerations of the public interest will persuade me to accept your resignation, if tendered"

Mr. S. received this beautiful note on the 6th, and promptly replied thus:

"Considerations of public interest have prevailed with me to hold this office for months past, and considerations of public interests will prevail with me to hold it till the assembling of Congress."

ITALY.—From Florence, Aug. 6, we learn that Garibaldi has come to the conclusion that, considering all the circumstances, it was best to abandon for the present the movement against Rome. The volunteers, which had began to collect from all parts of Italy, and which had invaded the Papal territory at several places, will disperse; but the movement is only delayed, not abandoned forever. Preparations for another great movement will be pursued with great activity, and Garibaldi himself expresses his firm belief in the success of the next movement.

A WRECKING SLOOP WRECKED.—On Wednesday afternoon last, the wrecking sloop Guilford, of New Bedford, which went to Nantucket to operate on the sunken bark Newton, at the south of the island, came in contact with the wreck, and sunk. Nothing was saved by the crew, save the sails and rigging.

DEATH ON THE TRACK.—Early on Monday morning Patrick McDonough was run over and killed by a freight train on the Boston & Lowell railroad, near North Billerica. The body was nearly cut in two, both arms were broken, and there were bruises about the legs. He was drunk, lying near the track Sunday night, and no doubt fell upon it afterwards.

☞ In Alabama, Gen. Pope has ordered that all suits in the civil courts against soldiers for acts performed by order of the military authorities, shall be discontinued and not hereafter entertained.

☞ The Public Spirit, a unique monthly, published by Le Grand Benedict, Troy. N. Y., is a free magazine sent postpaid to new addresses every month. Every alternate page is devoted to advertisements. Sent regularly for $1.50 a year.

☞ On Tuesday, at Washington, the cabinet meeting was slimly attended, only Messrs. Randall, Browning and Welles being present.

— Away up among the White Mountains a Reverend Doctor from Boston found a man on the shady side of fifty hoeing his living out of the barren hills. Introducing himself, he soon succeeded in exciting in the old man the Yankee propensity to ask questions, first among which was: "Were d'ye hail from?" Answering that he was from Boston, the old man of the hoe replied: "Wy, I wouldn't think ye'd like to live away off there."

— In 1856 the city of Dubuque, Iowa, borrowed one hundred thousand dollars from Corcoran & Riggs, the Washington bankers, and used the money to build school houses. They gave ten per cent. bonds and mortgaged "Central Island," then supposed to be a valuable piece of property, but now known to be worth very little.—One year's coupons were paid, but none of the principal, and now the Washington capitalists have instituted a suit for the money.

NEW HAMPSHIRE ITEMS.

—— A laundry at Amoskeag Village, in Manchester, was burnt on Tuesday evening.

—— Mr. Levi Rogers, of Jackson, committed suicide by cutting his throat with a knife on the 1st instant. He had been troubled in mind for several months about a farm he had sold.

NEW HAMPSHIRE MILITARY ENCAMPMENTS. — The Governor and Council, Adjutant General Head and the field officers of the two regiments of State volunteer militia have had a meeting in Concord to arrange for the Fall military encampments. It was decided to have the First regiment, Col. Patterson, muster near Manchester, September 17, 18 and 19, and the Second regiment, Col. Rollins, near Lake Village on October 8, 9 and 10. The militia throughout the State will be reorganized, and each of the two regiments will have fifteen companies.

THE DEAD BROUGHT TO LIFE.—An interesting event transpired on the 22d, at the house of George Chandler, a farmer, living near the Lowell road between Nashua and Tynsboro. A physician, Dr. Stroinski, stopped at Mr. C.'s house to feed his horse. On entering the house Mrs. Chandler informed the doctor that her daughter Susan died on Saturday, and that the body had been placed in a coffin for interment on Sunday. The doctor on looking into the coffin, remarked that the girl was not dead, but only in a fit. He ordered the removal of the body and placed it in a warm bath. After a long struggle, the girl was brought to life. After leaving some medicine the doctor took his departure.—On the following day—the one assigned for the funeral—the resuscitated lady voided a tape worm measuring 28 feet in length; and is doing well.

COAL DISCOVERIES. — It is reported that extensive deposits of coal have been discovered on the line of the Union Pacific Railroad, Kansas Branch, one hundred and seventy miles from Pond Creek, on the road to Alberquerque. Mr. Sanderson, proprietor of the Santa Fe Stage line, reports the veins from eleven to fifteen feet thick. It is pronounced to be a good quality of bituminous coal. A three foot vein has also been discovered twenty miles west of Fort Harker. These discoveries are believed to settle the question of fuel for the Kansas Pacific Railroad.

THE DANGER OF EXCESSIVE MUSCULAR EXERCISE is proved by the recent death of a student of Brown University, Mr. Lemuel Grosvenor Perry. A post mortem examination showed that his death was caused by an abcess resulting from inflamation of abdominal muscles, brought on by excessive exercise at the time of the university match game of ball between the students of Harvard and Brown, some two weeks since, in which he engaged with great ardor. He had been a healthy and vigorous young man, but was taken sick after engaging in the game, and survived only a few days.

RUM MONEY.— In even dollars the amount of money received since the first of last June, in the Superior Criminal Court, in consequence of liquor prosecution, is $58,000.—Boston Herald.

— The colored population of New York city seventeen years ago was 16,000. It is now but 10,000.

— The negroes who voted the Radical ticket in the late Tennessee election are being discharged in great numbers by their conservative employers. Judge Lawrence has been appointed by Gen. Carlin to take charge of all thus discharged; but finds it almost impossible to procure labor for them.

—Rev. James M. Simms of Savannah, a brother of Thomas Simms, the fugitive slave who was sent back to that city a few years ago—is now in Boston, purchasing printing materials, with a design of establishing a weekly political paper on his return home.

— The Democracy of Dayton, Ohio, celebrated the birthday of Vallandigham at a grove near that city a few days since. Speeches were made by Mr. Vallandigham and others. There was also "music and dancing," and the affair closed with a general melee, in which several were injured badly and one fatally.

— Correspondence from Cherbourg, France, states that Admiral Farragut is to proceed to St. Petersburg in the flagship Franklin, accompanied by screw steamer Ticonderoga, side-wheel steamer Frolic, and perhaps screw steamer Canandaigua, although with regard to the latter it is yet doubtful whether she will accompany the Admiral's squadron.

— The following is the full Democratic State ticket which was voted for in Kentucky on Monday, and elected by a large majority: For Governor, John L. Helm; Lieutenant Governor, John W. Stevenson; Attorney General, John Rodman; Auditor, D. Howard Smith; Treasurer, James W. Tate. The Republican ticket was headed by Col. Sidney M. Barnes, and the Union Democratic ticket by William B. Kinkead.

Correspondence of the Chronicle.

PORTLAND, Aug. 6.

Heigh! ho! hum! Isn't this weather dog-dayish enough? Every one whose purse the feet of the elephant has not crushed and whose time is not restricted, is either off or getting ready to be off to the mountains, the seaside or the country. Editors, worthy creatures, must stick to type, copy and exchanges, snatching a few hours here and there, now and then from "life's busy cares," to visit some resort, only to turn homeward just as they get in the midst of comfort, ease and enjoyment. But their reward is coming—it does come—for what would the rushing world of to-day do without a newspaper? What a satisfaction in being the medium of information, knowledge and education!

Well, Sancho, this is moralising, and in dog-days, too. Presto—to news. The Corporators of the Portland & Ogdensburg Road met last Saturday evening to organise in a preliminary manner. Committees were appointed to open subscription books for stock, to examine surveys, to call a public meeting, &c. The Stock Committee are all solid men of Portland. Things are working, and the P. & O. Road will be built, notwithstanding the idea in New Hampshire, that it is all talk for effect. Our friends clear up in the Granite State will wake up some fine morning and ask, "Say, what is that 'ere curious, winding line up through that notch, eh?" Oh, nothing, only a railroad, that's all." "Show! you don't say so, do ye? Who'd 'a thought it?"

Considerable newspaper itemizing has been given to the unsafe oils that are in the market, and several explosions have been noted from the poor stuff sold. The press not knowing perhaps the exact state of the case, call all such explosive oil, Kerosene. By your leave, as a matter of justice to the Portland Kerosene Oil Co., allow me to correct an erroneous impression, and say that the word "Kerosene" is a trade mark, and refers exclusively to the manufacture of from Coal and not from Petroleum. Petroleum Oil and Kerosene Oil are as different as night from day, darkness from light, and whichever factor of oil uses the word "Kerosene" as a brand, except those who have obtianed it from its English patentee, is liable to prosecution. The Portland Kerosene Oil Company are the only makers of kerosene in the country, except, perhaps one concern out West, whose oil does not reach so far eastward.

The U. S. and Massachusetts laws require 110 as the fire test, and the Maine law 120; but the Portland oil to-day is being made standing 146, and is as handsome an illuminating article as one ever set eyes upon. It is clear, without smell, safe, lasts longer and is every way warranted to stand 135. It sells from 15 to 20 cents more a gallon than petroleum—as silk sells for more than cotton cloth. This much to correct an erring impression, too prevalent.

The Eons of Portland won the championship of the State at the base ball tournament which closed yesterday. They contested the honor with the Cushnocs of Augusta. Playing was nothing extra, score 48 to 30. The Athletics, who were defeated by the Eons in a spirited contest last Thursday, (game 27 to 36), have challenged the Eons, and the match will come off within the next 15 days, when the finest game ever played here is expected. Much interest is felt as to the result.

The Boston papers had it that Rev. Augustus Woodbury of Providence, R. I., had received a call from the First Parish (Unitarian) here. It is a mistake; no such call being given. The First Parish are still without a Pastor, and no one has as yet been decided upon.

The Portland, Saco & Portsmouth Road are doing a fine business, as the Grand Trunk by its close policy, is daily making foes, and parties here had rather freight goods from the West over the P. S. & P. than by the G. T. The Company are erecting new machine shops at Cape Elizabeth, 300 by 60 feet; a round house for 16 engines, 146 feet in diameter: a blacksmith shop, 37 by 60 feet, with office and boiler house for steam engine. The walls of the buildings will be 18 feet high, with iron truss roof. Work will begin this week. En passant, the P. S. & P. are fortunate in having so enterprising a Superintendent as Francis Chase, and we have noticed that the recent heavy travel has kept all hands busy, and among others the Conductors. No road has better ones. SANCHO.

MONSTER TURTLE.—A son of Deacon Knowles, of Hampton, recently discovered a huge turtle in a cornfield near Hampton Beach, which, he says, was nearly as large as the fore wheel of a wagon. The rows of corn in the field are planted three feet apart, and the turtle, when travelling in the centre, broke down the corn on each side. The boy tried to capture him, but was unable, so he started home for assistance, but too late. His turtleship was tracked to the water, where he was safe from pursuit.

DON'T READ THIS! For it tells you truly that Pyle's Saleratus is absolutely pure, and the only genuine Saleratus to be found. Ask for Pyle's Saleratus, and take no other. His name is on every package. 14

WHITE WITNESSES.—The mouth of the man who purifies his teeth with SOZODONT is a witness box, and every time he opens it two rows of gleaming witnesses testify to its beautifying properties. 19

VINUM BONUM SANGUINEM FACIT.—Speer's Sambuci Wine makes good blood and imparts new life and tone to the whole system. Excellent for kidney affections, and the best tonic for ladies, weakly persons and invalids. Sold by druggists.

Would you have sweet and healthy Bread, Biscuit, Cakes and Puddings? Use Herrick Allen's Gold Medal Saleratus. It takes less in quantity, will not make your bread or biscuit yellow. Is a sure preventive to the decay of teeth, is perfectly healthy, and makes one-fifth more bread and biscuit from a barrel of flour. Never use soda if you can procure this article. Try it. Most all good Grocers sell it. 48

— Two thousand liquor stores have been licensed at Chicago within the last two weeks.

— James Noble, who visited Nashville last week, dreamed on Monday night that his father had been killed by an assassin.—Since then he has received intelligence that his father was murdered on that night.

BREAD

MIXING and KNEADING MACHINES.

One of the Most DESIRABLE and VALUABLE Inventions of the Age.

For sale by

B. A. STEVENS,

46 Market Street, Portsmouth, N. H.

The attention of Housekeepers, Proprietors of Hotels and Restaurants, and Bakers of Bread and Pastry is invited to the following statement of the advantages of the Bread Mixers and Kneaders

FIRST.—The Machine is simple in construction, will not get out of order, and is thoroughly adapted to the purposes for which it was intended, the kneading and mixing of bread. It is the only machine ever invented for these purposes, and has given entire satisfaction wherever used. It is also compact and ornamental and will last for years.

SECOND.—It both mixes and kneads the bread by the same action. The flour, water and other ingredients necessary for bread, are put into the pan (which is a part of the machine) at once, and then, by the simple action of turning a crank for a few moments, becomes thoroughly kneaded dough.

THIRD.—It mixes the flour and other ingredients, stirring them together and removing all the lumps, more effectually and quickly than can be done by hand.

FOURTH.—It kneads the dough evenly and uniformly. The lightness of bread depends upon its being thoroughly kneaded and mixed with air or "aerated." In this machine every particle of dough is caught up and brought under the direct action of the rollers, thus becoming as perfectly kneaded as can be done by the most skilful of experienced professional bakers. It will make therefore the lightest kind of dough suitable for French rolls or any other kind of bread. See certificates.

FIFTH.—It saves a great amount of labor. Every lady knows that much the most labor of half an hour to kneed dough by hand so that it shall make good light bread. By simply turning the crank, which is child can turn, the dough in this machine is mixed and kneaded in less than ten minutes

SIXTH.—It has the advantage of perfect cleanliness. From first to last the dough is not touched by the flour or other ingredients. The perspiration and other impurities of the hands and arms need no longer constitute an ingredient of the bread. Ladies will understand this when they remember that kneading the dough makes the hands white and clean.

SEVENTH.—The machine cleans itself, scraping off from itself the particles of dough.

EIGHTH.—The machine is made of different sizes, from one suitable for a small family to the large machine to be run by steam or horse power, which will mix and kneed from one to three barrels of flour at once.

NINTH.—Any one knowing the right proportions of the different ingredients, can with these machines make the lightest and best of bread, since the dough requires no manipulation.

TENTH.—It can be used for mixing cake and pastry, and is fast for all other purposes, domestic or otherwise, where mixing is required.

The principal advantages, however, are:

The Great Saving of Labor.

Cleanliness.

Certainty of always having Good Bread, which even the most skilful often fail in making.

The merits and cheapness of the machine are enough to recommend it to general use and cause its introduction into every family.

It meets a want that has long been felt, and lightens a part of household labor that has always been most severe. While thousands of other labor-saving improvements are in use, bread is kneaded in the old laborious way in which it has been done for a thousand years, with great loss of time, strength and economy; for millions of dollars are annually lost by making bad and worthless bread. The machine will pay for itself in a short time by the saving of flour.

The Ladies are respectfully invited to call and see the machine at the store of the subscriber, 46 Market street, where we shall be glad to show them to any one, whether they propose to purchase or not. au6 E. A. STEVENS.

WHAT EVERY ONE WANTS.

A good, reliable medicine that will be on hand when required, and never fails when called on.—That is now to be obtained in Dr. Tobias' Celebrated Venetian Liniment. Many thousands call it the Wonder of the Age, as it does all that is represented and more. It cures Diarrhœa, Dysentery, Colic, Spasms, Vomiting, Croup, and Seasickness as surely as it is used, and is perfectly innocent to take internally, even in double the quantity named in the directions: and as an external remedy for Chronic Rheumatism, Cuts, Bruises, Old Sores, Mumps, Toothache, Headache, Sore Throat, Sprains, Insect Stings, Pains in the Back, Chest and Limbs, thousands have testified to, and their confidence can be seen at Dr. Tobias' depot, 56 Cortlandt street, New York. Hundreds of physicians use it in their practice. It has been introduced since 1847, and hundreds who now have it in their house, say they would not be without it even if it was $10 per bottle.—Every dose is signed Dr Tobias' himself, and can be depended on. Only 50cts. and $1 per bottle. Sold by Druggists. Depot 56 Cortlandt street, New York. 3y8dawlm

DR. SCHENCK'S NEW OFFICE.

☞ DR. J. H. SCHENCK, of Philadelphia, has opened an office on second floor of No. 25 HANOVER STREET, Boston, where he will be professionally every WEDNESDAY, from 9 to 3. Every person complaining with Consumption or any disease leading to it, is invited to call on him. He gives advice free, but for a thorough examination with his Respirometer the charge is five dollars.

Dr. Schenck can explain to patients very correctly the stage of their disease, and how to use his medicines, namely, his Pulmonic Syrup, Seaweed Tonic, and Mandrake Pills, without the use of the Respirometer; but by it he can tell exactly how far the lungs are gone, and what part; also whether it is Tuberculous, Pulmonary Bronchial or Dyspeptic Consumption, or whether it is merely an irritated throat and catarrh, or from Liver Complaint

His medicines have full directions, so any one can take them without seeing him, but if they live near by and are well enough, it is best to see him. All three of his medicines are required in nearly every case of lung disease, for it is impossible to cure Consumption unless the stomach and liver is kept in perfect order. To get lungs in a healthy condition the stomach must be cleansed, and an appetite for good rich food created, so as to make good blood, before the lungs will begin to heal; then the chills and night sweats will stop, and the expectoration become free and easy.

He Keeps a full supply of medicines at his rooms, which can be had at all times.

Price of the Pulmonic Syrup and Seaweed Tonic, each $1.50 per bottle, or $7.50 the half dozen. Mandrake Pills 25 cents a box.

POLICE COURT, Aug. 7.—Giles Bowlow, Patrick Donelly, Samuel D. Noyes, Michael Hughes and James W. Smith, all "transient persons," were arraigned for an aggravated assault upon William A. Lewis, and with the exception of Donelly, were severally ordered to pay a fine of $10 and $2.23 costs.

The same quintet, for an aggravated assault upon Joseph C. Remick, were severally ordered to pay $10 fine and $2.23 costs, with the exception of Donelly, in whose case a nol. pros. was entered.

It appears that on Monday night, while Lewis and Remick were crossing Portsmouth Bridge in a team, the accused, (who are a hard looking crowd,) set upon them and beat them severely; it is supposed with the intention to rob them;—but they now find that having gone out to shear, they have returned shorn.

Andrew J. Wilson, a minor, charged with habitual truancy, was sentenced to the Almshouse for thirty days and ordered to pay $4.80 costs.

James Fields, a laborer, found drunk on Congress street, was sentenced to labor in the fields at the House of Correction for thirty days, and to pay $3.86 costs.

David McClellan, drunk, fined $3 and $3.86 costs.

Nathaniel Warren, a sailor, pleaded guilty to an assault upon Josiah S. Trefethen, and was fined $3 and $3.86 costs.—This was in a difficulty aboard a schooner, where two men had a dispute with the captain about their pay, resulting in an attack upon that officer, and also in the stabbing of John Watson, employed as cook. The other offender was penned up on Noble's Island, but just as the officers felt sure of securing their man, they saw him rowing up the river in a boat he had stolen.

Still another "common drunk" was mulcted of "6.86," but is modest as to the appearance of his name in print.

PRESENTATION.—Lieut. Geo. F. Hunting, of the 3d U. S. Artillery, who has been stationed at Fort Constitution for the two years last past, and who has recently been transferred to Hilton Head, S. S., (at his own request,) was presented on Tuesday evening with a magnificent silver Pitcher, Goblet and Tray, by his friends in this city. The presentation took place at the Rockingham House. Senator Stevens presented the articles in a neat speech, and was very prettily and feelingly replied to by Lieut. Hunting. Among those present were Gov. Goodwin, Hon. J. H. Bailey, Major Hackett, Aaron H. Hill, and others of our prominent citizens. Lieut. Hunting left for Hilton Head with his family on Wednesday.—The articles were furnished from Bodge's jewelry establishment.

Communication.

"FOUL-OUT" (sider).—Friend Miller,—Your intensely original and virtuously indignant correspondent "Trader," who growls so fiercely because others choose to play base ball and run their risk of injury, is evidently one of those liberal sort of people who think they buy a boy, soul and all, by paying so much a week for his services. The conversation which he pretends to hold with his clerk on the return of the latter from the base ball field, was gotten up elsewhere by some jocose individual, and published in the Boston papers last week. While we do not wish to countenance any neglect of business on the part of clerks, it may as well be impressed upon the minds of employers that Young America needs fresh air and healthy exercise all the more after being confined in stores a large part of the day.

"Too much of a good thing" in the way of sedentary occupation is quite liable to develope (?) "Young America into" the same class of "weak sisters" that some of their employers have evidently joined. The outcry against the "base ball disease" but develops the fact that the fathers have been wofully demoralized by too close application to business; and "Trader" is so completely obfuscated that in one breath he states that his clerks are constantly interrupted by calls from some of the "club," while waiting on customers during business hours, and in the next breath declares business to be so dull that it requires the attention of "our clerks."

"The exhausted state of the young men" after their return, is another evidence that the exercise is needed to make them stronger and more capable of enduring fatigue; thereby laying the foundation for a robust constitution. In our way of thinking, a healthy constitution is far preferable to the best business education, and should be first thought of.

The game of base ball is none the less "noble" and "glorious," because such dyspeptics as "Trader" do not give it their support. The public press of the country almost unanimously approve and encourage all out door sports, and base ball especially, as tending to increase the perseverance and pluck, as well as improve the health of those who take part in the exercise. By all means let the boys, great and small, play base ball; let their employers, when convenient, give them an hour a day for out door sports, rather than in the evening, when they cannot get the necessary exercise. Base ball playing is healthy and invigorating, and though accidents happen sometimes, (and are sure to be chronicled), those who are injured do not abate their enthusiasm, knowing that the sport is of an entirely different character from that derived from playing cards, guzzling wine and punching billiard balls. SENIOR B. B. P.

GOLD, Wednesday, 140 1 8.

— In addition to the removals made by Gen. Sheridan in the municipal government of New Orleans, advices state that he had superseded all the civil officers at several of the interior towns of Louisiana.

— The white and colored Republicans in Petersburg, Va., have agreed to divide the municipal offices, the white men to have every position above the clerkship of the markets— the colored men taking the public appointments, &c.

— The city of Rockland, Me., unanimously voted to subscribe for one hundred thousand dollars in stock, and to loan the city's credit for four hundred thousand dollars, in aid of the Knox and Lincoln Railroad.

— The Selma (Alabama) Times says of the corn crop: "From a gentleman who has recently traveled over the greater portion of Middle Alabama, we learn that the corn crop is magnificent, the entire country looks like a land of promise, and there is no doubt that the corn crop this year will be one of the finest ever raised in Alabama."

— The mail advices from our London Bureau confirm the speculations we have all along expressed in reference to the Cable news which came at times indefinitely. The war stories seem to be intended for Wall-st. and the markets. We think Prussia has had enough of war, and France finds her Mexican failure as much as the bedizened Rouher can explain, without adding to his burdens an expensive contest in Germany—surging most probably over the borders of France.—Tribune.
